AN ACT PROVIDING THAT WHENEVER A VEHICLE IS ESTABLISHED TO HAVE BEEN IN VIOLATION OF THE LAW PROHIBITING THE PASSING OF A STOPPED SCHOOL BUS, THE REGISTERED OWNER OF THE VEHICLE IS PRIMA FACIE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE VIOLATION; PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR THE VIOLATION; AMENDING SECTION 61-8-351, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-8-351, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-351. Meeting or passing school bus — identification of violator — penalty. (1) The driver of a vehicle upon a highway or street either inside or outside the corporate limits of any city or town upon meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which has stopped on the highway or street for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children shall stop the vehicle not less than 10 feet before reaching such school bus when there is in operation on said bus a visual flashing red signal as specified in 61-9-402 and said driver shall not proceed until the children have entered the school bus or have alighted and reached the side of the highway or street on which they live and until such school bus resumes motion or the driver has signaled traffic to proceed. In addition the driver of a vehicle must slow and proceed with caution when meeting or overtaking from either direction any school bus which is preparing to stop on the highway or street for the purpose of receiving or discharging any school children as indicated by flashing amber lights as specified in 61-9-402.

(2) Every bus used for the transportation of school children shall bear upon the front and rear thereof plainly visible signs containing the words "SCHOOL BUS" in letters not less than 8 inches in height, and in addition shall be equipped with visual signals meeting the requirements of 61-9-402. Amber flashing lights shall be actuated by the driver approximately 150 feet in cities and approximately 500 feet in other areas before the bus is stopped to receive or discharge school children on the highway or street. Red lights shall be actuated by the driver of said school bus whenever but only whenever such vehicle is stopped on the highway or street whether inside or outside the corporate limits of any city or town for the purpose of receiving or discharging school children. However, a school district board of trustees may, in its discretion, adopt a policy prohibiting the operation of amber or red lights when a bus is stopped at the school site for purposes of receiving or discharging school children and such receipt or discharge does not involve street crossing by the children; and such lights may not be operated in violation of such a policy.

(3) When a school bus is being operated upon a highway for purposes other than the actual transportation of children either to or from school all markings thereon indicating "SCHOOL BUS" shall be covered or concealed.

(4) The driver of a vehicle upon a highway with separate roadways need not stop upon meeting or passing a school bus which is on a different roadway or when upon a controlled-access highway and the school bus is stopped in a loading zone which is a part of or adjacent to such highway and where pedestrians are not permitted to cross the roadway.

(5) Whenever a vehicle is established to have been in violation of subsection (1) and the identity of the driver of said vehicle cannot be established, the person in whose name the vehicle is registered is prima facie the driver of the vehicle at the time of the alleged violation.

(6) Violation of subsection (1) is punishable upon conviction by a fine of not more than $500."

Section 1. Section 37-15-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-15-307. Application and examination fee — license fee — registration fee. The amount of fees prescribed in connection with a license as a speech pathologist or audiologist and with registration as a speech pathology aide or audiology aide shall be determined by the board each year based on costs and predicted expenditures."

Section 2. Section 37-15-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-15-308. Renewal. (1) Each licensed speech pathologist or audiologist shall on or before October 31 of each year pay to the board the fee for the renewal of his license.

(3) Renewal may be made at any time during the 60 days prior to the expiration date by application therefor.

(4) Failure on the part of any licensed person to pay the renewal fee by the expiration date does not deprive him of the right to renew his license, but the fee shall be increased 10% for each month that the payment of the renewal fee is delayed after the expiration date. The maximum fee for delayed renewal shall not exceed twice the normal renewal fee.

(5) Application for renewal following a lapse of 1 year or more shall be subject to review by the board, and the applicant may be requested to complete an examination successfully if the board so determines.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 673 1985

(7) A license revoked on disciplinary grounds is subject to expiration, and it may not be renewed. If it is reinstated after its expiration, the licensee, as a condition of reinstatement, shall pay a reinstatement fee in an amount equal to the renewal fee in effect on the last preceding regular renewal date before the date on which it is reinstated plus the delinquency fee, if any, accrued at the time of its revocation.

(8) A person who fails to renew his license within the 4 years after its expiration may not renew it, and it may not be restored, reissued, or reinstated thereafter; but such a person may reapply for and obtain a new license if he meets the requirements of this chapter."

Section 3. Section 37-15-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-15-312. Department to publish list of licensees and registrants. Each year the department shall publish a list of all persons licensed and registered under this chapter, containing their names and addresses and such other information as the board considers advisable. CHAPTER NO. 369

[HB 228]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE PREPARATION AND IMPLEMENTATION OF A DECLARATION INSTRUCTING AN ADULT'S PHYSICIAN TO WITHHOLD OR WITHDRAW LIFE-SUSTAINING PROCEDURES IF THE PERSON IS IN A TERMINAL CONDITION AND IS UNABLE TO PARTICIPATE IN MEDICAL TREATMENT DECISIONS; PROVIDING METHODS FOR REVOCATION OF THE DECLARATION; LIMITING THE LIABILITY OF PHYSICIANS AND HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS WHO IMPLEMENT THE DECLARATION; AND ESTABLISHING CRIMINAL PENALTIES FOR FAILING TO COMPLY WITH A DECLARATION AND FOR OTHER RELATED VIOLATIONS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1 through 11] may be cited as the "Montana Living Will Act".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [this act], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Attending physician" means the physician selected by or assigned to the patient, who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.

(2) "Declaration" means a document executed in accordance with the requirements of [section 3].

(3) "Health care provider" means a person who is licensed or otherwise authorized by the law of this state to administer health care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a profession.

(4) "Life-sustaining procedure" means any medical procedure or intervention that, when administered to a qualified patient, will serve only to prolong the dying process.

(5) "Physician" means a person licensed under Title 37, chapter 3, to practice medicine in this state.

(6) "Qualified patient" means a patient who has executed a declaration in accordance with [this act] and who has been determined by the attending physician to be in a terminal condition.

(7) "Terminal condition" means an incurable or irreversible condition that, without the administration of life-sustaining procedures, will, in the opinion of the attending physician, result in death within a relatively short time.

Section 3. Declaration relating to use of life-sustaining procedures. (1) Any competent adult may execute a declaration at any time directing that life-sustaining procedures be withheld or withdrawn. However, the declaration is effective only if the declarant's condition is determined to be terminal and the declarant is not able to make treatment decisions. The declaration must be signed by the declarant, or another at the declarant's direction, in the presence of two witnesses. A physician or health care provider may presume, in the absence of actual notice to the contrary, that the declaration complies with [this act] and is valid.

(2) It is the responsibility of the declarant to notify his physician of the declaration. A physician or other health care provider who is provided a copy of the declaration shall make it a part of the declarant's medical records.

(3) A declaration may, but need not, be in the following form:

DECLARATION

If I should have an incurable or irreversible condition that will cause my death within a relatively short time, it is my desire that my life not be prolonged by administration of life-sustaining procedures. If my condition is terminal and I am unable to participate in decisions regarding my medical treatment, I direct my attending physician to withhold or withdraw procedures that merely prolong the dying process and are not necessary to my comfort or freedom from pain. It is my intention that this declaration shall be valid until revoked by me.

Signed this_____day of_____, _____.

Signature_____
City, County, and State of Residence_____

The declarant is known to me and voluntarily signed this document in my presence.

Witness_____

Section 4. Revocation of declaration. (1) A declaration may be revoked at any time and in any manner by which the declarant is able to communicate his intent to revoke, without regard to mental or physical condition. A revocation is effective only as to the attending physician or any health care provider acting under the guidance of that physician upon communication to the physician or health care provider by the declarant or by another to whom the revocation was communicated.

(2) The attending physician or health care provider shall make the revocation a part of the declarant's medical record.

Section 5. Recording determination of terminal condition and content of declaration. When an attending physician who has been notified of the existence and content of a declaration determines that the declarant is in a terminal condition, the physician shall record that determination and the content of the declaration in the declarant's medical record.

Section 6. Treatment of qualified patients. (1) A qualified patient has the right to make decisions regarding use of life-sustaining procedures if the patient is able to do so. If a qualified patient is not able to make such decisions, the declaration governs decisions regarding use of life-sustaining procedures.

(2) [This act] does not prohibit the application of any medical procedure or intervention, including the provision of nutrition and hydration, considered necessary to provide comfort care or to alleviate pain.

(3) The declaration of a qualified patient known to the attending physician to be pregnant must be given no effect if it is probable that the fetus could develop to the point of live birth with continued application of life-sustaining procedures.

Section 7. Transfer of patients. (1) An attending physician who is unwilling to comply with the requirements of [section 5] or who is unwilling to comply with the declaration of a qualified patient in accordance with [section 6] shall take all reasonable steps to transfer the declarant to another physician.

(2) If the policies of a health care facility preclude compliance with the declaration of a qualified patient under [this act], that facility shall take all reasonable steps to transfer the patient to a facility in which the provisions of [this act] can be carried out.

Section 8. Immunities. (1) In the absence of actual notice of the revocation of a declaration, the following, while acting in accordance with the requirements of [this act], are not subject to civil or criminal liability or guilty of unprofessional conduct:

(a) a physician who causes the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from a qualified patient;

(b) a person who participates in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures under the direction or with the authorization of a physician;

(c) the health care facility in which the withholding or withdrawal occurs.

(2) A physician is not subject to civil or criminal liability for actions under [this act] that are in accord with reasonable medical standards.

Section 9. Penalties. (1) A physician who willfully fails to transfer in accordance with [section 7] is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(2) A physician who willfully fails to record the determination of terminal condition in accordance with [section 5] is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(3) A person who purposely conceals, cancels, defaces, or obliterates the declaration of another without the declarant's consent or who falsifies or forges a revocation of the declaration of another is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 677 1985

(4) A person who falsifies or forges the declaration of another or purposely conceals or withholds personal knowledge of a revocation as provided in [section 4], with the intent to cause a withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

Section 10. Reservations on effect of [act]. (1) Death resulting from the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures pursuant to a declaration and in accordance with [this act] is not, for any purpose, a suicide or homicide.

(2) The making of a declaration pursuant to [section 3] does not affect in any manner the sale, procurement, or issuance of any policy of life insurance, nor does it modify the terms of an existing policy of life insurance. No policy of life insurance is legally impaired or invalidated in any manner by the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures from an insured qualified patient, notwithstanding any term of the policy to the contrary.

(3) No physician, health care facility, or other health care provider and no health care service plan, insurer issuing disability insurance, self-insured employee welfare benefit plan, or nonprofit hospital plan may require any person to execute a declaration as a condition for being insured for or receiving health care services.

(4) [This act] creates no presumption concerning the intention of an individual who has not executed a declaration with respect to the use, withholding, or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures in the event of a terminal condition.

(5) Nothing in [this act] increases or decreases the right of a patient to make decisions regarding use of life-sustaining procedures if the patient is able to do so or impairs or supersedes any right or responsibility that any person has to effect the withholding or withdrawal of medical care in any lawful manner. In that respect, the provisions of [this act] are cumulative.

(6) [This act] does not authorize or approve mercy killing.

Section 11. Recognition of declarations executed in other states. A declaration executed in a manner substantially similar to [section 3] in another state and in compliance with the law of that state is effective for purposes of [this act].

Section 12. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Approved April 8, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 371

[HB 284]

AN ACT MAKING THE UNEMPLOYMENT TRUST FUND SOLVENT; INCREASING THE TAX ON EMPLOYERS; CHANGING THE METHOD OF COMPUTING THE EXPERIENCE RATING; CHANGING BENEFIT AMOUNTS; PROVIDING FOR DISQUALIFICATION IF AN EMPLOYEE LEAVES WORK WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE ATTRIBUTABLE TO HIS EMPLOYMENT; AMENDING SECTIONS 39-51-1108, 39-51-1213, 39-51-1215, 39-51-1218, 39-51-2104, 39-51-2201, AND 39-51-2302, MCA; PROVIDING THAT CERTAIN SECTIONS OF THE ACT ARE RETROACTIVE; AND PROVIDING EFFECTIVE DATES AND A TERMINATION DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Surtax to pay federal advances. The department shall for each calendar year determine the rate of a surtax to be charged during that year to all employers. The rate of the surtax must be based on federal advances that will or have become due in that calendar year. The surtax applies to each employer's total wages paid during that calendar year. The surtax rate for any calendar year may not be more than 0.3% of total wages paid during that calendar year. The surtax must be paid in the same manner as regular contributions.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 679 1985

Section 2. Section 39-51-1108, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1108. Amount of wages per employee subject to contribution. (1) Payment of contributions shall apply only to wages paid up to and including the amount specified in this section by an employer to an employee with respect to employment.

(2) The taxable wage base for each year is the greater of 80% of the average annual wage as determined under 39-51-2201 (rounded to the nearest $100) during the calendar year immediately preceding the most recently completed calendar year, or the amount of taxable wage base specified in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act."

Section 3. Section 39-51-1213, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1213. Classification of employers for experience rating purposes. (1) The department shall for each calendar year classify employers in accordance with their actual experience in the payment of contributions and with respect to benefits charged against their accounts, with contribution rates reflecting benefit experience. Each employer's rate for a calendar year shall be determined on the basis of his record as of October 1 of the preceding calendar year.

(2) In making the classification, each eligible and deficit employer's contribution rate is determined in the manner set forth below:

(a) Each employer is given an "experience factor" which is contributions paid since October 1, 1981, minus benefits charged on each employer's account since October 1, 1981, divided by his average annual taxable payroll rounded to the next lower dollar amount for the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding the computation date. The computation of the "experience factor" shall be to six decimal places.

(b) Schedules shall be prepared listing all eligible and deficit employers in inverse numerical order of their experience factors. There shall be listed on such schedules for each employer in addition to the experience factor:

(i) the amount of his taxable payroll for the fiscal year ending on the computation date; and

(ii) the cumulative total consisting of the sum of the employer's taxable payroll for the fiscal year ending on the computation date and the corresponding taxable payrolls for all other employers preceding him on the schedules.

(3) The cumulative taxable payroll amounts listed on the schedules provided for in 39-51-1218 shall be segregated into groups that will yield approximately the average tax rate according to the tax schedule assigned for that particular taxable year. Each group shall be identified by the rate class number listed in the table which represents the percentage limits of each group. Each employer on the schedules is assigned that contribution rate opposite his rate class for the tax schedule in effect for the taxable year.

(4) (a) If the grouping of rate classes requires the inclusion of exactly one-half of an employer's taxable payroll, the employer is assigned the lower of the two rates designated for the two classes in which the halves of his taxable payroll are so required.

(b) If the group of rate classes requires the inclusion of a portion other than exactly one-half of an employer's taxable payroll, the employer is assigned the rate designated for the class in which the greater part of his taxable payroll is so required.

(c) If one or more employers on the schedules have experience factors identical to that of the last employer included in a particular rate class, all such employers are included in and assigned the contribution rate specified for such class, notwithstanding the provisions of 39-51-1214.

(5) If the taxable payroll amount or the experience factor or both such taxable payroll amount and experience factor of any eligible or deficit employer listed on the schedules is changed, the employer is placed in that position on the schedules which he would have occupied had his taxable payroll amount or experience factor as changed been used in determining his position in the first instance, but such change does not affect the position or rate classification of any other employer listed on the schedules and does not affect the rate determination for previous years."

Section 4. Section 39-51-1215, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1215. Maintenance of experience rating records. An experience rating record shall be maintained for each covered employer. The record is credited with all contributions which the covered employer has paid since October 1, 1981. The record is also charged with the amount of benefits paid which are chargeable to the covered employer's account since October 1, 1981. Nothing in this section grants any covered employer or individual in his service a priority with respect to any claim or right because of amounts paid by the covered employer into the employment security fund."

Section 5. Section 39-51-1218, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1218. Rate schedules.

The term of office of an elected member of the county park district commission is 4 years, except that a simple majority of the members of the first elected board shall serve terms of 2 years, with a minority of the board serving terms of 4 years. The members serving 2-year terms must be selected by lot.

(6) A vacancy in the office of a member must be filled by appointment by the remaining members of the commission. The term of the appointed member expires upon the election and qualification of an elected successor or upon the election of a member to fill the unexpired term of the vacant office. The election must be held at the next scheduled school election.

Section 8. Compensation of members of county park district commission. Members of a county park district commission serve without compensation.

Section 9. Powers of county park district commission. A county park district commission has all powers necessary for the betterment, operation, maintenance, and administration of park and recreation land within the territory of the district. In the exercise of this general grant of powers, the county park district commission may:

(1) employ or contract with administrative, professional, and other personnel necessary for the operation of the district;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 696 1985

(2) lease, purchase, or contract for the purchase of personal property, including property which after purchase constitutes a fixture on real property;

(3) lease, purchase, or contract for the purchase of buildings and facilities on lands controlled by the district and equip, operate, and maintain such buildings and facilities;

(4) adopt by resolution rules for the operation and administration of all parks and recreational facilities under its control;

(5) impose by resolution and collect charges for such services and facilities provided by the district as the commission considers necessary for the prudent operation of the district;

(6) establish a property tax mill levy for the operation of the district as provided in [section 10];

(7) enter into agreements with any public or private entity or person for the operation of parks or recreational areas either by the district on behalf of the landowner or by another entity on behalf of the district;

(8) with the concurrence of the county governing body, accept donations of land or recreational-type easements on land within the district for park or recreational purposes on behalf and in the name of the county;

(9) accept donations and devises of money or personal property.

Section 10. District budget — property tax levy. (1) The county park district commission shall annually prepare a budget for the ensuing fiscal year and present the budget to the county governing body at the regular budget meetings as prescribed in Title 7, chapter 6, part 23, and certify the amount of money necessary for the operation of the district for the ensuing fiscal year.

(2) The county governing body must, annually at the time of levying county taxes, fix and levy a tax in mills on all taxable property within the district sufficient to raise the amount certified by the county park district commission. The tax so levied may not in any year exceed the maximum amount approved by the electorate in [section 4 or section 11].

Section 11. Election to change maximum property tax mill levy. (1) The maximum property tax mill levy authorized for the operation of a county park district may be changed by an election on the question of changing the maximum mill levy.

(2) A vote on the question of raising or lowering the maximum property tax mill levy in the district may be initiated by:

(a) a petition signed by not less than 15% of the electorate of the district; or

(b) a resolution of the county park district commission.

(3) The petition or resolution must set forth the proposed new maximum mill levy for the operation of the district.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 697 1985

(4) Upon receipt of a petition for a change in the maximum mill levy, certified by the county clerk as sufficient under this section, or a resolution for such a change adopted by the county park district commission, the county governing body shall submit to the electorate of the district, at the next election at which members are elected to the county park district commission, a ballot question on changing the maximum mill levy. The election on the question of changing the maximum mill levy must be held as provided in Title 13. The question must be submitted to the electors of the district in substantially the following form:

☐ AGAINST changing the authorized maximum property tax mill levy for the operation of the county park district.

(5) If a county park district includes one or more municipalities or parts of municipalities, separate majorities of those voting on the question of changing the property tax mill levy are required of those voting who reside within each municipality and of those not residing within a municipality.

(6) The new maximum property tax mill levy is authorized for the following tax year if approved by a simple majority of the votes on the question.

Section 12. Park district bonds authorized. (1) A county park district may borrow money by the issuance of its bonds to provide funds for payment of all or part of the cost of construction, acquisition, furnishing, equipping, extension, and betterment of park facilities and to provide an adequate working capital for such facilities.

(2) The amount of bonds issued for such purchase and outstanding at any time may not exceed 20% of the taxable value of the property within the district as ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes previous to the issuance of such bonds.

(3) Such bonds must be authorized, sold, and issued and provisions made for their payment in the manner and subject to the conditions and limitations prescribed for bonds of school districts by Title 20, chapter 9, part 4.

Section 13. Alteration of district boundaries. (1) The boundaries of a county park district may be enlarged by the annexation of contiguous territory in the county or it may be reduced in size by the withdrawal of territory from the district after an election on the question approved by simple majorities of the electorate involved.

(2) The alteration of the district boundary may be initiated in the same manner as the creation of the district, except the applicable resolutions, hearings, and procedures must be adopted and conducted by the county park district commission and not by the county governing body. If the alteration is proposed by petition, the petition must be signed by 15% of the electorate in the territory to be annexed or withdrawn from the district and certified as sufficient by the county clerk.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 698 1985

(3) (a) In the case of annexation, the vote on the question requires the separate majorities of the electorate of the territory to be annexed and the electorate of the then constituted district.

(b) In the case of withdrawal of territory, only the electorate of the territory to be withdrawn may vote on the question.

(4) A change in the boundaries of a district is effective on January 1 of the year following the election authorizing the change in boundaries.

Section 14. Dissolution of county park district. (1) A county park district may be dissolved after an election on the question of dissolving the district. The process of dissolving the district may be initiated by a petition of 25% of the electorate of the district or by a resolution of intent to dissolve the district adopted by either the county park district commission or the county governing body.

(2) Upon receipt of such a petition which has been certified by the county clerk as sufficient under this section or upon the adoption of such a resolution of intent, the county governing body shall call a public hearing on the question of dissolving the district and cause to be published a notice of the hearing in the official county newspaper.

(3) At the public hearing the county governing body shall hear testimony of interested persons regarding the dissolution of the district. After the public hearing the county governing body may either submit the question of dissolving the district to the electorate of the district or it may call for a public hearing on the question of altering the boundaries of the district. If the county governing body calls for a public hearing on the question of altering the boundaries of the district by withdrawal of territory, it shall cause to be published notice of such a hearing in the official county newspaper. The notice must state the boundaries of the area proposed to be withdrawn from the district. After hearing testimony at such hearing, the county governing body may submit the question of either dissolving the district or altering the district by withdrawal of specified territory from the district to the electorate of the district.

(4) Such a question must be submitted by a resolution calling for an election on either dissolving the district or altering the boundaries of the district by withdrawal of land from the district. The county governing body may call a special election for such purposes, or it may schedule the election in conjunction with any other regularly scheduled election. The election on the question must be conducted as provided in Title 13.

(5) The question of withdrawal of territory under this section must be voted on separately by the electorate of the territory to be withdrawn and the electorate of the balance of the territory of the district. The question fails unless a simple majority of those voting on the question in each of the two territories authorize altering the district boundary. If the question passes, the boundary alteration is effective the following January 1. If the question fails, the county governing body shall by resolution call for an election on the question of dissolving the district.

Section 15. Effect of dissolution. (1) If dissolution of a county park district is authorized by a majority of the electorate of the district, the county governing body shall order the dissolution and file the order with the county clerk. The dissolution is effective upon the earlier of the following:

(a) 6 months after the date of filing of the order; or

(b) certification by the members of the county park commission that all debts and obligations of the district have been paid, discharged, or irrevocably settled.

(2) If debts or obligations of the district remain unsatisfied after the dissolution of the district, the county governing body shall, for as long as necessary, levy a property tax, in an amount not to exceed the voted maximum authorized by the district, on all taxable property that is in the territory formerly comprising the district, to be used to discharge the debts of the former district. If the electors of the district lowered the maximum amount to be levied for the operation of the district within 2 calendar years prior to the election authorizing the dissolution, the county governing body is authorized to levy a property tax not to exceed the maximum levy authorized prior to the reduction of the maximum levy for the discharge of the district's obligations.

(3) Any assets of the district remaining after all debts and obligations have been discharged become the property of the county.

Approved April 8, 1985.

avoidance of danger of injury to health, safety, or welfare by reason of natural hazard or the lack of water, drainage, access, transportation, or other public services or would necessitate an excessive expenditure of public funds for the supply of such services.

(2) Review and approval or disapproval of a subdivision under this chapter may occur only under those regulations in effect at the time an application for approval of a preliminary plat or for an extension under 76-3-610 is submitted to the governing body."

"76-4-104. Rules for administration and enforcement. (1) The department shall adopt reasonable rules, including adoption of sanitary standards, necessary for administration and enforcement of this part.

(2) The rules and standards shall provide the basis for approving subdivision plats for various types of water, sewage facilities, and solid waste disposal, both public and private, and shall be related to size of lots, contour of land, porosity of soil, groundwater level, distance from lakes, streams, and wells, type and construction of private water and sewage facilities, and other factors affecting public health and the quality of water for uses relating to agriculture, industry, recreation, and wildlife.

(i) requiring evidence to establish that, if a public sewage disposal system is proposed, provision has been made for the system and, if other methods of sewage disposal are proposed, evidence that the systems will comply with state and local laws and regulations which are in effect at the time of submission of the preliminary or final plan or plat.

(4) Review and certification or denial of certification that a division of land is not subject to sanitary restrictions under this part may occur only under those rules in effect at the time plans and specifications are submitted to the department, except in cases where current rules would preclude the use for which the lot was originally intended, the applicable requirements in effect at the time such lot was recorded must be applied. In the absence of specific requirements, minimum standards necessary to protect public health and water quality will apply."

expenses of the commissioner and his staff in the discharge of their administrative and regulatory powers and duties as prescribed by law, subject to the applicable laws relating to the appropriation of state funds and to the deposit and expenditure of state money. The commissioner is responsible for the proper expenditure of this money as provided by law.

(3) Any cash balance remaining in the securities regulatory trust account after all current fiscal year expenditures are met must be transferred to the general fund.

Section 3. Securities regulatory trust account investment. (1) It is the responsibility of the commissioner, charged with the administration of the securities regulatory trust account, to make money in the account available for investment as fully as is consistent with the cash requirements of the account and to authorize investment of the account by the board of investments pursuant to Title 17, chapter 6, part 2.

(2) At least monthly, and more often as circumstances require, the commissioner shall notify the board of investments of the amount in the account available for investment, and that amount must be invested by the board of investments pursuant to Title 17, chapter 6, part 2. The notification must include the name and number of the account and the term of the investment if the principal sum is required for meeting obligations.

(3) All earnings derived from investment of the account must be paid into the securities regulatory trust account.

Section 4. Securities regulatory trust account deficiency. Whenever there exists in the securities regulatory trust account a deficiency that would render the account insufficient to meet the securities division's funding requirements, the state treasurer may order a transfer of money from another fund in the state treasury to the securities regulatory trust account in order to meet the deficiency without resorting to the necessity of borrowing money and paying interest thereon. The fund from which any money is transferred must be repaid the amount transferred from it not later than the end of the fiscal year in which the transfer is made or the date of repayment specified in the order of the state treasurer.

Section 5. Appropriation and use of money — transition period. Nothing in [sections 2 through 5] or 30-10-209 prevents continuing the practice of paying any of the direct or indirect expenses incurred by the commissioner or his staff, including but not limited to those involving salaries, retirement, social security contributions and state-paid insurance premiums of state officers and employees, or any other expenses, by appropriations from the general fund. However, the general fund must be reimbursed for any such payments made on or after July 1, 1985. Such reimbursements and any money transferred to the securities regulatory trust account in connection with the initial funding of the securities regulatory trust account must be repaid by transfer from the securities regulatory trust account to the general fund no later than the end of the next fiscal year.

Section 6. Codification instruction. Sections 2 through 5 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 30, chapter 10, parts 1 through 3.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 710 1985

Section 7. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the securities commissioner to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 8. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1985.

Approved April 8, 1985.

(3) "Department" means the department of state lands.

(4) "Disturbed land" means that area of land or surface water disturbed, beginning at the date of the issuance of the permit, and it comprises that area from which the overburden or minerals have been removed and tailings ponds, waste dumps, roads, conveyor systems, leach dumps, and all similar excavations or covering resulting from the operation and which have not been previously reclaimed under the reclamation plan.

(5) "Exploration" means all activities conducted on or beneath the surface of lands resulting in material disturbance of the surface for the purpose of determining the presence, location, extent, depth, grade, and economic viability of mineralization in those lands, if any, other than mining for production and economic exploitation, as well as all roads made for the purpose of facilitating exploration, except as noted in 82-4-305 and 82-4-310.

(6) "Mineral" means any ore, rock, or substance, other than oil, gas, bentonite, clay, coal, sand, gravel, phosphate rock, or uranium, taken from below the surface or from the surface of the earth for the purpose of milling, concentration, refinement, smelting, manufacturing, or other subsequent use or processing or for stockpiling for future use, refinement, or smelting.

(7) "Mining" commences at such time as the operator first mines ores or minerals in commercial quantities for sale, beneficiation, refining, or other processing or disposition or first takes bulk samples for metallurgical testing in excess of aggregate of 10,000 short tons.

(8) "Person" means any person, corporation, firm, association, partnership, or other legal entity engaged in exploration for or development or mining of minerals on or below the surface of the earth.

(f) the method of diverting surface waters around the disturbed areas where necessary to prevent pollution of those waters or unnecessary erosion;

(g) the method of reclamation of stream channels and stream banks to control erosion, siltation, and pollution;

(h) such maps and other supporting documents as may be reasonably required by the department; and

(i) a time schedule for reclamation that meets the requirements of 82-4-336.

(b) For the purpose of this definition only, the department shall, in computing the area covered by the operation, exclude access or haulage roads that are required by a local, state, or federal agency having jurisdiction over that road to be constructed to certain specifications if that public agency notifies the department in writing that it desires to have the road remain in use and will maintain it after mining ceases.

(11) "Surface mining" means all or any part of the process involved in mining of minerals by removing the overburden and mining directly from the mineral deposits thereby exposed, including but not limited to open-pit mining of minerals naturally exposed at the surface of the earth, mining by the auger method, and all similar methods by which earth or minerals exposed at the surface are removed in the course of mining. Surface mining does not include the extraction of oil, gas, bentonite, clay, coal, sand, gravel, phosphate rock, or uranium or excavation or grading conducted for on-site farming, on-site road construction, or other on-site building construction.

(12) "Underground mining" means all methods of mining other than surface mining.

(13) "Unit of surface-mined area" means that area of land and surface water included within an operating permit actually disturbed by surface mining during each 12-month period of time, beginning at the date of the issuance of the permit, and it comprises and includes the area from which overburden or minerals have been removed, the area covered by mining debris, and all additional areas used in surface mining or underground mining operations which by virtue of such use are thereafter susceptible to erosion in excess of the surrounding undisturbed portions of land.

(14) "Vegetative cover" means the type of vegetation, grass, shrubs, trees, or any other form of natural cover considered suitable at time of reclamation."

"41-3-607. Petition for termination — separate hearing — right to counsel — no jury trial. HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 716 1985

(b) the child has been abandoned by his parents as set forth in 41-3-102(3)(d); or

(c) the child is an adjudicated youth in need of care and both of the following exist:

(i) an appropriate treatment plan that has been approved by the court has not been complied with by the parents or has not been successful; and

(ii) the conduct or condition of the parents rendering them unfit is unlikely to change within a reasonable time.

(2) In determining whether the conduct or condition of the parents is unlikely to change within a reasonable time, the court must enter a finding that continuation of the parent-child legal relationship will likely result in continued abuse or neglect or that the conduct or the condition of the parents renders the parents unfit, unable, or unwilling to give the child adequate parental care. In making such determinations, the court shall consider but is not limited to the following:

(a) emotional illness, mental illness, or mental deficiency of the parent of such duration or nature as to render the parent unlikely to care for the ongoing physical, mental, and emotional needs of the child within a reasonable time;

(b) a history of violent behavior by the parent;

(c) a single incident of life-threatening or gravely disabling injury to or disfigurement of the child caused by the parent;

(e) present judicially-ordered long-term confinement of the parent;

(f) the injury or death of a sibling due to proven parental abuse or neglect; and

(g) any reasonable efforts by protective service agencies that have been unable to rehabilitate the parent.

(3) In considering any of the factors in subsection (2) in terminating the parent-child relationship, the court shall give primary consideration to the physical, mental, and emotional conditions and needs of the child. The court shall review and, if necessary, order an evaluation of the child's or the parent's physical, mental, and emotional conditions.

(4) A treatment plan is not required under this part upon a finding by the court following hearing if:

(a) two medical doctors submit testimony that the parent is so severely mentally ill that such person cannot assume the role of parent;

(b) the parent is incarcerated for more than 1 year and such treatment plan is not practical considering the incarceration; or

(c) the death of a sibling caused by abuse or neglect by the parent has occurred."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 717 1985

Section 4. Section 41-3-610, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-3-610. Review following termination. (1) At the conclusion of a hearing in which the court orders termination of the parent-child legal relationship, the court shall order that a review hearing be held within 180 days following the date of the termination to determine if the child has been permanently placed.

(2) At the review hearing, the agency or individual vested with the custody of the child shall report to the court whether the plan for permanent placement of the child has been accomplished. If the child is not in a permanent placement at the time of the review hearing, the guardian ad litem shall submit to the court a written report with recommendations, based upon an independent investigation, for disposition meeting the best interests of the child.

(3) The court may order the agency or individual vested with custody of the child to report, at appropriate intervals, on the status of the child until the plan for permanent placement of the child has been accomplished."

(3) All fees are considered fully earned when received. In the event of overpayment, only those amounts in excess of $10 will be refunded.

(4) All fees and examination and miscellaneous charges, except fines or penalties or those amounts received pursuant to 33-2-311, 33-2-705, or 33-2-706, collected by the commissioner pursuant to Title 33 and the rules adopted thereunder must be deposited in the insurance regulatory trust account pursuant to [sections 2 through 4]."

Section 2. Insurance regulatory trust account. (1) There is created in the state treasury an account within the state special revenue fund designated "insurance regulatory trust account" to which must be credited all fees and miscellaneous and examination charges, but not fines or penalties or those amounts received pursuant to 33-2-311, 33-2-705, or 33-2-706, collected by the insurance commissioner pursuant to Title 33 and the rules adopted thereunder.

(2) The money so received and deposited in the insurance regulatory trust account may be paid out of the treasury only on appropriation made by the legislature as provided in 17-8-101 and must be used only to defray the expenses of the insurance commissioner and his staff in the discharge of their administrative and regulatory powers and duties as prescribed by law, subject to the applicable laws relating to the appropriations of state funds and to the deposit and expenditure of state money. The commissioner is responsible for the proper expenditure of this money as provided by law.

(3) Any cash balance remaining in the insurance regulatory trust account after all current fiscal year expenditures are met must be transferred to the general fund.

Section 3. Insurance regulatory trust account investment. (1) It is the responsibility of the insurance commissioner, charged with the administration of the insurance regulatory trust account, to make such money available for investment as fully as is consistent with the cash requirements of the fund and to authorize investment of such money by the board of investments pursuant to Title 17, chapter 6, part 2.

(2) At least monthly, and more often if circumstances require, the insurance commissioner shall notify the board of investments of the amount available for investment, and the money must be invested by the board of investments pursuant to Title 17, chapter 6, part 2. Such notification must include the name and number of the account for which the investments are to be made and the term of the investment if the principal sum is to be required for meeting obligations.

(3) All earnings derived from investment of the account must be paid into the insurance regulatory trust account.

Section 4. Insurance regulatory trust account deficiency. Whenever there exists in the insurance regulatory trust account a deficiency that would render the account insufficient to meet the insurance department funding requirements, the state treasurer may order a transfer of money from another fund in order to meet the deficiency without resorting to the necessity of borrowing money and paying interest thereon. The fund from which any money is transferred must be repaid the amount transferred from it not later than the end of the fiscal year in which such transfer is made, the date of repayment to be specified in the order of the state treasurer.

Section 5. Appropriation and use of money — transition period. Nothing in [sections 2 through 4] prevents continuing the practice of paying any of the direct or indirect expenses incurred by the insurance commissioner, including but not limited to those involving salaries, retirement, social security, and state-paid insurance premiums of state officers and employees, or any other expenses by appropriations from the general fund. However, the general fund must be reimbursed for any such payments made on or after the effective date of this act. Such reimbursements and any money transferred to the insurance regulatory trust account in connection with the initial funding of the insurance regulatory trust account must be repaid by transfer from the insurance regulatory fund to the general fund no later than the end of the next fiscal year.

Section 6. Codification instruction. Sections 2 through 4 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 17, chapter 2, and the provisions of Title 17, chapter 2, apply to sections 2 through 4.

Section 7. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the commissioner of insurance to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 8. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1985.

Approved April 8, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 394

[HB 846]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT ISSUANCE OF A TEMPORARY PRELIMINARY DECREE IN THE MILK RIVER BASIN BE MADE THE HIGHEST PRIORITY IN THE ADJUDICATION PROCESS BY THE MONTANA WATER COURTS; AMENDING SECTIONS 85-2-231 AND 85-2-321, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, there has long been in the Milk River Basin a scarcity of water available to meet the needs of all water users; and

WHEREAS, the precipitation in the Milk River Basin during the past 2 years has been even lower than usual; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 726 1985

WHEREAS, in 1981, the 47th Legislature recognized the growing problem of protection of existing water rights in the Milk River Basin, in view of continuing applications for new water rights, by enacting a law authorizing the Department of Natural Resources and Conservation to suspend action on new permits in the Basin; and

WHEREAS, tension has arisen among certain water users in the Milk River Basin because of uncertainty on the amounts and priorities of individual rights to the scarce water resources; and

WHEREAS, neither a preliminary nor temporary preliminary decree has been issued to date in the Milk River Basin in the Montana Water Court's adjudication of existing water rights; and

WHEREAS, complicated legal issues exist with respect to water rights in the Milk River Basin because of the 1909 Boundary Waters Treaty, the location in the Basin of federal Bureau of Reclamation irrigation projects, and the existence in the Basin of federal reserved water rights claims; and

WHEREAS, in view of these complicated legal issues, it may not be feasible at this time to issue a preliminary decree of water rights in the Milk River Basin; however, a temporary preliminary decree can be issued; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature finds that it is in the interest of water users in the Milk River Basin that the Montana Water Court issue a temporary preliminary decree in the Basin as soon as practicable.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-2-231, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-231. Preliminary decree. (1) The water judge shall issue a preliminary decree. The preliminary decree shall be based on:

(a) the statements of claim before the water judge;

(b) the data submitted by the department;

(c) the contents of compacts approved by the Montana legislature and the tribe or federal agency or, lacking an approved compact, the filings for federal and Indian reserved rights; and

(d) any additional data obtained by the water judge. The preliminary decree shall be issued within 90 days after the close of the special filing period set out in 85-2-702(3) or as soon thereafter as is reasonably feasible. This section does not prevent the water judge from issuing an interlocutory decree or other temporary decree pursuant to 85-2-321 or if such a decree is otherwise necessary for the orderly administration of water rights prior to the issuance of a preliminary decree.

(2) A preliminary decree may be issued for any hydrologically interrelated portion of a water division, including but not limited to a basin, subbasin, drainage, subdrainage, stream, or single source of supply of water, at a time different from the issuance of other preliminary decrees or portions of the same decree.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 727 1985

(3) The preliminary decree shall contain the information and make the determinations, findings, and conclusions required for the final decree under 85-2-234. The water judge shall include in the preliminary decree the contents of a compact negotiated under the provisions of part 7 that has been approved by the legislature and the tribe or federal agency whether or not it has been ratified by congress.

(4) If the water judge is satisfied that the report of the water master meets the requirements for the preliminary decree set forth in subsections (1) and (3), and is satisfied with the conclusions contained in the report, the water judge shall adopt the report as the preliminary decree. If the water judge is not so satisfied, he may, at his option, recommit the report to the master with instructions, or modify the report and issue the preliminary decree."

Section 2. Section 85-2-321, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-321. Milk River Basin — suspension of action on permits — proposal — priority in adjudication process. (1) (a) In order to balance the need for the continued development of Montana's water and for protection of existing rights in the Milk River Basin, the department may suspend action on a class of applications or may close a source in the basin and refuse to accept a class of applications, or both, for a permit under this part to appropriate from that source in the basin.

(b) Suspension or closure, or both, may only be proposed by the department.

(c) The proposal must state the source in the basin and class of applications for which suspension or closure, or both, is being proposed and any of the following allegations:

(i) that the frequency of occurrence of unappropriated waters is such that:

(A) any new appropriation from the source for the class of applications will adversely affect the rights of a prior appropriation from the source; or

(B) any new appropriation from the source for the class of applications will interfere unreasonably with another planned use or development for which a permit has been given or for which water has been reserved in the source; or

(ii) that significant disputes or enforcement problems regarding priority of rights or amounts or duration of water in use by appropriators are in progress or will arise.

(2) After [the effective date of this act], the chief water judge shall make issuance of a temporary preliminary decree in the Milk River Basin the highest priority in the adjudication of existing water rights pursuant to Title 85, chapter 2, part 2."

Section 3. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 8, 1985.

WHEREAS, on August 2, 1984, the District Court of Lewis and Clark County ordered the establishment of a procedure to license airports and the actual licensing of airports meeting the appropriate criteria; and

WHEREAS, the regulation of airports and other air navigation facilities is the responsibility of the United States, which inspects airports and other air navigation facilities and certifies or licenses airports and other air navigation facilities in accordance with the applicable federal aviation regulations and Federal Aviation Administration advisory circulars; and

WHEREAS, it is unnecessary that the State of Montana also inspect and license airports and other air navigation facilities; and

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-2-310, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-310. Action on application. (1) The department shall grant, deny, or condition an application for a permit in whole or in part within 120 days after the last date of publication of the notice of application if no objections have been received and within 180 days if a hearing is held or objections have been received. However, in either case the time may be extended upon agreement of the applicant, or, in those cases where an environmental impact statement must be prepared or in other extraordinary cases, not more than 60 days upon order of the department. If the department orders the time extended, it shall serve a notice of the extension and the reasons therefor by certified mail upon the applicant and each person who has filed an objection as provided by 85-2-308.

(2) However, an application may not be approved in a modified form or upon terms, conditions, or limitations specified by the department or denied, unless the applicant is first granted an opportunity to be heard. If no objection is filed against the application but the department is of the opinion that the application should be approved in a modified form or upon terms, conditions, or limitations specified by it or that the application should be denied, the department shall prepare a statement of its opinion and the reasons therefor. The department shall serve a statement of its opinion by certified mail upon the applicant, together with a notice that the applicant may obtain a hearing by filing a request therefor within 30 days after the notice is mailed. HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 737 1985

(3) The department may cease action upon an application for a permit and return it to the applicant when it finds that the application is not in good faith or does not show a bona fide intent to appropriate water for a beneficial use. An application returned for any of these reasons shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons for which it was returned, and there shall be no right to a priority date based upon the filing of the application. Returning an application pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed a final decision of the department.

(4) For all applications filed after July 1, 1973, the department shall find that an application is not in good faith or does not show a bona fide intent to appropriate water for a beneficial use if:

(a) an application is not corrected and completed as required by 85-2-302;

(b) the appropriate filing fee is not paid;

(c) the application does not document:

(i) a beneficial use of water;

(ii) the proposed place of use of all water applied for;

(iii) for an appropriation of 4,000 acre-feet a year or more and 5.5 cubic feet per second or more, a detailed project plan including, but not limited to, a reasonable time line for the completion of the project and the actual application of the water to a beneficial use, which may not exceed 10 years from the date of application, detailing when and how much water will be put to a beneficial use;

(iv) for appropriations not covered in subsection (4)(c)(iii), a general project plan stating when and how much water will be put to a beneficial use; and

(v) if the water applied for is to be appropriated above that which will be used solely by the applicant or if it will be marketed by the applicant to other users, information detailing:

(A) each person who will use the water and the amount of water each person will use;

(B) the proposed place of use of all water by each person;

(C) the nature of the relationship between the applicant and each person using the water; and

(D) each firm contractual agreement for the specified amount of water for each person using the water; or

(d) the appropriate environmental impact statement fee, if any, is not paid as required by 85-2-124."

Section 2. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the department of natural resources and conservation to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 3. Applicability. This act applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to all applications filed after July 1, 1973.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 738 1985

Section 4. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-51-2305, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-2305. Disqualification when unemployment due to strike. (1) An individual shall be disqualified for benefits for any week with respect to which the department finds that his total unemployment is due to a strike which exists because of a labor dispute at the factory, establishment, or other premises at which he is or was last employed, provided that this subsection shall not apply if it is shown to the satisfaction of the department that: conditions of work, such labor dispute shall not render the workers ineligible for benefits."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 739 1985

Section 2. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

CHAPTER NO. 401

[SB 187]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THE AMOUNT AND PAYMENT OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS TO A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER WHO HAS SERVICE CREDITS IN BOTH THE SHERIFFS' AND MUNICIPAL POLICE OFFICERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEMS; REVISING THE METHOD OF CALCULATING A SERVICE RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE BASED ON MORE THAN 25 YEARS OF SERVICE; AND DEFINING THE BENEFIT AVAILABLE TO BENEFICIARIES UPON THE DEATH OF CERTAIN MEMBERS UNDER THE SHERIFFS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM; AMENDING SECTIONS 19-7-101, 19-7-308, AND 19-7-503, MCA; AND REPEALING SECTION 19-7-603, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

(1) "Account" means the Montana sheriffs' retirement pension trust fund administered by the sheriffs' retirement board.

(3) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed upon the basis of the actuarial tables in use by the system.

Lump-sum payments for sick leave and annual leave paid to an employee upon termination of employment may be used in the calculation of a retirement allowance only to the extent that they are used to replace, on a month for month basis, the normal compensation for a month or months included in the calculation of the final salary. A lump-sum payment may not be added to a single month's compensation.

(9) "Member" means any person who has accumulated deductions in the account to his credit.

Section 2. Section 19-7-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-7-308. Service under municipal police officers' retirement system prior to or following city-county consolidation. (1) A law enforcement officer who has not changed his employment but who has, because of a city-county consolidation, been transferred either from a city police force to a county sheriff's department or from a county sheriff's department to a city police force as a law enforcement officer is eligible for a service retirement benefit if his combined service in the sheriffs' retirement system and the municipal police officers' retirement system satisfies the minimum membership service requirement of the system to which he last made contributions. A sheriff who has elected to continue membership in the public employees' retirement system under 19-7-301 may continue his election. However, credit for service in the PERS which has not been transferred prior to January 1, 1979, may not be transferred.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 741 1985

(2) Eligibility for and calculation of disability retirement, death benefits, and refund of contributions are governed by the provisions of the retirement system to which the officer last made contributions.

(3) The service retirement benefit of an officer described in subsection (1) shall be calculated separately for each system based on the service credited under each system. The calculation for the sheriffs' retirement system portion of the benefit must include the appropriate reduction in the retirement allowance for an optional retirement allowance elected under 19-7-701. The final salary or final average salary for each calculation shall be based on the highest salary earned while a member of either system. Each system shall pay its proportionate share, based on the number of years of service credited, of the combined benefit. The combined benefit may not exceed 60% of the final salary or final average salary.

(4) Upon the death of an officer receiving a service retirement allowance under this section, the beneficiary and the continued benefit must be determined separately for each system as follows:

(a) For the municipal police officers' retirement system portion of the benefit, the officer's surviving spouse, if there is one, shall, for as long as the spouse remains unmarried, receive from the fund a sum equal to the municipal police officers' retirement system portion of the officer's service retirement allowance as calculated at the time of his retirement. If the officer leaves one or more dependent children, then upon his death, if he leaves no surviving spouse or upon the death or remarriage of the surviving spouse, the officer's surviving dependent child, or children collectively if there are more than one, shall receive the same monthly payments a surviving spouse would receive for as long as the child or one of the children remains dependent as defined in 19-9-104. The payments must be made to the child's appointed guardian for the child's use. If there is more than one dependent child, upon each child no longer qualifying as dependent under 19-9-104, the pro rata payments to that child must cease and be made to the remaining children until all the children are no longer dependent.

(b) For the sheriffs' retirement system portion of the benefit, the officer's beneficiary, designated under 19-7-602, shall receive:

(i) an annuity as determined under 19-7-701, if the officer elected an optional retirement allowance; or

(ii) if the officer did not elect an optional retirement allowance, any payment owed the officer, including the excess, if any, of his accumulated deductions standing to his credit at the time of retirement less payments made to the officer."

Section 3. Section 19-7-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-7-503. Service retirement allowance. (1) The amount of any service retirement allowance granted to a member with 25 years or less of creditable service shall be 2% of his final salary for each year of creditable service, up to a maximum of 50% of final salary.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 742 1985

salary for each year of creditable service in excess of 25 years of service, up to a maximum of 60% of his final salary.

(3) If a member dies after retirement and had not elected an optional retirement allowance provided for in 19-7-701, his beneficiary must be paid the excess, if any, of the member's accumulated contributions at the time of retirement less payments made to the retired member."

Section 4. Repealer. Section 19-7-603, MCA, is repealed.

Section 5. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the sheriffs' retirement board to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 10, 1985.

[SB 194]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE LICENSING OF PERSONS WHO USE EXPLOSIVES IN THE DEMOLITION OR CONSTRUCTION OF BUILDINGS OR FOR CERTAIN OTHER PURPOSES; PROHIBITING SUCH USE OF EXPLOSIVES UNLESS LICENSED OR UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF A LICENSEE; PROVIDING FOR LICENSING REQUIREMENTS AND EXAMINATIONS; PROVIDING FOR LICENSURE OF PERSONS LICENSED BY OTHER JURISDICTIONS; PROVIDING FOR REGULATION OF THE USE OF EXPLOSIVES; GRANTING RULEMAKING POWER TO THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION; PROVIDING FOR DISCIPLINE OF LICENSEES; AND PROVIDING FOR CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES.

(3) Nothing in [this act] applies to the private or commercial use of explosives by persons engaged in farming, ranching, logging, geophysical work, drilling or development of water, oil, or gas wells, or mining of any kind or to the private use of explosives in the removal of stumps and rocks from land owned by the person using the explosives, except that the persons exempted from [this act] by this subsection must comply with rules adopted under [section 9(1)(c)] and the provisions of [section 12] apply to a violation of those rules by an exempted person.

(4) [This act] does not apply to persons conducting blasting operations when the persons and operations are subject to rules adopted under and implementing 82-4-231(3)(e).

Section 2. General qualifications. A person making initial application to the division for a license as a construction blaster shall:

(1) pay an application fee to the division; and

(a) is at least 18 years old;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 744 1985

Section 4. Licensure by examination — fee. (1) The division shall, at least once a year, administer an examination to applicants meeting the requirements of [sections 2 and 3] and the rules adopted by the division. The division shall determine the subjects, scope, and acceptable level of performance for all examinations. The examination may be written, oral, or both. The examination shall at a minimum test the applicant's knowledge of the rules of the division governing construction blasting.

(2) An applicant for licensure by examination shall pay an examination fee to the division.

(3) An applicant for a license who has previously taken and failed the examination required by this section may retake it at any time within 2 years without again furnishing proof of compliance with [section 3], upon payment to the division of a reexamination fee.

Section 5. Issuance of license — fee. Upon receipt of a license fee, the division shall issue a license to each person who meets the requirements for licensure as prescribed in [this act]. The license must include the dates of issuance and expiration and a serial number. It must be signed by the administrator of the division.

Section 6. Licensure of persons licensed by other jurisdictions. Upon receipt of a license fee, the division shall issue a license to any person fulfilling the requirements of [section 2(2)(a) through (2)(d)] who holds a certificate, license, or permit, issued by another state or any agency of the United States, allowing him to supervise or engage in the practice of construction blasting if the division finds that the certificate, license, or permit was issued upon the satisfactory completion of requirements substantially equivalent to the requirements of [sections 2, 3, and 4].

Section 7. Annual renewal. (1) A license issued under [this act] expires January 1 following the date of its issuance or renewal and is invalid thereafter. The division shall notify each person licensed under [this act] of the date of the expiration of his license and the amount of his renewal fee. The notice must be mailed to each licensed construction blaster at his listed address at least 1 month before the expiration of his license.

(2) Renewal may be made by application during the 60 days prior to the expiration date. Failure on the part of a licensee to pay his renewal fee by the expiration date does not deprive him of the right to renew his license, but the fee must be increased 10% for each month or major portion thereof that the payment of the renewal fee is delayed after the expiration date. The maximum fee for delayed renewal may not exceed twice the normal renewal fee. Application for renewal following a lapse of 1 year or more is subject to review by the division, and the applicant may be required to successfully complete an examination.

Section 8. License — form — pocket card. (1) The division shall prescribe the form of license.

(c) prevent injury from blasting to persons and property near blast sites;

(d) provide for notification of blasting to the owners or operators of gas and electric utilities; and

(e) regulate the drilling of holes for explosives and the loading and firing of explosives.

(2) The division shall adopt rules providing for variances from the rules required by subsection (1). Variances may be granted by the division on a case-by-case basis for the purpose of individual construction blasting operations only if it is shown by the affidavit of a construction blaster licensed under [this act] that:

(a) compliance with the rule for which a variance is sought would be impracticable; and

(b) the proposed variance from division rules will not constitute a danger to property or public safety.

Section 10. General rulemaking power. The division shall adopt rules to:

(1) implement the training and experience requirements of [section 3];

(2) prescribe the amount of the fees provided for in [sections 2, 4, and 5 through 7], which must be nonrefundable, in an amount commensurate with the cost of administering [this act], and deposited in the state special revenue fund for the use of the division;

(3) regulate the use of explosives and grant variances under the provisions of [section 9], except that, unless the division is making an investigation under [section 11(2)], the division does not have the power under [this act] to make inspections into construction blasting and may not adopt rules providing for such inspections or for inspectors to carry out such inspections;

(4) provide for the form of the license and pocket card provided for in [section 8]; and

(5) provide for the conduct of the business of the division under [this act] and govern its proceedings under [section 11].

The charges must be investigated by the division. Unless the division, after investigation, dismisses the charges as unfounded or trivial, it shall within 6 months after the date on which the charges were made give notice by mail to the licensee of its intent to reprimand him or to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew his license. The notice must contain those matters required by the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(3) The division may require a licensee to take a written or oral examination, or both, in a proceeding to reprimand or to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew a license.

Section 12. Penalty — injunction. (1) A person convicted of violating any provision of [this act] or the rules of the division is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 6 months or fined an amount not to exceed $500, or both.

(2) The district court may enjoin any violation or threatened violation of the requirements of [sections 1 through 10] or the rules of the division as a nuisance per se; and the division, the attorney general, or any county attorney may institute proceedings for an injunction.

The record of the conviction or a certified copy from the clerk of the court where the conviction occurred or certification by the judge of the court is conclusive evidence of the conviction, except that if the person has been pardoned by a governor or the president of the United States, the conviction does not constitute grounds for revocation or suspension.

(9) permitting another to use his license or certificate;

(10) defaming competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, questionable credit standing, or by other false representations or falsely disparaging the products of competitors in any respect or their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies, or services;

CHAPTER NO. 406

[SB 450]

AN ACT INCLUDING CONSUMER LOAN LICENSEES IN THE DEFINITION OF "REGULATED LENDER"; EXEMPTING CONSUMER LOAN LICENSEES FROM USURY LIMITS; AMENDING SECTIONS 31-1-111, 32-5-103, 32-5-301, 32-5-303, 32-5-322, 32-5-501, AND 32-5-506, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 31-1-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"31-1-111. Definition of regulated lender. The term "regulated lenders" as used in 31-1-112 means:

(1) a bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association, trust company, credit union, credit association, consumer loan licensee, development corporation, or bank holding company organized pursuant to state or federal statutory authority and subject to supervision, control, or regulation by:

(a) an agency of the state of Montana; or

(b) an agency of the federal government;

(2) a subsidiary of an entity described in subsection (1);

(3) a Montana state agency or a federal agency that is authorized to lend money;

(4) a corporation or other entity established by congress or the state of Montana that is owned, in whole or in part, by the United States or the state of Montana and that is authorized to lend money."

Section 2. Section 32-5-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"32-5-103. Engaging in business of making loans restricted. (1) No person shall engage in the business of making loans or advances of money on credit in any amount and contract for, charge, or receive directly or indirectly on or in connection with any such loan or advance any charges, whether for interest, compensation, consideration, or expense, except as provided in and authorized by this chapter. Except as provided in subsection (2), a person doing business under the authority of this state or the United States relating to banks, trust companies, savings or building and loan associations, credit unions, or a person engaged in business as a licensed pawnbroker or any person who shall extend credit in connection with the sale of a commodity shall not become a licensee under this chapter nor shall any of the provisions of this chapter apply to any such exempted person.

(2) A licensee may sell its business and assets to a bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association, trust company, credit union, credit association, development credit corporation, or bank holding company organized pursuant to state or federal statutory authority and subject to supervision, control, or regulation by an agency of the state of Montana or an agency of the federal government. All contracts for loans and all other contracts entered into by the licensee pursuant to the provisions of this chapter that are sold and transferred to an acquiring organization continue to be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The provisions of subsection (1) shall apply to any person who seeks to evade its applications by any device, subterfuge, or pretense whatsoever.

(4) Any contract of loan in the making or collection of which any act shall have been done which violates subsection (1) of this section shall be void, and the lender shall have no right to collect, receive, or retain any principal, interest, or charges whatsoever."

Section 3. Section 32-5-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"32-5-301. Charges, refunds, penalties, filing fees. (1) Every licensee or holder of a supplementary license hereunder may contract for and receive on any loan of money interest charges as provided under 31-1-112.

(2) Charges in (1) shall be computed at the applicable rates on the full, original principal amount of the loan from the date of the loan to the due date of the final scheduled installment irrespective of the fact that the loan is payable in installments. Said charges shall be added to the principal of the loan and shall not be discounted or deducted therefrom or paid or received at the time the loan is made. For the purpose of computing charges for a fraction of a month, a day shall be considered one-thirtieth of a month.

(3) (a) When any loan contract, new loan, renewal, or otherwise for a period of not more than 61 months is paid in full by cash 1 month or more before the final installment date, the licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with that portion of the total charges which shall be due the borrower as determined by schedules prepared under the rule of 78ths or sum of the digits principle as follows: the amount of the refund or credit shall be as great a proportion of the total charges originally contracted for as the sum of the consecutive monthly balances of the contract scheduled to follow the date of prepayment bears to the sum of all the consecutive monthly balances of the contract, both sums to be determined according to the payment schedule originally contracted for.

(b) When any loan contract, new loan, renewal, or otherwise for a period of more than 61 months is paid in full by cash 1 month or more before the final installment date, the licensee shall refund or credit the borrower with that portion of the total charges that is due the borrower that is applicable to all fully unexpired months in the contract as originally scheduled or, if deferred, as deferred, following the date of prepayment. For this purpose the applicable charge is the charge which would have been earned for that contract if charges had not been precomputed, by applying to the unpaid principal balance, by the actuarial method, the annual percentage rate disclosed pursuant to federal law, based on the assumption that all payments were made as originally scheduled. For all loans that may be subject to this section, charges are computed initially in the same manner used to determine the annual percentage rate.

(4) If the contract so provides, the additional charge for any amount past due according to the original terms of the contract, whether by reason of default or extension agreement, may be 5% of the amount past due, and said amount may be charged once and no more.

(5) (a) The licensee may include in the principal amount of any loan the actual fees paid a public official or agency of the state for filing, recording, or releasing any instrument securing the loan.

(b) The licensee may include in the principal amount of any loan bona fide charges related to real estate security and paid to third parties, including:

(i) fees or premiums for title examination, title insurance, or similar purposes, including survey;

(ii) fees for preparation of a deed, settlement statement, or other documents;

(iii) fees for notarizing deeds and other documents;

(iv) appraisal fees;

(v) fees for credit reports; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 758 1985

(vi) fees paid to a trustee for release of a trust deed.

(6) No further or other charges shall be directly or indirectly contracted for or received by any licensee except those specifically authorized by this chapter. No licensee shall divide into separate parts any contract made for the purpose of or with the effect of obtaining charges in excess of those authorized by this chapter. All balances due to a licensee from any person as a borrower or as an endorser, guarantor, or surety for any borrower or otherwise or due from any husband or wife, jointly or severally, shall be considered a part of any loan being made by a licensee to such person for the purpose of computing interest or charges. If any amount in excess of the charges permitted by this chapter is charged, contracted for, and received, except as the result of an accidental and bona fide error of computation, the licensee shall have no right to collect or receive any charges.

(7) Subsections (2), (3), and (6) of this section apply only to loans on which charges are made on an add-on basis and do not apply to loans on which charges are made on an interest-bearing basis."

Section 4. Section 32-5-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"32-5-303. Borrower to receive copy of contract or statement of contents. At the time the loan is made, there will be delivered to the borrower, or if there be two or more borrowers to one of them, the disclosures required by the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, a copy of the loan contract, or a written statement in the English language showing in clear and distinct terms:

(1) the name and address of the lender and of one of the borrowers or a maker of the loan;

(2) the date of the loan contract;

(3) the schedule of installments or description thereof;

(4) the principal amount of the loan excluding charges;

(5) the rate or amount of charges as the contract may provide;

(6) the amount collected or paid out for each kind of insurance, if any;

(7) the amount collected or paid out for filing and other fees as allowed in 32-5-301*(5)*;

(8) the collateral or security for the loan including all other accommodation or other joint makers (comakers);

(9) that the borrower may prepay the loan in whole or in part at any time during a licensee's regular business hours and, in case the charges have been added to the principal of the loan, that such charges are subject to the refund requirements of 32-5-301*(3)* if such loan is prepaid in full."

Section 5. Section 32-5-322, MCA, is amended to read:

"32-5-322. Deferral charge — rate. The deferral charge for a 1-month period may not exceed an amount equal to the difference between the refund which would be required for prepayment in full under subsection (3) of 32-5-301 as of the scheduled due date of the first deferred installment and the refund which would be required for prepayment in full as of 1 month prior to such date. A proportionate charge may be made for deferrals for periods of more or less than 1 month. A deferral charge is earned pro rata on a daily basis during the deferral period and is fully earned on the last day of the deferral period. Should a loan be prepaid during a deferral period the licensee shall make or credit to the borrower a pro rata refund of the unearned deferral charge in addition to any refund or credit made pursuant to subsection (3) of 32-5-301."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 759 1985

Section 6. Section 32-5-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"32-5-501. Open-end loans. (1) A holder of a supplementary license may make open-end loans and may contract for and receive charges, as allowed under 31-1-112, on unpaid balances outstanding from time to time for the actual time outstanding.

(2) A holder of a supplementary license may not compound charges by adding any unpaid charges authorized by this section to the unpaid principal balance of the borrower's account; however, the unpaid principal balance may include the fees paid to third parties as authorized by 32-5-504 and by 32-5-301*(5)*."

Section 7. Section 32-5-506, MCA, is amended to read:

"32-5-506. Provisions not applicable. The provisions of subsections (3) and (4) of 32-5-301 and the provisions of 32-5-304 do not apply to open-end loans."

Section 8. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the department of commerce to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 9. Saving clause. This act does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, or proceedings that were begun before the effective date of this act.

Approved April 10, 1985.

When a salesman begins or terminates a connection with an issuer or registered broker-dealer, the salesman and the issuer or broker-dealer shall promptly notify the commissioner.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 761 1985

(8) Registration of a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser may be renewed by filing with the commissioner prior to the expiration thereof an application containing such information as the commissioner may require to indicate any material change in the information contained in the original application or any renewal application for registration as a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser filed with the commissioner by the applicant, payment of the prescribed fee, and, in the case of a broker-dealer, by filing a financial statement showing the financial condition of such broker-dealer as of a date within 90 days. A registered broker-dealer or investment adviser may file an application for registration of a successor, to become effective upon approval of the commissioner.

(9) Every registered broker-dealer and investment adviser shall make and keep such accounts and other records, except with respect to securities exempt under 30-10-104(1), as may be prescribed by the commissioner. All records so required shall be preserved for 3 years unless the commissioner prescribes otherwise for particular types of records. All the records of a registered broker-dealer or investment adviser are subject at any time or from time to time to such reasonable periodic, special, or other examinations, within or without this state, by representatives of the commissioner, as the commissioner considers necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(10) The commissioner may by order deny, suspend, or revoke registration of any broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, any partner, officer, or director:

(a) has filed an application for registration under this section which, as of its effective date or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact;

(b) has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provision of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or a predecessor law or any rule or order under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or a predecessor law;

(c) has been convicted of any misdemeanor involving a security or any aspect of the securities business or any felony;

(d) is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the securities business;

(e) is the subject of an order of the commissioner denying, suspending, or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser;

(f) is the subject of an order entered within the past 5 years by the securities administrator of any other state or by the federal securities and exchange commission denying or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser or the substantial equivalent of those terms as defined in parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or is the subject of an order of the federal securities and exchange commission suspending or

expelling him from a national securities exchange or national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or is the subject of a United States post office fraud order, but:

(i) the commissioner may not institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under this subsection (f) more than 1 year from the date of the order relied on; and

(ii) he may not enter any order under this subsection (f) on the basis of an order unless that order was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for an order under this section;

(g) has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business;

(h) is insolvent, either in the sense that his liabilities exceed his assets or in the sense that he cannot meet his obligations as they mature, but the commissioner may not enter an order against a broker-dealer or investment adviser under this subsection (h) without a finding of insolvency as to the broker-dealer or investment adviser;

(i) has not complied with a condition imposed by the commissioner under this section or is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience, or knowledge of the securities business; or

(j) has failed to pay the proper filing fee, but the commissioner may enter only a denial order under this subsection (j), and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected.

(11) Upon the entry of the order under subsection (10) of this section, the commissioner shall promptly notify the applicant or registrant, as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is a salesman, that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that if requested by the applicant or registrant within 15 days after the receipt of the commissioner's notification the matter will be promptly set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested within 15 days and none is ordered by the commissioner, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing, may affirm, modify, or vacate the order.

(12) If the commissioner finds that any registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to do business as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, or salesman or is subject to an adjudication of mental incompetence or to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian or cannot be located after reasonable search, the commissioner may by order cancel the registration or application.

(13) The commissioner may, after suspending or revoking registration of any broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser under subsection (10), impose a fine not to exceed $5,000 upon such broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser. The fine is in addition to all other penalties imposed by the laws of this state and must be collected by the commissioner in the name of the state of Montana and deposited in the general fund. Imposition of any fine under this subsection is an order from which an appeal may be taken pursuant to 30-10-308. If any broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser fails to pay a fine referred to in this subsection, the amount of the fine is a lien upon all of the assets and property of such broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser in this state and may be recovered by suit by the commissioner and deposited in the general fund. Failure of a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser to pay a fine also constitutes a forfeiture of his right to do business in this state under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter."

Section 2. Section 30-10-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-10-305. Injunctions and other remedies. (1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, he may in his discretion:

(a) issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing. The commissioner may issue a temporary order pending the hearing that remains in effect until 10 days after any hearing is held or that becomes final if the person to whom notice is addressed does not request a hearing within 15 days after receipt of the notice; or

(b) without the issuance of a cease and desist order, bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any such acts or practices and to enforce compliance with parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The commissioner may not be required to post a bond. If the commissioner prevails, he is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees as fixed by the court.

(2) A final judgment or decree, criminal or civil, determining that a person has violated parts 1 through 3 of this chapter in an action brought by the commissioner for such violation, other than a consent judgment or decree entered before trial, is prima facie evidence against that person in an action brought against him under 30-10-307.

(3) The commissioner may, after giving reasonable notice and an opportunity for a hearing under this section, impose a fine not to exceed $5,000 per violation upon a person found to have engaged in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or any rule or order issued under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter. The fine is in addition to all other penalties imposed by the laws of this state and must be collected by the commissioner in the name of the state of Montana and deposited in the general fund. Imposition of any fine under this subsection is an order from which an appeal may be taken pursuant to 30-10-308. If any person fails to pay a fine referred to in this subsection, the amount of the fine is a lien upon all of the assets and property of such person in this state and may be recovered by suit by the commissioner and deposited in the general fund. Failure of the person to pay a fine also constitutes a forfeiture of his right to do business in this state under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter."

In discharging its duties, the board of investments and the Montana economic development board shall consider the preservation of purchasing power of capital during periods of high monetary inflation.

(4) The board of investments has the sole authority to invest state funds other than the Montana in-state investment fund. No other agency may invest such state funds. (4) a fund consisting of gifts, donations, grants, legacies, bequests, devises, and other contributions made or given for a specific purpose or under conditions expressed in the gift, donation, grant, legacy, bequest, devise, or contribution on the part of the state of Montana to be observed. If such gift, donation, grant, legacy, bequest, devise, or contribution permits investment and is not otherwise restricted by its terms, it may be treated jointly with other such gifts, donations, grants, legacies, bequests, devises, or contributions.

(5) a fund consisting of coal severance taxes allocated thereto under section 5, Article IX, of the Montana constitution; the principal of this trust fund shall be permanent; in the event the legislature appropriates any part of the principal of this fund by vote of three-fourths of the members of each house, such liquidation may create a gain or loss in the principal; and due consideration shall be given to investments which will benefit the smaller communities in the state. The state's investment business will be directed to out-of-state firms only when there is a distinct economic advantage to the state of Montana.

(2) The board may enter into a commitment agreement with the board of housing at the time of an issue of bonds or notes by the board of housing providing for the purchase at a specified future date, not to exceed 15 years from the date of the issue, of all or any portion of the amount of mortgage loans purchased with the proceeds of the issue. Such institutions may request in writing that they be listed for solicitation on bids for public money not necessary for immediate use by the unit of local government. In counties having less than two such institutions, the local governing body may solicit bids from and deposit public money in such institutions in neighboring counties unless the local financial institution agrees to pay the same rate of interest bid by the neighboring financial institutions. (b) The request or order for such examination shall fix a time and place therefor, due regard being had to the convenience of the employee and his physical condition and ability to attend at the time and place fixed. The employee shall be entitled to have a physician present at any such examination. So long as the employee, after such written request, shall fail or refuse to submit to such examination or shall in any way obstruct the same, his right to compensation shall be suspended. Any physician or panel of physicians employed by the employer, the insurer, or the division who shall make or be present at any such examination may be required to testify as to the results thereof.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 793 1985

(2) In the event of a dispute concerning the physical condition of a claimant or the cause or causes of his injury or disability, if any, the division, at the request of the claimant, employer, or insurer, as the case may be, shall require the claimant to submit to such examination as it may deem desirable by a physician or panel of physicians within the state or elsewhere who have had adequate and substantial experience in the particular field of medicine concerned with the matters presented by the dispute. The physician or panel of physicians making the examination shall file a written report of findings with the division for its use in the determination of the controversy involved. Medical fees must be based on the median fees as billed to the state compensation insurance fund during the year preceding the adoption of the schedule. The division shall adopt rules establishing relative unit values, groups of specialties, the procedures insurers must use to pay for services under the schedule, and the method of determining the median of billed medical fees. These rules shall be modeled on the 1974 revision of the 1969 California Relative Value Studies.*"

Section 3. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the division of workers' compensation to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

(3) Prior to determining the boundary of the district, the governing body or persons preparing a petition shall consult with the county election administrator to prepare a description of the boundary of the proposed district. WHEREAS, the Legislature considers it to be in the best interests of the state to enact an allocation procedure different from that specified in the Act for calendar year 1986 and subsequent calendar years.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [This act] may be cited as the "Montana Private Activity Bond Allocation Plan".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [this act], unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Department" means the department of administration provided for in 2-15-1001.

(2) "Limit" or "private activity bond limit" means the total state ceiling applicable to the state of Montana for any calendar year for the issuance of tax exempt private activity bonds, as determined under the provisions of the reform act.

(3) "Private activity bond" means a tax-exempt private activity bond, as defined under the provisions of the reform act.

(4) "Reform act" means the federal Tax Reform Act of 1984 and particularly subtitle B of Title VII thereof, entitled "Private Activity Bonds", which are a part of the federal Deficit Reduction Act of 1984 (Public Law 98-369).

(5) "State issuer agencies" means those state agencies authorized by state law to issue bonds that would qualify as private activity bonds.

Section 3. Private activity bond limit. The aggregate amount of private activity bonds that may be issued by state issuer agencies and local political subdivisions during any calendar year may not exceed the private activity bond limit for that calendar year.

Section 4. Allocation of limit. The private activity bond limit is allocated among the state issuer agencies and local political subdivisions of the state as follows:

(1) 40% of the limit to the state issuer agencies;

(2) 60% of the limit to local political subdivisions.

Section 5. Determination of state issuer agencies' allocations. The state issuer agencies' allocations of the limit must be made by the director of the department.

Section 6. Determination of local political subdivisions' allocations. (1) Local political subdivisions wishing to obtain an allocation of the limit shall apply to the department for an allocation. The application must contain the following information:

(a) the name of the local political subdivision;

(b) a description of the proposed project;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 801 1985

(c) the location of the project;

(d) the name and address of the project owner and operator;

(e) a certified copy of the inducement resolution adopted by the local political subdivision pursuant to section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, approving the project and granting preliminary authorization for the issuance of the bonds for the project;

(f) the preliminary opinion of a qualified bond counsel that the proposed project qualifies as a private activity bond project under applicable state law and, if the bonds are issued, that the interest thereon will be exempt from federal income taxation under section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended;

(g) evidence that all public hearing requirements concerning the proposed project have been met;

(h) a copy of a letter from an underwriter, bank, or other financial institution stating in effect that in its opinion the project is feasible, that bonds could be successfully sold under current market conditions, and that it has reviewed all of the information necessary to form its opinion; and

(i) the amount of allocation requested.

(2) Allocations to local political subdivisions must be made by the department on the basis of the chronological order of the receipt of their completed applications. Completed applications received on the same day by the department must be ranked according to the earliest inducement resolution date.

Section 7. Limitation on local political subdivision allocations. Prior to the first Monday in October of a calendar year, the maximum single project allocation of the limit that may be approved for a local political subdivision, except as may otherwise be limited by the reform act, may not exceed $15 million.

Section 8. Notification of approval or disapproval by the department. Upon receipt of an application for an allocation of the limit, the department shall notify the applicant of the approval of the allocation or the reasons for disapproval as soon as possible.

Section 9. Term of allocations. (1) Unless terminated earlier by the state agency or local political subdivision involved, an allocation of the limit is valid for 90 days from the date the department's notice of approval is mailed. The department may extend the period of validity for an additional 30 days upon presentation of evidence to it prior to the expiration of the 90-day period that an agreement to purchase the allocated private activity bonds has been obtained from an entity with the legal ability to purchase them.

(2) If the allocated private activity bonds are not issued within the period of validity, as determined under subsection (1), the allocation automatically expires and is thereafter subject to reallocation.

(3) All allocations for a calendar year expire on December 31 of that year; however, this subsection does not limit the term of an allocation that is carried forward by the state agency or local political subdivision involved, with respect to a carry forward project as defined in the reform act and proposed and temporary U.S. treasury regulations for private activity bond allocation as published in the Federal Register on October 5, 1984.

Section 10. Allocations not transferable. Allocations of the limit may not be transferred between projects.

Section 11. Reapplication. If the department disapproves an application for an allocation of the limit or if an allocation expires under [section 9], the state agency or local political subdivision involved may reapply for an allocation. The reapplication must be reviewed as any other application by the department, according to the chronological order of its receipt. No priority or preference may be given to a reapplication because of the prior application.

Section 12. Unused or recaptured allocations. (1) On the third Monday in August of each calendar year any unallocated limit remaining must be pooled by the department and must thereafter be available for state issuer agencies and local political subdivisions alike as provided in [sections 5 and 6] except that the $15 million limitation on local political subdivision allocations under [section 7] continues in effect.

(2) On the first Monday in October of each calendar year any unallocated limit remaining in the pool is available to state issuer agencies and local political subdivisions alike as provided in [sections 5 and 6] with no limitation on the amount of allocation that can be made for an individual project other than the limitations imposed by the reform act and the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

(3) For purposes of this section, an application from a state issuer agency for an allocation must contain the information required in [section 6] for a local political subdivision application and must be approved and ranked by the department in the manner provided by [section 6(2)].

Section 13. Effective date. This act is effective January 1, 1986.

Approved April 10, 1985.

Section 1. Scope of part. The proper place of trial (venue) of a civil action is in the county or counties designated in this part.

Section 2. Designation of proper place of trial not jurisdictional. The designation of a county in this part as a proper place of trial is not jurisdictional and does not prohibit the trial of any cause in any court of this state having jurisdiction.

Section 3. Power of court to change place of trial. The designation in this part of a proper place of trial does not affect the power of a court to change the place of a trial for the reasons stated in 25-2-201(2) or (3), or pursuant to an agreement of the parties as provided in 25-2-202.

Section 4. Right of defendant to move for change of place of trial. If an action is brought in a county not designated as the proper place of trial, a defendant may move for a change of place of trial to a designated county.

Section 5. Multiple proper counties. If this part designates more than one county as a proper place of trial for any action, an action brought in any such county is brought in a proper county and no motion may be granted to change the place of trial upon the ground that the action is not brought in a proper county under 25-2-201(1). If an action is brought in a county not designated as a proper place of trial, a defendant may move for a change of place of trial to any of the designated counties.

Section 6. Multiple claims. In an action involving two or more claims for which this part designates more than one as a proper place of trial, a party entitled to a change of place of trial on any claim is entitled to a change of place of trial on the entire action, subject to the power of the court to separate claims or issues for trial under Rule 42(b) of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 7. Multiple defendants. If there are two or more defendants in an action, a county that is a proper place of trial for any defendant is proper for all defendants, subject to the power of the court to order separate trials under Rule 42(b) of the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure. If an action with two or more defendants is brought in a county that is not a proper place of trial for any of the defendants, any defendant may make a motion for change of place of trial to any county which is a proper place of trial.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE LOAN GUARANTY AUTHORITY TO THE AGRICULTURAL LOAN AUTHORITY; CREATING AN AGRICULTURAL LOAN GUARANTY FUND; AMENDING SECTION 80-12-103, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 80-12-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-12-103. Agricultural loan authority — general powers. The authority may:

(1) retain professional consultants and advisers;

(2) adopt rules governing its procedures;

(3) purchase agricultural loans made by financial institutions;

(4) issue bonds, in accordance with 80-12-301, necessary to provide funds for implementing this chapter;

(5) invest any funds generated by sale of bonds in the permissible investments outlined in 17-6-211 until such time as the funds are needed for any of the authority's other functions;

(6) procure insurance or guaranties in amounts and in the form the authority considers desirable or necessary, from any party, including a governmental agency, against any loss in connection with its loan agreements; and

(7) use the assistance and services of the farmers home administration, the production credit association, the federal land bank, or private lenders in approving loans for issuance of bonds."

Section 2. Loan guaranty program. (1) The authority may guarantee and make commitments to guarantee payment required by a loan funded under this chapter or any other agricultural loan for which a guaranty has been approved by the authority upon such terms and conditions as the authority may prescribe in accordance with this chapter. In administering the guaranty program, the authority may require the payment of a fee or premium, establish application fees, and prescribe application, notification, contract and guaranty forms, rules, and guidelines.

(2) Guaranties by the authority under this chapter must:

(a) be made for a loan that the authority finds meets the policies and objectives of this chapter;

(b) be made to an applicant for a guaranty approved by the authority;

(c) contain amortization provisions satisfactory to the authority; and

(d) be in such principal amount, be in such form, and contain such terms and provisions with respect to payment of property insurance, repairs, alterations, taxes, assessments, delinquency charges, and default remedies as the authority determines to be necessary.

(3) The authority is authorized from time to time to enter into guaranties, insurance contracts, or any other agreements or contracts with respect to the agricultural loan guaranty fund and any guaranteed loan or other credit agreement. Such an agreement or contract may contain terms and provisions necessary or desirable in connection with the guaranty program, subject to the requirements established, including without limitation terms and provisions relating to loan documentation, review, approval procedures, origination and servicing rights and responsibilities, default obligations, procedures and obligations, and obligations with respect to guaranty contracts made under this chapter.

(4) Any contract of guaranty made by the authority under the authorization of this chapter must provide that claims payable thereunder must be paid from amounts available in the agricultural loan guaranty fund and from amounts available under the terms of any applicable contract or agreement with the financial institution that originated the guaranteed loan. The obligation of the authority to make payments under such a contract is limited solely to such sources and does not constitute a debt or liability of the state. A guaranty contract and any rule or guideline of the authority implementing the guaranty program may contain such other terms, provisions, or conditions as the authority considers necessary or appropriate, including without limitation those relating to the payment of guaranty premiums, the giving of notice, claim procedure, the sources of payment for claims, the priority of competing claims for payment, the release or termination of loan security and borrower liability, the timing of payment, the maintenance and disposition of projects and the use of amounts received during periods of loan delinquency or upon default, and any other provision concerning the rights of insured parties or conditions to the payment of guaranty claims. Any premiums for the guarantee of loan payments under the provisions of this chapter may be determined on such basis and be payable by such person in such amounts and at such times as the authority determines, and the amount of the premium need not be uniform among the various loans, leases, or other credit agreements guaranteed.

Section 3. Agricultural loan guaranty fund. (1) The authority shall create an agricultural loan guaranty fund. The fund must be held by a trustee or other fiduciary designated by the authority. There must be deposited into the fund amounts, insurance fees, premiums, and such other revenues and assets as the authority considers necessary to comply with any contract or agreement entered into by the authority under this chapter. The authority may borrow from and deposit in the agricultural loan guaranty fund up to $20,000,000 from any available state fund, including funds of the Montana board of housing.

(2) The amounts in the fund must be used to satisfy any claim resulting from a defaulted loan or other credit agreement. The amounts in the fund may also be used for any other purpose prescribed by the authority in accordance with guaranty contracts with financial institutions entered into pursuant to this chapter, including without limitation the protection of the interest of the authority in loans during periods of delinquency or upon default.

(3) The minimum reserve requirement for the agricultural loan guaranty fund must be such amount as may be provided in an agreement, resolution, or indenture with the holders of bonds issued under this chapter, but not in excess of the aggregate annual payments due under the loans or other credit agreements guaranteed by the authority. No loan or other credit agreement may be guaranteed by the authority if the amount of money available in the agricultural loan guaranty fund would be less than the miniumum reserve requirement.

(4) In order to assure the maintenance of the agricultural loan guaranty fund, the authority shall, on or before September 1 in each year preceding the convening of the legislature, deliver to the governor a certificate stating the sum, if any, required to restore the agricultural loan guaranty fund to the minimum reserve requirement. The governor shall include in the executive budget submitted to the legislature the sum required to restore the agricultural loan guaranty fund to the minimum reserve requirement. Nothing contained herein shall obligate the legislature to make an appropriation for this purpose.

(5) All amounts remitted to the authority under this section constitute loans to the authority and must be repaid to the state treasury without interest from available operating revenues of the authority in excess of amounts required for the guarantee of loans.

Section 4. Codification instruction. Sections 2 and 3 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 80, chapter 12, and the provisions of Title 80, chapter 12, apply to sections 2 and 3.

Section 5. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

(a) the land on which the building is located, except any portion thereof included in a unit or made a limited common element by the declaration;

(2) The assessment provisions of subsection (1) are not negated by the existence or formation of a contract between the developer and lot purchasers or an agreement among lot purchasers that would attempt to obligate the developer or an association of lot owners to pay taxes on the common elements.

Section 3. Section 70-23-801, MCA, is amended to read:

"70-23-801. Removal from chapter — recorded instrument — consent of lienholders. All of the unit owners may remove a property from the provisions of this chapter by executing and recording an instrument to that effect if the holders of all liens affecting any of the units consent thereto or agree, in either case by instruments duly recorded, that their liens be transferred to the undivided interest of the unit owner in the property after removal from the provisions of this chapter."

(11) (a) "Small miner" means a person, firm, or corporation that engages in the business of mining or reprocessing of tailings or waste materials that does not remove from the earth during any calendar year material in excess of 36,500 tons in the aggregate, that holds no operating permit under 82-4-335, and that conducts:

(i) operations resulting in not more than 5 acres of the earth's surface being disturbed and unreclaimed; or

(ii) two operations which disturb and leave unreclaimed less than 5 acres per operation if the respective mining properties are:

(A) the only operations engaged in by the person, firm, or corporation;

(B) at least 1 mile apart at their closest point; and

(C) not operated simultaneously except during seasonal transitional periods not to exceed 30 days.

(b) For the purpose of this definition only, the department shall, in computing the area covered by the operation, exclude access or haulage roads that are required by a local, state, or federal agency having jurisdiction over that road to be constructed to certain specifications if that public agency notifies the department in writing that it desires to have the road remain in use and will maintain it after mining or exploration ceases.

(12) "Surface mining" means all or any part of the process involved in mining of minerals by removing the overburden and mining directly from the mineral deposits thereby exposed, including but not limited to open-pit mining of minerals naturally exposed at the surface of the earth, mining by the auger method, and all similar methods by which earth or minerals exposed at the surface are removed in the course of mining. Surface mining does not include the extraction of oil, gas, bentonite, clay, coal, sand, gravel, phosphate rock, or uranium or excavation or grading conducted for on-site farming, on-site road construction, or other on-site building construction.

(13) "Underground mining" means all methods of mining other than surface mining.

(14) "Unit of surface-mined area" means that area of land and surface water included within an operating permit actually disturbed by surface mining during each 12-month period of time, beginning at the date of the issuance of the permit, and it comprises and includes the area from which overburden or minerals have been removed, the area covered by mining debris, and all additional areas used in surface mining or underground mining operations which by virtue of such use are thereafter susceptible to erosion in excess of the surrounding undisturbed portions of land.

(15) "Vegetative cover" means the type of vegetation, grass, shrubs, trees, or any other form of natural cover considered suitable at time of reclamation."

Section 2. Section 82-4-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-304. Exemption — works performed prior to promulgation of rules. No provision of this part shall be applicable to any exploration or mining work performed prior to the date of promulgation of the board's rules pursuant to 82-4-321 relating to exploration and mining. No provision of this part is applicable to the reprocessing of tailings or waste rock that occurred prior to the date of promulgation of the board's rules regarding those activities. If, after the date of promulgation of rules applicable to mills not located at a mine site, work is performed at such a mill that was constructed and operated before promulgation of those rules, this part applies only to the areas initially disturbed after promulgation of those rules."

Section 3. Section 82-4-335, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-335. Operating permit. (1) No person shall engage in mining, ore processing, or reprocessing of tailings or waste material or construct or operate a hard-rock mill or disturb land in anticipation of those activities in the state without first obtaining an operating permit from the board to do so. A separate operating permit shall be required for each complex. Prior to receiving an operating permit from the board, any person must pay the basic permit fee of $25 and must submit an application on a form provided by the board, which shall contain the following information and any other pertinent data required by the rules:

(a) name and address of the operator and, if a corporation or other business entity, the name and address of its principal officers, partners, and the like and its resident agent for service of process, if required by law;

(b) minerals expected to be mined;

(c) a proposed reclamation plan;

(d) expected starting date of operations;

(e) a map showing the specific area to be mined and the boundaries of the land which will be disturbed, topographic detail, the location and names of all streams, roads, railroads, and utility lines on or immediately adjacent to the area, location of proposed access roads to be built, and the names and addresses of the surface and mineral owners of all lands within the mining area, to the extent known to applicant;

(f) types of access roads to be built and manner of reclamation of road sites on abandonment; and

(g) a plan which will provide, within limits of normal operating procedures of the industry, for completion of the operation.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), the permit provided for in subsection (1) for a large-scale mineral development as defined in 90-6-302 shall be conditioned to provide that activities under the permit may not commence until the hard-rock mining impact board approves the impact plan under 90-6-307 and until the permittee has provided a written guarantee to the department and to the hard-rock mining impact board of compliance within the time schedule with the commitment made in the impact plan approved by the hard-rock mining impact board, as provided in 90-6-307. If the permittee does not comply with that commitment within the time scheduled, the board, upon receipt of written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board, shall suspend the permit until it receives written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board that the permittee is in compliance.

(3) Compliance with 90-6-307 is not required for exploration and bulk sampling for metallurgical testing when the aggregate samples are less than 10,000 tons."

Section 4. Section 82-4-336, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-336. Reclamation plan and specific reclamation requirements. (1) The reclamation plan shall provide that reclamation activities, particularly those relating to control of erosion, to the extent feasible, shall be conducted simultaneously with the operation and in any case shall be initiated promptly after completion or abandonment of the operation on those portions of the complex that will not be subject to further disturbance. In the absence of an order by the board providing a longer period, the plan shall provide that reclamation activities shall be completed not more than 2 years after completion or abandonment of the operation on that portion of the complex.

(2) In the absence of emergency or suddenly threatened or existing catastrophe, an operator may not depart from an approved plan without previously obtaining from the department written approval of his proposed change.

(3) Provision shall be made to avoid accumulation of stagnant water in the mined area which may serve as a host or breeding ground for mosquitoes or other disease-bearing or noxious insect life.

(4) All final grading shall be made with nonnoxious, nonflammable, noncombustible solids unless approval has been granted by the board for a supervised sanitary fill.

(5) Where mining has left an open pit exceeding 2 acres of surface area and the composition of the floor or walls of the pit are likely to cause formation of acid, toxic, or otherwise pollutive solutions (hereinafter "objectionable effluents") on exposure to moisture, the reclamation plan shall include provisions which adequately provide for:

(a) insulation of all faces from moisture or water contact by covering to a depth of 2 feet or more with material or fill not susceptible itself to generation of objectionable effluents;

(b) processing of any objectionable effluents in the pit before their being allowed to flow or be pumped out of it to reduce toxic or other objectionable ratios to a level considered safe to humans and the environment by the board;

(c) drainage of any objectionable effluents to settling or treatment basins when the objectionable effluents must be reduced to levels considered safe by the board before release from the settling basin; or

(d) absorption or evaporation of objectionable effluents in the open pit itself; and

(e) prevention of entrance into the open pit by persons or livestock lawfully upon adjacent lands by fencing, warning signs, and such other devices as may reasonably be required by the board.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 855 1985

(6) Provisions for vegetative cover shall be required in the reclamation plan if appropriate to the future use of the land as specified in the reclamation plan.

(7) The reclamation plan shall provide for the reclamation of all disturbed land. Proposed reclamation need not reclaim the areas to a better condition or different use than that which existed prior to development or mining.

(8) A reclamation plan shall be approved by the board if it adequately provides for the accomplishment of the activities specified in this section."

Section 5. Section 82-4-337, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-337. Inspection — issuance of operating permit — modification. (1) (a) The board shall cause all applications for operating permits to be reviewed for completeness within 30 days of receipt. The board shall notify the applicant concerning completeness as soon as possible. An application is considered complete unless the applicant is notified of any deficiencies within 30 days of receipt.

(b) Unless the review period is extended as provided in this section, the board shall review the adequacy of the proposed reclamation plan and plan of operation within 30 days of the determination that the application is complete or within 60 days of receipt of the application if the board does not notify the applicant of any deficiencies in the application. If the applicant is not notified of deficiencies or inadequacies in the proposed reclamation plan and plan of operation within such time period, the operating permit shall be issued upon receipt of the bond as required in 82-4-338. The department shall promptly notify the applicant of the form and amount of bond which will be required. No permit may be issued until sufficient bond has been submitted pursuant to 82-4-338.

(c) (i) Prior to issuance of a permit, the department shall inspect the site unless the department has failed to act on the application within the time prescribed in subsection (1)(b). If the site is not accessible due to extended adverse weather conditions, the department may extend the time period prescribed in subsection (1)(b) by not more than 180 days to allow inspection of the site and reasonable review. The department must serve written notice of extension upon the applicant in person or by certified mail, and any such extension is subject to appeal to the board in accordance with the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(ii) If the department determines that additional time is needed to review the application and reclamation plan for a major operation, the department and the applicant shall negotiate to extend the period prescribed in subsection (1)(b) by not more than 365 days in order to permit reasonable review.

(iii) Failure of the board to act upon a complete application within the extension period constitutes approval of the application, and the permit shall be issued promptly upon receipt of the bond as required in 82-4-338.

(2) The operating permit shall be granted for the period required to complete the operation and shall be valid until the operation authorized by the permit is completed or abandoned unless the permit is suspended or revoked by the board as provided in this part.

(3) The operating permit shall provide that the reclamation plan may be modified by the board, upon proper application of the permittee or department, after timely notice and opportunity for hearing, at any time during the term of the permit and for any of the following reasons:

(a) to modify the requirements so they will not conflict with existing laws;

(b) when the previously adopted reclamation plan is impossible or impracticable to implement and maintain;

(c) when significant environmental problem situations are revealed by field inspection."

Section 6. Section 82-4-340, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-340. Successor operator. When one operator succeeds to the interest of another in any uncompleted operation by sale, assignment, lease, or otherwise, the board may release the first operator from the duties imposed upon him by this part as to such operation, provided that both operators have complied with the requirements of this part and the successor operator assumes the duty of the former operator to complete the reclamation of the land, in which case the board shall transfer the permit to the successor operator upon approval of the successor operator's bond as required under this part."

Section 7. Section 82-4-351, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-351. Reasons for denial of permit. (1) A permit may be denied for any of the following reasons:

(a) the plan of operation or reclamation conflicts with Title 75, chapter 2, as amended, Title 75, chapter 5, as amended, Title 75, chapter 6, as amended, or rules adopted pursuant to these laws;

(b) the reclamation plan does not provide an acceptable method for accomplishment of reclamation as required by this part.

(2) A denial of a permit shall be in writing and state the reasons therefor."

Section 8. Section 90-6-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-302. Definitions. In this part the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means the hard-rock mining impact board established in 2-15-1822.

(2) "Bonds" include bonds, notes, warrants, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, temporary bonds, temporary notes, interim receipts, interim certificates, and all instruments or obligations evidencing or representing indebtedness or evidencing or representing the borrowing of money or evidencing or representing a charge, lien, or encumbrance on specific revenues, special assessments, income, or property of a political subdivision, including all instruments or obligations payable from a special fund.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 857 1985

(3) "Local government unit" means a political subdivision of this state, including a county, city, town, school district, or other special district that provides any of the services referred to in subsection (1)(c) of 90-6-307.

(4) "Large-scale mineral development" means the construction or operation of a hard-rock mine and the associated milling facility that will:

(a) employ at any given time at least 100 people; or

(b) cause, or be expected to cause, an increase in estimated population of at least 15% in a local government unit when measured against the average population of the local government unit in the 3-year period immediately preceding the commencement of the construction of the mining facility. A mining operation that would qualify as a large-scale mineral development under this subsection is not a large-scale mineral development if the mine owner and operator are small miners as defined in 82-4-303."

Section 9. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the board of land commissioners or department of state lands to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 12, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 456

[HB 858]

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH LOCAL AND REGIONAL PORT AUTHORITIES; TO PROVIDE FOR A TAX LEVY FOR THE OPERATION THEREOF; TO PROVIDE FOR PORT COMMISSIONERS; TO PROVIDE FOR THE GENERAL POWER OF A PORT AUTHORITY; TO PROVIDE FOR ISSUANCE OF BONDS AND FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF OPERATION AND USE PRIVILEGES; TO PROVIDE FOR RULES IN CONNECTION WITH A PORT AUTHORITY; TO PROVIDE FOR ACCEPTANCE OF FEDERAL AID FOR PORTS; AND TO PROVIDE FOR COUNTY AND MUNICIPAL COOPERATION IN REGARD TO PORT OPERATION; AMENDING SECTION 67-10-402, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Local port authority. (1) Any county or municipality may, by resolution of its governing body, create a public body, corporate and politic, to be known as a local port authority, authorized to exercise its functions upon the appointment and qualification of the first commissioners thereof. Such a governing body may by resolution determine to exercise any or all powers granted to such authorities in [sections 1 through 17], unless such powers have been conferred upon a local or regional port authority.

(2) Upon the adoption of a resolution creating a local port authority, the governing body of the county or municipality shall, pursuant to the resolution, appoint not less than five persons as commissioners of the authority. The commissioners who are first appointed must be designated to serve for terms of 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 years, respectively, but thereafter each commissioner must be appointed for a term of 5 years, except that vacancies occurring other than by expiration of a term must be filled for the unexpired term by the governing body.

Section 2. Regional port authority. (1) Two or more local governments may by joint resolution create a public body, corporate and politic, to be known as a regional port authority. The resolution creating a regional port authority must create a board of not less than five commissioners. The number to be appointed, their term, and their compensation, if any, must be provided for in the resolution. Each such regional port authority shall organize, select officers for terms to be fixed by agreement, and adopt and amend from time to time rules for its own procedure.

(2) A regional port authority may be increased from time to time to serve one or more additional counties or municipalities if each additional local government, each of the local governments then included in the regional authority, and the commissioners of the regional authority, respectively, adopt a joint resolution consenting thereto. However, if a local port authority for any local government seeking to be included in the regional authority is then in existence, the commissioners of the local authority must consent to the inclusion of the county or municipality in the regional authority; upon the inclusion of such local government in the regional authority, all rights, contracts, obligations, and real and personal property of the local authority must be in the name of and vest in the regional authority.

(3) A regional port authority may be decreased if each of the local governments then included in the regional authority and the commissioners of the regional authority consent to the decrease and make provisions for the retention or disposition of its assets and liabilities.

(4) A county or municipality may not adopt any resolution authorized by this section without a public hearing thereon. Notice must be given at least 10 days prior to the hearing in a newspaper published in the county or municipality or, if there is no newspaper published therein, in a newspaper having general circulation in the county or municipality.

(5) For the purpose of [sections 1 through 17], a regional port authority has the same powers as all other political subdivisions in the adoption and enforcement of comprehensive port zoning regulations, as provided by the laws of this state.

Section 3. Commissioners. (1) The powers of each authority are vested in the commissioners thereof. A majority of the commissioners of an authority constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting business of the authority and exercising its powers for all other purposes. Action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of not less than a majority of the commissioners present.

(2) There must be elected a chairman and vice-chairman from among the commissioners. An authority may employ an executive director, secretary, technical experts, and such other officers, agents, and employees, permanent and temporary, as it may require and shall determine their qualifications, duties, and compensation. An authority may delegate to one or more of its agents or employees such powers or duties as it considers proper.

(3) A commissioner of an authority is entitled to receive expenses, as provided in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503, incurred in the discharge of his duties. Each commissioner shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. The certificates of the appointment and reappointment of commissioners must be filed with the authority.

Section 4. Functions — public and governmental. The acquisition of any land or interest therein pursuant to [sections 1 through 17], the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, and protection of ports and transportation and storage facilities, and the exercise of any powers granted to port authorities and other public agencies to be severally or jointly exercised are public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity. All land and other property and privileges acquired and used by or on behalf of any authority or other public agency, as provided in [sections 1 through 17], must be used for public and governmental purposes and as a matter of public necessity.

Section 5. Cooperation of county or municipality. For the purpose of aiding and cooperating in the planning, undertaking, construction, or operation of ports and facilities pursuant to [sections 1 through 17], any county or municipality for which an authority has been created upon such terms, with or without consideration, as it may determine may:

(1) lend or donate money to the authority;

(2) provide that all or a portion of the taxes or funds available or to become available to or required by law to be used by the county or municipality for port purposes be transferred or paid directly to the port authority as such funds become available to the county or municipality;

(3) cause water, sewer, or drainage facilities or any other facilities that it is empowered to provide to be furnished adjacent to or in connection with such ports or facilities;

(4) dedicate, sell, convey, or lease any of its interest in any property or grant easements, licenses, or any other rights or privileges therein to the authority;

(5) furnish, dedicate, close, pave, install, grade, regrade, plan or replan streets, roads, roadways, and walks from established streets or roads to such port or facilities;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 862 1985

(6) do any and all things, whether or not specifically authorized in this section and not otherwise prohibited by law, that are necessary or convenient to aid and cooperate with the authority in the planning, undertaking, construction, or operation of ports and facilities; and

(7) enter into agreements with the authority respecting action to be taken by the county or municipality pursuant to the provisions of this section.

Section 6. General powers of authority. An authority has all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of [sections 1 through 17], including but not limited to the power to:

(1) certify annually to the governing bodies creating it the amount of tax to be levied by the governing bodies for port purposes;

(2) sue and be sued, have a seal, and have perpetual succession;

(3) execute such contracts and other instruments and take such other action as may be necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of [sections 1 through 17];

(4) plan, establish, acquire, develop, construct, purchase, enlarge, improve, maintain, equip, operate, regulate, and protect ports and transportation and storage facilities. For such purposes an authority may, by purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, acquire real or personal property or any interest therein, including easements.

(5) establish comprehensive port zoning regulations in accordance with the laws of this state;

(6) acquire, by purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, existing ports and transportation and storage facilities. However, an authority may not acquire or take over any port or transportation and storage facility owned or controlled by another authority, county, municipality, or public agency without the consent of such authority, county, municipality, or public agency.

Section 7. Rules. An authority may adopt, amend, and repeal such reasonable resolutions, rules, and orders as it considers necessary for the management, government, and use of any port or transportation and storage facility owned by it or under its control. No rule, order, or standard prescribed by the commission may be inconsistent with or contrary to any act of the congress of the United States or any regulation promulgated or standard established pursuant thereto. The authority shall keep on file at the principal office of the authority a copy of all its rules for public inspection.

Section 8. Supplementary powers. In addition to the general and special powers conferred by [sections 1 through 17], each authority may exercise all powers incidental to the exercise of such general and special powers.

Section 9. Granting of operation and use privileges. (1) In connection with the operation of a port or transportation and storage facility owned or controlled by an authority, the authority may enter into contracts, leases, and other arrangements for terms not to exceed 30 years with any persons:

(a) granting the privilege of using or improving the port or transportation and storage facility or any portion or facility thereof or space therein for commercial purposes;

(b) conferring the privilege of supplying goods, commodities, services, or facilities at the port or transportation and storage facility; and

(c) making available services to be furnished by the authority or its agents at the port or transportation and storage facility.

(2) In each case the authority may establish the terms and conditions and fix the charges, rentals, or fees for the privileges or services, which must be reasonable and uniform for the same class of privilege or service and must be established with due regard to the property and improvements used and the expenses of operation to the authority.

Section 10. Port property — disposal. Except as may be limited by the terms and conditions of any grant, loan, or agreement authorized by [section 16], an authority may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any port, transportation and storage facility, or other property or portion thereof or interest therein acquired pursuant to [sections 1 through 17]. Such disposal by sale, lease, or otherwise must be in accordance with the laws of this state governing the disposition of other public property.

Section 11. Municipal tax levy. The port authority may certify annually to the governing bodies the amount of tax to be levied by each municipality participating in the creation of the port authority, and the municipality may levy the amount certified, pursuant to provisions of law authorizing cities and other political subdivisions of this state to levy taxes. The levy made may not exceed the maximum levy permitted by 67-10-402 for port purposes or any lower limit that may have been established by the municipality or municipalities in the resolution creating the authority. The municipality shall collect the taxes certified by a port authority in the same manner as other taxes are levied and collected and make payment to the port authority. The proceeds of such taxes when and as paid to the port authority must be deposited in a special account or accounts in which other revenues of the authority are deposited and may be expended by the authority as provided for in [sections 1 through 17]. Prior to the issuance of bonds under [sections 13 and 14], the port authority or the municipality may by resolution covenant and agree that the total amount of such taxes then authorized by law, or such portion thereof as may be specified by the resolution, will be certified, levied, and deposited annually as provided in this section until the bonds and interest thereon are fully paid.

Section 12. County tax levy. In counties supporting ports of port authorities, a levy authorized in 67-10-402 may be made for such purposes.

Section 13. Bonds and obligations. (1) An authority may borrow money for any of its corporate purposes and issue bonds therefor, including refunding bonds, in such form and upon such terms as it determines, payable out of any revenues of the authority, including revenues derived from:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 864 1985

(a) any port or transportation and storage facility;

(b) taxes levied pursuant to [section 11] or 67-10-402;

(c) grants or contributions from the federal government; or

(d) other sources.

(2) The bonds may be issued by resolution of the authority, without an election and without any limitation of amount, except that no bonds may be issued at any time if the total amount of principal and interest to become due in any year on such bonds and on any then outstanding bonds for which revenues from the same source are pledged exceeds the amount of such revenues to be received in that year, as estimated in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds. The authority shall take all action necessary and possible to impose, maintain, and collect rates, charges, rentals, and taxes, if any are pledged, sufficient to make the revenues from the pledged source in such year at least equal to the amount of principal and interest due in that year.

(3) The bonds may be sold at public or private sale and may bear interest at a rate not exceeding the limitation of 17-5-102. Except as otherwise provided in [sections 1 through 17], any bonds issued pursuant to [sections 1 through 17] by an authority may be payable as to principal and interest solely from revenues of the authority and shall state on their face the applicable limitations or restrictions regarding the source from which such principal and interest are payable.

(4) Bonds issued by an authority, county, or municipality pursuant to the provisions of [sections 1 through 17] are declared to be issued for an essential public and governmental purpose by a political subdivision within the meaning of 15-30-111(2)(a).

(5) For the security of any such bonds, the authority, county, or municipality may by resolution make and enter into any covenant, agreement, or indenture and may exercise any additional powers authorized to be exercised by a municipality under Title 7, chapter 7, parts 44 and 45. The sums required from time to time to pay principal and interest and to create and maintain a reserve for the bonds may be paid from any revenues referred to in [sections 1 through 17], prior to the payment of current costs of operation and maintenance of the facilities.

Section 14. Method of funding deficiency. (1) Subject to the conditions stated in this section, the governing body of any county or any municipality having a population in excess of 10,000, with respect to bonds issued pursuant to [sections 1 through 17] by the local government or by an authority in which the local government is included, may by resolution covenant that if at any time all revenues, including taxes, appropriated and collected for such bonds are insufficient to pay principal or interest then due, it will levy a general tax upon all of the taxable property in the county or municipality for the payment of such deficiency. The governing body may further covenant that at any time a deficiency is likely to occur within 1 year for the payment of principal and interest due on such bonds, it will levy a general tax upon all the taxable property in the county or municipality for the payment of such deficiency, and such taxes are not subject to any limitation of rate or amount applicable to other county or municipal taxes but are limited to a rate estimated to be sufficient to produce the amount of the deficiency. If more than one local government is included in an authority issuing bonds pursuant to [sections 1 through 17], the local governments may apportion the obligation to levy taxes for the payment of, or in anticipation of, a deficiency in the revenues appropriated for such bonds in such manner as the local governments may determine.

(2) The resolution shall state the principal amount and purpose of the bonds and the substance of the covenant respecting deficiencies.

(3) No such resolution becomes effective until the question of its approval has been submitted to the qualified electors of the local government at a special election called for that purpose by the governing body of the local government and a majority of the electors voting on the question have voted in favor thereof. The notice and conduct of the election is governed, to the extent applicable, as provided for municipal general obligation bonds in Title 7, chapter 7, part 42, for an election called by cities and towns, and as provided for county general obligation bonds in Title 7, chapter 7, part 22, for an election called by counties. If a majority of the electors voting thereon vote against approval of the resolution, the local government has no authority to make the covenant or to levy a tax for the payment of deficiencies pursuant to this section, but such local government or authority may nevertheless issue bonds under [sections 1 through 17] payable solely from the sources referred to in [section 13(1)].

Section 15. Debt service fund. A port authority may create a debt service fund and accumulate therein a sum determined by the governing body, together with interest thereon, for the use, repairs, maintenance, and capital outlays of a port.

Section 16. Federal and state money. An authority may accept, receive, receipt for, and spend federal and state money and other public or private money made available by grant or loan to accomplish any of the purposes of [sections 1 through 17]. All federal money accepted under this section must be accepted and spent by the authority upon terms and conditions prescribed by the United States and consistent with state law. All state money accepted under this section must be accepted and spent by the authority upon terms and conditions prescribed by the state.

Section 17. Tax exemption. Any property in this state acquired by an authority for port purposes pursuant to the provisions of [sections 1 through 17], and any income derived by the authority from the ownership, operation, or control thereof, are exempt from taxation to the same extent as other property used for public purposes.

Section 18. Section 67-10-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"67-10-402. Tax levy. (1) For the purpose of establishing, constructing, equipping, maintaining, and operating airports, landing fields, and ports under the provisions of this chapter and as provided in [sections 1 through 17], the county commissioners or the city or town council may each year assess and levy, in addition to the annual levy for general administrative purposes or the all-purpose levy authorized by 7-6-4451 and 7-6-4452, a tax on the dollar of taxable value of the property of said county, city, or town:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 866 1985

(a) not to exceed 2 mills for airports and landing fields; and

(b) not to exceed 2 mills for ports.

(2) In the event of a jointly established airport, landing field, or port, the county commissioners and the council or councils involved shall determine in advance the levy necessary for such purposes and the proportion each political subdivision joining in the venture must pay.

(3) No property within any political subdivision may be subject to a tax pursuant to this section at an annual rate in excess of 2 mills for airports, landing fields, or ports unless it is found that the levy is insufficient for the purposes enumerated. In such a case the commissioners and councils acting are authorized and empowered to contract an indebtedness on behalf of such county, city, or town, as the case may be, upon the credit thereof by borrowing money or issuing bonds for such purposes, provided that no bonds may be issued for such purpose until the proposition has been submitted to the qualified electors and a majority vote cast therefor, except as provided in subsection (4).

(4) For the purpose of establishing a reserve fund to resurface, overlay, or improve existing runways, taxiways, and ramps, the governing bodies may set up annual reserve funds in their annual budget if:

(a) the reserve is approved by the governing bodies during the normal budgeting procedure;

(b) the necessity to resurface or improve said runways by overlays or similar methods every so many years is based upon competent engineering estimates; and

(c) the funds are expended at least within each 10-year period.

(5) The reserve fund may not exceed at any time a competent engineering estimate of the cost of resurfacing or overlaying the existing runways, taxiways, and ramps of any one airport for each fund. The governing body of the airport or port, if in its judgment it considers it advantageous, may invest the fund in any interest-bearing deposits in a state or national bank insured by the FDIC or obligations of the United States of America, either short-term or long-term. Interest earned from such investments must be credited to the operations and maintenance budget of the airport or port governing body. The above provisions, notwithstanding other budget control measures and due to the uniqueness of the subject matter, are declared necessary in the interests of the public health and safety."

Approved April 12, 1985.

(2) If the approving authority denies the request for a budget amendment, he shall immediately forward a notice of denial to the legislative fiscal analyst.

(3) If the approving authority intends to make certification of the budget amendment, immediately upon his completion of the certification he shall forward the certification and all supporting documentation to the legislative fiscal analyst. The approving authority may not approve the budget amendment until he receives the legislative finance committee's written report for that budget amendment unless:

(a) the report is not received within 90 calendar days from the date the certification and supporting documentation were forwarded to the finance committee, in which case the approving authority may approve the budget amendment; or

(b) there has been a waiver of review and report as provided in subsection (6).

(4) The legislative fiscal analyst shall review each proposed budget amendment that has been certified by the approving authority for compliance with statutory budget amendment requirements and standards and shall present a written report of this review to the legislative finance committee. Within 10 days after the meeting of the legislative finance committee that considered the budget amendment, the legislative fiscal analyst shall submit the committee's report to the approving authority.

(5) Upon receipt of the legislative finance committee's written report, the approving authority may approve or deny the budget amendment or may return the budget amendment to the requesting agency for further information. Upon receipt of such waiver, the approving authority may approve the budget amendment on completion of his certification. Such a waiver, however, affects only the legislative fiscal analyst's written review and the legislative finance committee's written report on the budget amendment, and all other budget amendment requirements and standards remain in effect. After such a waiver, the legislative fiscal analyst may complete the written review.

(7) Nothing in this part confers any authority on the legislative finance committee to approve or deny budget amendments."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Purpose. Nothing contained in [this act] shall change the nature of a royalty interest prior to actual production. The purpose of [this act] is to place a limitation on actions seeking royalty interests reserved by the county, once production has commenced, without in any way affecting the validity of any claims a county may have prior to the commencement of production.

next money due the state, city, town, or district, respectively, on account of taxes paid or collected. Purchasers of such certificate or owners thereof by assignment where sales have been made by cities or towns which by resolution or ordinance collect their own taxes instead of having the same collected by the county treasurer shall be reimbursed in similar manner and in similar circumstances out of the city or town treasury upon order of the mayor, with proper charges and deductions against the respective funds of the said city or town, upon the next collection of taxes by said city or town.

(3) If such purchaser or owner of such certificate after such purchase or assignment from the state, county, city, town, or district has paid the taxes, penalty, and interest upon such piece or parcel of land, he or his assignee thereof shall have a lien upon such piece or parcel for the amount of taxes, penalty, and interest so paid, with interest as now provided by law to be collected upon delinquent taxes, which lien shall have the same priority as is now provided by law; and if he is in possession of such piece or parcel of land, he shall not be ejected therefrom until such amount and interest and penalty shall be paid.

(4) All affirmative defenses at law or equity, including but not limited to estoppel, laches, adverse possession, plus any applicable statute of limitations, shall apply in any suit brought to challenge the title to a royalty interest in land claimed to have been acquired by a county by tax deed.

(5) An action against a county to recover a royalty interest in land acquired by the county by tax deed must be brought within the period prescribed in 27-2-210."

Section 3. Section 27-2-210, MCA, is amended to read:

"27-2-210. Actions arising from the seizure or sale of property for taxes. (1) Within 1 year is the period prescribed for the commencement of an action against an officer or officer de facto:

(c) for damages for the seizure, detention, or sale of or injury to any goods, wares, merchandise, or other personal property seized; or

(d) for damages done to any person or property in making any such seizure.

(2) The period prescribed for the commencement of an action to recover stock sold for a delinquent assessment is within 6 months.

(3) An action against a county to recover a royalty interest in land acquired by the county by tax deed must be brought within 3 years after the commencement of commercial production of oil, gas, or other minerals from the land."

(b) limits the period within which such money may be expended to a period ending not more than 2 years after the date of the enactment of the appropriation law; and

(c) limits the amount which may be used during any 12-month period beginning on July 1 and ending on the next June 30 to an amount which does not exceed the amount by which the aggregate of the amounts credited to the account of this state pursuant to section 903 of the Social Security Act, as amended, during the same 12-month period and the 34 preceding 12-month periods exceeds the aggregate of the amounts used pursuant to this section and charged against the amounts credited to the account of this state during any of such 35 12-month periods.

Section 6. Section 19-4-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-4-101. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Accumulated contributions" means the sum of all the amounts deducted from the compensation of a member or paid by a member and credited to his individual account in the annuity savings fund, together with interest. Regular interest shall be computed and allowed to provide a benefit at the time of retirement.

(2) "Actuarial equivalent" means a benefit of equal value when computed, with regular interest, on the basis of the mortality tables adopted by the retirement board.

(3) "Annuity" means the payments made to a beneficiary for life which are derived from a member's accumulated contributions.

(4) "Annuity reserve" means the present value of all payments to be made on account of a member's annuity computed, with regular interest, on the basis of the mortality tables adopted by the retirement board.

(5) (a) "Average final compensation" means the average of the earned compensation of a member during the 3 consecutive years of full-time service which yield the highest average and on which contributions have been made as required by 19-4-602. If the earned compensation includes any termination pay, the member shall select one of the following options:

(i) use the total termination pay in the calculation of the average final compensation. The member and the employer shall pay such contributions to the retirement system as are determined by the board to adequately compensate the system for the additional retirement benefit. The contributions must be made at the time the termination pay is received.

(ii) use a yearly amount of termination pay added to each of the 3 consecutive years' salary used in the calculation of the average final compensation. The amount of such compensation used in the calculation of average final compensation must be divided by the total number of years of creditable service with the employer from whom this type of compensation was received to determine a yearly amount. The member and the employer must pay the regular contribution on the termination pay; or

(iii) exclude the termination pay from the average final compensation. No contribution is required of either the employer or member.

(b) For purposes of this subsection, termination pay includes any form of termination pay or any lump-sum payment for deferred compensation, sick leave, or accumulated vacation credit, or any other payment for time not worked other than compensation received while on sick leave or authorized leave of absence.

(6) "Beneficiary" means a person in receipt of a pension, annuity, retirement allowance, or other benefit provided by the retirement system.

(7) "Creditable service" is that service defined by 19-4-401.

(8) "Earned compensation" means the full compensation, pay, or salary actually paid to a member and reported to the retirement system, including amounts paid under a salary reduction agreement to a tax sheltered annuity or deferred compensation program and the value of any housing provided by the employer. The employer shall fix the value of any housing provided. The term does not include any other amounts paid in kind or fringe benefits not actually paid to a member. The earned compensation of a member who had less than 3 consecutive years of full-time service during the 5 years preceding his retirement is the compensation, pay, or salary which he would have earned had his part-time service been full-time service. The earned compensation of a member who is awarded a disability retirement allowance prior to the completion of a full year is the compensation, pay, or salary which he would have received had he completed the full year, except that any termination pay, as defined in subsection (5)(b), received by the member is limited to the amount actually paid and is not the amount he would have earned had he completed the full year.

(9) "Employer" means the state of Montana, the trustees of a district, or any other agency or subdivision of the state which employs a person who is designated a member of the retirement system.

(10) "Full-time service" means service which is full-time and which extends over a normal academic year of at least 9 months. With respect to those members employed by the office of the superintendent of public instruction, any other state agency or institution, or the office of a county superintendent, "full-time service" means service which is full-time and which totals at least 9 months in any one year.

(11) "Member" means a person who has an individual account in the annuity savings fund. An active member is a person included under the provisions of 19-4-302. An inactive member is a person included under the provisions of 19-4-303.

(12) "Part-time service" means service which is less than full-time or which totals less than 9 months in any one year. Part-time service shall be credited in the proportion that the actual time worked bears to full-time service.

(13) "Pension" means the payments made to a beneficiary for life which are paid out of the pension accumulation fund.

(14) "Pension reserve" means the present value of all payments to be made on account of a pension computed, with regular interest, on the basis of the mortality tables adopted by the retirement board.

(15) "Prior service" means employment of the same nature as service defined in subsection (20) of this section but rendered before September 1, 1937.

(16) "Regular interest" means interest at 4% per annum compounded annually or at such other rate as may be set by the retirement board in accordance with 19-4-501(2).

(17) "Retirement allowance" means the annuity plus the pension.

(18) "Retirement board" means the retirement system's governing board provided for in 2-15-1010.

(19) "Retirement system" means the teachers' retirement system of the state of Montana provided for in 19-4-102.

(20) "Service" means the performance of such instructional duties or related activities as would entitle the person to active membership in the retirement system under the provisions of 19-4-302."

Section 7. Section 19-4-602, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-4-602. Annuity savings fund — member's contribution. The annuity savings fund is a fund in which the contributions for the members to provide for their annuities shall be accumulated in individual accounts for each member. The normal contribution of each member is 7.044% of his earned compensation. Contributions to and payments from the annuity savings fund shall be made in the following manner:

(1) (a) Each employer, pursuant to section 414(h)(2) of the federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended and applicable on July 1, 1985, shall pick up and pay the contributions which would be payable by the member under this section for service rendered after June 30, 1985.

(b) The member's contributions picked up by the employer must be designated for all purposes of the retirement system as the member's contributions, except for the determination of a tax upon a distribution from the retirement system. These contributions must become part of the member's accumulated contributions but must be accounted for separately from those previously accumulated.

(c) The member's contributions picked up by the employer must be payable from the same source as is used to pay compensation to the member and must be included in the member's wages as defined in 19-1-102 and his earned compensation as used to define his average final compensation in 19-4-101. The employer shall deduct from the member's compensation an amount equal to the amount of the member's contributions picked up by the employer and remit the total of the contributions to the retirement board.

(d) The deductions shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for a member may be reduced thereby. Every member is considered to consent to the deductions prescribed by this section, and payment of salary or compensation less the deductions is a complete discharge of all claims whatsoever for the services rendered by the member during the period covered by the payment, except as to the benefits provided by the retirement system.

(2) In addition to the normal contributions and subject to the approval of the retirement board, any member may redeposit in the annuity savings fund, by a single payment or by an increased rate of contribution, an amount equal to any accumulated contributions which he has previously withdrawn, plus interest in the amount the contributions would have earned had the contributions not been withdrawn.

(3) The accumulated contributions of a member withdrawn by him or paid to his estate or to his designated beneficiary in event of his death shall be paid from the annuity savings fund. Upon the retirement of a member, his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the annuity savings fund to the pension accumulation fund."

Section 8. Section 19-4-706, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-4-706. Exemption from taxation and legal process. The pensions, annuities, or any other benefits accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of the retirement system and the accumulated contributions and cash and securities in the various funds of the retirement system are:

(1) exempted from any state, county, or municipal tax of the state of Montana except for a refund paid under 19-4-603 of a member's contributions picked up by an employer after June 30, 1985, as provided in 19-4-602;

(2) not subject to execution, garnishment, attachment by trustee process or otherwise, in law or equity, or any other process; and

(3) unassignable except as specifically provided in this chapter."

Section 9. Section 19-4-707, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-4-707. Increase in allowances of certain retirees. (1) On July 1, 1977, every beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance who was receiving such allowance prior to July 1, 1971, will be entitled to an increase in his monthly retirement allowance of $1 per month for each year of creditable service plus $2 per month for each year he was retired prior to July 1, 1971. In the case of beneficiaries who are receiving an early retirement allowance, the latter figure of $2 per month shall be multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years of his creditable service and the denominator of which is 30.

[SB 281]

AN ACT LIMITING THE AMOUNT OF A PERMANENT TOTAL BENEFITS LUMP-SUM WORKERS' COMPENSATION PAYMENT BY DISCOUNTING IT BY 7 PERCENT, COMPOUNDED ANNUALLY; PROVIDING A METHOD FOR DETERMINING WHETHER A LUMP-SUM PAYMENT WILL BE GRANTED; AMENDING SECTIONS 39-71-741, 39-71-2109, AND 39-71-2207, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE, RETROACTIVE EFFECT CLAUSE, AND AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-71-741, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-741. Compromise settlements and lump-sum payments — division approval required. (1) The biweekly payments provided for in this chapter may be converted, in whole or in part, into a lump-sum payment. Regardless of the date of the injury or of a prior lump-sum payment, a lump-sum conversion of permanent total biweekly payments awarded or paid after [the effective date of this act] must equal the estimated present value of the total unpaid permanent total biweekly payments, assuming interest at 7% per year, compounded annually, unless the conversion improves the financial condition of the worker or his beneficiary, as provided in subsection (2)(b). If the estimated duration of the compensation period is the remaining life expectancy of the claimant or the claimant's beneficiary, the remaining life expectancy must be determined by using the most recent table of life expectancy in years as published by the United States national center for health statistics.

(2) The conversion can only be made upon the written application of the injured worker or the worker's beneficiary, with the concurrence of the insurer, and approval of the conversion rests in the discretion of the division as to the amount of the lump-sum payment and the advisability of the conversion. It is presumed that biweekly payments are in the best interests of the worker or his beneficiary. The approval or award of a lump-sum conversion by the division or the workers' compensation judge must be the exception, not the rule, and may be given only if the worker or his beneficiary demonstrates that his ability to sustain himself financially is more probable with a whole or partial lump-sum conversion than with the biweekly payments and his other available resources. The following procedure must be used by the division and the workers' compensation judge in determining whether a lump-sum conversion of permanent total biweekly payments will be approved or awarded:

(a) The difference between the present discounted value of a lump sum and the future value of the biweekly payments cannot be the only grounds for approving or awarding a lump-sum conversion.

(b) A lump-sum conversion that improves the financial condition of the worker or his beneficiary over what would have been reasonably expected had the worker not been injured or died can be approved or awarded only if the lump-sum conversion is limited to the purchase price to the insurer of an annuity that would yield an amount equal to the biweekly benefits payable over the estimated duration of the compensation period. The worker or his beneficiary must demonstrate the financial condition that would have been reasonably expected, taking into consideration his age, education, work experience, and probable job promotions and pay increases.

(c) If the existing delinquent or outstanding debts are used as grounds for a lump-sum conversion, the worker or his beneficiary must demonstrate through a debt management plan that a lump sum for that purpose is necessary to sustain himself financially.

(d) If a business venture is used as grounds for a lump-sum conversion, the worker or his beneficiary must demonstrate through a business plan that a lump sum for that purpose is necessary to sustain himself financially. The business plan must at least show the feasibility of the business, given the market conditions in the intended market area, and the cash that will be available to him on a biweekly basis after start-up costs and other business expenses are considered throughout the expected life of the venture.

(3) If the division finds that an application for lump-sum conversion does not adequately demonstrate the ability of the worker or his beneficiary to sustain himself financially, the division may order, at the insurer's expense, financial, medical, vocational rehabilitation, educational, or other evaluative studies to determine whether a lump-sum conversion is in the best interest of the worker or his beneficiary.

(4) The division has full power, authority, and jurisdiction to allow and approve compromises of claims under this chapter. All settlements and compromises of compensation provided in this chapter are void without the approval of the division. Approval of the division must be in writing. The division shall directly notify every claimant of any division order approving or denying a claimant's settlement or compromise of a claim.

(5) A controversy between a claimant and an insurer regarding the conversion of biweekly payments into a lump sum is considered a dispute for which the workers' compensation judge has jurisdiction to make a determination."

Section 2. Section 39-71-2109, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-2109. When employer may be relieved from liability. Any employer bound by compensation plan No. 1 against whom liability may exist for compensation for permanent benefits under this chapter may, with the approval of the division, be relieved therefrom by:

(1) depositing the present value or the estimated present value of the total unpaid compensation for which such liability exists for permanent total benefits, assuming interest at 7% per annum, compounded annually, with the division; or

(2) depositing with the division the sum of the unpaid permanent partial benefits for which such liability exists."

Section 3. Section 39-71-2207, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-2207. How insurer relieved from liability. Any compensation plan No. 2 insurer against whom liability may exist for compensation for permanent benefits under this chapter may, with the approval of the division, be relieved therefrom by:

(1) depositing the present value or the estimated present value of the total unpaid compensation for which such liability exists for permanent total benefits, assuming interest at 7% per annum compounded annually, with the division; or

(2) depositing with the division the sum of the unpaid permanent partial benefits for which such liability exists."

Section 4. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the division of workers' compensation to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 5. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 6. Applicability — retroactive effect. This act applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to injuries incurred and lump sums awarded or paid prior to the effective date of this act if a lump sum is awarded or paid for the injury or the award or settlement is reopened and redetermined after the effective date of this act. The mere passage of this act is not grounds for reopening any case.

Section 7. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1985.

(i) the seller reasonably believes that all the buyers are purchasing for investment; and

(ii) no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective buyer; provided, however, that a commission may be paid to a registered broker-dealer if the securities involved are registered with the United States securities and exchange commission under the federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(b) For the purpose of the exemption provided for in subsection (8)(a), an offer to sell is made in this state, whether or not the offeror or any of the offerees is then present in this state, if the offer either originates from this state or is directed by the offeror to this state and received at the place to which it is directed (or at any post office in this state in the case of a mailed offer).

(9) any offer or sale of a preorganization certificate or subscription if:

(a) no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective subscriber;

(b) the number of subscribers does not exceed 10; and

(c) no payment is made by any subscriber;

(10) any transaction pursuant to an offer to existing security holders of the issuer, including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities, nontransferable warrants, or transferable warrants exercisable within not more than 90 days of their issuance, if:

(a) no commission or other remuneration (other than a standby commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this state; or

(b) the issuer first files a notice specifying the terms of the offer and the commissioner does not by order disallow either (a) or (b) of this subsection;

(11) any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which registration statements have been filed under both parts 1 through 3 of this chapter and the Securities Act of 1933 if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under either law;

(12) any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which a registration statement has been filed under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter and the commissioner in his discretion does not disallow the offer in writing within 10 days of such filing;

(13) the issuance of any stock dividend, whether the corporation distributing the dividend is the issuer of the stock or not, if nothing of value is given by stockholders for the distribution other than the surrender of a right to a cash dividend where the stockholder can elect to take a dividend in cash or stock;

(14) any transaction incident to a right of conversion or a statutory or judicially approved reclassification, recapitalization, reorganization, quasi-reorganization, stock split, reverse stock split, merger, consolidation, or sale of assets; or

(15) any transaction in compliance with such rules as the commissioner in his discretion may adopt to serve the purposes of 30-10-102."

Section 4. Section 30-10-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-10-201. Registration of broker-dealers, salesmen, and investment advisers. (1) It is unlawful for any person to transact business in this state as a broker-dealer or salesman, except in transactions exempt under 30-10-105, unless he is registered under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter.

(2) It is unlawful for a broker-dealer or issuer to employ a salesman to represent him in this state, except in transactions exempt under 30-10-105, unless the salesman is registered under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 917 1985

(3) It is unlawful for any person to transact business in this state as an investment adviser unless:

(a) he is so registered under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter;

(b) he is registered as a broker-dealer under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter; or

(c) his only clients in this state are investment companies, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, or insurance companies.

(4) A broker-dealer or a salesman, acting as an agent for an issuer or as an agent for a broker-dealer in the offer or sale of securities for an issuer, or an investment adviser may apply for registration by filing an application in such form as the commissioner prescribes and payment of the fee prescribed in 30-10-209. Except for persons in the employ of brokerage firms governed by the regulations of the securities and exchange commission, all salesmen must be legal residents of this state and must have actually resided in this state for a period of at least 1 year next prior to the date of application for registration. The commissioner may, upon request and for good cause shown by an applicant, waive the residency requirement. Payment of the waiver fee shall be as prescribed in 30-10-209. A salesman acting as agent for an issuer or broker-dealer who is not currently in compliance with the financial responsibility requirements prescribed by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and by regulations adopted under it, may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be required to file with the commissioner a bond of a surety company duly authorized to transact business in this state. The bond shall be in an amount determined by the commissioner, payable to the state of Montana and conditioned upon the faithful compliance with the provisions of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter, and provide that upon failure to so comply, the salesman shall be liable to any and all persons who may suffer loss by reason thereof.

(5) The application shall contain whatever information the commissioner requires.

(6) When the registration requirements are complied with, the commissioner shall approve the registration.

(7) Registration of a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser shall be effective until December 31 following such registration or such other time as the commissioner may by rule adopt and may be renewed. The registration of a salesman is not effective during any period when he is not associated with an issuer or a registered broker-dealer specified in his application. When a salesman begins or terminates a connection with an issuer or registered broker-dealer, the salesman and the issuer or broker-dealer shall promptly notify the commissioner.

(8) Registration of a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser may be renewed by filing prior to the expiration thereof an application containing such information as the commissioner may require to indicate any material change in the information contained in the original application or any renewal application for registration as a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser filed by the applicant, payment of the prescribed fee, and, in the case of a broker-dealer who is not a member of NASD, inc., by filing a financial statement showing the financial condition of such broker-dealer as of a date within 90 days. A registered broker-dealer or investment adviser may file an application for registration of a successor, to become effective upon approval of the commissioner.

(9) Every registered broker-dealer and investment adviser shall make and keep such accounts and other records, except with respect to securities exempt under 30-10-104(1), as may be prescribed by the commissioner. All records so required shall be preserved for 3 years unless the commissioner prescribes otherwise for particular types of records. All the records of a registered broker-dealer or investment adviser are subject at any time or from time to time to such reasonable periodic, special, or other examinations, within or without this state, by representatives of the commissioner, as the commissioner considers necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(10) The commissioner may by order deny, suspend, or revoke registration of any broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, any partner, officer, or director:

(a) has filed an application for registration under this section which, as of its effective date or as of any date after filing in the case of an order denying effectiveness, was incomplete in any material respect or contained any statement which was, in the light of the circumstances under which it was made, false or misleading with respect to any material fact;

(b) has willfully violated or willfully failed to comply with any provision of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or a predecessor law or any rule or order under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or a predecessor law;

(c) has been convicted of any misdemeanor involving a security or any aspect of the securities business or any felony;

(d) is permanently or temporarily enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice involving any aspect of the securities business;

(e) is the subject of an order of the commissioner denying, suspending, or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser;

(f) is the subject of an order entered within the past 5 years by the securities administrator of any other state or by the federal securities and exchange commission denying or revoking registration as a broker-dealer, salesman, or investment adviser or the substantial equivalent of those terms as defined in parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or is the subject of an order of the federal securities and exchange commission suspending or expelling him from a national securities exchange or national securities association registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or is the subject of a United States post office fraud order, but:

(i) the commissioner may not institute a revocation or suspension proceeding under this subsection (f) more than 1 year from the date of the order relied on; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 919 1985

(ii) he may not enter any order under this subsection (f) on the basis of an order unless that order was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for an order under this section;

(g) has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business;

(h) is insolvent, either in the sense that his liabilities exceed his assets or in the sense that he cannot meet his obligations as they mature, but the commissioner may not enter an order against a broker-dealer or investment adviser under this subsection (h) without a finding of insolvency as to the broker-dealer or investment adviser;

(i) has not complied with a condition imposed by the commissioner under this section or is not qualified on the basis of such factors as training, experience, or knowledge of the securities business; or

(j) has failed to pay the proper filing fee, but the commissioner may enter only a denial order under this subsection (j), and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected.

(11) Upon the entry of the order under subsection (10) of this section, the commissioner shall promptly notify the applicant or registrant, as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or registrant is a salesman, that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that if requested by the applicant or registrant within 15 days after the receipt of the commissioner's notification the matter will be promptly set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested within 15 days and none is ordered by the commissioner, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the commissioner. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the commissioner, after notice of and opportunity for hearing, may affirm, modify, or vacate the order.

(12) If the commissioner finds that any registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to do business as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, or salesman or is subject to an adjudication of mental incompetence or to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian or cannot be located after reasonable search, the commissioner may by order cancel the registration or application."

Section 5. Section 30-10-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-10-206. General provisions regarding registration of securities. (1) A registration statement may be filed by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf the offering is to be made, or a registered broker-dealer. Any document filed under parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or a predecessor law within 5 years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the document is currently accurate. The commissioner may by rule or otherwise permit the omission of any item of information or document from any registration statement.

(2) (a) The commissioner may require as a condition of registration by qualification or coordination:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 920 1985

(i) that any security issued within the past 3 years or to be issued to a promoter for a consideration substantially different from the public offering price, or to any person for a consideration other than cash, be deposited in escrow; and

(ii) that the proceeds from the sale of the registered security in this state be impounded until the issuer receives a specified amount from the sale of the security either in this state or elsewhere.

(b) The commissioner may determine the conditions of any escrow or impounding required hereunder but he may not reject a depository solely because of location in another state.

(3) When securities are registered by notification, coordination, or qualification, they may be offered and sold by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf they are registered, or by any registered broker-dealer. Every registration shall remain effective for a period of 1 year unless it is revoked by the commissioner, terminated upon request of the registrant with the consent of the commissioner, or renewed under 30-10-209(1)(b); however, said registration shall be automatically suspended upon a stop order or suspension proceedings being instituted by the securities and exchange commission relative to said securities and shall continue suspended so long as such proceedings are pending and until the registration or filing with the securities and exchange commission is effective. All outstanding securities of the same class as a currently registered security are considered to be registered for the purpose of any nonissuer transaction. A registration statement which has become effective may not be withdrawn for 1 year from its effective date if any securities of the same class are outstanding.

(4) The commissioner may require the person who filed the registration statement to file reports to keep reasonably current the information contained in the registration statement and to disclose the progress of the offering with respect to registered securities which:

(a) are issued by a face-amount certificate company or a redeemable security issued by an open-end management company or unit investment trust as those terms are defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940; or

(b) are being offered and sold directly by or for the account of the issuer."

Section 6. Section 30-10-209, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-10-209. Fees. The following fees shall be paid in advance under the provisions of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter:

(1) (a) For the registration of securities by notification, coordination, or qualification, there shall be paid to the commissioner for the first year of registration a registration fee of $200 for the first $100,000 of initial issue or portion thereof in this state, based on offering price, plus 1/10 of 1% for any excess over $100,000, with a maximum of $1,000.

(b) Each year thereafter, a registration of securities may be renewed, prior to its termination date, for an additional year upon consent of the commissioner and payment of an additional registration fee to be computed at 1/10 of 1% of the aggregate offering price of such securities which are to be offered in this state during that year, even though the maximum fee was paid the preceding year. In no event shall the additional registration fee be less than $200 or more than $1,000. The registration statement for such securities may be amended to increase the amount of securities to be offered.

(c) If a registrant sells securities in excess of the aggregate amount registered for sale in this state, the registrant may file an amendment to the registration statement to include the excess sales. If the registrant fails to file an amendment before the expiration date of the registration order, he shall pay a filing fee for the excess sales of three times the amount calculated in the manner specified in subsection (1)(b). Registration of the excess securities is effective retroactively to the date of the existing registration.

(2) (a) For registration of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, the fee shall be $200 for original registration and $200 for each annual renewal.

(b) For registration of a salesman, the fee shall be $50 for original registration with each employer, $50 for each annual renewal, and $50 for each transfer.

(3) For certified copies of any documents filed with the commissioner, the fee shall be the cost to the department.

(4) For a request for an exemption under 30-10-105*(15)*, the fee shall be established by the commissioner by rule. For a request for any other exemption or an exception to the provisions of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter, the fee shall be $50.

(5) For waiver of the residency requirement of 30-10-201(4), the fee shall be $50 for each original registration.

(6) All fees are considered fully earned when received. In the event of overpayment, only those amounts in excess of $10 may be refunded."

Section 7. Section 30-10-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-10-305. Injunctions and other remedies. (1) Whenever it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, he may in his discretion:

(a) issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing. The commissioner may issue a temporary order pending the hearing that remains in effect until 10 days after the hearing on the allegations contained in the cease and desist order is held or that becomes final if the person to whom notice is addressed does not request a hearing within 15 days after receipt of the notice; or

(b) without the issuance of a cease and desist order, bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any such acts or practices and to enforce compliance with parts 1 through 3 of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The commissioner may not be required to post a bond. If the commissioner prevails, he is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees as fixed by the court.

(2) A final judgment or decree, criminal or civil, determining that a person has violated parts 1 through 3 of this chapter in an action brought by the commissioner for such violation, other than a consent judgment or decree entered before trial, is prima facie evidence against that person in an action brought against him under 30-10-307."

Section 8. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the securities commissioner to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 9. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1985.

(8) any offer or sale to a bank, savings institution, trust company, insurance company, investment company as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, pension or profit-sharing trust, or other financial institution or institutional buyer, or to a broker-dealer, whether the purchaser is acting for itself or in some fiduciary capacity;

(9) any transaction pursuant to an offer directed by the offeror to not more than 10 persons (other than those designated in subsection (8) of this section) in this state during any period of 12 consecutive months, whether or not the offeror or any of the offerees is then present in this state, if:

(a) the seller reasonably believes that all the buyers are purchasing for investment; and

(b) no commission or other remuneration is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any prospective buyer; provided, however, that a commission may be paid to a registered broker-dealer if the securities involved are registered with the United States securities and exchange commission under the federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended;

(11) any transaction pursuant to an offer to existing security holders of the issuer, including persons who at the time of the transaction are holders of convertible securities, nontransferable warrants, or transferable warrants exercisable within not more than 90 days of their issuance, if:

(a) no commission or other remuneration (other than a standby commission) is paid or given directly or indirectly for soliciting any security holder in this state; or

(b) the issuer first files a notice specifying the terms of the offer and the commissioner does not by order disallow either (a) or (b) of this subsection;

(12) any offer (but not a sale) of a security for which registration statements have been filed under both parts 1 through 3 of this chapter and the Securities Act of 1933 if no stop order or refusal order is in effect and no public proceeding or examination looking toward such an order is pending under either law;

(2) any association, corporation, or organization that seeks permission and meets the requirements set by the division by rule for a group of individual employers to operate as self-insured under plan No. 1 of this chapter."

Section 2. Section 39-71-2103, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-2103. Employer permitted to carry on business and settle directly with employee — individual liability. (1) If such employer making such election shall be found by the division to have the requisite financial ability to pay the compensation and benefits in this chapter provided for, then the division shall grant to the employer permission to carry on his business for the fiscal year within which such election is made and such proof filed, or the remaining portion of such fiscal year, and to make such payments directly to his employees as they may become entitled to receive the same.

(2) Each individual employer in an association, corporation, or organization of employers given permission by the division to operate as self-insured under plan No. 1 of this chapter is jointly and severally liable for all obligations incurred by the association, corporation, or organization under this chapter. compensation herein provided to be paid which might reasonably be expected to be chargeable to the employer during the fiscal year to be covered by the permission or that the employer is an association, corporation, or organization of individual employers seeking permission to operate under compensation plan No. 1, the division must require the employer, before granting to him permission or before continuing or engaging in such employment subject to the provisions of compensation plan No. 1, to give security for the payment of compensation, which security must be in such an amount as the division finds is reasonable and necessary to meet all liabilities of the employer which may reasonably and ordinarily be expected to accrue during the fiscal year.

(2) The security must be deposited with the division and may be a certain estimated percent of the employer's last preceding annual payroll or a certain percent of the established amount of his annual payroll for the fiscal year; or the security may be in the form of a bond or undertaking executed to the division in the amount to be fixed by it with two or more sufficient sureties, which undertaking must be conditioned that the employer will well and truly pay or cause to be paid all sums and amounts for which the employer shall become liable under the terms of this chapter to his employees during the fiscal year; or such security may consist of any state, county, municipal, or school district bonds or the bonds or evidence of indebtedness of any individuals or corporations which the division deems solvent; and every such deposit and the character and amount of such securities shall at all times be subject to approval, revision, or change by the division as in its judgment may be required, and upon proof of the final payment of the liability for which such securities are given, such securities or any remaining part thereof shall be returned to the depositor.

(3) The division is liable for the value and safekeeping of all such deposits or securities and shall, at any time, upon demand of a bondsman or the depositor, account for the same and the earnings thereof."

[SB 461]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING COUNTIES, CITIES, CONSOLIDATED CITIES AND COUNTIES, TOWNS, AND SCHOOL DISTRICTS TO ISSUE TAX AND REVENUE ANTICIPATION NOTES TO BE SOLD AT PAR OR DISCOUNT AT PUBLIC SALE OR AT PRIVATE SALE TO THE MONTANA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT BOARD UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE MUNICIPAL FINANCE CONSOLIDATION ACT; PROVIDING THAT THE PURCHASE OF SUCH NOTES AND ISSUANCE OF NOTES BY THE BOARD FOR SUCH PURCHASE ARE EXEMPT FROM THE DOLLAR LIMITATIONS CONTAINED IN THE MUNICIPAL FINANCE CONSOLIDATION ACT; DELETING THE LOAN LIMITATION IN SECTION 17-5-1608(1), MCA; PROVIDING FOR THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COUNTY TREASURERS IN THE ISSUANCE OF SUCH NOTES BY SCHOOL DISTRICTS; EXEMPTING THE TAX AND REVENUE ANTICIPATION NOTES FROM THE DEBT LIMITATIONS ON SUCH LOCAL GOVERNMENTS; AMENDING SECTIONS 17-5-1606, 17-5-1608, 17-5-1611, AND 20-9-212, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 8], unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Governing body" means the legislative authority of a local government, by whatever name designated.

(2) "Local government" means any city, town, county, consolidated city-county, or school district.

(3) "Ordinance" means an ordinance or resolution of the local government.

(4) "Short-term obligations" are tax anticipation notes or revenue anticipation notes that mature at a time not to exceed 13 months from the date issued.

Section 2. Short-term obligations authorized. A local government may issue and sell short-term obligations as provided in [sections 1 through 8] in anticipation of taxes or revenues budgeted to be received and appropriated for expenditure during the fiscal year in which the obligations are issued. The proceeds of the obligations may be expended solely for the purposes for which the taxes or revenues were appropriated and for costs and expenses incident to the issuance and sale thereof. Pending expenditure, the proceeds may be invested as provided by law. The principal and interest on short-term obligations must be repaid from the money derived from the taxes and revenues in anticipation of which they were issued, income from investment of the proceeds of the obligations, and any money otherwise legally available for this purpose.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 928 1985

Section 3. Issuance and sale of short-term obligations — procedure. (1) The issuance of short-term obligations must be authorized by an ordinance of the governing body that fixes the maximum amount of the obligations to be issued or, if applicable, the maximum amount which may be outstanding at any time, the maximum term and interest rate or rates to be borne thereby, the manner of sale, maximum price, form including bearer or registered as provided in Title 17, chapter 5, part 11, terms, conditions, and the covenants of the obligations. Short-term obligations issued under this section shall bear such fixed or variable rate or rates of interest as the governing body considers to be in the best interests of the local government. Variable rates of interest may be fixed in relationship to such standard or index as the governing body designates.

(2) The governing body may sell the short-term obligations at par or at a discount:

(a) at private negotiated sale to the Montana economic development board as provided in Title 17, chapter 5, part 16; or

(b) at public sale to any other person. Any public sale must be noticed as provided in 7-7-4434(2).

Section 4. Refunding and renewal of short-term obligations. Short-term obligations may, from time to time, be renewed or refunded by the issuance of short-term obligations. Short-term obligations may not be renewed or refunded to a date later than 6 months from the end of the fiscal year in which the original short-term obligation was issued.

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE LAW PERTAINING TO DISPOSITION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY ABANDONED BY A TENANT AFTER TERMINATION; AMENDING SECTION 70-24-430, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 70-24-430, MCA, is amended to read:

"70-24-430. Disposition of personal property abandoned by tenant after termination. (1) If a tenancy terminates in any manner except by court order and the landlord reasonably believes the tenant has abandoned all personal property which the tenant has left on the premises, and a period of time of at least 5 days has elapsed since the occurrence of events upon which the landlord formed that belief, the landlord may remove the property from the premises.

(2) The landlord shall inventory and store all goods, chattels, and personal property of the tenant in a place of safekeeping and shall exercise reasonable care for the property. The landlord may charge a reasonable storage charge if the property is stored by the landlord, plus the cost of removal of the property to the place of storage. The landlord may store the property in a commercial storage company, in which case the storage cost includes the actual storage charge plus the cost of removal of the property to the place of storage.

(3) After complying with subsections (1) and (2), the landlord shall:

(a) make a reasonable attempt to notify the tenant in writing that the property must be removed from the place of safekeeping;

(b) notify the local law enforcement office of the property held by the landlord;

(c) make a reasonable effort to determine if the property is secured or otherwise encumbered; and

(d) send a notice by certified mail to the last-known address of the tenant, stating that at a specified time, not less than 15 days after mailing the notice, the property will be disposed of if not removed.

(4) The landlord may dispose of the property after complying with subsection (3) by:

(a) selling all or part of the property at a public or private sale; or

(b) destroying or otherwise disposing of all or part of the property if he reasonably believes the value of the property is so low that the cost of storage or sale exceeds the reasonable value thereof.

(5) If the tenant, upon receipt of the notice provided in subsection (3), responds in writing to the landlord on or before the day specified in the notice that he intends to remove his property and does not do so within 15 days after delivery of the tenant's response, the tenant's property shall be conclusively presumed to be abandoned. If the tenant removes the property, the landlord is entitled to storage costs for the period the property remains in safekeeping plus the cost of removal of the property to the place of storage. Reasonable storage costs are allowed a landlord who stores the property himself, and actual storage costs are allowed a landlord who stores the property in a commercial storage company. A landlord is entitled to payment of the storage costs allowed under this subsection before the tenant may remove the property.

(6) The landlord is not responsible for any loss to the tenant resulting from storage unless the loss is caused by the landlord's purposeful or negligent act. On the event of purposeful violation, the landlord is liable for double damages.

(7) A public or private sale authorized by this section shall be conducted under the provisions of 30-9-504(3) or the sheriff's sale provisions of Title 25, chapter 13, part 7.

(8) The landlord may deduct from the proceeds of the sale the reasonable costs of notice, storage, and sale and any delinquent rent or damages owing on the premises and must remit to the tenant the remaining proceeds, if any, together with an itemized accounting. If the tenant cannot after due diligence be found, the remaining proceeds shall be deposited with the county treasurer of the county in which the sale occurred and, if not claimed within 3 years, shall revert to the general fund of the county available for general purposes."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-1-304, MCA, is amended to read:

(1) The commission may fix seasons, bag limits, possession limits, and season limits; open or close or shorten or lengthen seasons on any species of game, bird, fish, or fur-bearing animal as defined by 87-2-101; and declare areas open to the hunting of deer, antelope, elk, moose, sheep, and goat by bow and arrow permit holders and designate times when only bows and arrows may be used to hunt deer, antelope, elk, moose, sheep, and goat in those areas. It may declare areas open to deer hunting where shotguns only may be used to hunt or kill deer. In areas where deer hunting is open to the use of shotguns only, the commission may authorize the use of muzzleloaders (rifled or smoothbore). It may declare areas open to special license holders only and issue special licenses in a limited number when it determines, after proper investigation, that such a season is necessary to assure the maintenance of an adequate supply of game birds, fish, or animals or fur-bearing animals. It may declare a special season and issue special licenses when game birds or animals or fur-bearing animals are causing damage to private property or when written complaint of such damage has been filed with the commission by the owner of that property. In determining to whom those licenses shall be issued, it may, when more applications are received than the number of animals to be killed, award permits to those chosen under a drawing system. CHAPTER NO. 488

AN ACT GENERALLY REVISING THE LAW REGARDING LEASING OF STATE-OWNED CITY AND TOWN LOTS AND LAND VALUABLE FOR COMMERCIAL DEVELOPMENT; ELIMINATING THE REQUIREMENT THAT STATE LEASES OF LAND ARE SUBJECT TO SALE; CLARIFYING THAT COMMERCIAL PROPERTY MAY BE LEASED FOR THE SAME PERIOD AS CITY AND TOWN LOTS; EXTENDING THE MAXIMUM LEASE PERIOD FROM 25 TO 40 YEARS; AMENDING SECTIONS 77-1-204, 77-6-102, 77-6-109, 77-6-205, AND 77-6-503, MCA; AND REPEALING SECTION 77-6-106, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 77-1-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"77-1-204. Power to sell, lease, or exchange certain state lands. (1) The board is authorized to lease state lands for uses other than agriculture, grazing, timber harvest, or mineral production under such terms and conditions which best meet the duties of the board as specified in 77-1-202 and 77-1-203(1). The lease period for such leases, except for power and school site leases, may not be for longer than 40 years.

(2) The board shall have full power and authority to sell, exchange or lease lands under its jurisdiction by virtue of 77-1-214 when, in its judgment, it is advantageous to the state to do so in the highest orderly development and management of state forests and state parks. Said sale, lease, or exchange shall not be contrary to the terms of any contract which it has entered into."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 939 1985

Section 2. Section 77-6-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"77-6-102. Surface leases authorized. Under the general direction and control of the board, the department shall lease all agricultural and grazing lands and all town lots, city lots, and lands valuable for commercial development open to leasing upon proper application."

Section 3. Section 77-6-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"77-6-109. Duration of lease. No lease to agricultural or grazing lands may be for a period other than 5 or 10 years. Leases for city lots, town lots, and lands valuable for commercial development may not exceed 40 years."

Section 4. Section 77-6-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"77-6-205. Renewal leases. (1) A lessee of state land classed as agricultural, grazing, town lot, city lot, or land valuable for commercial development who has paid all rentals due from him to the state is entitled to have his lease renewed for a period not to exceed the maximum lease period provided in 77-6-109 at any time within 30 days prior to its expiration if no other applications for lease of the land have been received 30 days prior to the expiration of his lease. The renewal shall be at the rental rate provided by law for the renewal period and subject to any other conditions at the time of the renewal imposed by law as terms of the lease. If other applications have been received, the holder of the lease has the preference right to lease the land covered by his former lease by meeting the highest bid made by any other applicant. Applications for lease of lands in this section shall be given preference in the order of their receipt at the office of the department.

(2) The board shall accept the highest bid. If the lessee exercises the preference right and believes the bid to be excessive, he may request an administrative hearing. Such request must contain a statement of reasons why the lessee believes the bid not to be in the state's best interest and must be accompanied by a deposit equal to 20% of the competitive bid in the case of grazing lands and $1 per acre in the case of agricultural lands. The department shall grant the request for a hearing if it determines that the statement indicates evidence that the bid may not be in the state's best interests. The board may, after the hearing, reduce the rental from the amount bid if the lessee shows that the bid is not in the best interest of the state because it is above community standards for a lease of such land, would cause damage to the tract, or impair its long-term productivity. If the board reduces the bid, it shall set forth its findings and conclusions in writing and so inform the lessee and competitive bidder. It is the duty of the board to secure the best lessees possible, so that the state may receive the maximum return possible with the least injury occurring to the land."

Section 5. Section 77-6-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"77-6-503. Leases of city lots, town lots, and commercial property. As to town lots, city lots, and land valuable for commercial development owned by the state, the fair rental value thereof shall be determined from time to time by the department with the approval of the board and a record made thereof, and such town or city property or land valuable for commercial development may be leased at its current appraised rental value for terms not to exceed 40 years."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 940 1985

Section 6. Repealer. Section 77-6-106, MCA, is repealed.

Section 7. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the board of land commissioners or department of state lands to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 15, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 489

[SB 380]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE SALE OF DEEDS FOR SQUARE INCHES OF LAND IN MONTANA TO RAISE REVENUE FOR MONTANA STATEHOOD CENTENNIAL ACTIVITIES; PROVIDING FOR THE DESIGNATION OF STATE LAND OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FISH, WILDLIFE, AND PARKS AND ACCEPTANCE OF DONATIONS OF LAND FROM PRIVATE DONORS; PROVIDING FOR THE MONTANA STATEHOOD CENTENNIAL OFFICE TO ADMINISTER THE SALE OF DEEDS; PROVIDING FOR THE TITLE RECEIVED BY DEED HOLDERS AND RESERVATION OF VALUABLE INTERESTS IN THE STATE; PROVIDING FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE ACT; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Purpose. The purpose of this act is to allow the state to acquire, through designation or donation, land for the purpose of selling symbolic deeds, in increments of 1 square inch, to raise funds for statehood centennial activities.

Section 2. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in [this act] the following definitions apply:

(1) "Office" means the Montana statehood centennial office as provided for in [section 3, House Bill No. 873].

(2) "Department" means the department of fish, wildlife, and parks.

(3) "Centennial acre" means one or more separate parcels of land of about 1 acre located in Montana that are acquired by donation from a private source or designated land owned by the state. If there is more than one centennial acre, each separate parcel is to be designated by the office as a particular centennial acre, such as "the agricultural centennial acre" or "the mountain centennial acre".

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 941 1985

Section 3. Source of land and sale of deeds — centennial fundraising. (1) (a) The department may designate 1 or more acres of land to which it has title as a centennial acre.

(b) The department may accept the donation of title to 1 or more acres of land, for the benefit of statehood centennial fundraising, from a private donor. The department shall work with each donor to select a representative parcel of Montana land. A donation must include title to all mineral, oil and gas, or water rights attached to the land. A donation of the acre is exempt from the requirements of Title 76, chapters 3 and 4.

(2) As provided in [section 1], the state of Montana, through the office, may sell deeds to the centennial acre in portions of 1 square inch per sale.

Section 4. Title to centennial acre. (1) Title to the centennial acre remains with the state.

(2) The holder of a deed sold through the provisions of [this act] is entitled to "general enjoyment of the riches of the treasure state" in return for purchase of the deed, which indicates an "investment in the last of what is best" in America. Such a deed for 1 square inch of land does not confer title to the land described in the deed.

(3) The centennial acre must be managed by the department. Until June 30, 1991, such management must be in consultation with the office. The department may adopt such regulations for the use of the land as it considers necessary for the protection of the land, public use of the land, and enjoyment by the deed holders. Such regulations may include the right to restrict access to the land if such access hinders or infringes on the department's management.

(4) Any mineral, oil and gas, or other valuable interest, and all income, fees, or royalty proceeds of the land remain the property of the state of Montana. Such income, if any, must be deposited to the account of the Montana statehood centennial office as set forth in [section 7, House Bill No. 873] and after the termination of the office, it must be deposited to the account of the public school fund as provided for in 20-9-601.

(5) No dwellings, structures, or any physical thing may be erected on the land by any deed holder except in conformance with general regulations adopted by the department.

(6) The regulations adopted under this section must be posted at the centennial acre and are not subject to the provisions of Title 2, chapter 4.

Section 5. Administration of sale. (1) The office shall administer the sale of deeds for the square inches of land as authorized by [this act].

(2) The office shall prepare an individual deed for each square inch of the land. After certification by the office, such deeds are conclusive evidence that the holder of the deed purchased the deed to 1 square inch of the centennial acre. No record of subsequent transfer of a deed is required to be kept by the office, the department of fish, wildlife, and parks, or the county clerk and recorder.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 942 1985

(3) (a) The price of a deed is $10, to be deposited to the account of the Montana statehood centennial office as provided in [section 7, House Bill No. 873].

(b) The cost of administering the sale of deeds under [this act] must be borne by the office. The costs of administering the program may be derived from the proceeds of the sales and from any other source except state general fund money.

(c) Proceeds exceeding the costs of administering the program shall first supplant general funds appropriated in [section 7, House Bill No. 873] and thereafter constitute funds for centennial activities as provided in [House Bill No. 873].

(4) If, on December 30, 1990, the office believes that there are sufficient unexpended funds derived from the operation of [this act], the office shall prepare a bill for the 1991 session of the legislature suggesting the establishment of a continuing fund for the further advancement of Montana's goals.

Section 6. Contents of deeds. In addition to any other matter printed on the deeds of square inches of land, they shall have printed on them the following: "Title to the land described in this deed is subject to the provisions of [insert citation of this act]. Such title is limited by the right of the state of Montana to manage the land for the benefit of the general public and the deed holders' enjoyment of the land. Ownership as evidenced by this deed does not entitle the holder to any right of use of the land different than that of the general public, nor does it obligate the holder to pay property taxes, assessments, or any other fees or levies commonly incident to title."

Section 7. Exclusion of laws relating to land and land transfers. (1) [This act] provides the sole method of selling deeds to square inches of land owned by the state for the funding of Montana's statehood centennial. The sale of deeds to square inches of the centennial acre are not subject to Title 76, chapters 3 and 4, but if the department constructs sanitary facilities on the site, it must comply with the requirements of Title 76, chapter 4. No other provision of law relating to recordation or filing of land transfers, surveying, subdividing land, zoning, or planning restrictions or master plans applies to the sale or ownership of deeds under [this act].

(2) The deed holders of square inches of land under [this act] do not hold title to the centennial acre or any part thereof for any purpose under the laws of the state of Montana. Such deed holders are not subject to taxes, fees, or assessments on their ownership interest and are not to be considered owners for the purposes of notification for the administration of units of local government or certain districts, including school districts.

(3) The state of Montana holds title to the land in trust for the public, and as such the land is to be considered as a parcel of state-owned land in all things necessary for the administration of units of local government and all districts, including school districts, in which it may be located.

Section 8. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1985.

"76-4-104. Rules for administration and enforcement. (1) The department shall adopt reasonable rules, including adoption of sanitary standards, necessary for administration and enforcement of this part.

(2) The rules and standards shall provide the basis for approving subdivision plats for various types of water, sewage facilities, and solid waste disposal, both public and private, and shall be related to size of lots, contour of land, porosity of soil, groundwater level, distance from lakes, streams, and wells, type and construction of private water and sewage facilities, and other factors affecting public health and the quality of water for uses relating to agriculture, industry, recreation, and wildlife.

(3) The rules shall provide for the review of the following divisions of land by a local department or board of health, as described in Title 50, chapter 2, part 1, if the local department or board of health employs a registered sanitarian or a registered professional engineer and if the department certifies under subsection (4) that the local department or board is competent to review these divisions of land:

(a) divisions of land containing five or fewer parcels, whenever each parcel will contain individual onsite water and sewage disposal facilities; and

(i) requiring evidence to establish that, if a public sewage disposal system is proposed, provision has been made for the system and, if other methods of sewage disposal are proposed, evidence that the systems will comply with state and local laws and regulations which are in effect at the time of submission of the preliminary or final plan or plat.

(7) If the reviewing authority is a local department or board of health, it shall, upon approval of a division of land under this part, notify the department of the approval and submit to the department a copy of the approval statement."

Section 3. Section 76-4-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-105. Lot fees. (1) The department shall adopt reasonable rules setting forth fees, not to exceed $48 per parcel, for services rendered in the review of plats and subdivisions. The rules shall provide for a schedule of fees to be paid by the applicant for plat or subdivision review to the department for deposit in the state special revenue fund provided for in 17-2-102 or, if applicable, to another reviewing authority for deposit in the general fund of the reviewing authority's jurisdiction. The fees shall be used for review of plats and subdivisions based on the complexity of the subdivision, including but not limited to:

(a) number of lots in the subdivision;

(b) the type of water system to serve the development;

(c) the type of sewage disposal to serve the development; and

(d) the degree of environmental research necessary to supplement the review procedure.

(2) The department shall adopt rules to determine the distribution of fees between the local governing body and the department as provided in 76-4-128. When a subdivision is reviewed under the master plan provisions of 76-4-124, the local governing body shall, within 20 days after receiving an application under the Montana Subdivision and Platting Act, distribute the lot fees according to the fee schedule adopted under this section.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 946 1985

(3) When a local department or board of health conducts a review under the provisions of 76-4-104, it shall submit to the department, along with its approval statement, a fee of $5 per reviewed lot, for purposes of offsetting costs incurred in providing certification to a local reviewing authority and other administrative costs.

(4) A fee as described in this section is not required for the review of subdivisions in which divisions are made for the purpose of relocating common boundary lines unless the division will result in the installation of additional water supply or sewage disposal facilities."

Section 4. Section 76-4-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-106. Cooperation with other governmental agencies. (1) The reviewing authority may require the use of records of all state, county, and municipal agencies and may seek the assistance of those agencies.

(2) State, county, and municipal officers and employees, including local health officers and sanitarians, shall cooperate with the reviewing authority in furthering the purposes of this part so far as is practical and consistent with their own duties.

(3) A local reviewing authority without a registered sanitarian or a registered professional engineer to conduct a review under this part may contract with another local reviewing authority for the services of its registered sanitarian or registered professional engineer to conduct the review."

Section 5. Section 76-4-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-107. Authority to inspect and monitor. In order to carry out the objectives of this part, to monitor the installation of sewage disposal and water supply systems, and to prevent the occurrence of water pollution problems associated with subdivision development, the reviewing authority whenever any water supply or sewage disposal system is proposed or has been constructed may:

(1) enter upon any public or private property, at reasonable times and after presentation of appropriate credentials by an authorized representative of the reviewing authority, to inspect such systems in order to assure that the plans and specifications approved for the system have been adhered to and that the provisions of this part, rules, or orders are being satisfied;

(2) require as a condition of approval that records concerning the operation of a sewage disposal or water supply system be maintained or that monitoring equipment or wells be installed, used, and maintained for the collection of data related to water quality."

Section 6. Section 76-4-108, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-108. Enforcement. (1) If the reviewing authority has reason to believe that a violation of this part or a rule made under it has occurred, it may have written notice served personally or by mail to the last-known address of the alleged violator or his agent. The notice shall state the provision alleged to be violated, the facts alleged to constitute the violation, the corrective action required by the reviewing authority, and the time within which the action is to be taken. For the purpose of this part, service by mail is complete on the date of mailing. The alleged violator may, no later than 30 days after service of a notice under this section, request a hearing before the reviewing authority or the board. If a request is filed, a hearing shall be held within a reasonable time.

(2) In addition to or instead of issuing an order, the reviewing authority may initiate appropriate action to compel compliance with this part.

(3) The provisions of this part may be enforced by a reviewing authority other than the department or board only for those divisions described in 76-4-104(3). If a local reviewing authority fails to adequately enforce the provisions of this part, the department or the board may compel compliance with this part under the provisions of this section.

(4) When a local reviewing authority exercises the authority delegated to it by this section, the local reviewing authority shall accept legal responsibility for its actions under this part."

Section 7. Section 76-4-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-109. Penalties. (1) A person violating any provision of this part, except 76-4-122(1), or any rule or order issued under this part is guilty of an offense and subject to a fine of not to exceed $1,000.

(2) In addition to the fine specified in subsection (1), a person who violates any provision of this part or any rule or order issued under this part is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000. Each day of violation constitutes a separate violation.

(3) Penalties imposed under subsection (1) or (2) do not bar enforcement of this part or rules or orders issued under it by injunction or other appropriate remedy.

(4) The purpose of this section is to provide additional and cumulative remedies."

Section 8. Section 76-4-121, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-121. Restrictions on subdivision activities. Until the local governing body has certified that a subdivision is to be provided with municipal facilities for a supply of water and disposal of sewage and solid waste or that the reviewing authority has indicated that the subdivision is subject to no restrictions, a person may not file a subdivision plat with a county clerk and recorder, make disposition of any lot within a subdivision, erect any facility for the supply of water or disposal of sewage or solid waste, erect any building or shelter in a subdivision which requires facilities for the supply of water or disposal of sewage or solid waste, or occupy any permanent buildings in a subdivision."

Section 9. Section 76-4-122, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-122. Filing or recording of noncomplying map or plat prohibited. (1) The county clerk and recorder shall not file or record any map or plat showing a subdivision unless it complies with the provisions of this part.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 948 1985

(2) A county clerk and recorder may not accept a subdivision plat for filing until one of the following conditions has been met:

(a) the person wishing to file the plat has obtained approval of the local health officer having jurisdiction and has filed the approval with the reviewing authority, and the reviewing authority has indicated by stamp or certificate that it has approved the plat and plans and specifications and that the subdivision is subject to no sanitary restriction whenever reviewing authority approval is necessary; or

(b) whenever reviewing authority approval is not necessary, the person wishing to file the plat has obtained a certificate from the governing body that the subdivision is inside a master planning area and will be provided with municipal facilities for the supply of water and disposal of sewage and solid waste."

Section 10. Section 76-4-123, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-123. Review and approval required outside master planning areas. Outside master planning areas adopted pursuant to chapter 1, a person may not file a subdivision plat with a county clerk and recorder, make disposition of a lot within a subdivision, erect any facility for the supply of water or disposal of sewage or solid waste, erect a building or shelter in a subdivision which requires facilities for the supply of water or disposal of sewage or solid waste, or occupy a permanent building in a subdivision until the reviewing authority has indicated that the subdivision is subject to no sanitary restriction."

Section 11. Section 76-4-124, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-124. Type of review and approval required within master planning areas. (1) Within master planning areas adopted pursuant to chapter 1, a subdivision is not subject to sanitary restrictions when the local governing body certifies that municipal facilities for the supply of water and disposal of sewage and solid waste will be provided for the subdivision as provided in 76-4-127. In this case, reviewing authority approval is not necessary.

(2) To the extent that municipal facilities for the supply of water or disposal of sewage or solid waste are not to be provided for a subdivision as certified to by the governing body, the person wishing to subdivide must obtain reviewing authority approval as provided in 76-4-122(2)(a)."

Section 12. Section 76-4-125, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-125. Review of development plans — land divisions excluded from review. (1) Plans and specifications of a subdivision as defined in this part shall be submitted to the reviewing authority, and the reviewing authority shall indicate by certificate that it has approved the plans and specifications and that the subdivision is not subject to a sanitary restriction. The plan review by the reviewing authority shall be as follows:

(a) At any time after the developer has submitted an application under the Montana Subdivision and Platting Act, the developer shall present to the reviewing authority a preliminary plan of the proposed development, whatever information the developer feels necessary for its subsequent review, and information required by the reviewing authority.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 949 1985

(b) The reviewing authority must give final action of the proposed plan within 60 days unless an environmental impact statement is required, at which time this deadline may be increased to 120 days.

(2) A subdivision excluded from the provisions of chapter 3 shall be submitted for review according to the provisions of this part, except that the following divisions, unless such exclusions are used to evade the provisions of this part, are not subject to review:

(a) the exclusions cited in 76-3-201 and 76-3-204;

(b) divisions made for the purpose of acquiring additional land to become part of an approved parcel, provided that no dwelling or structure requiring water or sewage disposal is to be erected on the additional acquired parcel and that the division does not fall within a previously platted or approved subdivision; and

Section 13. Section 76-4-126, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-126. Right to hearing. Upon denial of approval of subdivision plans and specifications relating to environmental health facilities, the person who is aggrieved by such denial may request a hearing before the board or the reviewing authority. Such hearings will be held pursuant to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act."

Section 14. Section 76-4-127, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-4-127. Notice of certification that water and waste services will be provided by local government. (g) the relative location of the subdivision to the city or town; and

(h) certification that adequate municipal facilities for the supply of water and disposal of sewage and solid waste are available or will be provided within 1 year after the notice of certification is issued."

Section 15. Section 76-4-130, MCA, is amended to read:

Section 16. Revocation of certificate of approval. If a violation of this part is found to exist, a reviewing authority may revoke a certificate of approval and reimpose sanitary restrictions on a subdivision, following a hearing before the reviewing authority under 76-4-108.

Section 17. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the department of health and environmental sciences to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 18. Codification instruction. Section 16 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 76, chapter 4, part 1, and the provisions of Title 76, chapter 4, part 1, apply to section 16.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 19-4-702, MCA, is amended to read:

(a) Option A—the optional allowance will be paid to the member throughout his lifetime and, upon his death, continue throughout the lifetime of his designated beneficiary.

(b) Option B—the optional allowance will be paid to the member throughout his lifetime, and upon his death, one-half of the optional allowance will be continued throughout the lifetime of his designated beneficiary.

(c) Option C—the optional allowance will be paid to the member throughout his lifetime, and upon his death, two-thirds of the optional allowance will be continued throughout the lifetime of his designated beneficiary.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE A PRESUMPTION IN FAVOR OF JOINT CUSTODY IF IN A CHILD'S BEST INTERESTS; PROVIDING STANDARDS FOR ESTABLISHING RESIDENCY; AMENDING SECTION 40-4-224, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 40-4-224, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-4-224. Joint custody — modification — consultation with professionals. (1) Upon application of either parent or both parents for joint custody, the court shall presume joint custody is in the best interests of a minor child unless the court finds, under the factors set forth in 40-4-212, that joint custody is not in the best interests of the minor child. If the court declines to enter an order awarding joint custody, the court shall state in its decision the reasons for denial of an award of joint custody. Objection to joint custody by a parent seeking sole custody is not a sufficient basis for a finding that joint custody is not in the best interests of a child, nor is a finding that the parents are hostile to each other.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "joint custody" means an order awarding custody of the minor child to both parents and providing that the physical custody and residency of the child shall be allotted between the parents in such a way as to assure the child frequent and continuing contact with both parents. The allotment of time between parties shall be as equal as possible; however, each case shall be determined according to its own practicalities with the best interests of the child as the primary consideration.

(3) Any order for joint custody may be modified pursuant to 40-4-219 to terminate the joint custody.

(4) The court may, at any time, direct the parties to consult with appropriate professionals for the purpose of assisting the parties to formulate a plan for implementation of the custody order or to resolve any controversy that has arisen in the implementation of a plan for custody."

Approved April 16, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 497

[SB 258]

AN ACT REVISING THE LAW RELATING TO COMPENSATION PAYABLE FOR SURFACE DAMAGE BY OIL AND GAS DEVELOPMENT; PROVIDING DOUBLE DAMAGES FOR FAILURE TO MAKE STIPULATED DAMAGE PAYMENTS; REQUIRING AN OIL AND GAS DEVELOPER OR OPERATOR TO NOTIFY THE SURFACE OWNER OF HIS SPECIFIC INTENTIONS BEFORE COMMENCING DRILLING OPERATIONS; AMENDING SECTIONS 82-10-503, 82-10-504, AND 82-11-122, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 82-10-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-10-503. Notice of drilling operations. In addition to the requirements for geophysical exploration activities governed by Title 82, chapter 1, part 1, the oil and gas developer or operator shall give the surface owner and any purchaser under contract for deed written notice of the drilling operations that he plans to undertake. This notice shall be given to the record surface owner and any purchaser under contract for deed at their addresses as shown by the records of the county clerk and recorder at the time the notice is given. This notice shall sufficiently disclose the plan of work and operations to enable the surface owner to evaluate the effect of drilling operations on the surface owner's use of the property. The notice shall be given no more than 90 days and no fewer than 10 days before commencement of any activity on the land surface."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 956 1985

Section 2. Section 82-10-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-10-504. Surface damage and disruption payments. (1) The oil and gas developer or operator shall pay the surface owner a sum of money or other compensation equal to the amount of damages sustained by the surface owner for loss of agricultural production and income, lost land value, and lost value of improvements caused by drilling operations.

(2) The amount of damages may be determined by any formula mutually agreeable between the surface owner and the oil and gas developer or operator. When determining damages, consideration shall be given to the period of time during which the loss occurs.

(3) The surface owner may elect to receive annual damage payments over a period of time, except that the surface owner shall be compensated by a single sum payment for harm caused by exploration only.

(4) The payments contemplated by this section may only cover land directly affected by drilling operations and production. Payments under this section are intended to compensate the surface owner for damage and disruption; no person may reserve or assign that compensation apart from the surface estate except to a tenant of the surface estate."

Section 3. Penalty — double damages. An oil and gas developer or operator who fails to timely pay an installment under any annual damage agreement negotiated with a surface owner is liable for payment to the surface owner of twice the amount of the unpaid installment if the installment payment is not paid within 60 days of receipt of notice of failure to pay from the surface owner.

Section 4. Section 82-11-122, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-11-122. Notice of intention to drill or conduct seismic operations — notice to surface owner. It is unlawful to commence the drilling of a well for oil or gas without first filing with the board written notice of intention to drill and obtaining a drilling permit as provided in 82-11-134. After the permit is issued, an oil and gas developer or operator as defined under 82-10-502 shall comply with the notice requirements of 82-10-503 before commencing drilling operations. It is unlawful to conduct seismic explorations with explosives without first giving the board a copy of the notice of intention to explore filed with the county under 82-1-103."

Section 5. Codification instruction. Section 3 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 82, chapter 10, part 5, and the provisions of Title 82, chapter 10, part 5, apply to section 3.

Section 6. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the board of oil and gas conservation to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 16, 1985.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), the department must solicit sealed, competitive bids before awarding a contract under subsection (1) and may award a contract only after receipt of at least one bid, if reasonably available.

(3) The department may negotiate a contract, without competitive bidding, with a contractor qualified to do business in Montana if:

(a) the department rejects all bids for the work;

(b) an emergency threatening life or property exists;

CHAPTER NO. 499

[SB 326]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT GROUND WATER MAY BE APPROPRIATED ONLY BY A PERSON WHO IS OR HAS THE CONSENT OF THE EXCLUSIVE OWNER OF THE GROUND WATER DEVELOPMENT WORKS; AMENDING SECTION 85-2-306, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-2-306, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-306. Exceptions to permit requirements. (1) Groundwater may be appropriated only by a person who has either exclusive property rights in the groundwater development works or the written consent of the person with those property rights. Outside the boundaries of a controlled groundwater area, a permit is not required before appropriating groundwater by means of a well or developed spring with a maximum appropriation of less than 100 gallons per minute. Within 60 days of completion of the well or developed spring and appropriation of the groundwater for beneficial use, the appropriator shall file a notice of completion with the department on a form provided by the department at its offices and at the offices of the county clerk and recorders. Upon receipt of the notice, the department shall review the notice and may, before issuing a certificate of water right, return a defective notice for correction or completion, together with the reasons for returning it. A notice does not lose priority of filing because of defects if the notice is corrected, completed, and refiled with the department within 30 days or within a further time as the department may allow, not to exceed 6 months. If a notice is not corrected and completed within the time allowed, the priority date of appropriation shall be the date of refiling a correct and complete notice with the department. A certificate of water right may not be issued until a correct and complete notice has been filed with the department. The original of the certificate shall be sent to the county clerk and recorder in the county where the point of diversion or place of use is located for recordation. The department shall keep a copy of the certificate in its office in Helena. After recordation, the clerk and recorder shall send the certificate to the appropriator. The date of filing of the notice of completion is the date of priority of the right.

(2) An appropriator of groundwater by means of a well or developed spring, first put to beneficial use between January 1, 1962, and July 1, 1973, who did not file a notice of completion, as required by laws in force prior to April 14, 1981, with the county clerk and recorder shall file a notice of completion, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, with the department to perfect the water right. The filing of a claim of existing water right pursuant to 85-2-221 is sufficient notice of completion under this subsection. The priority date of the appropriation shall be the date of the filing of a notice as provided in subsection (1) of this section or the date of the filing of the claim of existing water right. An appropriation under this subsection is an existing right, and a permit is not required; however, the department shall acknowledge the receipt of a correct and complete filing of a notice of completion, except that for an appropriation of less than 100 gallons per minute, the department shall issue a certificate of water right.

(3) A permit is not required before constructing an impoundment or pit and appropriating water for use by livestock if the maximum capacity of the impoundment or pit is less than 15 acre-feet and the appropriation is less than 30 acre-feet per year and is from a source other than a perennial flowing stream and the impoundment or pit is to be constructed on and will be accessible to a parcel of land that is owned or under the control of the applicant and that is 40 acres or larger. As used in this subsection, a perennial flowing stream means a stream which historically has flowed continuously at all seasons of the year, during dry as well as wet years. However, within 60 days after constructing the impoundment or pit, the appropriator shall apply for a permit as prescribed by this part. Upon receipt of a correct and complete application for a stockwater provisional permit, the department shall then automatically issue a provisional permit. If the department determines after a hearing that the rights of other appropriators have been or will be adversely affected, it may revoke the permit or require the permittee to modify the impoundment or pit and may then make the permit subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, or limitations it considers necessary to protect the rights of other appropriators.

(4) A person may also appropriate water without applying for or prior to receiving a permit under rules adopted by the board under 85-2-113."

Approved April 16, 1985.

Section 4. Section 85-15-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-15-102. Construction in a secure manner. No person may construct or cause to be constructed a dam or reservoir for the purpose of accumulating, storing, appropriating, or diverting any of the waters of this state, except in a thorough, secure, and substantial manner."

Section 5. Section 85-15-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-15-104. Exemptions. The provisions of 85-15-103 and [sections 1, 2, and 6 through 20] do not apply to dams subject to a permit issued pursuant to 82-4-335 for the period during which the dam is subject to the permit. The provisions of [sections 6 through 20] do not apply to federal dams and reservoirs, or to dams and reservoirs licensed and subject to inspection by the federal energy regulatory commission. In addition, the provisions of [sections 6 through 20] do not apply until July 1, 1990, to high-hazard dams that have been inspected by the U.S. army corps of engineers pursuant to P.L. 92-367 and for which resultant dam safety reports have been submitted to the owner."

Section 6. High-hazard dam — determination — plans. Any person proposing to construct any dam or reservoir shall make application to the department for a determination of whether the dam or reservoir is a high-hazard dam. The application must include the information required by the department. The department shall make the determination required by this section within 60 calendar days after a complete application is received by the department.

Section 7. Preparation and approval of plans. (1) A person may not begin construction of a high-hazard dam as determined under [section 6] without first obtaining a construction permit from the department.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 963 1985

(2) An application for a construction permit must be submitted to the department and must contain:

(a) plans and specifications for the proposed construction, prepared by or under the direction of an engineer experienced in dam design and construction; and

(b) other data and information required by the department.

(3) Within 60 calendar days after receipt of the application and any additional information requested by the department, the department shall: .

(a) issue a construction permit or deny the application, as filed; or

(b) issue a construction permit upon terms, conditions, or modifications the department considers appropriate.

Section 8. Inspection and reports during construction. (1) An engineer must be in charge of and responsible for inspections during construction of any high-hazard dam.

(2) Inspections during construction must be performed at intervals necessary to ensure conformity with the permit. The engineer in charge or a qualified designee shall perform the inspections.

(3) The department shall set procedures and requirements for reporting information obtained from, during, or as the result of an inspection. The engineer in charge shall certify all reports to the department.

(4) The department may also inspect the dam during construction to ensure conformity with the construction permit.

(5) If the department finds that construction of the high-hazard dam does not conform with the construction permit, it may order that construction be stopped until changes are made in conformity with the permit.

Section 9. Operating permit. (1) An operation plan must be prepared by the owner and approved by the department prior to operation of the high-hazard dam or reservoir. The operation plan must set forth at a minimum:

(a) a reservoir operation procedure;

(b) a maintenance procedure for the dam and appurtenant works; and

(c) emergency procedures and warning plans.

(2) When construction is complete and if the dam or reservoir conforms to the construction permit and when an operation plan has been approved, the department shall issue a permit to operate the high-hazard dam or reservoir, containing such conditions on the safe operation of the dam as it considers necessary.

Section 10. Periodic inspections. (1) Any high-hazard dam, whether or not previously permitted by the department, must be inspected as often as considered necessary by the department, but at least once every 5 years, in order to ensure the continued safe operation of the dam.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 964 1985

(2) Periodic inspections required by this section must be performed by a qualified engineer, who shall make a report of the inspection to the department. If the department finds that the dam conforms to current safety standards, it shall issue or reissue, as the case may be, a permit to continue operation of the dam, containing such conditions on the safe operation of the dam as it considers necessary.

(3) The owner is responsible for inspections required under this section.

Section 11. Requested inspections — costs — limitations against unsafe structures. (1) At its discretion or upon receipt of an affidavit complaining that the person or property of the complainant is endangered by the construction, maintenance, or operation of any dam or reservoir, the department may order an inspection of the dam or reservoir unless the data, records, and inspection reports on file are adequate to determine that the complaint is not meritorious.

(2) If the complainant continues to request an inspection even though the department has determined under subsection (1) that the complaint is not meritorious, the department may make the inspection upon requiring the complainant to deposit with the department money sufficient to cover the costs of the inspection.

(3) If the dam or reservoir is found to be defective, the department may require the person who owns the dam or reservoir to pay all or part of the expenses of inspection. If the department requires such payment, it shall present a bill of costs to the owner. The costs shall constitute a lien upon the dam, reservoir, and other property of the owner and may be collected by appropriate action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) If the dam or reservoir is not found to be defective after an inspection made under subsection (2), any money deposited by the complainant therefor must be paid to the general fund.

(5) If the inspection discloses defects in the dam or reservoir that, in the judgment of the department, constitute an immediate hazard to life or property, the department may order:

(a) the draining of the dam or reservoir;

(b) the limitation or cessation of use of the dam or reservoir or any defective appurtenant works; or

(c) any other steps to eliminate the hazard until the dam, reservoir, or appurtenant works have been made safe and approved by the department.

Section 12. Emergency repairs or breaching. (1) In case of an emergency, the department may take any action necessary to safeguard life and property. This action must be commenced immediately by the owner, or by the department at the owner's expense if the owner fails to act. The department must be notified immediately of any proposed emergency repairs or breaching to be instituted by the owner.

(2) All costs incurred by the department during an emergency must be paid by the owner on receipt of a bill of costs from the department. The costs are a lien upon the dam, reservoir, and other property of the owner and may be collected by appropriate action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 13. Municipality or county prohibited from regulation. No municipality or county may regulate, supervise, or provide for the regulation or supervision of any dam or reservoir in this state or the construction, maintenance, or operation thereof or limit the size of any dam or reservoir or the amount of water that may be stored therein. This chapter does not prevent a municipality or county from adopting ordinances or regulations regulating, supervising, or providing for the regulation or supervision of dams and reservoirs that:

(1) are not within the state's jurisdiction; or

(2) are not subject to regulation by another public agency or body.

Section 14. Liability of owners for damage. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), nothing in this chapter relieves an owner of a dam or reservoir of any legal duty, obligation, or liability incident to its ownership or operation, including any damages resulting from leakage or overflow of water or floods caused by the failure or rupture of the dam or reservoir.

(2) The owner of a dam or reservoir that has been permitted by the department in accordance with this chapter is not, in the absence of negligence, liable for damages resulting from flows of water from the dam or reservoir which are of sufficient magnitude to exceed the limits of the 100-year floodplain as defined in 76-5-103. In addition, the owner of any dam or reservoir that has been permitted by the department in accordance with this chapter may, without incurring liability, allow passage through the reservoir of inflows without diminution.

Section 15. Permit cancellation. Failure to comply with the provisions of [section 6, 7, 8, 9, or 11] subjects the permit to cancellation at any time during the progress of construction or the operation of the dam. The department is authorized to cancel any permit if the provisions of [section 6, 7, 8, 9, or 11] have not been or are not being complied with, and the cancellation operates as a forfeiture of all rights acquired under and by virtue of any permit approved by the department.

Section 16. Penalty. A person who violates or refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this chapter or any rule or order of the department adopted or made pursuant to this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in 46-18-212. Each day of a continuing violation constitutes a separate offense.

Section 17. Deposit of penalties and costs. All penalties and costs collected under this chapter must be deposited in the state general fund.

Section 18. Entry upon land. Any employee or agent of the department authorized by the director of the department may enter upon any land to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The department or its agent shall give reasonable notice to the landowner of the intention to enter upon the land.

Section 19. Legal assistance. When requested by the department, the attorney general or the county attorneys within their respective counties shall perform legal services and conduct legal proceedings necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The department may also employ legal counsel to enforce this chapter and to conduct proceedings under it.

Section 20. Rules. The department may adopt rules to implement the provisions of this chapter, including but not limited to rules to:

(1) classify high-hazard dams and reservoirs;

(2) review, approve, and issue permits;

(3) govern inspections under this chapter;

(4) establish safety standards for the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of high-hazard dams and reservoirs;

(5) establish emergency preparedness and warning procedures; and

(6) establish fees commensurate with costs to cover inspections under this chapter.

Section 21. Codification instruction. Sections 1, 2, and 6 through 20 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 85, chapter 15, and the provisions of Title 85, chapter 15, apply to sections 1, 2, and 6 through 20.

Section 22. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 23. Repealer. Section 85-15-103, MCA, is repealed.

Approved April 16, 1985.

(4) The plaintiff may not present, with respect to the issue of exemplary or punitive damages, any evidence to the jury regarding the defendant's financial affairs or net worth unless the judge first rules, outside the presence of the jury, that the plaintiff has presented a prima facie claim for exemplary or punitive damages.

(a) misuse or abuse of authority or power; or

(b) taking advantage of some weakness, disability, or misfortune of another person.

(2) When all conditions exist precedent to the offering for sale of bonds of a political subdivision in any amount and for any purpose authorized by law and the political subdivision has applied for a grant or loan of state or federal funds to aid in payment of costs incurred or to be incurred for the authorized purpose, its governing body may by resolution issue and sell notes in anticipation of the receipt of the grant or loan, in an amount not exceeding the total amount of bonds authorized and maturing within not more than 3 years from the date such notes are issued.

(3) The proceeds of the grant or loan, when received, shall be credited to the debt service fund for the notes as may be needed for their payment, with interest, when due.

(4) Any amount of the notes which cannot be paid at maturity from the proceeds of the grant or loan or from any other funds appropriated by the governing body for the purpose shall be paid from the proceeds of bonds to be issued and sold before the maturity date, or if sufficient funds are not available for payment in full of the notes at maturity, those bondholders may, in exchange, require the issuance of long-term bonds. The bonds so issued are secured and subject to the terms and conditions provided by the law authorizing their issuance. Notes and bonds may be issued as provided in this section regardless of the amount authorized if the amount which may legally be issued is less than the commitment for which the grant or loan is made. Before the notes or bonds are issued, the political subdivision must receive a written commitment for a grant or loan in an amount equal to the remaining estimated costs and must by resolution provide for the fulfillment of the conditions of the commitment."

Section 2. Section 17-5-703, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-5-703. Coal severance tax trust funds. (1) The trust established under Article IX, section 5, of the Montana constitution shall be composed of the following funds:

(b) a coal severance tax permanent fund; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 981 1985

(c) a coal severance tax income fund.

(2) The state treasurer shall from time to time transfer to the coal severance tax permanent fund all money in the coal severance tax bond fund except the amount necessary to meet all principal and interest payments on bonds payable from the coal severance tax bond fund on the next two ensuing semiannual payment dates."

Section 3. Section 17-5-711, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-5-711. Trust indenture. In the discretion of the board of examiners, a series of bonds or notes issued under this part may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the board of examiners and a trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or outside of the state. Each trust indenture or an executed counterpart thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state of Montana. The filing of a trust indenture or an executed counterpart thereof in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the property covered by the trust indenture is located is constructive notice of its contents to all persons from the time of the filing, and the recording of the trust indenture or its contents is not necessary."

Section 4. Section 17-5-713, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-5-713. Personal liability — suit to compel performance. (1) The members of the board of examiners and officers and employees of the departments, boards, or agencies of state government are not personally liable or accountable by reason of the issuance of or on any coal severance tax bond or bond anticipation note issued by the board of examiners.

(2) Any holder of coal severance tax bonds or any person or officer being a party in interest, subject to any applicable coal severance tax agreements or trust indentures, may sue to enforce and compel the performance of the coal severance tax bond provisions as set out in this part."

Section 5. Section 17-5-714, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-5-714. Negotiability of bonds. Bonds or notes issued under this part are negotiable instruments under the Uniform Commercial Code, subject only to the provisions for registration of bonds."

Section 6. Section 17-5-715, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-5-715. Signatures of board members. In case any member of the board of examiners whose signature appears on bonds, notes, or coupons issued under this part ceases to be a member before the delivery of the bonds or notes, his signature is nevertheless valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if the member had remained in office until delivery."

Section 7. Section 17-5-718, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-5-718. Tax exemption of bonds — legal investments. (1) All bonds or notes issued under this part, their transfer, and their income, including any profits made on their sale, are exempt from taxation by the state or any political subdivisions or other instrumentality of the state, excepting inheritance, estate, and gift taxes.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 982 1985

(2) Bonds or notes issued under this part are legal investments for any person or board charged with investment of public funds and are acceptable as security for any deposit of public money."

Section 8. Bond anticipation notes — when issued — payment of principal and interest. (1) When the board of examiners has been authorized by the legislature to issue and sell bonds under this part, it may, pending the issuance of the bonds, issue temporary notes in anticipation of the receipt of proceeds to be derived from the sale of the bonds. The notes are designated as "bond anticipation notes". The proceeds of the sale of the bond anticipation notes must be used only for the purposes for which the proceeds of the bonds could be used, including costs of issuance. If, prior to the issuance of the bonds, it becomes necessary to redeem outstanding notes, additional bond anticipation notes may be issued to redeem the outstanding notes. No renewal of any note may be issued after the sale of bonds in anticipation of which the original notes were issued. As much of the proceeds of the bonds, when issued, must be credited to the note debt service fund as may be needed for payment of the notes, with interest, when due.

(2) Bond anticipation notes or other short-term evidences of indebtedness maturing not more than 3 years after the date of issue may be issued from time to time as needed. Notes must be authorized by the board of examiners and contain such terms and details as may be provided by resolution of the board. Each resolution of the board of examiners authorizing notes must:

(a) describe the need for the proceeds of the notes to be issued; and

(b) specify:

(i) the principal amount of the notes or maximum principal amount of the notes that may be outstanding at any time;

(ii) the rate or rates of interest, the maximum rate of interest, or the interest rate formula (to be determined in the manner specified in the resolution authorizing the notes) of such notes; and

(iii) the maturity date or maximum maturity date of the notes.

(3) Subject to the limitations contained in this section and the standards and limitations prescribed in the authorizing resolution, the board in its discretion may provide for notes to be issued and sold, in whole or in part, from time to time. The board may delegate to the state treasurer the power to determine the time or times of sale, the manner of sale, the amounts, the maturities, the rate or rates of interest, and such other terms and details of the notes as may be considered appropriate by the board or, if there has been such a delegation, the state treasurer. The board may, in its discretion but subject to the limitations contained in this section, also provide in the resolution authorizing the issuance of notes for:

(a) the employment of one or more persons or firms to assist the board in the sale of the notes;

(b) the appointment of one or more banks or trust companies, either within or outside of the state, as depository for safekeeping and as agent for the delivery and payment of the notes;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 983 1985

(c) the refunding of the notes, from time to time, without further action by the board, unless the board revokes such authority to refund; and

(d) such other terms and conditions as the board may consider appropriate.

(4) In connection with the issuance and sale of notes, the board may arrange for lines of credit with any bank, firm, or person for the purpose of providing an additional source of repayment for notes issued pursuant to this section. Amounts drawn on such lines of credit may be evidenced by negotiable or nonnegotiable notes or other evidences of indebtedness, containing such terms and conditions as the board may authorize in the resolution approving them.

Section 9. Section 85-1-332, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-332. Disposition of moneys collected. (1) For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter and such other water resource authority, powers, and duties as are conferred upon the department by law, the following moneys shall be deposited in the water development state special revenue account created by 85-1-604:

(f) except as otherwise provided by law, all sums received by the department for the use of electricity in excess of the maintenance and operation of the electrification system or project.

Section 11. Section 85-1-605, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-605. Grants, loans, and bonds for state and local government assistance. (1) The department may recommend to the legislature that grants and loans be made from coal severance tax proceeds deposited in the water development state special revenue account, that loans be made from water development bond proceeds deposited in the water development account, and that coal severance tax bonds be authorized pursuant to Title 17, chapter 5, part 7, to provide financial assistance to a department, agency, board, commission, or other division of state government or to a city, county, or other political subdivision or local government body of the state. The legislature may approve by appropriation or other appropriate means those grants and loans it finds consistent with the policies and purposes of the program.

(2) In addition to implementing those projects approved by the legislature, the department may request up to 10% of the funds available for grants from the water development special revenue account in any biennium to be used for emergencies. These emergency projects must be approved by the department and be defined as those projects which, if delayed until legislative approval can be obtained, will cause substantial damages or legal liability to the project sponsor. In allocating such funds, the department shall inform the legislative finance committee of the legislature.

(3) The grants and loans provided for by this section may be made for the purchase, lease, development, or construction of water development projects and activities for the conservation, management, use, development, or protection of the water and related agricultural, land, fish, wildlife, and water recreation resources in the state; for the purpose of feasibility and design studies for such projects; for development of plans for and the rehabilitation, expansion, and modification of water development projects; for other water development projects and activities that will enhance the water resources of the state; and for similar purposes approved by the legislature."

Section 12. Section 85-1-610, MCA, is amended to read:

(1) The extent and desirability of the public benefits that will be provided must be considered.

(2) A water development project or activity that will be used as part of a family farm shall be given preference. A family farm is one devoted primarily to agriculture under the ownership and operation of a resident Montana family.

(3) A water development project or activity that will utilize or develop water reserved under 85-2-316 shall be given preference. An activity includes all necessary work associated with a project, beginning with application preparation through the implementation of a water reservation by a qualified state applicant.

(4) The department, to the extent practicable, shall attempt to achieve geographic balance in the promotion of water development projects and activities through the awarding of loans and grants to private persons.

(5) The extent to which the water development project or activity will fully utilize water resources and promote the conservation and efficient use of the water resource shall be evaluated and considered.

(6) Projects or activities that could not be accomplished without the assistance of a loan or grant shall be given preference.

(7) The department shall give due consideration to any other factor that, in the department's judgment, is important to the evaluation of the water development project or activity in light of the purposes, policies, and objectives of the water development program."

Section 13. Section 85-1-617, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-617. Issuing bonds. (1) When authorized by the legislature and within the limits of the authorization and within the further limitations established in this section, the board of examiners may issue and sell water development bonds of the state in the amount and manner it considers necessary and proper to finance the water development loan program. The full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state are pledged for the prompt and full payment of all bonds so issued and interest and redemption premiums payable thereon according to their terms.

(2) Each series of water development bonds may be issued by the board of examiners, upon request of the board of natural resources and conservation, at public or private sale, in such denominations and forms, whether payable to bearer with attached interest coupons or registered as to principal or as to both principal and interest, with such provisions for conversion or exchange and for the issuance of notes in anticipation of the issuance of definitive bonds, bearing interest at such rate or rates, maturing at such rate or rates, maturing at such time or times not exceeding 30 years from date of issue, subject to optional or mandatory redemption at such

(3) In the issuance of each series of water development bonds, the interest rates and the maturities and any mandatory redemption provisions thereof shall be established in such manner that the funds then specifically pledged and appropriated by law to the water development debt service fund will in the judgment of the board of examiners be received in an amount sufficient in each year to pay all principal, redemption premiums, and interest due and payable in that year with respect to that and all prior series of such bonds, except outstanding bonds as to which the obligation of the state has been discharged by the deposit of funds or securities sufficient for their payment in accordance with the terms of the resolutions by which they are authorized to be issued.

(4) In all other respects, the board of examiners is authorized to prescribe the form and terms of the bonds and notes and shall do whatever is lawful and necessary for their issuance and payment. Such bonds, notes, and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto must be signed by the members of the board of examiners, and the bonds and notes must be issued under the great seal of the state of Montana. The state treasurer shall keep a record of all such bonds and notes issued and sold.

(5) There is created a water development account within the state special revenue fund established in 17-2-102.

(6) All proceeds of bonds or notes issued under this section, other than refunding bonds, must be deposited in the water development account established in subsection (5), except that any principal and accrued interest received in repayment of a loan made from the proceeds of bonds issued under this section must be deposited in the water development state special revenue account pursuant to 85-1-604. All proceeds of refunding bonds must be deposited in the water development debt service fund and applied to the payment and redemption of outstanding bonds issued under this section as directed by the board, whether at maturity or on any earlier date on which they may be prepaid according to their terms.

(7) All actions taken by the board of examiners under this section or 85-1-619 must be authorized by a vote of a majority of the members of the board of examiners."

Section 14. Section 85-1-619, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-619. Debt service fund — pledge and administration of sufficient balance. (1) The legislature may levy, impose, assess, and pledge and appropriate to the water development debt service fund any tax, charge, fee, rental, or other income from any designated source. (2) Money in the water development debt service fund must be used to pay interest, principal, and redemption premiums when due and payable with respect to water development bonds, and for bonds issued prior to 1985, to accumulate a reserve for the further security of such payments.

(3) After the reserve provided for in subsection (2) for bonds issued prior to 1985 has been accumulated in the water development debt service fund, money at any time received in the water development debt service fund in excess of that amount must be transferred by the treasurer to the water development state special revenue account."

Section 15. Section 85-1-623, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-623. Authorization of water development bonds. The legislature, through the enactment of this section by a two-thirds vote of the members of each house, authorizes the creation of state debt in an amount not to exceed $10 million and the issuance and sale of water development bonds in this amount for the purpose of providing funds appropriated to the water development account for loans as provided in the water development program."

Section 16. Section 90-2-121, MCA, is amended to read:

Section 17. Section 90-2-123, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-2-123. Debt service fund. (1) The state may by enactment of the legislature or the people levy, impose, assess, and pledge and appropriate to the debt service fund any tax, charge, fee, rental, or other income from any designated source. The state reserves the right to modify from time to time the nature and amount of special taxes and other revenues pledged and appropriated to the debt service fund, provided that the aggregate resources so pledged and appropriated are determined by the legislature to be sufficient for the prompt and full payment of the principal of and interest and redemption premiums when due on all bonds payable from that fund, and provided that the pledge of the full faith and credit and taxing powers of the state for the security of all such bonds shall be and remain irrevocable until they are fully paid.

(2) Money in the debt service fund shall be used to pay interest, principal, and redemption premiums when due and payable with respect to renewable resource development bonds.

(3) Money at any time received in the debt service fund in excess of the amount required by subsection (2) shall be transferred by the treasurer to the renewable resource development account."

Section 19. Remedial character. Section 1 of this act is remedial in character, and nothing therein may be considered to imply that authority for the taking of any action therein expressly authorized did not previously exist.

Section 20. Codification instruction. Section 8 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 17, chapter 5, part 7, and the provisions of Title 17, chapter 5, part 7, apply to section 8.

Section 21. Applicability. Section 10 applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to all occurrences after July 1, 1981.

Section 22. Requirements for approval of state debt — severability. Because section 15 authorizes the creation of state debt, a vote of two-thirds of the members of each house is required for enactment of section 15. If section 15 is not approved by the required vote, section 15 is void, and the remaining sections of this act are valid and remain in effect in all valid applications upon enactment.

Section 23. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-51-1303, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1303. Collection of unpaid contributions by civil action. (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of contributions or interest thereon, the department may in its discretion initiate a civil action in the name of the Montana department of labor and industry to collect the amount due, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such action.

The assessment for all motor vehicles will be made using the market value as of January 1 of the year of assessment of the

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 999 1985

(b) No tax may be assessed against motor vehicles subject to taxation that constitute inventory of motor vehicle dealers as of January 1. These vehicles and all other motor vehicles subject to taxation brought into the state subsequent to January 1 as motor vehicle dealers' inventories shall be assessed to their respective purchasers as of the dates the vehicles are registered by the purchasers.

(c) "Purchasers" includes dealers who apply for registration or reregistration of motor vehicles, except as otherwise provided by 61-3-502.

(d) Goods, wares, and merchandise of motor vehicle dealers, other than new motor vehicles and new mobile homes, shall be assessed at market value as of January 1.

(c) property which comes to rest and becomes a part of the general property of the state.

(2) The taxes on this property are levied in the same manner and to the same extent, except as otherwise provided, as though the property had been in the county on the regular assessment date, provided that the property has not been regularly assessed for the year in some other county of the state.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to levy a tax against a merchant or dealer within this state on goods, wares, or merchandise brought into the county to replenish the stock of the merchant or dealer.

Section 10. Section 15-30-121, MCA, is amended to read:

(4) in the case of an individual, political contributions determined in accordance with the provisions of section 218(a) and (b) of the Internal

(7) fees in lieu of taxes on motorcycles and quadricycles, as provided by [section 2], paid during the taxable year."

Section 11. Section 15-31-114, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-31-114. Deductions allowed in computing income. In computing the net income, the following deductions shall be allowed from the gross income received by such corporation within the year from all sources:

(1) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the taxable year in the maintenance and operation of its business and properties, including reasonable allowance for salaries for personal services actually rendered, subject to the limitation hereinafter contained, rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition to the continued use or possession of property to which the corporation has not taken or is not taking title or in which it has no equity. No deduction shall be allowed for salaries paid upon which the recipient thereof has not paid Montana state income tax; provided, however, that where domestic corporations are taxed on income derived from without the state, salaries of officers paid in connection with securing such income shall be deductible.

(2) (a) All losses actually sustained and charged off within the year and not compensated by insurance or otherwise, including a reasonable allowance for the wear and tear and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business, such allowance to be determined according to the provisions of section 167 of the Internal Revenue Code in effect with respect to the taxable year. All elections for depreciation shall be the same as the elections made for federal income tax purposes. No deduction shall be allowed for any amount paid out for any buildings, permanent improvements, or betterments made to increase the value of any property or estate, and no deduction shall be made for any amount of expense of restoring property or making good the exhaustion thereof for which an allowance is or has been made.

(b) (i) There shall be allowed as a deduction for the taxable period a net operating loss deduction determined according to the provisions of this subsection. The net operating loss deduction is the aggregate of net operating loss carryovers to such taxable period plus the net operating loss carrybacks to such taxable period. The term "net operating loss" means the excess of the deductions allowed by this section, 15-31-114, over the gross income, with the modifications specified in (ii) of this subsection. If for any taxable period beginning after December 31, 1970, a net operating loss is sustained, such loss shall be a net operating loss carryback to each of the three taxable periods preceding the taxable period of such loss and shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the five taxable periods following the taxable period of such loss. A net operating loss for any taxable period ending after December 31, 1975, in addition to being a net operating loss carryback to each of the three preceding taxable periods, shall be a net operating loss carryover to each of the seven taxable periods following the taxable period of such loss. The portion of such loss which shall be carried to each of the other taxable years shall be the excess, if any, of the amount of such loss over the sum of the net income for each of the prior taxable periods to which such loss was carried. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the net income for such prior taxable period shall be computed with the modifications specified in (ii)(B) of this subsection and by determining the amount of the net operating loss deduction without regard to the net operating loss for the loss period or any taxable period thereafter, and the net income so computed shall not be considered to be less than zero.

(ii) The modifications referred to in (i) of this subsection shall be as follows:

(A) No net operating loss deduction shall be allowed.

(B) The deduction for depletion shall not exceed the amount which would be allowable if computed under the cost method.

(C) Any net operating loss carried over to any taxable years beginning after December 31, 1978, must be calculated under the provisions of this section effective for the taxable year for which the return claiming the net operating loss carryover is filed.

(iii) A net operating loss deduction shall be allowed only with regard to losses attributable to the business carried on within the state of Montana.

(iv) In the case of a merger of corporations, the surviving corporation shall not be allowed a net operating loss deduction for net operating losses sustained by the merged corporations prior to the date of merger. In the case of a consolidation of corporations, the new corporate entity shall not be allowed a deduction for net operating losses sustained by the consolidated corporations prior to the date of consolidation.

(v) Notwithstanding the provisions of 15-31-531, interest shall not be paid with respect to a refund of tax resulting from a net operating loss carryback or carryover.

(vi) The net operating loss deduction shall not be allowed with respect to taxable periods which ended on or before December 31, 1970, but shall be allowed only with respect to taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 1971.

(3) In the case of mines, other natural deposits, oil and gas wells, and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion and for depreciation of improvements; such reasonable allowance to be determined according to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code in effect for the taxable year. All elections made under the Internal Revenue Code with respect to capitalizing or expensing exploration and development costs and intangible drilling expenses for corporation license tax purposes shall be the same as the elections made for federal income tax purposes.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1003 1985

(4) The amount of interest paid within the year on its indebtedness incurred in the operation of the business from which its income is derived; but no interest shall be allowed as a deduction if paid on an indebtedness created for the purchase, maintenance, or improvement of property or for the conduct of business unless the income from such property or business would be taxable under this part.

(5) (a) Taxes paid within the year, except the following:

(i) Taxes imposed by this part.

(ii) Taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed.

(iii) Taxes on or according to or measured by net income or profits imposed by authority of the government of the United States.

(iv) Taxes imposed by any other state or country upon or measured by net income or profits.

(b) Taxes deductible under this part shall be construed to include taxes imposed by any county, school district, or municipality of this state.

(6) Light vehicle license fees, as provided by 61-3-532, and fees in lieu of taxes for motorcycles and quadricycles, as provided by [section 2], paid within the year.

(7) That portion of an energy-related investment allowed as a deduction under 15-32-103.

(8) (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), charitable contributions and gifts that qualify for deduction under section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.

(b) The public service commission shall not allow in the rate base of a regulated corporation the inclusion of contributions made under this subsection.

(9) In lieu of the deduction allowed under subsection (8), the taxpayer may deduct the fair market value, not to exceed 30% of the taxpayer's net income, of a computer or other sophisticated technological equipment or apparatus intended for use with the computer donated to an elementary, secondary, or accredited postsecondary school located in Montana if:

(a) the contribution is made no later than 5 years after the manufacture of the donated property is substantially completed;

(b) the property is not transferred by the donee in exchange for money, other property, or services; and

(c) the taxpayer receives a written statement from the donee in which the donee agrees to accept the property and representing that the use and disposition of the property will be in accordance with the provisions of (b) of this subsection (9)."

or otherwise paid as provided herein may be used as a credit on the contractor's corporation license tax provided for in chapter 31 of this title or on the contractor's income tax provided for in chapter 30, depending upon the type of tax the contractor is required to pay under the laws of the state.

(2) Personal property taxes, fees in lieu of taxes on motorcycles or quadricycles, or light vehicle license fees, as provided by 61-3-532, paid in Montana on any personal property of the contractor which is used in the business of the contractor and is located within this state may be credited against the license fees required under this chapter. However, in computing the tax credit allowed by this section against the contractor's corporation license tax or income tax, the personal property tax or light vehicle license fee credit against the license fees herein required shall not be considered as license fees paid for the purpose of such income tax or corporation license tax credit."

Section 13. Section 31-1-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"31-1-202. Definitions. (1) Unless the context requires otherwise, in this part the following definitions apply:

(c) To qualify for a used motor vehicle dealer's license, a person must submit an annual application for that license and comply with the provisions of 61-4-102(5) in addition to fulfilling the requirements of subsection (2)(b) above.

(d) The provisions of subsection (2)(c) above do not apply to an applicant who is licensed as a motor vehicle wrecking facility under the provisions of Title 75, chapter 10, part 5.

(3) The applicant for a dealer's license shall also file with his application a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $5,000, and the bond shall be conditioned that the applicant shall conduct his business in accordance with the requirements of the law. All bonds shall run to the state of Montana and shall be approved by the division and filed in its office and shall be renewed annually."

Section 28. Section 61-4-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-102. Fees. (1) Upon making such application, the applicant shall pay to the division, in addition to the fees required of dealers under the provisions of subsection (2), a fee of $5. Upon receipt of the application, fee, and bond, as provided above, the division shall examine the application, and may, prior to issuing a license, make individual investigation of the truth of the statements contained in the application. If the division is satisfied that the applicant qualifies for the issuance of a dealer's license under the provisions of this chapter, it may thereupon issue the same.

(2) Registration or license fees shall be paid upon registration or reregistration of dealers in motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, or trailers as follows:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1016 1985

(a) (i) all dealers in motor vehicles and recreational vehicles, a fee of $25, which shall entitle such dealer to one set of number plates, and $25 additional fee for each additional set of number plates, subject to the following limitations on the number of additional sets allowed a dealer:

(A) 5% of the first 100 vehicle sales for the previous year; plus

(B) 3% of the next 100 vehicle sales for the previous year; plus

(C) 2% of vehicle sales in excess of 200 for the previous year; and

(D) any additional sets upon a showing of good cause by the applicant dealer to the division.

(ii) in addition to the dealer plates allowed under subsection (2)(a)(i), a dealer who has purchased one or more sets of dealer plates is entitled to purchase demonstrator plates at a cost determined by the division to offset the cost of production. Demonstrator plates shall be used in lieu of a dealer plate but only as set forth in subsection (6) and must be distinguished from dealer plates in a manner determined by the division.

(b) dealers in motorcycles, quadricycles, and trailers, including house-trailers, $45.

(3) If any dealer is originally registered 6 months after the time of registration as set by law, the registration or license fee for the remainder of such year shall be one-half of the regular fee above given.

(4) A dealer in motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, or trailers who shall maintain more than one place of business or who shall maintain any branch establishment or establishments must register and pay a registration or license fee for each such place of business or establishment.

(5) A new applicant for a used motor vehicle dealer license shall pay $300 to the division in addition to any other sums required by this section or other provisions of the law. An applicant for a renewal of a used motor vehicle dealer license shall certify under oath that he has sold more than five used motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year or pay an additional $300 before he may be licensed.

(6) Demonstrator plates provided for in subsection (2)(a)(ii) may be used only as follows:

(a) New and used motor vehicle or recreational vehicle demonstrator plates may be used:

(i) to demonstrate, for no more than 72 hours, an authorized vehicle held for sale, when operated by an individual holding a valid operator's license;

(ii) on authorized vehicles owned by the firm when operated by an officer or bona fide full-time employee of the dealer and used to transport the dealer's own tools, parts, and equipment;

(iii) on authorized vehicles being tested for repair;

(iv) on authorized vehicles being moved to or from a dealer's place of business for sale;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1017 1985

(v) on authorized vehicles being moved to or from service and repair facilities before sale;

(vi) on authorized vehicles being moved to or from exhibitions within the state, provided any such exhibition does not exceed a period of 20 days.

(b) Mobile home and trailer dealer demonstrator plates may be used:

(i) on units hauled to or from the place of business of the manufacturer and the place of business of the dealer or to and from places of business of the dealer;

(ii) on mobile homes hauled to a customer's location for setup after sale;

(iii) on travel trailers held for sale to demonstrate the towing capability of the vehicle provided that a dated demonstration permit, valid for not more than 72 hours, is carried with the vehicle at all times;

(iv) on any motor vehicle owned by the dealer that is used only to move vehicles legally bearing mobile home and travel trailer dealer license plates of the dealer owning any such motor vehicle;

(v) on vehicles being moved to or from vehicle exhibitions within the state, provided any such exhibition does not exceed a period of 20 days."

Section 29. Section 61-4-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-103. Assignment of dealer plates. (1) Upon the licensing of a dealer as a new motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, recreational vehicle dealer, or trailer, semitrailer, or special mobile equipment dealer, or a dealer of the motorcycle- or quadricycle-type vehicle, the division shall assign to such dealer a distinctive serial license number as a dealer and after payment of fees furnish every qualified dealer in motor vehicles with such sets of number plates as required according to need, which need shall be justified by the dealer with the initial application for license and each renewal. Assigned number plates shall be similar to number plates furnished to owners of motor vehicles but shall bear thereon, in addition to the serial number assigned such dealer, the letter "D" if the dealer is authorized to sell new motor vehicles (including trucks and truck trailers); the letters "RV" if the dealer is authorized to sell recreational vehicles; the letters "UD" if the dealer is authorized to sell used motor vehicles (including used trucks and used truck trailers); the letters "DTR" if the dealer is authorized to sell trailers, semitrailers, or special mobile equipment (new or used); and the letters "MCD" if the dealer is authorized to sell vehicles of the motorcycle or quadricycle type (new or used).

(2) With the exception of a dealer authorized to sell new motor vehicles (including trucks and truck trailers) and to use the "D" plate or demonstrator plate, no dealer authorized to transact business under the provisions of this section may offer for sale or trade any vehicle described in this section except such vehicles as are authorized by the plates assigned to him. If an applicant wishes to sell more than one type of vehicle, he shall make application for each separate authorization. No plate assigned to a dealer may be used on any vehicle other than the type described in this section. A dealer authorized to sell new motor vehicles and assigned a "D" plate or demonstrator plate is authorized to sell both new and used motor vehicles

(including trucks and truck trailers), and such plates may be displayed on either new or used motor vehicles by a licensed dealer in new vehicles.

(3) The division shall cause to be placed on each set of license plates issued to a dealer a serial number assigned to each dealer and the actual number of license plates issued to each dealer. The number of the dealer shall follow the prefix of the county, and the number of plates issued the dealer shall follow the prefix of the county and the number of the dealer, the dealer's number to be separated from the county prefix by a dash, and the number of plates issued to a dealer to be separated from the dealer's number by a dash, as follows: dealer number 4 in Lewis and Clark County would be numbered 5-4, and if the dealer were issued three sets of plates, they would be numbered consecutively as follows, 5-4-1, 5-4-2, and 5-4-3.

(4) Dealers properly licensed under this section are authorized to use and display dealer's license plates on any motor vehicle held for bona fide sale or used in the conduct of the dealer's business in selling or demonstrating motor vehicles and operated by or under the control of the dealer, his officers or employees. For purposes of this provision, "officers and employees" include only such persons listed on the manufacturer's franchise agreement or the importer's distribution agreement and their spouses or such other persons upon whom the dealer has paid social security taxes as a full-time employee. No dealer's license plate shall be used or displayed on vehicles normally used for hire, lease, or rental or for purposes not incident to the business of a motor vehicle dealer. Each dealer is accountable for each plate issued and shall certify quarterly to the division the disposition of each dealer plate assigned to the dealer, including the name, address, and occupation of the person primarily using each plate.

(5) If it shall appear to the satisfaction of the division, from information furnished to it by the sheriff or any other law enforcement officer, that any such dealer has been improperly licensed, has used the dealer's license in a manner other than the one herein authorized, or is not qualified as a dealer under the requirements of this section, the division may revoke such dealer's license. No person, firm, corporation, or association shall, for commission or profit, engage in the business of buying, selling, exchanging, or acting as a broker of new motor vehicles, trailers, or semitrailers unless duly licensed in compliance with this section (except trailers having an unladen weight of less than 500 pounds)."

Section 30. Section 61-5-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-106. Instruction and traffic education permits and temporary licenses. (1) Any person satisfying the age requirements specified in 61-5-105(1) may apply to the division for an instruction permit. The division may in its discretion, after the applicant has successfully passed all parts of the examination other than the driving test, issue to the applicant an instruction permit which shall entitle the applicant, while having such permit in his immediate possession, to drive a motor vehicle upon the public highways for a period of 6 months when accompanied by a licensed operator or chauffeur who is occupying a seat beside the driver. In addition, the division may issue such an instruction permit to any person who is at least 14 ½ years of age and who has successfully completed or is successfully participating in a traffic education course approved by the division and the superintendent of public instruction. Any instruction permit so issued shall be restricted to the operation of a motor vehicle only when accompanied by an approved instructor or licensed parent or guardian and may be further restricted to specific times and/or areas.

(2) The division upon receiving proper application may in its discretion issue a traffic education permit effective for a school year or more restricted period to an applicant who is enrolled in a traffic education program approved by the division even though the applicant has not reached the legal age to be eligible for an operator's license. Such permit shall entitle the permittee when he has such a permit in his immediate possession to operate only on a designated highway or within a designated area a motor vehicle only when an approved instructor is occupying a seat beside the permittee or a motorcycle or quadricycle only when under the immediate and proximate supervision of an approved instructor.

(3) The division may in its discretion issue a temporary driver's permit to an applicant for an operator's license permitting him to operate a motor vehicle while the division is completing its investigation and determination of all facts relative to such applicant's right to receive an operator's license. Such permit must be in his immediate possession while operating a motor vehicle, and it shall be invalid when the applicant's license has been issued or for good cause has been refused."

Section 31. Section 61-5-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-107. Application for license, instruction permit, or motorcycle endorsement. (1) Every application for an instruction permit, operator's or chauffeur's license, or motorcycle endorsement shall be made upon a form furnished by the division. A motorcycle endorsement is required for the operation of a quadricycle. Every application shall be accompanied by the proper fee and payment of such fee shall entitle the applicant to not more than three attempts to pass the examination within a period of 6 months from the date of application.

(2) Every such application shall state the full name, date of birth, sex, and residence address of the applicant, and briefly describe the applicant, and shall state whether the applicant has theretofore been licensed as an operator or chauffeur, and, if so, when and by what state or country, and whether any such license has ever been suspended or revoked, or whether an application has ever been refused, and, if so, the date of and reason for such suspension, revocation, or refusal.

(3) Whenever application is received from an applicant previously licensed by any other jurisdiction, the division shall request a copy of such applicant's driving record from such previous licensing jurisdiction. When received, such driving records shall become a part of the driver's record in this state with the same force and effect as though entered on the driver's record in this state in the original instance."

Section 32. Section 61-5-110, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-110. Examination of applicants. The division shall examine every applicant for an operator's or chauffeur's license or motorcycle endorsement, except as otherwise provided in this section. Such examination shall include a test of the applicant's eyesight, his ability to read and understand highway signs regulating, warning, and directing traffic, his knowledge of the traffic laws of this state, and shall include an actual demonstration of ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in the operation of a motor vehicle, quadricycle, or motorcycle. The division shall make provision for giving an examination either in the county where the applicant resides or at a place adjacent thereto reasonably convenient to the applicant within not more than 30 days from the date the application is received."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1020 1985

Section 33. Section 61-5-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-111. Licenses issued to operators and chauffeurs — renewals and expiration — fees — disposition. (1) The division shall have authority to appoint county treasurers and other qualified officers to act as its agents for the sale of driver's licenses receipts and shall make necessary rules governing such sales. In those areas where the division provides driver licensing services 3 days or more a week the division is responsible for sale of receipts and may not appoint an agent. The division, upon receipt of payment of the fees specified in this section, shall issue to every applicant qualifying therefor an operator's or chauffeur's license as applied for. Such licenses shall contain a photograph of the licensee in the size and form as prescribed by the division, a distinguishing number issued to the licensee; the full name, date of birth, residence address, and a brief description of the licensee; and either a facsimile of the signature of the licensee or a space upon which he shall write his signature in pen and ink immediately upon receipt of the license. No license shall be valid until it has been so signed by the licensee. Five percent of the license fees collected by the county treasurer shall be deposited by the county treasurer for the use of the county general fund. In the event no agent is appointed under this section, 5% of the license fees collected by the division shall be retained by the division to defray the cost of handling.

(2) The division shall, when any person applies for renewal of an operator's or chauffeur's license, test the applicant's eyesight and may also in the division's discretion have the applicant demonstrate his physical ability to operate and to exercise ordinary and reasonable care in the operation of a motor vehicle. A person shall be considered to have applied for renewal of a Montana operator's or chauffeur's license if the application is made within 3 months of the expiration of his license.

(3) Licenses shall expire on the anniversary of the date of birth of the licensee 4 years or less after the date of issue.

(4) Whenever the division issues an original license to a person under the age of 18 years, the license shall be designated and clearly marked as a "provisional license". Any license so designated and marked may be suspended by the division for a period of not more than 12 months, when its records disclose that the licensee, subsequent to the issuance of such license, has been guilty of careless or negligent driving. Upon renewal as applicable to operator's licenses, the division may, for any reasonable cause as shown by its records, designate the renewal of the license as provisional; otherwise, a license in usual form shall be issued subject to other provisions of the laws of Montana.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1021 1985

(5) It shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession or under his control more than one Montana operator's or chauffeur's license at any one time. A license is not valid for the operation of a motorcycle or quadricycle until the holder thereof has completed the requirements of 61-5-110 and the license has been clearly marked with the words "motorcycle endorsement".

(6) Fees for driver's licenses shall be as follows:

(a) driver's license — $2 per year or fraction thereof;

(b) motorcycle endorsement — 50 cents per year or fraction thereof.

(7) The county treasurer or other agent of the division collecting such fees shall retain 5% of each fee for the use of the county general fund and shall transmit the remainder to the state treasurer, who shall deposit to the credit of the state general fund all money received by him from the collection of the fees."

Section 34. Section 61-6-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-6-303. Exempt vehicles. The following vehicles and their drivers are exempt from the provisions of 61-6-301:

(1) a vehicle owned by the United States government or any state or political subdivision;

(2) a vehicle for which cash, securities, or a bond has been deposited or filed with the division upon such terms and conditions providing the same benefits available under a required motor vehicle liability insurance policy;

(3) a vehicle owned by a self-insurer certified as provided in 61-6-143;

(4) an implement of husbandry or special mobile equipment that is only incidentally operated on a highway or property open to use by the public;

(5) a vehicle operated upon a highway only for the purpose of crossing such highway from one property to another;

(6) a commercial vehicle registered or proportionally registered in this and any other jurisdiction provided that vehicle is covered by a motor vehicle liability insurance policy complying with the laws of another jurisdiction in which it is registered;

(7) a motorcycle or quadricycle;

(8) a vehicle moved solely by human or animal power."

Section 35. Section 61-8-359, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-359. Riding on motorcycles. (1) A person operating a motorcycle or quadricycle on public streets or highways shall ride only upon the permanent and regular seat attached thereto, and such operator shall not carry any other person; nor shall any other person ride on a motorcycle or quadricycle unless such motorcycle or quadricycle is designed to carry more than one person, in which event a passenger may ride upon the permanent and regular seat if designed for two persons or upon another seat firmly attached to the rear or side of the operator.

(2) No passenger shall be carried in a position that will interfere with the operation of the motorcycle or quadricycle or the view of the operator.

(3) No person operating a motorcycle or quadricycle shall carry any packages, bundles, or articles which would interfere with the operation of said vehicle in a safe and prudent manner.

(4) "Sidesaddle" riding on a motorcycle or quadricycle is prohibited.

(5) Motorcycles and quadricycles are to be operated with lights on at all times when operated on any public highway or street, except that if the motorcycle is registered under 61-3-411 as a collector's item, it may be operated without lights from one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset if persons and vehicles are clearly discernible at a distance of 500 feet.

(6) Not more than two motorcycles shall be operated side by side in a single traffic lane.

(7) All motor vehicles, including motorcycles and quadricycles, are entitled to the full use of a traffic lane, and no vehicle shall be driven or operated in such a manner so as to deprive any other vehicle of the full use of a traffic lane, except that motorcycles may, with the consent of both drivers, be operated not more than two abreast in a single traffic lane.

(8) Every person riding a motorcycle or quadricycle upon a roadway shall be granted all of the rights and shall be subject to all of the duties applicable to the driver of a motor vehicle except as to those provisions which, by their nature, can have no application."

Section 36. Section 61-9-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-203. Headlamps on motor vehicles. (1) Every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle, quadricycle, or motor-driven cycle shall be equipped with at least two headlamps, with at least one on each side of the front of the motor vehicle, which headlamps shall comply with the requirements and limitations set forth in this chapter.

(2) Every motorcycle, quadricycle, and motor-driven cycle shall be equipped with at least one and not more than two headlamps which shall comply with the requirements and limitations of this chapter. If a motorcycle is registered under 61-3-411 as a collector's item, it need not be equipped with headlamps, but if it is not so equipped it may not be operated upon a highway or street from one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise or if persons and vehicles are not clearly discernible at a distance of 500 feet.

(3) Every headlamp upon every motor vehicle, including every motorcycle, quadricycle, and motor-driven cycle, shall be located at a height, measured from the center of the headlamp, of not more than 54 inches or less than 24 inches, to be measured as set forth in 61-9-202(2)."

Section 37. Section 61-9-205, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1023 1985

"61-9-205. New motor vehicles to be equipped with reflectors. (1) Every new motor vehicle hereafter sold and operated upon a highway, other than a truck tractor, shall carry on the rear, either as a part of the taillamps or separately, two red reflectors, except that every motorcycle, quadricycle, and motor-driven cycle shall carry at least one reflector meeting the requirements of this section, and except that vehicles of the type mentioned in 61-9-208 shall be equipped with reflectors as required in those sections applicable thereto.

(2) Every such reflector shall be mounted on the vehicle at a height not less than 15 inches or more than 60 inches measured as set forth in 61-9-202(2) and shall be of such size and characteristics and so mounted as to be visible at night from all distances within 300 feet to 50 feet from such vehicle when directly in front of lawful upper beams of headlamps, except that visibility from a greater distance may be required of reflectors on certain types of vehicles."

Section 38. Section 61-9-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-206. Stop lamps — when required. From and after January 1, 1956, it shall be unlawful for any person to sell any new motor vehicle, including any motorcycle, quadricycle, or motor-driven cycle, in this state or for any person to drive such vehicle on the highways unless it is equipped with at least one stop lamp meeting the requirements of 61-9-218."

Section 39. Section 61-9-220, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-220. Multiple-beam road-lighting equipment. Except as hereinafter provided, the headlamps or the auxiliary driving lamp or the auxiliary passing lamp or combination thereof on motor vehicles other than motorcycles, quadricycles, or motor-driven cycles shall be so arranged that the driver may select at will between distributions of light projected to different elevations and such lamps may, in addition, be so arranged that such selection can be made automatically, subject to the following limitations:

(1) There shall be an uppermost distribution of light, or composite beam, so aimed and of such intensity as to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least 350 feet ahead for all conditions of loading.

(2) There shall be a lowermost distribution of light, or composite beam, so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least 100 feet ahead; and on a straight level road under any condition of loading none of the high-intensity portion of the beam shall be directed to strike the eyes of an approaching driver.

(3) Every new motor vehicle, other than a motorcycle, quadricycle, or motor-driven cycle, registered in this state after January 1, 1956, which has multiple-beam road-lighting equipment shall be equipped with a beam indicator, which shall be lighted whenever the uppermost distribution of light from the headlamps is in use, and shall not otherwise be lighted. Said indicator shall be so designed and located that when lighted it will be readily visible without glare to the driver of the vehicle so equipped."

Section 40. Section 61-9-225, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1024 1985

"61-9-225. Number of driving lamps required or permitted. (1) At all times specified in 61-9-201, at least two lighted lamps shall be displayed, one on each side at the front of every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle, quadricycle, or motor-driven cycle, except when such vehicle is parked, subject to the regulations governing lights on parked vehicles.

(2) Whenever a motor vehicle equipped with headlamps as herein required is also equipped with any auxiliary lamps or a spot lamp or any other lamp on the front thereof projecting a beam of intensity greater than 300 candlepower, not more than a total of four of any such lamps on the front of a vehicle shall be lighted at any one time when upon a highway."

Section 41. Section 61-9-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-303. Parking brakes — adequacy. Every such vehicle and combination of vehicles, except motorcycles, quadricycles, and motor-driven cycles, shall be equipped with parking brakes adequate to hold the vehicle on any grade on which it is operated, under all conditions of loading, on a surface free from snow, ice, or loose material. The parking brakes shall be capable of being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements by the driver's muscular effort or by spring action or by equivalent means. Their operation may be assisted by the service brakes or other source of power provided that failure of the service brake actuation system or other power assisting mechanism will not prevent the parking brakes from being applied in conformance with the foregoing requirements. The parking brakes shall be so designed that when once applied they shall remain applied with the required effectiveness despite exhaustion of any source of energy or leakage of any kind. The same brake drums, brake shoes and lining assemblies, brake shoe anchors and mechanical brake shoe actuation mechanism normally associated with the wheel brake assemblies may be used for both the service brakes and the parking brakes. If the means of applying the parking brakes and the service brakes are connected in any way, they shall be so constructed that failure of any one part shall not leave the vehicle without operative brakes."

Section 42. Section 61-9-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-304. Brakes required on all wheels — exceptions. Every vehicle shall be equipped with brakes acting on all wheels except:

(1) trailers, semitrailers, pole trailers of a gross weight not exceeding 3,000 pounds, provided that:

(a) the total weight on and including the wheels of the trailer or trailers shall not exceed 40% of the gross weight of the towing vehicle when connected to the trailer or trailers; and

(b) the combination of vehicles consisting of the towing vehicle and its total towed load is capable of complying with the performance requirements of 61-9-312;

(2) any vehicle being towed in driveaway or towaway operations, provided the combination of vehicles is capable of complying with the performance requirements of 61-9-312;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1025 1985

(3) trucks and truck tractors having three or more axles need not have brakes on the front wheels, except that when such vehicles are equipped with at least two steerable axles, the wheels of one steerable axle need not have brakes. However, such trucks and truck tractors must be capable of complying with the performance requirements of 61-9-312.

(4) special mobile equipment as defined in 61-1-104;

(5) the wheel of a sidecar attached to a motorcycle or to a motor-driven cycle, or the front wheel of a motor-driven cycle need not be equipped with brakes. However, a quadricycle, motorcycle, or motor-driven cycle must be capable of complying with the performance requirements of 61-9-312."

Section 43. Section 61-9-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-309. Single control to operate all brakes. After January 1, 1966, every motor vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, and pole trailer, and every combination of such vehicles, except motorcycles, quadricycles, and motor-driven cycles, equipped with brakes shall have the braking system so arranged that one control device can be used to operate all service brakes. This requirement does not prohibit vehicles from being equipped with an additional control device to be used to operate brakes on the towed vehicles. This regulation does not apply to driveaway or towaway operations unless the brakes on the individual vehicles are designed to be operated by a single control on the towing vehicle."

Section 44. Section 61-9-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-312. Performance ability of brakes. (1) Every motor vehicle and combination of vehicles, at all times and under all conditions of loading, upon application of the service brake, shall be capable of:

(a) developing a braking force that is not less than the percentage of its gross weight tabulated in subsection (3) for its classification;

(b) decelerating to a stop from not more than 20 miles per hour at not less than the feet per second per second tabulated in subsection (3) for its classification; and

(c) stopping from a speed of 20 miles per hour in not more than the distance tabulated in subsection (3) for its classification, such distance to be measured from the point at which movement of the service brake pedal or control begins.

(2) Tests for deceleration and stopping distance shall be made on a substantially level (not to exceed plus or minus 1% grade), dry, smooth, hard surface that is free from loose material.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1026 1985

An operator and passenger under 18 years of age of any motorcycle or quadricycle operated upon the streets or highways of this state shall wear protective headgear upon the head. The headgear shall meet standards established by the department of justice."

Section 46. Section 61-9-418, MCA, is amended to read:

In addition, all motorcycles and quadricycles operating on streets and highways shall meet the following noise decibel limitations, on the standard A scale, such decibel limitations to be measured at 50 feet distant from the closest point to the motorcycle or quadricycle:

CHAPTER NO. 518

[HB 235]

AN ACT TO REQUIRE AN ANESTHESIOLOGIST, ANESTHETIST, OR OTHER TRAINED PROFESSIONAL TO ADMINISTER AND MONITOR GENERAL ANESTHETICS DURING DENTAL PROCEDURES; TO GRANT THE BOARD OF DENTISTRY AUTHORITY TO ADOPT RULES REGULATING DENTAL ANESTHETICS AND DENTAL ADVERTISING; AMENDING SECTIONS 37-4-101 AND 37-4-205, MCA; AND PROVIDING IMMEDIATE AND DELAYED EFFECTIVE DATES.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-4-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-4-101. Definitions — practice of dentistry. (1) Unless the context requires otherwise, in this chapter the following definitions apply:

(a) "Board" means the board of dentistry provided for in 2-15-1842.

(b) "Department" means the department of commerce provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 18.

(c) "Conscious sedation" means a minimally depressed level of consciousness in which the patient breathes normally without assistance, retains protective reflexes, and responds to physical stimulation or verbal command in a manner appropriate to the patient's cognitive level. Conscious sedation is not a form of general anesthesia, and brief interludes of unconsciousness during conscious sedation do not bring conscious sedation within the scope of general anesthesia.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1029 1985

(d) "General anesthesia" means a state of unconsciousness intentionally produced by anesthetic agents, with absence of pain sensation over the entire body and a greater or lesser degree of muscular relaxation. The drugs producing this state can be administered by inhalation, intravenously, intramuscularly, or via the gastrointestinal tract. General anesthesia is divided into:

(i) full general anesthesia, which means a level of consciousness in which the patient is without intact protective reflexes, is unable to maintain an airway, and is incapable of rational response to query or command; and

(ii) light general anesthesia, which means a level of consciousness in which the patient breathes normally without assistance and retains protective reflexes throughout most of the procedure.

(e) "General anesthetic" means any recognized anesthetic agent, sedative, hypnotic, tranquilizer, or narcotic used in sufficient prescribed dosages for the purpose of inducing general anesthesia. The term general anesthetic does not include a nitrous oxide/oxygen mixture or any other anesthetic administered to produce conscious sedation.

(2) A person is "practicing dentistry" under this chapter if he:

(a) performs, attempts, advertises to perform, causes to be performed by the patient or any other person, or instructs in the performance of dental operations, oral surgery, or dental service of any kind gratuitously or for a salary, fee, money, or other remuneration paid or to be paid, directly or indirectly, to himself, any other person, or agency;

(b) is a manager, proprietor, operator, or conductor of a place where dental operations, oral surgery, or dental services are performed;

(c) directly or indirectly, by any means or method, furnishes, supplies, constructs, reproduces, or repairs a prosthetic denture, bridge, appliance, or other structure to be worn in the human mouth;

(d) places the appliance or structure in the human mouth or attempts to adjust it;

(e) advertises to the public, by any method, to furnish, supply, construct, reproduce, or repair a prosthetic denture, bridge, appliance, or other structure to be worn in the human mouth;

(f) diagnoses, professes to diagnose, prescribes for, professes to prescribe for, treats, or professes to treat disease, pain, deformity, deficiency, injury, or physical condition of human teeth, jaws, or adjacent structures;

(g) extracts or attempts to extract human teeth or corrects, attempts, or professes to correct malpositions of teeth or of the jaw;

(h) gives or professes to give interpretations or readings of dental roentgenograms;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1030 1985

(i) administers an anesthetic of any nature, subject to the limitations provided in [section 2], in connection with a dental operation;

(j) uses the words "dentist", "dental surgeon", "oral surgeon", the letters "D.D.S.", "D.M.D.", or any other words, letters, title, or descriptive matter which in any way represents him as being able to diagnose, treat, prescribe, or operate for any disease, pain, deformity, deficiency, injury, or physical condition of human teeth, jaws, or adjacent structures;

(k) states, advertises, or permits to be stated or advertised, by sign, card, circular, handbill, newspaper, radio, or otherwise, that he can perform or will attempt to perform dental operations or render a diagnosis in connection therewith; or

(l) engages in any of the practices included in the curricula of recognized dental colleges."

Section 2. Limitations on the administration of general anesthetics and practices involving general anesthesia. (1) No person engaged in the practice of dentistry or oral surgery may perform any dental or surgical procedure upon another person if a general anesthetic is administered unless such anesthetic is administered and monitored by:

(a) an anesthesiologist licensed to practice medicine by the state board of medical examiners;

(b) a nurse anesthetist recognized in that specialty by the state board of nursing; or

(c) another health professional who has received at least 1 year of postgraduate training in the administration of general anesthesia.

(2) No person engaged in the practice of dentistry or oral surgery may conduct any dental or surgical procedure upon another person under full general anesthesia unless the vital signs of the patient are continually monitored by another health professional who meets the qualifications for an anesthesiologist, nurse anesthetist, or other trained health professional as provided for in subsection (1).

(3) No person engaged in the practice of dentistry or oral surgery may conduct any dental or surgical procedure upon another person under light general anesthesia unless the vital signs of the patient are continually monitored by another person who has been examined by the board or its agent in life support skills and demonstrated a satisfactory level of proficiency as established by the board.

(4) No person engaged in the practice of dentistry or oral surgery may administer a general anesthetic to any other person unless he satisfies the requirements for a person qualified to administer a general anesthetic, as provided in subsection (1), and meets any additional standards established by the board of dentistry for training in the administration of general anesthesia and in the treatment of the complications thereof. This subsection does not affect the requirements for monitoring of vital signs by another health professional under subsections (2) or (3).

(5) The facility in which general anesthesia is to be administered as part of a dental or surgical procedure must be equipped with proper drugs and equipment to safely administer anesthetic agents, to monitor the well-being of the patient under general anesthesia, and to treat the complications that may arise from general anesthesia.

Section 3. Section 37-4-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-4-205. Rulemaking. The board may adopt, amend, or repeal rules necessary for the implementation, continuation, and enforcement of this chapter in accordance with the Montana Administrative Procedure Act. Rules adopted under this section may include but are not limited to the following subjects:

(1) the practice of dentistry or oral surgery involving the administration of anesthetics; and

(2) advertising by a licensed dentist including:

(a) the use of false, deceptive, or misleading advertising;

(b) the use of information concerning fees, areas of practice, specialization, personal background, and quality of service in advertising; and

(c) the use of warnings and disclaimers in advertising."

Section 4. Codification instruction. Section 2 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 37, chapter 4, and the provisions of Title 37, chapter 4, apply to section 2.

Section 5. Effective dates. This act is effective January 1, 1986, except for this section and section 3, which are effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 17, 1985.

(2) "Applicant" means a person, whether or not a prospective insured, who applies to a title insurer or title agent for a title insurance policy, but does not include a title agent.

(3) "Approved attorney" means an attorney authorized to practice law in this state, except an agent or employee of a title insurer, whose certification as to the status of the title to real property a title insurer is willing to accept as the basis for issuance of a title insurance policy.

(4) "Associate" means a:

(a) corporation, partnership, or other business entity organized for profit, of which a producer of title business is a director, officer, partner, employee, or owner of 5% or more of its equity or capital;

(b) franchisor or franchisee of a producer of title business;

(c) spouse, parent, or child of a producer of title business;

(d) corporation, partnership, or other business entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a producer of title business; or

(e) person with whom a producer of title business or an associate has an agreement, arrangement, understanding, or course of conduct having the purpose or substantial effect of evading the provisions of this title.

(5) "Controlled business" means that portion of the business of title insurance in this state of a title insurer or title agent that is referred to it by a producer or associate having a financial interest in the title insurer or title agent.

(9) "Rate" means fees for:

(a) issuing a title insurance policy, including any service charge or fee for the issuance;

(b) abstracting, searching, and examining title to real property when prepared or issued in contemplation of or in conjunction with the issuance of a title insurance policy; and

(c) preparing or issuing preliminary reports, commitments, binders, or similar products prepared or issued in contemplation of or in conjunction with the issuance of a title insurance policy.

(10) "Refer" means to direct, cause to be directed, or exercise an influence over the direction of title insurance business, whether or not the consent or approval of another person is sought or obtained with respect to the referral.

(11) (a) "Title agent" means a person who holds a valid title agent's license and is authorized in writing by a title insurer to:

(i) solicit title insurance business;

(ii) collect rates;

(iii) determine insurability in accordance with underwriting rules and standards of the insurer; or

(iv) issue policies of the title insurer.

(b) "Title agent" does not include an approved attorney.

(12) "Title insurance business" means:

(a) issuing or offering to issue a title insurance policy as an insurer;

(b) transacting or proposing to transact any of the following as a title insurer or title agent, in contemplation of or in conjunction with the issuance of a title insurance policy:

(i) soliciting or negotiating the issuance of a title insurance policy;

(ii) guaranteeing, warranting, or otherwise insuring the correctness of title searches;

(v) effecting contracts of reinsurance; or

(vi) abstracting, searching, or examining titles;

(c) transacting, as a title insurer or agent, matters subsequent to the issuance of a title insurance policy and arising out of the policy; or

(d) doing or proposing to do business that, in substance, is equivalent to any of the activities described in subsections (12)(a) through (12)(c) in a manner designed to evade the provisions of this title.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1034 1985

(13) "Title insurance policy" means a contract by which, subject to its stated terms and conditions, a title insurer insures or indemnifies the insured against loss or damage sustained by reason of:

(a) defects in or liens or encumbrances on the title to the stated property;

(b) unmarketability of the title to the stated property; or

(c) invalidity or unenforceability of liens or encumbrances on the stated property.

(14) "Title insurer" means an insurer formed and authorized under the laws of this state to transact the business of title insurance in this state or a foreign or alien insurer so authorized.

(15) "Title plant" means a set of privately maintained records in which entries have been made of documents imparting constructive notice, under the law, of matters affecting title to real property, an interest therein, or an encumbrance thereon, that have been filed or recorded in the jurisdiction for which the title plant is maintained and from which the ownership of real property within the jurisdiction can be ascertained and liens, encumbrances, defects, and clouds on title to the real property can be determined.

Section 3. Application. (1) [Sections 1 through 15], 33-25-101, and 33-25-102 apply to all title insurers, title insurance rating organizations, title agents, applicants for title insurance, title insurance policyholders, and all other persons engaged in title insurance business in this state.

(2) [Sections 1 through 15], 33-25-101, and 33-25-102 do not authorize the practice of law by a person who is not licensed to practice law in this state, and [sections 1 through 15], 33-25-101, and 33-25-102 do not authorize the commissioner to regulate the practice of law.

Section 4. Abstracts of title distinguished from title insurance policy and preliminary report. (1) A title insurance policy is not an abstract of title or representation as to the condition of title to the stated property.

(2) A preliminary report is not an abstract of title. The rights, duties, and liabilities applicable to the preparation and issuance of an abstract of title are not applicable to the issuance of a preliminary report. A preliminary report does not constitute a representation as to the condition of title to real property, but constitutes a statement of the terms and conditions upon which the issuer is willing to issue its title insurance policy.

Section 5. Limitations on authority. (1) An insurer that transacts or is licensed to transact a class or kind of insurance other than title insurance is not eligible for the issuance or renewal of a license to transact the business of title insurance in this state and may not transact, underwrite, or issue title insurance. An insurer authorized to transact any combination of kinds of insurance, including title insurance, under an existing certificate of authority may continue to do so until the certificate of authority is renewed effective June 1, 1986.

(2) A title insurer may not engage in the business of guaranteeing payment of the principal or interest of bonds or mortgages.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1035 1985

(3) A title insurer may not engage in the business of guaranteeing the obligations of other persons, except its title agents or approved attorneys in the normal course of its business.

Section 6. Underwriting standards — record retention. (1) A title insurer may not issue a title insurance policy unless it, its title agent, or an approved attorney has conducted a reasonable search and examination of the title and made a determination of insurability of title in accordance with sound underwriting practices. The title insurer or title agent must preserve and retain in its files evidence of the examination of title and determination of insurability. The title insurer or title agent may keep original evidence or may establish in the regular course of business a system of recording, copying, or reproducing evidence by any process that accurately and legibly reproduces, or forms a durable medium for reproducing, the contents of the original.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to:

(a) a title insurer assuming liability through a contract of reinsurance; or

(b) a title insurer acting as coinsurer if one of the other coinsuring title insurers has complied with subsection (1).

(3) Except as allowed by rules adopted by the commissioner, no title insurer or title agent may knowingly issue an owner's title insurance policy or commitment to insure unless all outstanding enforceable recorded liens or other interests against the property title to be insured are shown.

(4) An insurer issuing a policy in violation of this section is estopped, as a matter of law, to deny the validity of the policy as to any claim or demand of the insured arising thereunder.

Section 7. Escrow, closing, or settlement services — title indemnification — maintenance of accounts — rules. (1) A title insurer or title agent may provide escrow, settlement, or closing services, or any combination thereof, and may operate as an escrow, settlement, or closing agent, subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3).

(2) A title insurer or title agent shall:

(a) deposit funds accepted in connection with an escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification in a separate fiduciary trust account in a bank or other financial institution insured by an agency of the federal government and segregate the funds by escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification in its records. The funds are the property of the person entitled thereto under the terms of the escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification and are not subject to debts of the title insurer or title agent. A title insurer or agent may use such funds only in accordance with the terms of the individual escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification under which the funds are accepted.

(b) pay any interest received on funds deposited with it in connection with an escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification, to the depositing person or as otherwise provided by the terms thereof;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1036 1985

(c) maintain separate records of all receipts and disbursements of escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification funds; and

(d) comply with rules adopted by the commissioner pertaining to escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification transactions.

(3) A title agent must keep books of account, records, and vouchers pertaining to any escrow, closing, settlement, or title indemnification business transacted, in such a manner that the commissioner or his authorized representative may readily ascertain, under the authority of 33-1-402, whether the title agent has complied with all applicable provisions of this title.

Section 8. Disapproval of agency contracts. (1) The commissioner may disapprove a title agency contract between a title agent and title insurer, upon appropriate notice to the parties to the contract, if he finds that the contract, together with all amendments and related documents:

(a) does not provide for adequate monitoring of the agent's financial transactions; or

(b) provides for inadequate, unreasonable, or excessive amounts to be paid to or retained by the title agent. Factors the commissioner may consider in this determination include but are not limited to the agent's duties under the contract and the general level of amounts paid to or retained by other title agents in the state performing or assuming comparable duties.

(2) No person may act as a title agent under an agency contract that has been disapproved by the commissioner.

Section 9. Report of claims. A title agent must immediately report every loss claim to the title insurer that issued the policy against which the claim is presented.

Section 10. Refusal, suspension, or revocation of title agent's license. (1) In addition to the causes provided in 33-17-1001, the commissioner may refuse to license a person as a title agent or may suspend or revoke a title agent's license if, after a hearing held after notice as required in 33-17-1001, he finds that the license applicant or licensee has:

(a) made a material misstatement in an application for a title agent license;

(b) commingled funds belonging to applicants, escrow participants, or others;

(c) intentionally misrepresented the terms of a title insurance policy to an applicant or policyholder or has misrepresented material facts to, concealed material facts from, or made false statements to a party to an escrow, settlement, or closing transaction;

(d) in the conduct of his affairs under his title agent's license, used coercive practices or shown himself to be financially irresponsible;

(e) aided, abetted, or assisted another person in violating the provisions of this title or a rule adopted by the commissioner.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1037 1985

(2) The commissioner may impose any other appropriate penalty provided for in this title.

(3) The commissioner may refuse, suspend, or revoke the license of a firm, corporation, or other business entity licensed as a title agent for the actions described in subsection (1) of any individual designated in the license to exercise its powers.

Section 11. Sharing of rate proceeds. Title insurers and agents may share rate proceeds between or among themselves in any combination and may exchange business and share commissions as provided in 33-17-1103, unless the sharing of rate proceeds is an unlawful rebate or inducement under this title or is a payment of a forwarding fee or finders fee.

Section 12. Prohibited practices — referrals — splitting charges — exemptions. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), no person may:

(a) give or accept a fee, rebate, or thing of value pursuant to an agreement or understanding that title insurance business will be referred to a title agent; or

(b) give or accept a portion, split, or percentage of a charge made or received for title insurance business in connection with a transaction involving real property in this state, other than for services actually performed.

(2) (a) A person may pay a return on an investment, based on a percentage of an ownership interest in a title insurance agency, if:

(i) at or prior to the time of a referral a disclosure of the existence of the arrangement is made to the person being referred and, in connection with the referral, the person is provided a written estimate of the charge or range of charges generally made by the title agent to which the person is referred; and

(ii) the person is not required to use a particular agent.

(b) The following arrangements are not a violation of subsection (2)(a)(ii):

(i) an arrangement that requires a buyer, borrower, or seller to pay for the services of an attorney, credit reporting agency, or real estate appraiser chosen by a lender to represent the lender's interest in a real estate transaction; or

(ii) an arrangement by which an attorney or law firm represents a client in a real estate transaction and issues or arranges for the issuance of a policy of title insurance in the transaction directly as agent or through a separate corporate title insurance agency that may be established by that attorney or law firm and operated as an adjunct to his or its law practice.

(c) Failure to disclose a controlled business relationship is not a violation of subsection (2)(a)(i) if the failure was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, proven by a preponderance of the evidence.

(3) This section does not prohibit:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1038 1985

(a) the payment of a fee to an attorney for services actually rendered or by a title agent for services actually performed in the issuance of a title insurance policy; or

(b) payment of a bona fide salary, compensation, or other payment for goods or facilities actually furnished or for services actually performed.

Section 13. Prohibited practices — penalties — treble damages, court costs, and attorney fees — injunction. (1) A person found to have violated the provisions of [section 12] is jointly and severally liable to the person charged for the title insurance business involved in the violation for an amount equal to three times the amount of the charge paid for the business.

(2) In a civil action based on [section 12] and this section, the court may award to the prevailing party court costs plus reasonable attorney fees.

(3) The commissioner may bring a civil action to enjoin a violation of [section 12].

Section 14. Prohibited practices — producer and associates — prohibition of favored agent or insurer. No producer or associate may, directly or indirectly, require as a condition, agreement, or understanding of providing another person a loan, loan extension, credit, sale, property, contract, lease, or service that the other person obtain title insurance of any kind from a particular title insurer or title agent. No title insurer or title agent may knowingly participate in a plan or transaction prohibited by this section.

Section 15. Notice of issuance of mortgagee policy. (1) A title insurer or title agent that issues a mortgagee's policy of title insurance on a loan made simultaneous to the purchase of all or part of the property securing the loan, when no owner's policy has been ordered, must inform the borrower in writing that the mortgagee's policy is to be issued, that the mortgagee's policy does not protect the borrower, and that the borrower may obtain an owner's title insurance policy for his protection. This notice must be provided, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, before issuance of the mortgagee's policy.

(2) If the borrower elects not to purchase an owner's title insurance policy, the title insurer or title agent must obtain from him a statement in writing that the notice has been received and that the borrower waives the right to purchase an owner's title insurance policy. If the buyer refuses to provide the statement and waiver, the title insurer or title agent must so note in the file. The statement and waiver must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must be retained by the title insurer or title agent for at least 5 years after receipt.

Section 16. Section 33-2-108, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-2-108. Combinations of insuring powers. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) and [section 5], an insurer which otherwise qualifies therefor may be authorized to transact any one kind or combination of kinds of insurance as defined in 33-1-205 through 33-1-212.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1039 1985

(2) A life insurer may also grant annuities but shall not be authorized to transact any other kind of insurance other than disability, except that if the insurer is otherwise qualified therefor, the commissioner shall continue to so authorize any life insurer which, immediately prior to January 1, 1961, was lawfully authorized to transact in this state a kind or kinds of insurance in addition to life and disability.

(3) A reciprocal insurer shall not transact life insurance.

(4) A title insurer shall be a stock insurer."

Section 17. Section 33-2-851, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-2-851. Special investments by title insurer. (1) In addition to other investments eligible under this part, a title insurer may invest and have invested an amount not exceeding 50% of its paid-in capital stock in its title plant, as defined in [section 2], and equipment and, with the commissioner's consent, in stock of abstract companies and of title agents as defined in [section 2].

(2) Investments authorized by this section shall not be credited against the insurer's required unearned premium or guaranty fund reserve provided for under 33-2-517.

(3) Any such title plant and equipment shall not be so allowed as an asset in any determination of the insurer's financial condition at a value greater than actual cost."

Section 18. Section 33-17-212, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-17-212. Examination required. (1) After completion and filing of the application for license as required under 33-17-211, the commissioner shall subject each applicant for license as agent or solicitor, unless exempted therefrom under subsection (5) below, to a personal written examination as to his competence to act as such agent or solicitor.

(2) If the applicant is a firm or corporation, the examination shall be so taken by each individual who is to be named in the license as having authority to act for the applicant in its insurance transactions under the license.

CHAPTER NO. 520

[HB 426]

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH A STAY OF AN AGENCY DECISION MAY BE GRANTED; AMENDING SECTION 2-4-702, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-4-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-702. Initiating judicial review of contested cases. (1) (a) A person who has exhausted all administrative remedies available within the agency and who is aggrieved by a final decision in a contested case is entitled to judicial review under this chapter. This section does not limit utilization of or the scope of judicial review available under other means of review, redress, relief, or trial de novo provided by statute.

(b) A party who proceeds before an agency under the terms of a particular statute shall not be precluded from questioning the validity of that statute on judicial review, but such party may not raise any other question not raised before the agency unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that there was good cause for failure to raise the question before the agency.

(2) (a) Proceedings for review shall be instituted by filing a petition in district court within 30 days after service of the final decision of the agency or, if a rehearing is requested, within 30 days after the decision thereon. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the petition shall be filed in the district court for the county where the petitioner resides or has his principal place of business or where the agency maintains its principal office. Copies of the petition shall be promptly served upon the agency and all parties of record.

(b) The petition shall include a concise statement of the facts upon which jurisdiction and venue are based, a statement of the manner in which the petitioner is aggrieved, and the ground or grounds specified in 2-4-704(2) upon which the petitioner contends he is entitled to relief. The petition shall demand the relief to which the petitioner believes he is entitled, and the demand for relief may be in the alternative.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. I 1043 1985

(3) Unless otherwise provided by statute, the filing of the petition shall not stay enforcement of the agency's decision. The agency may grant or the reviewing court may order a stay upon terms which it considers proper, following notice to the affected parties and an opportunity for hearing. A stay may be issued without notice only if the provisions of 27-19-315, 27-19-316, and 27-19-317 are met.

(4) Within 30 days after the service of the petition or within further time allowed by the court, the agency shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding under review. By stipulation of all parties to the review proceedings, the record may be shortened. A party unreasonably refusing to stipulate to limit the record may be taxed by the court for the additional costs. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or additions to the record."

Section 2. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 17, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 521

[HB 445]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT IF A PERSON OBLIGATED TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT BECOMES DELINQUENT IN AN AMOUNT EQUAL TO THE TOTAL OF 6 MONTHS' SUPPORT PAYMENTS, THE COURT MAY ORDER THE OBLIGATED PERSON TO POST BOND OR OTHER SECURITY IN AN AMOUNT UP TO THE TOTAL OF 2 YEARS' SUPPORT PAYMENTS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Security or guarantee to secure support. (1) Upon verified application by a person authorized to enforce or collect a child support obligation, the department of revenue, or the department of social and rehabilitation services showing that a person obligated to pay child support or maintenance pursuant to court or administrative order is delinquent in an amount equal to the total of 6 months' support payments, the court may direct the obligated person to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered ordering that he post bond, give a mortgage, or provide other security or guarantee for the payment of the delinquency.

(2) If the court finds that a delinquency greater than the total of 6 months of support is owed and that the obligated person has the ability to post bond, give a mortgage, or provide security or other guarantee, the court may enter an order requiring him to post bond, give a mortgage, or provide security or guarantee for so long as there is a support delinquency.

(3) The bond or other security may be in an amount up to the total support due for a 2-year period and must be approved by the court. The bond must include the name and address of the issuer. Any person issuing a bond under this section must, if the bond is cancelled, notify the court and the person or public agency entitled to receive payments under the support order.

(4) If the person obligated to pay child support or maintenance fails to make payments as required by the court or administrative order, the person or public agency entitled to receive payment may recover on the bond or other security. The amount recovered on the bond or other security must first be applied toward satisfaction of any support arrearages.

(5) The department shall adopt guidelines which take into account the payment record of the obligated person, the availability of other remedies, and other considerations which it determines relevant for determining whether the procedure provided in this section would carry out the purpose of enforcing payments of child support or would be appropriate in the circumstances. If after application of the guidelines the department determines an application for an order requiring security is not appropriate, it may not request the order.

Section 2. Codification instruction. Section 1 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 40, chapter 4, part 2.

Approved April 17, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 534

[HB 602]

AN ACT DEFINING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN AN ARTIST AND AN ART DEALER; PROVIDING THAT A CONSIGNMENT RELATIONSHIP IS CREATED; PROVIDING THAT THE DEALER IS A TRUSTEE AND HOLDS THE ARTIST'S WORKS AND FUNDS IN TRUST; PROVIDING FOR NOTICE OF SALES TO THE ARTIST.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. As used in [this act], unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Art dealer" means a person engaged in the business of selling works of fine art, other than a person exclusively engaged in the business of selling goods at public auction.

(2) "Artist" means a person who creates a work of fine art or, if the person is deceased, the person's heir, devisee, or personal representative.

(3) "Consignment" means that no title to, estate in, or right to possession of fine art superior to that of the consignor vests in the consignee, notwithstanding the consignee's power or authority to transfer and convey to a third person all of the right, title, and interest of the consignor in and to such fine art.

(4) "Fine art" means a painting, sculpture, drawing, work of graphic art (including an etching, lithograph, signed limited edition offset print, silk screen, or a work of graphic art of like nature), a work of calligraphy, photographs, original works in ceramics, wood, metals, glass, plastic, wax, stone, or leather, or a work in mixed media (including a collage, assemblage, or any combination of the art media mentioned in this subsection).

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1069 1985

(5) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other group, however organized.

Section 2. Artist-art dealer relationship. Notwithstanding any custom, practice, or usage of the trade to the contrary, whenever an artist delivers or causes to be delivered a work of fine art of the artist's own creation to an art dealer in this state for the purpose of exhibition and sale on a commission, fee, or other basis of compensation, the delivery to and acceptance of such work of fine art by the dealer constitutes a consignment, unless the delivery to the art dealer is pursuant to an outright sale for which the artist receives upon delivery or has received prior to delivery full compensation for the work of fine art.

Section 3. Agency relationship — trust property. A consignment of a work of fine art results in the following:

(1) The art dealer, after delivery of the work of fine art, is an agent of the artist for the purpose of sale or exhibition of the consigned work of fine art within the state of Montana. This relationship must be defined in writing and renewed at least every 3 years by the art dealer and the artist. It is the responsibility of the artist to identify clearly the work of art by securely attaching identifying marking to or clearly signing the work of art.

(2) The work of fine art constitutes property held in trust by the consignee for the benefit of the consignor and is not subject to claim by a creditor of the consignee.

(3) The consignee is responsible for the loss of or damage to the work of fine art while in the possession of or on the premises of the consignee.

(4) The proceeds from the sale of the work of fine art constitute funds held in trust by the consignee for the benefit of the consignor. The proceeds must first be applied to pay any balance due to the consignor, unless the consignor expressly agrees otherwise in writing.

Section 4. Subsequent sale — payment to consignor. A work of fine art received as a consignment remains trust property, notwithstanding the subsequent purchase thereof by the consignee directly or indirectly for the consignee's own account, until the price is paid in full to the consignor. If the work is resold to a bona fide purchaser before the consignor has been paid in full, the proceeds of the resale received by the consignee constitute funds held in trust for the benefit of the consignor to the extent necessary to pay any balance due to the consignor and the trusteeship continues until the fiduciary obligation of the consignee with respect to the transaction is discharged in full.

Section 5. Waiver void — exemption from UCC. (1) Any provision of a contract or agreement by which the consignor waives any provision of [this act] is void.

(2) [This act] is not subject to the provisions of Title 30, chapters 1 through 9.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1070 1985

Section 6. Saving clause. This act does not apply to a written contract executed prior to October 1, 1985, unless:

(1) the parties agree that this act will apply; or

(2) the contract is extended or renewed after the effective date of this act.

Approved April 18, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 535

[HB 743]

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE SUBROGATION RIGHTS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND REHABILITATION SERVICES REGARDING THE PROVISION OF MEDICAL BENEFITS ON BEHALF OF A PERSON FOR WHOM A THIRD PARTY IS LIABLE; AMENDING SECTIONS 53-2-612 AND 53-3-103, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-2-612, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-2-612. Subrogation and third party liability for certain benefits. (1) The department is subrogated to the right of each recipient or beneficiary of medical benefits to recover damages or compensation from a third party to the extent necessary to reimburse the department for medical benefits paid to or on behalf of the recipient or beneficiary. Upon determination that a third party is liable for the medical expenses of a recipient or beneficiary under this section, the department shall immediately notify the third party of the subrogation.

(2) The department may, in the name of the recipient or beneficiary to whom or on whose behalf medical benefits have been paid and to whose rights the department has been subrogated, commence and prosecute to final conclusion any action which may be necessary to recover from a third party compensation or damages for medical costs incurred by the recipient or beneficiary. This section does not affect the right of the recipient or beneficiary to initiate and prosecute to final conclusion an action for damages or compensation in his own name in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(3) From the amount collected from legal proceedings or as a result of settlement, reasonable attorney fees and costs must be deducted first. Unless the department and the recipient or beneficiary agree to a different settlement, the amount previously paid as medical benefits by the department, less a pro rata share of attorney fees and costs, must be deducted next and paid to the department. The remainder must be paid to the recipient or beneficiary. However, any recipient or beneficiary who initiates an action to recover damages or compensation shall receive no less than one-third of the total amount recovered after the deduction of reasonable attorney fees and costs.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1071 1985

(4) A recipient or beneficiary of medical benefits or his legal representative shall notify the department by means of a certified letter if the recipient or beneficiary or his legal representative asserts a claim against a third party or his insurer for damages or compensation for an injury for which the department paid medical benefits in whole or in part. The notice must be mailed to the director of the department and must contain the following information:

(a) the name and address of the recipient or beneficiary;

(b) the name of the third party alleged to be liable to the recipient or beneficiary;

(c) the name and address of any known insurer of the third party; and

(d) the judicial district and docket number of any action filed.

(5) (a) No recipient or beneficiary who has received medical assistance from the department as a result of an injury which creates a claim or cause of action may release the liable third party or his insurer from liability to the department. If any liable third party or his insurer, after receiving notice of the department's subrogation claim, makes payment on account of injury or death and the department has not been reimbursed for the medical benefits paid on behalf of the recipient or beneficiary, the insurer or third party is liable to the department for the amount of medical benefits paid by the department.

(b) The notice requirements of subsection (5)(a) are satisfied if:

(i) the insurer receives from the department, by certified mail, a statement of the claims paid or medical services rendered by the department, together with a claim for reimbursement; or

(ii) the insurer receives a claim from a recipient or beneficiary stating that the recipient or beneficiary has applied for or has received medical assistance from the department in connection with the same claim.

(6) As used in this section, "third party" means an individual, institution, corporation, or public or private agency which is or may be liable to pay all or part of the medical cost of injury, disease, or disability of a recipient or beneficiary of medical benefits from the state or county and includes but is not limited to insurers, health service organizations, and those liable in tort."

Section 2. Section 53-3-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-3-103. Medical aid and hospitalization for indigent. (1) Except as provided in other parts of this title, medical aid and hospitalization for county residents and nonresidents within the county unable to provide these necessities for themselves are the legal and financial responsibility of the county commissioners and are payable from the county poor fund. The county commissioners shall make provisions for competent and skilled medical or surgical services. "Medical" or "medicine" as used in this section refers to the healing art as practiced by licensed practitioners.

(2) The board, in arranging for medical care for those unable to provide it for themselves, may have the care provided by physicians appointed by the board who shall be known as county physicians or deputy county physicians and may fix a rate of compensation for the furnishing of the medical attendance.

(3) The department may promulgate rules to determine under what circumstances persons in the county are unable to provide medical aid and hospitalization for themselves, including the power to define the term "medically needy". However, the definition may not allow payment by a county for general assistance—medical for persons whose income exceeds 300% of the limitation for obtaining regular county general relief assistance or for persons who are eligible for medicaid in accordance with Title 53, chapter 6, part 1, or for persons who have the right or are entitled to medical aid and hospitalization from the federal government or any agency thereof.

(4) In any case where the county or state pays medical expenses or hospitalization for an individual, the county or state is subrogated to the claims of the physician or hospital to the extent of payment. To the extent necessary for reimbursement of medical benefits paid to or on behalf of an individual, the county or state is subrogated to the rights of the individual to recover from a third party who may be liable to pay the medical expenses. The provisions of 53-2-612 apply to medical benefits provided for in this section."

Section 3. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Approved April 18, 1985.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1080 1985

(d) a simple and precise statement of the facts showing that the patient has violated a condition of the release, that the violation has caused a deterioration of the patient's mental disorder, and that as a result of this deterioration the patient can no longer be appropriately served by outpatient care; and

(e) a statement of the rights of the respondent, including those set forth in 53-21-115, which must be in conspicuous print and identified by a suitable heading.

Further, the judge must ensure that the notice and copy of the petition are immediately hand-delivered to the patient, to his friend of respondent, if any, and to his counsel.

Section 3. Detention of conditionally released patient pending hearing. The court may not order detention of the conditionally released patient pending the hearing, except as permitted under 53-21-124.

Section 4. Hearing on rehospitalization petition — revocation of conditional release. (1) The court may order that the patient's conditional release status be revoked and that the patient be returned to the mental health facility from which he was conditionally released or sent to another appropriate inpatient mental health facility if, after a hearing, the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that:

(a) the conditionally released patient has been determined by the district court to be seriously mentally ill and is presently under a valid order of commitment pursuant to 53-21-127 or 53-21-128; and

(b) the conditionally released patient has violated a condition of the release, that the violation has caused a deterioration of the patient's mental condition, and that as a result of this deterioration the patient can no longer be appropriately served by outpatient care.

(2) A revocation of the patient's conditional release status under subsection (1) must be based on the testimony of the professional person responsible for the patient's case.

(3) If the court revokes the patient's conditional release status pursuant to subsection (1), a treatment plan must be updated or a new plan prepared for the patient as required by and within the time set forth in 53-21-162.

(4) Except as provided in [section 5], an order revoking the patient's conditional release status may not order hospitalization or impose other conditions of release that extend beyond the expiration date of the order committing the patient under 53-21-127 or 53-21-128.

Section 5. Extension of conditions of release — hearing. (1) Conditions of release may be extended by the district court beyond the expiration date of the order committing the patient under 53-21-127 or 53-21-128, but in no case for longer than 2 years beyond that date, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1081 1985

(a) continuation of the conditions of release is necessary to prevent the deterioration of the patient's mental disorder; and

(b) the deterioration will predictably result in the necessity of further inpatient care for the person. Predictability may be established by the patient's medical history.

(2) Not less than 2 calendar weeks prior to the end of the period of detention ordered under 53-21-127 or 53-21-128 or the period of extension ordered under subsection (5) of this section, the professional person responsible for the patient's case may petition the court for extension of the conditions of release. The petition must be accompanied by a written report and evaluation of the patient's mental and physical condition. The report must describe any tests and evaluation devices which have been employed in evaluating the patient, the course of treatment which has been undertaken for the patient, and the future course of treatment anticipated by the professional person.

(3) Upon the filing of the petition, the court shall give written notice of the filing of the petition to the patient, his next of kin, if reasonably available, the friend of respondent appointed by the court, if any, and the patient's counsel. If any person so notified requests a hearing prior to the end of the period of detention ordered under 53-21-127 or 53-21-128, the court shall immediately set a time and place for a hearing on a date not more than 10 days from the receipt of the request and notify the same people, including the professional person in charge of the patient. If a hearing is not requested, the court shall enter an order extending the conditions of release for a period not to exceed 6 months.

(4) Procedure on the petition for extension is the same in all respects as the procedure for hearing on a rehospitalization petition pursuant to [section 4] except that in an extension proceeding, the finding required is that set forth in subsection (1) of this section. The hearing must be held in the district court for the county in which the patient is residing. Court costs and witness fees, if any, must be paid by the county that paid the same costs in the initial commitment proceeding.

(5) If upon the hearing the court finds that the showing required by subsection (1) has not been made, the conditions of release may not be extended. If the court finds that the required showing has been made, the court may extend the conditions of release as recommended by the professional person. In its order, the court shall describe what alternatives for treatment of the patient are available, what alternatives were investigated, and why the investigated alternatives were not deemed suitable. The court may not order continuation of an alternative that does not include a comprehensive, individualized plan of treatment for the patient as required by 53-21-162. A court order for the continuation of an alternative shall include a specific finding that a comprehensive, individualized plan of treatment exists.

(6) Further extensions may be obtained under the same procedure described in this section except that the patient's custody may not be affected for more than 1 year without a renewal of the extension under the procedures set forth in this section, including a hearing and a statement of the findings required by subsection (5). Extensions under this subsection may not extend the 2-year extension limitation provided in subsection (1).

Section 6. Codification instruction. Sections 2 through 5 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 53, chapter 21, part 1, and the provisions of Title 53, chapter 21, part 1, apply to sections 2 through 5.

Approved April 18, 1985.

[HB 439]

AN ACT PERMITTING CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES TO OBTAIN PERSONAL CHILD SUPPORT INFORMATION FROM CHILD SUPPORT AGENCIES; PROVIDING THAT THE CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCY NOTIFY ANY PERSON ABOUT WHOM CHILD SUPPORT DEBT INFORMATION HAS BEEN REQUESTED; REQUIRING THE DEPARTMENT TO ADOPT RULES PROVIDING AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONTEST THE DEBT AMOUNT OF RECORD; AMENDING SECTIONS 31-3-152, 40-5-206, AND 53-2-504, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Consumer credit reports — use of child support obligation information. (1) For the purposes of this section, "child support agency" means the department of revenue or a public agency with whom the department has contracted to carry out any of the department's child support enforcement authority set forth in Title 40, chapter 5.

(2) A consumer reporting agency may request and receive from any child support agency personal or confidential information concerning an individual's overdue child support debt. However, if the debt is less than $1,000, the information regarding the amount may be made available only at the option of the child support agency. The child support agency shall charge the consumer reporting agency a fee, commensurate with the cost of providing the information.

(3) Prior to requesting the information, the consumer reporting agency must serve the individual with notice, either in person or by certified mail. The notice must state:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1085 1985

(a) the nature and substance of the information to be requested from the child support enforcement agency;

(b) the name and address of the child support agency;

(c) that the individual may inspect the child support debt records in person or obtain a copy by mail from the child support agency; and

(d) that if, within 30 days of service, the individual does not respond to the notice or otherwise initiate steps to contest the accuracy of the information under procedures established by the child support agency, the requested information will be forwarded to the consumer reporting agency for inclusion in the individual's investigative consumer report.

(4) Upon receipt of the request for information, together with proof of service of the notice in compliance with subsection (3), the child support agency must provide the appropriate information under this section to the consumer reporting agency. However, any debt amount that is in dispute may not be provided until the dispute has been determined by agreement or court or administrative decision. If the individual does not agree with the administrative decision, he is entitled to have a statement of dispute, as provided in 31-3-124, included in the information provided to the consumer reporting agency.

(5) The department of revenue shall adopt rules to implement this section, including rules establishing a procedure for contesting the accuracy of the information contained in the child support records of the child support agency and rules establishing a schedule of fees charged pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. The department shall adopt guidelines which take into account the payment record of the individual, the availability of other remedies, and other considerations which it determines relevant for determining whether use of the procedures provided in [this act] would carry out the purpose of enforcing payment of child support or would be appropriate in the circumstances. If after application of the guidelines to the request for information the department determines the procedures provided in [this act] are not appropriate, it may deny the request.

Section 2. Section 31-3-152, MCA, is amended to read:

"31-3-152. Rules. The department of commerce shall enforce this part, except [section 1], and promulgate rules necessary to carry out the intent of this part, except [section 1]."

Section 3. Section 40-5-206, MCA, is amended to read:

(2) To effectuate the purposes of this section, the director may request from state, county, and local agencies all information and assistance as authorized by this part. All state, county, and city agencies, officers, and employees shall cooperate in the location of parents who have abandoned or deserted or are failing to support children receiving public assistance and shall on request supply the department with all information available relative to the location, income, and property of the parents.

(3) Except as provided in [section 1], any records established pursuant to the provisions of this section are available only to the department, county attorneys, and courts having jurisdiction in support and abandonment proceedings or actions or agencies in other states engaged in the enforcement of support of minor children as authorized by the rules of the department and by the provisions of the federal Social Security Act."

Section 4. Section 53-2-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-2-504. Unauthorized disclosure of information obtained in department of revenue investigations a criminal act. (1) No information obtained by the department of revenue or its agents and attorneys as a result of an investigation shall be disclosed except in accordance with the laws applicable to the source of information, provided, however, such information may be used or disclosed under [section 1] or as necessary in any court action.

(2) Each employee violating the disclosure provisions shall be subject to the criminal charge and penalties applicable to the source of information."

Section 5. Codification instruction. Section 1 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 31, chapter 3, part 1.

Section 6. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Section 1. Filing and docketing of final orders — orders effective as district court decrees. (1) An abstract of any final administrative order under this chapter may be filed in the office of the clerk of the district court of any county of Montana. If the administrative order has been entered by nonappearance or default on the part of the responsible parent, the court may reconsider the order on its merits. The order, if approved, must be docketed in the judgment docket of the district court. The properly filed and docketed order has all the force, effect, and attributes of a docketed order or decree of the district court, including but not limited to lien effect and enforceability by supplemental proceedings, writs of execution, and contempt of court proceedings.

(2) A final administrative order that determines and sets periodic support payments in the absence of a district court order, when filed and docketed under this section, may be modified by a district court order only as to installments accruing after any motion for modification. The standard for any such modification is that set forth in 40-4-208.

(3) The department may issue a warrant for distraint based upon a properly filed and docketed order pursuant to 40-5-241.

The warrant is subject to the provisions of 15-1-701, 15-1-704, 15-1-708, and 15-1-709, with references to "tax" taken to mean "support debt" and references to "taxpayer" taken to mean "person owing the support debt", as well as the provisions of this part."

Section 3. Codification instruction. Section 1 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 40, chapter 5, part 2.

Section 4. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the department of revenue to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 18, 1985.

AN ACT PROVIDING A PROCEDURE FOR DISSOLVING COUNTY WATER AND SEWER DISTRICTS; PROVIDING FOR A PETITION TO DISSOLVE THE DISTRICT; PROVIDING FOR A PUBLIC HEARING ON THE QUESTION; AND REQUIRING A DETERMINATION THAT THERE ARE NO OUTSTANDING DEBTS OF THE DISTRICT.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Dissolution of district. (1) Upon receipt of a petition to dissolve the district, signed by more than 50% of the freeholders of the district, the board of directors shall set a date for a public hearing on dissolution of the district. The hearing date may be not earlier than 45 days or later than 60 days after the date on which the board schedules the date of the hearing. A notice of the public hearing on the dissolution must be published once a week for 3 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the district is located. The published notice must include notice to creditors of the district to present claims owed by the district to the board of directors prior to the date set for the dissolution hearing.

(2) At the dissolution hearing the board of directors shall hear testimony of all persons interested in whether the district should be dissolved and shall determine whether there are any outstanding debts of the district.

(3) After the hearing, if the board determines that dissolution of the district is in the best interest of the public and that there are no outstanding debts of the district, it may resolve to recommend that the district be dissolved. A copy of the resolution must be sent to the county commissioners of the county or counties in which the district is located.

(4) The district is dissolved after the approval of the dissolution by all the boards of county commissioners of the counties in which the district is located. An instrument approving dissolution must be filed with the clerk and recorder of the county or counties in which the district is located, who shall then cause a copy of the instrument to be filed with the secretary of state.

(5) Any assets of the district after dissolution shall be distributed pro rata by taxable valuation to the general funds of the counties in which the district was located.

Section 2. Coordination instruction. If Senate Bill No. 130, including the section of that bill that provides for newspaper publication of notices, is passed and approved, the sentence beginning on line 18 on page 1 of this act is amended to read: "A notice of the public hearing on the dissolution must be published as provided in [section 1 of Senate Bill No. 130]."

Section 3. Codification instruction. Section 1 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 7, chapter 13, parts 22 and 23, and the provisions of Title 7, chapter 13, parts 22 and 23, apply to section 1.

CHAPTER NO. 546

[HB 577]

AN ACT ALLOWING TRANSITION TO COMPETITION IN THE TELECOMMUNICATIONS INDUSTRY; DEFINING "REGULATED TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE"; AMENDING SECTIONS 69-3-101, 69-3-201, AND 69-3-321, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1 through 10 and 13] may be cited as the "Montana Telecommunications Act".

Section 2. Purpose. The legislature declares that it remains the policy of the state of Montana to maintain universal availability of basic telecommunications service at affordable rates. To the extent that it is consistent with maintaining universal service, it is further the policy of this state to encourage competition in the telecommunications industry, thereby allowing access by the public to resulting rapid advances in telecommunications technology. It is the purpose of [sections 1 through 10 and 13] to provide a regulatory framework that will allow an orderly transition from a regulated telecommunications industry to a competitive market environment.

Section 3. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Commission" means the public service commission.

(2) "Private telecommunications service" means a system, including the construction, maintenance, or operation thereof, for the provision of telecommunications service or any portion of such service, by a person or entity for the sole and exclusive use of that person or entity and not for resale, directly or indirectly. For purposes of this definition, the term "person or entity" includes a corporation and all of its affiliates and subsidiaries if the corporation, affiliates, and subsidiaries have a common ownership or control of 80% of the outstanding voting shares.

(3) "Regulated telecommunications service" means two-way switched, voice-grade access and transport of communications originating and terminating in this state and nonvoice-grade access and transport if intended to be converted to or from voice-grade access and transport. Regulated telecommunications service does not include the provision of terminal equipment used to originate or terminate such service, private telecommunications service, resale of telecommunications service, one-way transmission of television signals, cellular communication, or provision of radio paging or mobile radio services.

(4) "Resale of telecommunications service" means the resale of regulated telecommunications service, with or without adding value, provided any value added would not otherwise be subject to regulation.

Section 4. Exemption for private telecommunications service. Construction, maintenance, or operation of a private telecommunications service does not constitute the provision of regulated telecommunications service, and a private telecommunications service is not subject to any of the provisions of this title. If any other person or entity, including the owners or shareholders of the entity owning or operating a private telecommunications service, uses the telecommunications service, whether for hire or not, the private telecommunications service is a regulated telecommunications service under [sections 1 through 10 and 13]. An occasional or accomodative use of a private telecommunication system by a third person is not a violation of this section.

Section 5. Manner of regulation of telecommunications service. (1) Before any person or entity provides regulated telecommunications service within the state of Montana, it shall file with the commission a notice including:

(a) the name and address of the provider;

(b) a narrative description of the regulated telecommunications service to be offered and the geographic area and markets to be served;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1090 1985

(c) initial tariffs for the regulated telecommunications service;

(d) such other information as the commission may require to accomplish the purpose of this chapter.

(2) The provision of any regulated telecommunications service does not subject the provider thereof to regulation of any other telecommunications services otherwise exempt under this chapter.

Section 6. Prohibition against cross-subsidization. (1) No provider of regulated telecommunications service may use current revenues earned or expenses incurred in conjunction with services subject to regulation under this chapter to subsidize services which are not regulated or are not tariffed. Expenses incurred in conjunction with services not regulated or not tariffed under this chapter may not be attributed to services which are subject to regulation for any reason.

(2) Nothing in this section is to be construed to effect the regulatory treatment of revenues, expenses, and investment for telephone directory services currently authorized under this title.

Section 7. Regulation of rates and charges. (1) As to that telecommunications service which is provided under regulation, the commission may establish specific rates, tariffs, or fares for the provision of such service to the public. The rates, tariffs, or fares must be just, reasonable, and nondiscriminatory.

(2) Alternatively, the commission may authorize the provision of regulated telecommunications service under such terms and conditions as may best serve the declared policy of this state. The commission is not required to fix and determine specific rates, tariffs, or fares for the service and in lieu thereof may:

(a) totally detariff the service;

(b) detariff rates for the service but retain tariffs for service standards and requirements;

(c) detariff rates but require notice of price changes to the commission and subscribers;

(d) establish only maximum rates, only minimum rates, or permissible price ranges as long as the minimum rate is cost compensatory; or

(e) provide such other rate or service regulation as will promote the purposes of [sections 2 through 10 and 13].

(3) In determining applications under subsection (2), the commission shall consider the following factors:

(a) the number, size, and distribution of alternative providers of service;

(b) the extent to which services are available from alternative providers in the relevant market;

(c) the ability of alternative providers to make functionally equivalent or substitute services readily available;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1091 1985

(d) the overall impact of the proposed terms and conditions on the continued availability of existing services at just and reasonable rates; and

(e) such other factors as the commission may prescribe through rulemaking which are appropriate to fulfill the purposes of [the act].

(4) Nothing in this section shall authorize the application of subsection (2) to any services for which there are no alternative providers of such services.

(5) All providers of comparable regulated telecommunications services within a market area must be subject to the same standards of regulation. For purposes of this section, regulated telecommunications services are comparable to the extent alternative providers can make functionally equivalent substitutes or substitute services readily available.

Section 8. Forbearance of rate regulation to facilitate competition. (1) In accordance with the provisions of this section, the commission shall forbear regulation as to rates, tariffs, fares, or charges to facilitate competition and shall authorize the provision of all or any portion of regulated telecommunications service under stated or negotiated terms to any person or entity that has acquired or is contemplating acquisition of, through construction, lease, or any other form of acquisition, similar telecommunications service from an alternative source.

(2) At any time, the provider of regulated telecommunications service may file a verified application with the commission for forbearance of regulation to facilitate competition. The application shall describe the telecommunications service to be offered, the customer to be served, and the party or parties offering similar service, together with such other information and in such form as the commission may prescribe. Such additional information must be reasonably related to the determination of the existence of an alternative offer but may not require information relating to the cost of providing such service.

(3) The commission shall approve or deny any such application for forbearance of regulation to facilitate competition within 10 days after the filing of the application, except that the commission may by order defer action for an additional 5-day period. If the commission has not acted on any application within the permitted time period, the application is considered granted. The commission shall deny the application only upon a finding that the application is incomplete or that the subject or similar service is not being offered to the customer by parties other than the applicant.

(4) The provisions of 2-4-601, relating to notice and hearing, do not apply to this section.

(5) Upon approval of the application, the provider of telecommunications service may negotiate with such person or entity for the provision of such service without regard to its tariffs on file and approved by the commission.

(6) Within 10 days after the conclusion of such negotiations, the provider of regulated telecommunications service shall file with the commission the final contract or other evidence of the service to be provided, together with the charges and other conditions of the service. Thereafter, the provider of regulated telecommunications service may provide such service to the customer without regard to its tariffs on file and approved by the commission.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1092 1985

(7) Services provided pursuant to subsection (1) remain subject to the regulatory powers of the commission.

Section 9. Examination of books and records. Nothing in [sections 1 through 10 and 13] precludes the commission from exercising its authority under the provisions of 69-3-202. The commission may require such accounting or reporting systems as are necessary to allow a proper allocation of investments, costs, or expenses that are joint or common to both regulated telecommunications services and other services or to both tariffed regulated telecommunications services and nontariffed regulated telecommunications services.

Section 10. Rulemaking authority. The commission may adopt rules to implement [sections 1 through 10 and 13].

Section 11. Section 69-3-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-3-101. Meaning of term "public utility". (1) The term "public utility", within the meaning of this chapter, shall embrace every corporation, both public and private, company, individual, association of individuals, their lessees, trustees, or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, that now or hereafter may own, operate, or control any plant or equipment, any part of a plant or equipment, or any water right within the state for the production, delivery, or furnishing for or to other persons, firms, associations, or corporations, private or municipal:

(a) heat;

(b) street-railway service;

(c) light;

(d) power in any form or by any agency;

(e) except as provided in chapter 7, water for business, manufacturing, household use, or sewerage service, whether within the limits of municipalities, towns, and villages or elsewhere;

(f) regulated telecommunications service.

(2) The term "public utility" does not include:

(a) privately owned and operated water, sewer, or combination systems that do not serve the public; or

(b) county or consolidated city and county water or sewer districts as defined in Title 7, chapter 13, parts 22 and 23."

Section 12. Section 69-3-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-3-201. Utilities to provide adequate service at reasonable charges. Every public utility is required to furnish reasonably adequate service and facilities. The charge made by any public utility for any heat, light, power, water, or regulated telecommunications service produced, transmitted, delivered, or furnished or for any service to be rendered as or in connection with any public utility shall be reasonable and just, and every unjust and unreasonable charge is prohibited and declared unlawful."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1093 1985

Section 13. Exception. Nothing in [this act] affects the exemption from regulation provided by 35-18-104.

Section 14. Section 69-3-321, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-3-321. Complaints against public utility — hearing. (2) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the board of county commissioners from a failure to elect or otherwise, the remaining county commissioners must fill the vacancy, and such appointee shall hold office until the next general election unless otherwise provided in subsection (3) or (4). The procedure to be used to fill the vacancy is as follows:

(a) If the former incumbent represented a party eligible for a primary election under 13-10-601, the county central committee of that party shall submit to the remaining commissioners three names of people who have lived in the unrepresented district for at least 2 years preceding the day the vacancy occurs, and the remaining commissioners shall appoint one of these three to fill the vacancy. Whenever the remaining commissioners are unable to elect an appointee from the submitted list, they shall request a second list of three names from the county central committee. The second list may not contain any of the names submitted on the first list. The remaining commissioners shall then select an appointee from the individuals named on both lists.

(b) If the former incumbent was independent or was originally nominated by a party that does not meet the requirements of 13-10-601 or if the vacancy occurs from a failure to elect, the remaining commissioners shall invite applications for the vacancy in a notice published as provided in 13-1-108 and shall accept an application from any person who has lived in the unrepresented district for at least 2 years preceding the day the vacancy occurs. The remaining commissioners shall appoint one of these applicants to fill the vacancy.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1107 1985

(3) Whenever a vacancy occurs 50 days or more before the general election held during the second or fourth year of the term, an individual shall be elected to complete the term at that general election. The election procedure to be used to elect the successor is as follows:

(a) Whenever the vacancy occurs 50 days or more before the primary election during the second or fourth year of the term, the same procedure shall be utilized as is used to elect county commissioners to full 6-year terms.

(b) Whenever the vacancy occurs after the 50th day preceding the primary election, any political party desiring to enter a candidate in the general election shall select a candidate as provided in 13-38-204. A political party shall notify the clerk and recorder of the party nominee. A person desiring to be a candidate as an independent shall follow the procedures provided in 13-10-501 and 13-10-502. The petition for an independent candidate shall be filed with the clerk and recorder on or before the 40th day prior to the general election. A candidate for a nonpartisan office shall file as provided in Title 13, chapter 14.

(4) Whenever a vacancy occurs after the 50th day preceding the general election held during the fourth year of the term, the person appointed by the remaining county commissioners under 7-4-2106(2) shall serve until the end of the term."

The certificate of registration for a professional engineer shall carry the designation "professional engineer" and for a professional land surveyor, "professional land surveyor". It shall give the full name of the registrant with his serial number and shall be signed by the chairman and the secretary under the seal of the board.

(2) This certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the person named thereon is entitled to all rights, privileges, and responsibilities of a professional engineer or professional land surveyor while the certificate of registration remains unrevoked or unexpired.

(3) Each registrant hereunder may, upon registration, obtain a seal of a design authorized by the board, bearing the registrant's name, serial number, and the legend "professional engineer" and/or "professional land surveyor". Plans, specifications, plats, drawings, reports, design information, and calculations prepared by a registrant must when issued be signed with a written signature, dated, and stamped with the seal or a seal facsimile. It is unlawful for a registrant to affix or permit his seal and signature or seal facsimile to be affixed to any plans, specifications, plats, drawings, reports, design information, or calculations after the expiration of a certificate or for projects for which the registrant was not in responsible charge.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1119 1985

(4) The department shall issue to any applicant who, in the opinion of the board, has met the requirements of this chapter an enrollment card as engineer-in-training or land surveyor-in-training which indicates that his name has been recorded as such in the board office. The engineer-in-training or land surveyor-in-training enrollment card does not authorize the holder to practice as a professional engineer or professional land surveyor."

Section 14. Section 37-67-315, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-67-315. Biennial renewal — fee — statement of competency. (1) Certificates of registration expire every second year on the date established by rule of the department and become invalid on that date unless renewed. The department shall notify every person registered under this chapter of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the fee required for its renewal for 2 years. This notice shall be mailed at least 1 month in advance of the date of the expiration of the certificate. Renewal may be made prior to the expiration date by the payment of a fee as set by the board for either a professional engineer or professional land surveyor. For renewal of a dual license as both a professional engineer and professional land surveyor, the fee shall be set by the board.

(2) No certificate may be renewed unless the registrant submits a statement to the effect and the board is satisfied that he has maintained competency by:

(a) the continued practice of engineering or land surveying; or

(b) engaging in other activities that provide for the maintenance of competency as prescribed by board rule.

(3) Failure on the part of a registrant to renew his certificate biennially prior to the expiration date does not deprive him of the right of renewal; however, a registrant who fails to pay the renewal fee for an additional year of the biennium shall be considered a new applicant and is required to submit a new application.

(4) The fee for any registrant who fails to renew his certificate prior to the expiration date shall be increased by an amount not to exceed 50% of his renewal fee. Renewal may not be completed until all fees are paid."

Section 15. Section 37-67-318, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-67-318. Roster of licensees to be published by department. A roster showing the names and addresses of registered professional engineers and registered professional land surveyors shall be published by the department. Copies shall be placed on file with the secretary of state, the clerk of each incorporated city and town, and in the office of each county clerk and recorder within the state and furnished to each person registered and to the public, on request, at a fee established by the board."

Section 16. Section 37-67-319, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-67-319. Temporary permits for nonresident practitioners. Temporary permits are governed by the following:

(1) Such a permit may be granted for the practice or offer to practice engineering by a person not a resident of or having no established place of business in this state, provided such person is legally qualified by registration to practice engineering in his own state or country, provided the requirements for registration in his home state or country are not less than those defined in this chapter. Such person shall make application to the board in writing. The application must be accompanied by a fee set by the board. Upon approval by the board, such person may be granted a written permit for a definite period of time not to exceed 1 year to do a specific job; provided, however, no right to practice engineering shall accrue to such applicant with respect to any other works not set forth in the permit.

(2) The practice of land surveying under a temporary permit by a person registered as a professional land surveyor in another state is not considered to be in the best interests of the public and, therefore, may not be granted."

Section 17. Section 37-67-331, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-67-331. Revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew certificate — grounds — procedure — reinstatement. (1) The board may reprimand or revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the certificate of a registrant found guilty of:

(a) fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate of registration;

(b) gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct in the practice of engineering or land surveying as a registered professional engineer or professional land surveyor;

(c) a felony;

(d) violation of rules for professional conduct for professional engineers and professional land surveyors adopted by the board;

(e) if a professional land surveyor, failure to comply with the Corner Recordation Act.

(2) Any person may make charges of fraud, deceit, gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct against a registrant. The charges shall be made by affidavit and subscribed and sworn to by the person making them and filed with the department. The charges shall be investigated by the board and, unless the board dismisses the charges after investigation as unfounded or trivial, it shall act on the charges within 6 months after the date on which the charges were made. The board is considered to have acted on the charges if it has given notice by mail to the licensee of its intent to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew his license and the notice contains the facts or conduct which warrant the intended action. For purposes of investigation under this section, the board may require that a registrant meet with it.

(3) The board may require a registrant to take a written or oral examination, or both, in a proceeding to reprimand or revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew.

(4) If, after hearing, five or more members of the board vote in favor of sustaining the charges, the board shall reprimand, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke the certificate of registration of the registered professional engineer or professional land surveyor.

(5) The board, for reasons it considers sufficient, may reissue a certificate of registration to a person whose certificate has been revoked if five or more members of the board vote in favor of the reissuance."

Section 18. Section 37-67-332, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-67-332. Violations — penalties — enforcement. (1) A person who practices or offers to practice engineering or land surveying in this state without being registered under this chapter or a person presenting or attempting to use as his own the certificate of registration or the seal of another or a person who gives false or forged evidence to the board or department in obtaining a certificate of registration or a person who falsely impersonates another registrant or a person who attempts to use an expired, revoked, or emeritus certificate of registration or a person who violates this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall on conviction be fined not less than $100 or more than $500 or imprisoned for a period not exceeding 3 months, or both.

(2) All officers of the law of this state or a political subdivision thereof shall enforce this chapter and prosecute persons violating it. The attorney general shall act as legal adviser of the board and render legal assistance necessary in carrying out this chapter."

Section 19. Emeritus status. (1) A registrant who has terminated his practice of engineering or land surveying may apply to the board for emeritus status.

(2) Upon receiving an application for emeritus status accompanied by the fee established by the board, the board shall issue a certificate of emeritus status to the applicant and record the applicant's name in the roster as an emeritus registrant, along with the date he received emeritus status.

(3) An emeritus registrant may retain but may not use his seal and may not practice engineering or land surveying.

(4) The board shall reissue a certificate of registration to an emeritus registrant who pays all application fees, meets all current requirements for registration, and demonstrates to the board's satisfaction that for the 2 years preceding his application for registration he has met the requirements for maintaining professional competence established under 37-67-315.

Section 20. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the board of professional engineers and professional land surveyors to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 21. Codification instruction. Sections 5 and 19 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 37, chapter 67, and the provisions of Title 37, chapter 67, apply to sections 5 and 19.

[SB 451]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE FAIR AND PROPER TREATMENT OF VICTIMS AND WITNESSES IN THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM; REQUIRING THE PROVISION OF SERVICES AND ASSISTANCE TO CRIME VICTIMS AND WITNESSES.

WHEREAS, without the cooperation of victims and witnesses, the criminal justice system would cease to function; yet with some exceptions, these individuals are either ignored by the criminal justice system or simply used as a means to identify and punish offenders; and

WHEREAS, all too often the victim of a serious crime is forced to suffer physical, psychological, or financial hardship, first as a result of the criminal act, and then as a result of contact with a criminal justice system unresponsive to the real needs of such victim; and

WHEREAS, while the defendant is provided with counsel who can explain both the criminal justice process and the rights of the defendant, the victim or witness has no counterpart and is usually not even notified when the defendant is released on bail, the case is dismissed, a plea to a lesser charge is accepted, or a court date is changed; and

WHEREAS, the victim and witness who cooperate with the prosecutor often find that they must share the pretrial waiting room with the defendant or his family and friends; and

WHEREAS, the victim may lose valuable property to a criminal only to lose it again for long periods of time to law enforcement officials until the trial, and sometimes until all appeals are over; and many times the property is damaged or lost, which is particularly stressful for the elderly or the poor; and

WHEREAS, the majority of serious crimes fall under the jurisdiction of state and local law enforcement agencies.

THEREFORE, the Legislature of the State of Montana finds it appropriate to provide for the fair and proper treatment of crime victims and witnesses in the criminal justice system.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1123 1985

Section 2. Services to victims of crime. Law enforcement personnel shall assure that a victim of a crime receives emergency social and medical services as soon as possible and that such victim is given information on the following:

(3) the role of the victim in the criminal justice process, including what he can expect from the system, as well as what the system expects from the victim; and

(4) stages in the criminal justice process of significance to a crime victim and the manner in which information about such stages may be obtained.

Section 3. Notification of available protective services. Law enforcement officers and prosecuting attorneys shall provide a victim or witness information on the availability of services to protect the victim or witness from intimidation.

Section 4. Scheduling changes. (1) As soon as practicable, the prosecuting attorney shall notify a victim or witness of any scheduling changes that may affect the appearance of the victim or witness at a criminal justice proceeding that he is scheduled to attend.

(2) For the purpose of providing notification, the prosecuting attorney shall have available a system for promptly alerting a victim or witness that a scheduling change has been made.

Section 5. Prompt notification to victims and witnesses of felony offenses. (1) A person described in subsection (2) who provides the appropriate official with a current address and telephone number must receive prompt advance notification, if possible, of proceedings relating to his case, including:

(a) the arrest of an accused;

(b) the release of the accused pending judicial proceedings; and

(c) proceedings in the prosecution of the accused, including entry of a plea of guilty, the setting of a trial date, the sentencing schedule, the sentence imposed, the term of imprisonment, if imposed, and the release of the accused from imprisonment.

Section 6. Consultation with victim of felony offense. The prosecuting attorney in a criminal case shall consult with the victim of a felony offense or, in the case of a minor child victim or homicide victim, with the family of the victim in order to obtain the views of the victim or his family regarding the disposition of the case, including:

Section 8. Notification to employer or creditor. (1) The law enforcement agency or prosecuting attorney in a criminal case shall assist a victim or witness who requests assistance in informing an employer that the need for victim and witness cooperation in the prosecution of the case may necessitate absence of the victim or witness from his place of employment.

(2) A law enforcement agency or prosecuting attorney shall assist a victim or witness who, as a direct result of a crime or because of cooperation with the law enforcement agency or prosecuting attorney, is subjected to serious financial strain. Such agency or prosecuting attorney shall assist the victim or witness by explaining to creditors the reason for such serious financial strain.

Section 9. Training in victim assistance. The Montana law enforcement academy shall offer education and training in victim assistance to law enforcement officers and prosecuting attorneys and shall provide such education and training in its regular curriculum, so that victims may be properly assisted.

[HB 265]

AN ACT GENERALLY DEFINING LAWS RELATING TO RECREATIONAL USE OF STATE WATERS; PROHIBITING RECREATIONAL USE OF DIVERTED WATERS; RESTRICTING THE LIABILITY OF LANDOWNERS WHEN WATER IS BEING USED FOR RECREATION; ESTABLISHING THE RIGHT TO PORTAGE; PROVIDING THAT A PRESCRIPTIVE EASEMENT CANNOT BE ACQUIRED BY RECREATIONAL USE OF SURFACE WATERS; AMENDING SECTION 70-19-405, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. For purposes of [sections 1 through 5], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Barrier" means an artificial obstruction located in or over a water body, restricting passage on or through the water, which totally or effectively obstructs the recreational use of the surface water at the time of use. A barrier may include but is not limited to a bridge or fence or any other manmade obstacle to the natural flow of water.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1127 1985

(2) "Class I waters" means surface waters, other than lakes, that:

(a) lie within the officially recorded federal government survey meander lines thereof;

(b) flow over lands that have been judicially determined to be owned by the state by reason of application of the federal navigability test for state streambed ownership;

(c) are or have been capable of supporting the following commercial activities: log floating, transportation of furs and skins, shipping, commercial guiding using multiperson watercraft, public transportation, or the transportation of merchandise, as these activities have been defined by published judicial opinion as of [the effective date of this act]; or

(d) are or have been capable of supporting commercial activity within the meaning of the federal navigability test for state streambed ownership.

(3) "Class II waters" means all surface waters that are not class I waters, except lakes.

(4) "Commission" means the fish and game commission provided for in 2-15-3402.

(5) "Department" means the department of fish, wildlife, and parks provided for in 2-15-3401.

(6) "Diverted away from a natural water body" means a diversion of surface water through a manmade water conveyance system, including but not limited to:

(a) an irrigation or drainage canal or ditch;

(b) an industrial, municipal, or domestic water system;

(c) a flood control channel; or

(d) a hydropower inlet and discharge facility.

(7) "Lake" means a body of water where the surface water is retained by either natural or artificial means and the natural flow of water is substantially impeded.

(8) "Occupied dwelling" means a building used for a human dwelling at least once a year.

(9) "Ordinary high-water mark" means the line that water impresses on land by covering it for sufficient periods to cause physical characteristics that distinguish the area below the line from the area above it. Characteristics of the area below the line include, when appropriate, but are not limited to deprivation of the soil of substantially all terrestrial vegetation and destruction of its agricultural vegetative value. A flood plain adjacent to surface waters is not considered to lie within the surface waters' high-water marks.

(10) "Recreational use" means with respect to surface waters: fishing, hunting, swimming, floating in small craft or other flotation devices, boating in motorized craft unless otherwise prohibited or regulated by law, or craft propelled by oar or paddle, other water-related pleasure activities, and related unavoidable or incidental uses.

(11) "Supervisors" means the board of supervisors of a soil conservation district, the directors of a grazing district, or the board of county commissioners if a request pursuant to [section 3(3)(b)] is not within the boundaries of a conservation district or if the request is refused by the board of supervisors of a soil conservation district or the directors of a grazing district.

(12) "Surface water" means, for the purpose of determining the public's access for recreational use, a natural water body, its bed, and its banks up to the ordinary high-water mark.

Section 2. Recreational use permitted — limitations — exceptions. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) through (5), all surface waters that are capable of recreational use may be so used by the public without regard to the ownership of the land underlying the waters.

(2) The right of the public to make recreational use of surface waters does not include, without permission of the landowner:

(a) the operation of all-terrain vehicles or other motorized vehicles not primarily designed for operation upon the water;

(b) the recreational use of surface waters in a stock pond or other private impoundment fed by an intermittently flowing natural watercourse;

(c) the recreational use of waters while diverted away from a natural water body for beneficial use pursuant to Title 85, chapter 2, part 2 or 3;

(d) big game hunting except by long bow or shotgun when specifically authorized by the commission;

(e) overnight camping within sight of any occupied dwelling or within 500 yards of any occupied dwelling, whichever is less;

(f) the placement or creation of any permanent duck blind, boat moorage, or any seasonal or other objects within sight of or within 500 yards of an occupied dwelling, whichever is less; or

(g) use of a streambed as a right-of-way for any purpose when water is not flowing therein.

(3) The right of the public to make recreational use of class II waters does not include, without permission of the landowner:

(a) big game hunting;

(b) overnight camping;

(c) the placement or creation of any seasonal object; or

(d) other activities which are not primarily water-related pleasure activities as defined in [section 1(10)].

(4) The right of the public to make recreational use of surface waters does not grant any easement or right to the public to enter onto or cross private property in order to use such waters for recreational purposes.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1129 1985

(5) The commission shall adopt rules pursuant to 87-1-303, in the interest of public health, public safety, or the protection of public and private property, governing recreational use of class I and class II waters. These rules must include the following:

(a) the establishment of procedures by which any person may request an order from the commission:

(i) limiting, restricting, or prohibiting the type, incidence, or extent of recreational use of a surface water; or

(ii) altering limitations, restrictions, or prohibitions on recreational use of a surface water imposed by the commission;

(b) provisions requiring the issuance of written findings and a decision whenever a request is made pursuant to the rules adopted under subsection (5)(a); and

(c) a procedure for the identification of streams within class II waters which are not capable of recreational use or are capable of limited recreational use, and a procedure to restrict the recreational use to the actual capacity of the water.

(6) The provisions of this section do not affect any rights of the public with respect to state-owned lands that are school trust lands or any rights of lessees of such lands.

Section 3. Right to portage — establishment of portage route. (1) A member of the public making recreational use of surface waters may, above the ordinary high-water mark, portage around barriers in the least intrusive manner possible, avoiding damage to the landowner's land and violation of his rights.

(2) A landowner may create barriers across streams for purposes of land or water management or to establish land ownership as otherwise provided by law. If a landowner erects a structure which does not interfere with the public's use of the surface waters, the public may not go above the ordinary high-water mark to portage around the structure.

(3) (a) A portage route around or over a barrier may be established to avoid damage to the landowner's land and violation of his rights as well as to provide a reasonable and safe route for the recreational user of the surface waters.

(b) A portage route may be established when either a landowner or a member of the recreating public submits a request to the supervisors that such a route be established.

(c) Within 45 days of the receipt of a request, the supervisors shall, in consultation with the landowner and a representative of the department, examine and investigate the barrier and the adjoining land to determine a reasonable and safe portage route.

(d) Within 45 days of the examination of the site, the supervisors shall make a written finding of the most appropriate portage route.

(e) The cost of establishing the portage route around artificial barriers must be borne by the involved landowner, except for the construction of notification signs of such route, which is the responsibility of the department. The cost of establishing a portage route around artificial barriers not owned by the landowner on whose land the portage route will be placed must be borne by the department.

(f) Once the route is established, the department has the exclusive responsibility thereafter to maintain the portage route at reasonable times agreeable to the landowner. The department shall post notices on the stream of the existence of the portage route and the public's obligation to use it as the exclusive means around a barrier.

(g) If either the landowner or recreationist disagrees with the route described in subsection (3)(e), he may petition the district court to name a three-member arbitration panel. The panel must consist of an affected landowner, a member of an affected recreational group, and a member selected by the two other members of the arbitration panel. The arbitration panel may accept, reject, or modify the supervisors' finding under subsection (3)(d).

(h) The determination of the arbitration panel is binding upon the landowner and upon all parties that use the water for which the portage is provided. Costs of the arbitration panel, computed as for jurors' fees under 3-15-201, shall be borne by the contesting party or parties; all other parties shall bear their own costs.

(i) The determination of the arbitration panel may be appealed within 30 days to the district court.

(j) Once a portage route is established, the public shall use the portage route as the exclusive means to portage around or over the barrier.

(4) Nothing contained in [this act] addresses the issue of natural barriers or portage around said barriers, and nothing contained in [this act] makes such portage lawful or unlawful.

Section 4. Restriction on liability of landowner and supervisor. (1) A person who makes recreational use of surface waters flowing over or through land in the possession or under the control of another, pursuant to [section 2], or land while portaging around or over barriers or while portaging or using portage routes, pursuant to [section 3], does not have the status of invitee or licensee and is owed no duty by a landowner, his agent, or his tenant other than that provided in subsection (2).

(2) A landowner, his agent, or tenant is liable to a person making recreational use of waters or land described in subsection (1) only for an act or omission that constitutes willful or wanton misconduct.

(3) No supervisor or any member of the arbitration panel who participates in a decision regarding the placement of a portage route is liable to any person who is injured or whose property is damaged because of placement or use of the portage route except for an act or omission that constitutes willful and wanton misconduct.

Section 5. Prescriptive easement not acquired by recreational use of surface waters. (1) A prescriptive easement is a right to use the property of another that is acquired by open, exclusive, notorious, hostile, adverse, continuous, and uninterrupted use for a period of 5 years.

(2) A prescriptive easement cannot be acquired through:

(a) recreational use of surface waters, including:

(i) the streambeds underlying them;

(ii) the banks up to the ordinary high-water mark; or

(iii) any portage over and around barriers; or

(b) the entering or crossing of private property to reach surface waters.

Section 6. Section 70-19-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"70-19-405. Title by prescription. Except as provided in [section 5], occupancy for the period prescribed by this chapter as sufficient to bar an action for the recovery of the property confers a title thereto, denominated a title by prescription, which is sufficient against all."

Section 7. Land title unaffected. The provisions of [this act] and the recreational uses permitted by [section 2] do not affect the title or ownership of the surface waters, the beds, and the banks of any navigable or nonnavigable waters or the portage routes within this state.

Section 8. Lakes. Nothing contained in [this act] addresses the recreational use of surface waters of lakes.

Section 9. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 10. Applicability. Sections 5 and 6 apply only to a prescriptive easement that has not been perfected prior to [the effective date of this act].

Section 11. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 19, 1985.

(b) the sum created by a decree or order of any court of appropriate jurisdiction ordering a sum to be paid as spousal maintenance under chapter 4, part 2, of this title when the judgment or order requiring payment of maintenance also contains a judgment or order requiring payment of child support for a child of whom the person awarded maintenance is the custodial parent."

Section 2. Section 40-5-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-202. Department of revenue — powers and duties regarding collection of support debt. (1) Whenever the department of social and rehabilitation services receives an application for public assistance on behalf of a child and it appears to the satisfaction of that department that the child has been abandoned by his parents; the child and one parent have been abandoned by the other parent; or the parent or other person who has a responsibility for the care, support, or maintenance of such child has failed or neglected to give proper care or support to the child, the department of social and rehabilitation services shall promptly refer the matter to the department of revenue for action under the provisions of this part, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state to insure that the parent or other person responsible pays for the care, support, or maintenance of the dependent child.

(2) In the event that public assistance is furnished by a state or county agency or in instances where the department has contracted to collect support, the department shall become trustee of any cause of action of the dependent child or the person having legal custody of the dependent child to recover support due to that obligee from any person and may bring and maintain the action either in the department's own name or in the name of the obligee.

(3) The department has the power of attorney to act in the name of any recipient of public assistance in endorsing and cashing any and all drafts, checks, money orders, or other negotiable instruments received by the department and representing support payments for children in whose behalf public assistance has been previously paid.

(4) For purposes of prosecuting any civil action pursuant to this part, the department is a real party in interest upon the payment of public assistance. No obligee shall act to prejudice the rights of the department after the receipt of public assistance.

(5) No agreement between any obligee and any obligor either relieving an obligor of any duty of support or purporting to settle past, present, or future support obligations either as settlement or prepayment may act to reduce or terminate any rights of the department to recover from that obligor for support debt provided unless the department has consented to the agreement in writing.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1141 1985

(6) The department may petition a court for modification of any court order on the same basis as a party to that action would have been entitled to do.

(7) The department shall be subrogated to the right of the child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of the child or children to maintain any civil action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state to obtain reimbursement of money thus spent.

(8) If a district court orders an amount of support to be paid by a responsible parent, the department shall be subrogated to the debt created by the order and the money judgment shall be determined to be in favor of the department. This subrogation applies both to:

(a) the lesser of the amount paid by the department in public assistance money to or for the benefit of a dependent child or children of the responsible parent or the amount of support contained in the court order; and

(b) to any amount allocated to the benefit of the children on the basis of providing necessities for the caretaker of the children.

(9) The department may adopt and enforce such rules as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this part.

(10) The department, for the purposes mentioned in this part, through its director or the director's authorized representatives, may administer oaths to certify official acts, issue subpoenas, and compel witnesses and the production of books, accounts, documents, and evidence."

Section 3. Section 40-5-255, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-5-255. Charging off child support debts as uncollectible. Any support debt due the department from a responsible parent or former spouse which the department determines uncollectible may be transferred from accounts receivable to a suspense account and cease to be accounted as an asset. In the event a warrant for distraint has been filed and the support debt has subsequently been charged off as uncollectible, the department shall issue a release of lien. At any time after 6 years from the date a support debt was incurred, the department may charge off as uncollectible any support debt upon which the department finds there is no available, practical, or lawful means by which the debt may be collected. No proceedings or action under the provisions of this part may be begun after expiration of the 6-year period to institute collection of a support debt. Nothing herein may be construed to render invalid or nonactionable a warrant for distraint filed with the clerk of court prior to the expiration of the 6-year period or an assignment of earnings executed prior to the expiration of the 6-year period."

Section 4. Department authorized to enforce maintenance awards. When a judgment or order creating a child support obligation also contains a judgment or order for the support of a former spouse and the former spouse is the custodial parent of the child, the department may collect and enforce spousal support under this part.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1142 1985

Section 5. Codification instruction. Section 4 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 4C, chapter 5, part 2, and the provisions of Title 40, chapter 5, part 2, apply to section 4.

Section 6. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the department of revenue to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 19, 1985.

Any vehicle found in such use or upon probable cause believed to be devoted wholly or in part to such use shall be seized and held.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1145 1985

(2) Within 45 days after the seizure, any peace officer or officer of the agency that seizes any property shall file a petition to institute forfeiture proceedings with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the seizure occurs. The clerk shall issue a summons at the request of the petitioning party, who shall cause the same to be served upon all owners or claimants of the property by one of the following methods:

Section 6. Presumption — hearing — disposition of vehicle. (1) There is a rebuttable presumption of forfeiture as to all property used for the transportation of the livestock as provided in 81-5-104.

(3) If a verified answer is filed within 20 days, a hearing on the petition for forfeiture must be set without a jury not less than 60 days after the answer is filed. Notice of the hearing must be given in the manner provided for service of petition and summons.

(4) If the court finds a vehicle was not used for the purpose charged or that it was used without the consent or knowledge of the owner, it shall order the property released to the owner of record on the date of the seizure. If the court finds the vehicle was used for the purpose charged and

(6) "Support order" means an order of the district court of the state of Montana, an order of a court of appropriate jurisdiction of another state, an administrative order established pursuant to proceedings under part 2 of this chapter, or an order established by administrative hearing process of an agency of another state with functions similar to those of the department set forth in part 2 of this chapter, that provides a set and determinable amount for temporary or final periodic payment of funds for the support of a child. Support order further includes the following:

(a) an order for reimbursement of public assistance money paid by a public agency for the benefit of a minor child;

(b) an order for maintenance to be paid to a former spouse when the former spouse is the custodial parent of a child for whom child support is awarded under the same order; and

(c) an order requiring payment of interest due on unpaid judgments for child support.

Section 4. Income withholding. (1) Whenever an obligation for support is being enforced by the department pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act and the obligation has been established by order of a court or administrative process, income due or to become due within this state to the obligor is subject to withholding procedures under [sections 1 through 21].

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1158 1985

(2) When the requirements of [sections 1 through 21] have been met, the department, without necessity for amendment of the support order or further order by a court or other entity, shall issue an order directing the obligor's employer or other payor to withhold and deliver to the department such amount of the obligor's income as will be sufficient to meet the support obligation imposed by the support order and to defray arrearages due when the withholding order takes place.

(3) The provisions for income withholding under [sections 1 through 21] take precedence over any other law or court order.

Section 5. Initiation of income withholding procedures. (1) In each case in which the department is enforcing a support order assigned to the state pursuant to 53-2-613 or in which the department is collecting support on behalf of an obligee who has applied for services under 40-5-203, the department shall monitor and track all support payments required by the support order. If at any time these records indicate that the obligor owes any combination of unpaid support equal to or in excess of 1 month's support payment, the department shall commence withholding from the obligor's income.

(2) To accomplish the purpose of subsection (1), the department by written notice to the obligor may direct an obligor who does not owe unpaid child support equal to or in excess of 1 month's support payment to pay all support through the department, notwithstanding any court order directing payments to be made to the obligee or clerk of court.

(3) Whenever an obligation for support is paid through the support enforcement and collections unit of the department, the department must forward payment to the obligee within 10 days of the department's receipt of payment from the obligor.

Section 6. Notice of intent to withhold income. (1) Prior to service of an order on the payor to commence income withholding, the department shall serve upon the obligor a notice of the intended withholding action. The notice must contain a statement:

(a) of the amount to be withheld, including a computation showing the period and total amount of the arrearages as of the date of the notice;

(b) that withholding applies to all current and subsequent payors;

(c) of the obligor's right to a hearing under [section 7] to contest the implementation of income withholding on the ground that withholding, including the amounts to be withheld, is not proper because of mistake of fact; and

(d) of the period of time within which the obligor must request a hearing and that failure to request the hearing within the time limit will result in income withholding orders being served upon the payor.

(2) The notice must be served upon the obligor personally or by certified mail.

Section 7. Hearing. (1) The obligor may within 10 days of being served with notice of the intended income withholding under [section 6] file with the department a written request for an administrative hearing to be held pursuant to the contested case provisions of Title 2, chapter 4, part 6.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1159 1985

(2) If the obligor requests a hearing within the time allowed, income withholding may not take effect until the conclusion of the hearing or the date of the hearing if the obligor fails to appear at a scheduled hearing.

(3) Venue for the administrative hearing may be in the county where the obligor resides if the obligor resides in this state, the county in which the payor or the payor's agent is located, or the county in which the department or any of its regional offices is located.

(4) The administrative hearing must be held by teleconferencing methods unless the obligor or the department expressly requests an in-person hearing before the hearing examiner.

(5) For purposes of the hearing process, arrearages of support must be computed on the basis of the amount owed and unpaid on the date the obligor was served with the notice of intent to withhold income, and the fact that the obligor may have later paid the arrearage does not remove from the hearing examiner the authority to direct the department to order income withholding.

(6) The obligor within 45 days of service of the notice of intent to withhold income must be informed of the hearing decision on whether income withholding will take place.

Section 8. Order to withhold income. (1) If the obligor fails to request a hearing within 10 days or fails to appear at a scheduled hearing or if the hearing examiner determines that the obligor owes a combination of unpaid support equal to or in excess of 1 month's support payment, the department shall immediately serve an order to withhold and deliver income upon any payor or combination of payors. The order must:

(a) direct the payor and successor payors to withhold from the obligor's income each month the amount specified in the order if sufficient funds are available;

(b) direct the payor to deliver the amount withheld to the department in the same month in which the funds were withheld;

(c) state that the order is binding on the payor until further notice by the department; and

(d) state the rights and duties of the payor under this part.

(2) An order to withhold and deliver the obligor's income made under this section is binding upon the payor immediately upon service of the order upon the payor. Service of the order to withhold may be made either personally or by certified mail.

(3) Whenever there is more than one payor, the department may, in its discretion, apportion the total amount to be withheld each month among payors.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1160 1985

Section 9. Determination of amount of income to be withheld. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the amount of funds to be withheld each month from the obligor's income must be:

(a) the amount of money necessary to pay current installments of support as they become due and payable; plus

(b) the amount of money which, when deducted in equal amounts each month, will pay all outstanding support arrearages and interest, if any, within 2 years; plus

(c) a fee not to exceed $5 each month, which may be withheld by the payor as compensation for the administrative costs of each withholding.

(2) The maximum amounts withheld from the obligor's wages or salaries may not exceed the maximum amount permitted under section 303(b) of the federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. 1673(b).

(3) At any time, if the obligor can show that substantial hardship will result if the maximum permissible withholding is implemented or continued, the department for cause shown may in its discretion determine a lesser amount to be withheld each month in satisfaction of support arrearages.

Section 10. Duties of payor. (1) A payor who has been served with an order to withhold and deliver income shall deduct the amount designated in the order beginning not later than the first pay period that occurs after 14 days from the service of the order. The payor shall promptly deliver the amount withheld to the department as directed by the order or in accordance with any subsequent modification of the order received from the department.

(2) If the obligor's pay periods are at intervals of less than 1 month, the payor may withhold an equal amount at each pay period cumulatively sufficient to pay the monthly withholding as directed by the withholding order.

(3) Whenever the payor is obligated to withhold income for more than one obligor, the payor may combine all amounts withheld into a single payment for that month with the portion thereof which is attributable to each obligor separately designated.

(4) Whenever there is more than one order for withholding against a single obligor, the payor must comply with the orders in the sequence in which they were served upon the payor and must honor all withholding orders to the extent that the total amount withheld from the obligor's wages or salary does not exceed the limits set in [section 9].

(5) The payor must promptly notify the department of the termination of the obligor's employment or other source of income and provide the obligor's last-known address and the name and address of the obligor's new employer or other source of income, if known to the payor.

Section 11. Civil liability for failure to comply with income withholding order. (1) A payor who fails to withhold and deliver support money from the obligor's income when ordered to do so under [section 8] is liable to the department for any amount up to the accumulated amount the payor should have withheld and delivered.

(2) No payor who complies with an order to withhold under [sections 1 through 21] is liable for wrongful withholding to the obligor or to any other person claiming rights derived from the obligor.

Section 12. Obligor rights protected. No employer may discharge, discipline, or refuse to hire an obligor because of the institution of income withholding on the obligor's income or the initiation of proceedings under [sections 1 through 21]. Any person who violates this section may be fined not more than $500 and not less than $150 and may be required to make full restitution to the aggrieved obligor, including reinstatement and back-pay.

Section 13. Priority of income withholding. An order to withhold and deliver income under [sections 1 through 21] takes priority over any:

(1) wage or income deduction order under any other state law;

(2) voluntary or involuntary assignment of wages;

(3) other voluntary deductions from the obligor's income;

(4) levies, writs of execution, or garnishments of the obligor's income; and

(5) any other claims by creditors.

Section 14. Modification or termination of withholding orders. (1) The department may at any time modify the order to withhold income to:

(a) reflect payment in full of the arrearages by income withholding or otherwise;

(b) recognize an increase or decrease in the support order; or

(c) indicate any other reason the amount to be withheld is to be reduced or changed.

(2) An income withholding order terminates only when the department is no longer authorized under the law to collect support or, when appropriate, services rendered under 40-5-203 have come to an end or when the obligation to pay support is terminated and all arrearages are paid in full, whichever occurs first.

Section 15. Payment records. (1) The department, in collecting, disbursing, or receiving payments pursuant to orders to withhold income, shall maintain complete, accurate, and clear records of all payments and disbursements.

(2) Certified payment records maintained by the department must, without further proof or foundation, be admitted into evidence in any legal proceedings under [sections 1 through 21]. Such records constitute prima facie evidence of the amount of support paid and arrearages that have accrued since the department began to monitor support payment in a case.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1162 1985

Section 16. Registration of interstate income withholding orders. (1) Whenever an obligor, whether or not he resides in this state, derives income within this state and an order for income withholding of the obligor's income has been issued by a public agency of another state as a means to enforce support orders under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, that agency may register the income withholding order with the department. Upon registration of the foreign withholding order, it must be treated in the same manner and have the same effect as an income withholding order issued by the department.

(2) The application for registration of a foreign order for income withholding must include:

(a) a certified copy of the support order, with all modifications thereof;

(b) a certified copy of the income withholding order;

(c) a sworn statement of the facts entitling the agency to issue an income withholding order, including a statement of the amount of arrearages and a statement that all procedural due process requirements of the foreign jurisdiction for issuance of such income withholding order have been carried out in full;

(d) the name, address, and social security number of the obligor;

(e) the name and address of the obligor's employer or of any other payor of income to the obligor if the order for income withholding of the foreign jurisdiction extends to such other income; and

(f) the name and address of the agency or person to whom support payments collected by the department under income withholding procedures should be transmitted.

(3) When the foreign income withholding order is registered, the department shall serve the order upon the payor, with directions to the payor to comply with the order and to deliver the withheld amounts to the department.

Section 17. Application for interstate withholding. (1) Whenever an obligor resides in this state and derives income within this state and a support order issued in another jurisdiction is being enforced by a public agency of that jurisdiction pursuant to Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, that agency may apply to the department for income withholding services.

(2) The application for interstate income withholding must include:

(a) a certified copy of the support order, with all modification thereof;

(b) an affidavit by the obligee containing a statement that the obligor is delinquent in the payment of support in an amount equal to at least 1 month's support payment and a computation of the period and total amount of the arrearage as of the date of the application;

(c) a certified copy of the payment record if such records are maintained by the agency or any other agency within that jurisdiction;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1163 1985

(d) the name, address, and social security number of the obligor;

(e) the name and address of all known payors within this state; and

(f) the name and address of the agency or person to whom support payments collected by the department under income withholding procedures should be sent.

(3) Upon receipt of the application, the department shall commence procedures to establish orders for income withholding, including notice and opportunity for hearing under [sections 1 through 21]. The department shall further advise the obligor that the income withholding was requested on the basis of an application from another jurisdiction.

(4) In any hearing based on an application under this section, the certified copy of the support order and affidavit, without further proof or foundation, constitutes prima facie evidence that the support order is valid and that the obligee or public agency is entitled to an order of income withholding and that the amount of current support payments and arrearages are as stated.

(5) In accordance with [section 7], a final decision on whether or not income withholding is appropriate must be rendered within 45 days of service of notice on the obligor. If, however, because of the interstate aspects of the case, the hearing examiner is unable to resolve a dispute over the amount of arrearages within such time and the hearing examiner has found that the obligor is delinquent in an amount equal to at least 1 month's support payment, the hearing examiner shall authorize immediate service of the order for withholding as to current support and may continue the hearing on the disputed amounts beyond the 45-day limit.

Section 18. Additional duties of department in interstate income withholding. (1) Unless the public agency of the foreign jurisdiction makes application to the department for additional services, the department is not required to locate the obligor or to locate payors of income to the obligor. If the application for interstate service provided for in [sections 16 and 17] fails to provide this information or the information is determined to be incorrect, the department may return the application without further proceeding under [sections 1 through 21].

(2) If the department determines that the obligor is no longer employed in this state or no longer derives income within this state, the department shall promptly notify the agency which requested income withholding of the changes and shall forward to that agency all information it has with respect to the obligor's new address and the name and address of the obligor's new employer or other source of income.

(3) The department shall promptly transmit payments received on an income withholding order to the agency or person designated in the interstate application.

Section 19. Initiation of income withholding in other jurisdictions. Whenever the department is authorized or required under the laws of this state to enforce and collect on a support order and the obligor is employed or has a source of income in another state, the department shall request the agency responsible for income withholding in that state to implement income withholding procedures. The department shall compile and transmit to the withholding agency of the other state all documentation required by the law of that state necessary for the purpose of obtaining an income withholding order in that state. The department shall also transmit to the withholding agency a certified copy of any subsequent modification of the support order.

Section 20. Remedies additional to those now existing. The remedy provided in [sections 1 through 21] is in addition to and not in substitution for any other remedy that may otherwise be available to the department, and the department may simultaneously pursue other remedies to enforce a support obligation or to collect support arrearages.

Section 21. Rulemaking authority. The department shall adopt rules and forms to participate in and carry out the provisions of [sections 1 through 21].

Section 22. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 23. Codification instruction. Sections 1 through 21 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 40, chapter 5, and the provisions of Title 40, chapter 5, apply to sections 1 through 21.

Section 24. Effective date. Section 21 and this section are effective on passage and approval, except that rules adopted under section 21 may not be made effective prior to October 1, 1985.

Approved April 19, 1985.

Section 7. Issuance, effective date, and display of license. (1) If an applicant meets the requirements contained in [section 5] and has paid the appropriate fees, the board shall issue a license to the applicant attesting to the date and fact of licensure. The license is effective on the date of issuance and must be renewed every year as provided in [section 9].

(2) The license must be displayed in the registrant's place of business or employment.

Section 9. Renewal of license. (1) A license may be issued for no longer than 1 year. The board may adopt rules to provide for annual renewal of an existing license.

(2) An application for renewal of an existing license made within 60 days after the expiration of the license is timely, and the rights and privileges of the applicant during that period remain in effect.

(3) Application for renewal must be made upon a form provided by the department. A renewal license must be issued upon payment of a renewal fee set by the board and upon submitting proof of completion of continuing education requirements established by the board.

Section 10. Suspension or revocation of license. (1) The board may suspend or revoke the license of a person found according to the procedure contained in [section 11] to have violated a professional or ethical standard adopted by the board. A person may not practice counseling in this state as a licensed professional counselor during the period for which his license is suspended or revoked.

(2) The board may not suspend a license for more than 6 months. Upon termination of the suspension period, the person whose license has been suspended must undergo a board review before resuming practice as a licensed professional counselor.

(3) The board may not revoke a license for less than 3 years. Upon termination of the revocation period, the person whose license has been revoked may apply to the board for reinstatement.

Section 11. Procedure for charging violation of professional or ethical standard. (1) A member of the board or any other person may charge a licensee with violating a professional or ethical standard adopted by the board. The charge must be made by affidavit, subscribed and sworn to by the person making it, and filed with the department of commerce. The charge must be investigated by the board, and unless the board dismisses the charge after investigation as unfounded or trivial, the board must act on the charge within 6 months after the date on which the charge was filed. The board is considered to have acted on a charge if it has given notice by mail to the licensee of its intent to suspend or revoke his license and the notice contains those matters required by 2-4-601.

(2) A hearing on the charge must be conducted in accordance with 37-1-121(1) and the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

Section 12. Privileged communications — exceptions. A licensee may not disclose any information he acquires from clients consulting him in his professional capacity except:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1169 1985

(1) with the written consent of the client or, in the case of the client's death or mental incapacity, with the written consent of the client's personal representative or guardian;

(2) that he need not treat as confidential a communication otherwise confidential that reveals the contemplation of a crime by the client or any other person or that in his professional opinion reveals a threat of imminent harm to the client or others;

(3) that if the client is a minor and information acquired by the licensee indicates that the client was the victim of a crime, the licensee may be required to testify fully in relation thereto in any investigation, trial, or other legal proceeding in which the commission of such crime is the subject of inquiry;

(4) that if the client or his personal representative or guardian brings an action against a licensee for a claim arising out of the counselor-client relationship, the client is considered to have waived any privilege;

(5) to the extent that the privilege is otherwise waived by the client; and

(6) as may otherwise be required by law.

Section 13. Misdemeanor violations — penalties. (1) It is a misdemeanor for a person to knowingly:

(a) represent himself as a licensed professional counselor without being licensed under [sections 1 through 13];

(b) obtain or attempt to obtain a license or license renewal by bribery or fraudulent representation; or

Whenever such policies insure against the expense of drugs, the insured shall have full freedom of choice in the selection of any duly licensed and registered pharmacist. An insurer shall offer, at additional cost to the insured, the option of disability and health insurance coverage for services performed by a licensed professional counselor.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1170 1985

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as enlarging the scope and limitations of practice of any of the licensed professions enumerated in subsection (1); nor shall this section be construed as amending, altering, or repealing any statutes relating to the licensing or use of hospitals."

Section 15. Coverage for services provided by professional counselors. A health service corporation, if requested, shall provide in group insurance contracts, at an additional cost, coverage for services performed by a licensed professional counselor.

Section 16. Licensure of certain board members appointed to board of social work examiners and professional counselors. Notwithstanding the qualifications for appointment contained in 2-15-1854, a person may be appointed to the board without being licensed as a professional counselor if he is issued a license under this act within 30 days after his appointment.

Section 17. Section 2-15-1854, MCA, is amended to read:

WHEREAS, the Select Committee on Water Marketing was commissioned by the 1983 Legislature to undertake a study of the advantages and disadvantages of water marketing; and

WHEREAS, the Select Committee in completing its study determined that Montana needs to address broader questions of water policy in order to secure Montana's interests in allocation and management of state waters; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1172 1985

WHEREAS, the Select Committee has presented a comprehensive package of recommendations that must be considered as a whole; and

WHEREAS, these recommendations serve to revise Montana's water policy in order to maximize Montana's authority over management of state waters and other natural resources and to conserve water for existing and future beneficial uses by Montanans.

THEREFORE, the Legislature of the State of Montana finds that this legislation and other recommendations of the Select Committee on Water Marketing constitute an appropriate revision of state water policy necessary to secure Montana's interests for present and future benefit to Montanans.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-2-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-102. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this chapter the following definitions apply:

Section 2. Section 85-1-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-204. Department powers over state waters. (1) The department, with the approval of the board, may sell, lease, and otherwise dispose of all waters which may be impounded under this chapter, and the water may be sold for the purpose of irrigation, development of power, watering of stock, or any other purpose. The department, with the approval of the board, may also lease water under the state water leasing program established under the provisions of [section 13]. To the extent that it may be necessary to carry out this chapter and subject to a compliance with the other provisions of this chapter, the department has full control of all the water of the state not under the exclusive control of the United States and not vested in private ownership, and it shall take such steps as may be necessary to appropriate and conserve the same for the use of the people. The authority of the department conferred by this chapter extends and applies to rights to the natural flow of the waters of this state which it may acquire, with the approval of the board, by condemnation, purchase, exchange, appropriation, or agreement.

(2) For the purpose of regulating the diversion of those waters, the department may enter upon the means and place of use of all appropriators for making surveys of respective rights and seasonal needs.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1174 1985

(3) The department may take into consideration the decrees of the courts of this state having jurisdiction which purport to adjudicate the waters of a stream or its tributaries, and a fair, reasonable, and equitable reconciliation shall be made between the claimants asserting rights under different decrees and between decreed rights and asserted rights of appropriation not adjudicated by any court.

(4) The department, at its discretion, may hold hearings relating to the rights of respective claimants after first giving such notice as it considers appropriate and make findings of the date and quantity of appropriation and use of all claimants which the department will recognize and observe in diverting the waters which it owns. The department may police and distribute to the owner of the recognized appropriation the waters due him upon request and under terms agreed upon.

(5) The department, when engaged in controlling and dividing the natural flow of a stream under the authority granted by this chapter, is exercising a police power of the state, and water commissioners appointed by any court may not deprive the department of any of the waters owned or administered under agreement with respective owners. The owner of a prior right contending that the department is not recognizing and respecting the appropriation may resort to a court for the purpose of determining whether or not the rights of the claimant have been invaded, and the department shall observe the terms of the final decree.

(6) When the department impounds or acquires the right of appropriation of the waters of a stream it may divert or authorize the diversion at any point on the stream or any portion thereof when it is done without injury to a prior appropriator."

Section 3. Section 85-2-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-301. Right to appropriate. (1) After July 1, 1973, a person may not appropriate water except as provided in this chapter. A person may only appropriate water for a beneficial use.

(2) (a) Only the department may appropriate water by permit in either of the following instances:

(i) for transport outside the following river basins:

(A) the Clark Fork River and its tributaries to its confluence with Lake Pend Oreille in Idaho;

(B) the Kootenai River and its tributaries to its confluence with Kootenay Lake in British Columbia;

(C) the St. Mary River and its tributaries to its confluence with the Oldman River in Alberta;

(D) the Little Missouri River and its tributaries to its confluence with Lake Sakakawea in North Dakota;

(E) the Missouri River and its tributaries to its confluence with the Yellowstone River in North Dakota; and

(F) the Yellowstone River and its tributaries to its confluence with the Missouri River in North Dakota; or

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1175 1985

(ii) whenever water in excess of 4,000 acre-feet a year and 5.5 cubic feet per second, for any use, is to be consumed.

(b) Water for these purposes or in these amounts may be leased from the department by any person under the provisions of [section 13].

(3) A right to appropriate water may not be acquired by any other method, including by adverse use, adverse possession, prescription, or estoppel. The method prescribed by this chapter is exclusive."

Section 4. Section 85-2-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-311. Criteria for issuance of permit. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) through (4), the department shall issue a permit if the applicant proves by substantial credible evidence that the following criteria are met:

(a) there are unappropriated waters in the source of supply:

(i) at times when the water can be put to the use proposed by the applicant;

(ii) in the amount the applicant seeks to appropriate; and

(iii) throughout the period during which the applicant seeks to appropriate, the amount requested is available;

(b) the water rights of a prior appropriator will not be adversely affected;

(c) the proposed means of diversion, construction, and operation of the appropriation works are adequate;

(d) the proposed use of water is a beneficial use;

(e) the proposed use will not interfere unreasonably with other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved.

(2) The department may not issue a permit for an appropriation of 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water unless the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence that:

(a) the criteria in subsection (1) are met;

(b) the rights of a prior appropriator will not be adversely affected;

(c) the proposed appropriation is a reasonable use. Such a finding shall be based on a consideration of the following:

(i) the existing demands on the state water supply, as well as projected demands such as reservations of water for future beneficial purposes, including municipal water supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum streamflows for the protection of existing water rights and aquatic life;

(ii) the benefits to the applicant and the state;

(iii) the effects on the quantity and quality of water for existing beneficial uses in the source of supply;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1176 1985

(iv) the availability and feasibility of using low-quality water for the purpose for which application has been made;

(v) the effects on private property rights by any creation of or contribution to saline seep; and

(vi) the probable significant adverse environmental impacts of the proposed use of water as determined by the department pursuant to Title 75, chapter 1, or Title 75, chapter 20.

(3) (a) The state of Montana has long recognized the importance of conserving its public waters and the necessity to maintain adequate water supplies for the state's water requirements, including requirements for reserved water rights held by the United States for federal reserved lands and in trust for the various Indian tribes within the state's boundaries. Although the state of Montana also recognizes that, under appropriate conditions, the out-of-state transportation and use of its public waters are not in conflict with the public welfare of its citizens or the conservation of its waters, the criteria in this subsection (3) must be met before out-of-state use may occur.

(b) The department may not issue a permit for the appropriation of water for withdrawal and transportation for use outside the state unless the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence that:

(i) depending on the volume of water diverted or consumed, the applicable criteria and procedures of subsection (1) or (2) are met;

(ii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not contrary to water conservation in Montana; and

(iii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not otherwise detrimental to the public welfare of the citizens of Montana.

(c) In determining whether the applicant has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of subsections (3)(b)(ii) and (3)(b)(iii) are met, the department shall consider the following factors:

(i) whether there are present or projected water shortages within the state of Montana;

(ii) whether the water that is the subject of the application could feasibly be transported to alleviate water shortages within the state of Montana;

(iii) the supply and sources of water available to the applicant in the state where the applicant intends to use the water; and

(iv) the demands placed on the applicant's supply in the state where the applicant intends to use the water.

(d) When applying for a permit or a lease to withdraw and transport water for use outside the state, the applicant shall submit to and comply with the laws of the state of Montana governing the appropriation, lease, and use of water.

(4) An appropriation, diversion, impoundment, use, restraint, or attempted appropriation, diversion, impoundment, use, or restraint contrary to the provisions of this section is invalid. No officer, agent, agency, or employee of the state may knowingly permit, aid, or assist in any manner such unauthorized appropriation, diversion, impoundment, use, or other restraint. No person or corporation may, directly or indirectly, personally or through an agent, officer, or employee, attempt to appropriate, divert, impound, use, or otherwise restrain or control waters within the boundaries of this state except in accordance with this section."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1177 1985

Section 5. Section 85-2-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-312. Terms of permit. (1) The department may issue a permit for less than the amount of water requested, but in no case may it issue a permit for more water than is requested or than can be beneficially used without waste for the purpose stated in the application. The department may require modification of plans and specifications for the appropriation or related diversion or construction. The department may issue a permit subject to terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations it considers necessary to satisfy the criteria listed in 85-2-311, and it may issue temporary or seasonal permits. A permit shall be issued subject to existing rights and any final determination of those rights made under this chapter.

(2) The department may limit the time for commencement of the appropriation works, completion of construction, and actual application of the water to the proposed beneficial use. In fixing those time limits, the department shall consider the cost and magnitude of the project, the engineering and physical features to be encountered, and, on projects designed for gradual development and gradually increased use of water, the time reasonably necessary for that gradual development and increased use. For good cause shown by the permittee, the department may in its discretion reasonably extend time limits.

(3) The original of the permit shall be sent to the permittee, and a copy shall be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(4) The department shall provide to the county clerk and recorder of the county wherein the point of diversion or place of use is located quarterly reports and an annual summary report of all water right permits, certificates, and change approvals issued by the department within the county."

Section 6. Section 85-2-124, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-124. Fees for environmental impact statements. (1) Whenever the department determines that the filing of an application (or a combination of applications) for a permit or approval under this chapter requires the preparation of an environmental impact statement as prescribed by the Montana Environmental Policy Act and the application (or combination of applications) involves the use of 4,000 or more acre-feet per year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water, the applicant shall pay to the department the fee prescribed in this section. The department shall notify the applicant in writing within 90 days of receipt of a correct and complete application (or a combination of applications) if it determines that an environmental impact statement and fee is required.

(2) Upon notification by the department under subsection (1), the applicant shall pay a fee based upon the estimated cost of constructing, repairing, or changing the appropriation and diversion facilities as herein provided. The maximum fee that shall be paid to the department may not exceed the fees set forth in the following declining scale: 2% of the estimated cost up to $1 million; plus 1% of the estimated cost over $1 million and up to $20 million; plus ½ of 1% of the estimated cost over $20 million and up to $100 million; plus ¼ of 1% of the estimated cost over $100 million and up to $300 million; plus ⅛ of 1% of the estimated cost over $300 million. The fee shall be deposited in the state special revenue fund to be used by the department only to comply with the Montana Environmental Policy Act in connection with the application(s). Any amounts paid by the applicant but not actually expended by the department shall be refunded to the applicant.

(3) The department and the applicant may determine by agreement the estimated cost of any facility for purposes of computing the amount of the fee to be paid to the department by the applicant. The department may contract with an applicant for:

(a) the development of information by the applicant or a third party on behalf of the department and the applicant concerning the environmental impact of any proposed activity under an application;

(b) the division of responsibility between the department and an applicant for supervision over, control of, and payment for the development of information by the applicant or a third party on behalf of the department and the applicant under any such contract or contracts;

(c) the use or nonuse of a fee or any part thereof paid to the department by an applicant.

(4) Any payments made to the department or any third party by an applicant under any such contract or contracts shall be credited against any fee the applicant must pay hereunder. The department and the applicant may agree on additional credits against the fee for environmental work performed by the applicant at the applicant's own expense.

(5) No fee as prescribed by this section may be assessed against an applicant for a permit or approval if the applicant has also filed an application for a certificate of environmental compatibility or public need pursuant to the Montana Major Facility Siting Act and the appropriation or use of water involved in the application(s) for permit or approval has been or will be studied by the department pursuant to that act.

(6) This section shall apply to all applications, pending or hereinafter filed, for which the department has not, as of April 9, 1975, commenced writing an environmental impact statement. This section shall not apply to any application, the fee for which would not exceed $2,500.

(7) Failure to submit the fee as required by this section shall void the application(s).

(8) The department may in its discretion rely upon the environmental studies, investigations, reports, and assessments made by any other state agency or any person, including any applicant, in the preparation of its environmental impact statement."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1179 1985

Section 7. Section 85-2-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-402. Changes in appropriation rights. (1) An appropriator may not make a change in an appropriation right except as permitted under this section and with the approval of the department or, if applicable, of the legislature.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) through (5), the department shall approve a change in appropriation right if the appropriator proves by substantial credible evidence that the following criteria are met:

(a) The proposed use will not adversely affect the water rights of other persons or other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved.

(b) The proposed means of diversion, construction, and operation of the appropriation works are adequate.

(c) The proposed use of water is a beneficial use.

(3) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use of an appropriation of 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water unless the appropriator proves by substantial credible evidence that:

(a) the criteria in subsection (2) are met;

(b) the proposed change is a reasonable use. A finding of reasonable use must be based on a consideration of:

(i) the existing demands on the state water supply, as well as projected demands of water for future beneficial purposes, including municipal water supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum streamflows for the protection of existing water rights and aquatic life;

(ii) the benefits to the applicant and the state;

(iii) the effects on the quantity and quality of water for existing uses in the source of supply;

(iv) the availability and feasibility of using low-quality water for the purpose for which application has been made;

(v) the effects on private property rights by any creation of or contribution to saline seep; and

(vi) the probable significant adverse environmental impacts of the proposed use of water as determined by the department pursuant to Title 75, chapter 1, or Title 75, chapter 20.

(4) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use for a diversion that results in 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water being consumed unless:

(a) the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence and the department finds that the criteria in subsections (2) and (3) are met; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1180 1985

(b) the department then petitions the legislature and the legislature affirms the decision of the department after one or more public hearings.

(5) (a) The state of Montana has long recognized the importance of conserving its public waters and the necessity to maintain adequate water supplies for the state's water requirements, including requirements for reserved water rights held by the United States for federal reserved lands and in trust for the various Indian tribes within the state's boundaries. Although the state of Montana also recognizes that, under appropriate conditions, the out-of-state transportation and use of its public waters are not in conflict with the public welfare of its citizens or the conservation of its waters, the following criteria must be met before out-of-state use may occur:

(b) The department and, if applicable, the legislature may not approve a change in appropriation right for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for use outside the state unless the appropriator proves by clear and convincing evidence and, if applicable, the legislature approves after one or more public hearings that:

(i) depending on the volume of water diverted or consumed, the applicable criteria and procedures of subsection (2) or (3) are met;

(ii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not contrary to water conservation in Montana; and

(iii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not otherwise detrimental to the public welfare of the citizens of Montana.

(c) In determining whether the appropriator has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of subsections (5)(b)(ii) and (5)(b)(iii) will be met, the department and, if applicable, the legislature shall consider the following factors:

(i) whether there are present or projected water shortages within the state of Montana;

(ii) whether the water that is the subject of the proposed change in appropriation might feasibly be transported to alleviate water shortages within the state of Montana;

(iii) the supply and sources of water available to the applicant in the state where the applicant intends to use the water; and

(iv) the demands placed on the applicant's supply in the state where the applicant intends to use the water.

(d) When applying for a change in appropriation right to withdraw and transport water for use outside the state, the applicant shall submit to and comply with the laws of the state of Montana governing the appropriation and use of water.

(6) For any application for a change in appropriation right involving 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water, the department shall give notice of the proposed change in accordance with 85-2-307 and shall hold one or more hearings in accordance with 85-2-309 prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1181 1985

The department shall provide notice and may hold one or more hearings upon any other proposed change if it determines that such a change might adversely affect the rights of other persons.

(7) The department or the legislature, if applicable, may approve a change subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations as it considers necessary to satisfy the criteria of this section, including limitations on the time for completion of the change.

(8) If a change is not completed as approved by the department or legislature or if the terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations of the change approval are not complied with, the department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, require the appropriator to show cause why the change approval should not be modified or revoked. If the appropriator fails to show sufficient cause, the department may modify or revoke the change approval.

(9) The original of a change approval issued by the department must be sent to the applicant, and a duplicate must be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(10) A person holding an issued permit or change approval that has not been perfected may change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use, or place of storage by filing an application for change pursuant to this section.

(11) A change in appropriation right contrary to the provisions of this section is invalid. No officer, agent, agency, or employee of the state may knowingly permit, aid, or assist in any manner such unauthorized change in appropriation right. No person or corporation may, directly or indirectly, personally or through an agent, officer, or employee, attempt to change an appropriation right except in accordance with this section."

(13) "Utility" means any person engaged in any aspect of the production, storage, sale, delivery, or furnishing of heat, electricity, gas, hydrocarbon products, or energy in any form for ultimate public use."

Section 9. Section 75-20-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-20-202. Exemptions. (1) A certificate is not required under this chapter for a facility under diligent onsite physical construction or in operation on January 1, 1973.

(2) The board may adopt reasonable rules establishing exemptions from this chapter for the relocation, reconstruction, or upgrading of a facility that:

(a) would otherwise be covered by this chapter; and

(b) (i) is unlikely to have a significant environmental impact by reason of length, size, location, available space or right-of-way, or construction methods; or

(ii) utilizes coal, wood, biomass, grain, wind, or sun as a fuel source and the technology of which will result in greater efficiency, promote energy conservation, and promote greater system reliability than the existing facility.

(3) This chapter does not apply to a facility defined in 75-20-104(10)(c) that has been designated by the governor for environmental review by an executive agency of the state for the purpose of complying with Title 75, chapter 1, pursuant to Executive Order 4-81 and prior to [the effective date of this act]."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1184 1985

Section 10. Section 75-20-218, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-20-218. Hearing date — location — department to act as staff — hearings to be held jointly. (1) Upon receipt of the department's report submitted under 75-20-216, the board shall set a date for a hearing to begin not more than 120 days after the receipt. Certification hearings shall be conducted by the board in the county seat of Lewis and Clark County or the county in which the facility or the greater portion thereof is to be located.

(2) Except as provided in 75-20-221(2), the department shall act as the staff for the board throughout the decisionmaking process and the board may request the department to present testimony or cross-examine witnesses as the board considers necessary and appropriate.

(3) At the request of the applicant, the department of health and the board of health shall hold any required permit hearings required under laws administered by those agencies in conjunction with the board certification hearing. In such a conjunctive hearing the time periods established for reviewing an application and for issuing a decision on certification of a proposed facility under this chapter supersede the time periods specified in other laws administered by the department of health and the board of health."

Section 11. Section 75-20-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-20-303. Opinion issued with decision — contents. (1) In rendering a decision on an application for a certificate, the board shall issue an opinion stating its reasons for the action taken.

(2) If the board has found that any regional or local law or regulation which would be otherwise applicable is unreasonably restrictive pursuant to 75-20-301(2)(f), it shall state in its opinion the reasons therefor.

(3) Any certificate issued by the board shall include the following:

(a) an environmental evaluation statement related to the facility being certified. The statement shall include but not be limited to analysis of the following information:

(i) the environmental impact of the proposed facility;

(ii) any adverse environmental effects which cannot be avoided by issuance of the certificate;

(iii) problems and objections raised by other federal and state agencies and interested groups;

(iv) alternatives to the proposed facility;

(v) a plan for monitoring environmental effects of the proposed facility; and

(vi) a time limit as provided in subsection (4), during which construction of the facility must be completed;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1185 1985

(b) a statement signed by the applicant showing agreement to comply with the requirements of this chapter and the conditions of the certificate.

(4) The board shall issue as part of the certificate the following time limits during which construction of a facility must be completed:

(a) For a facility as defined in (b) or (c) of 75-20-104(10) that is more than 30 miles in length, the time limit is 10 years.

(b) For a facility as defined in (b) of 75-20-104(10) that is 30 miles or less in length, the time limit is 5 years.

(c) The time limit shall be extended for periods of 2 years each upon a showing by the applicant to the board that a good faith effort is being undertaken to complete construction. Under this subsection, a good faith effort to complete construction includes the process of acquiring any necessary state or federal permit or certificate for the facility and the process of judicial review of any such permit or certificate.

(5) The provisions of subsection (4) apply to any facility for which a certificate has not been issued or for which construction is yet to be commenced."

Section 12. Section 75-20-1202, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-20-1202. Definitions. As used in this part and 75-20-201 through 75-20-203, the following definitions apply:

(i) generating 50 megawatts of electricity or more by means of nuclear fission;

(ii) converting, enriching, fabricating, or reprocessing uranium minerals or nuclear fuels; or

(iii) storing or disposing of radioactive wastes or materials from a nuclear facility.

(b) "Nuclear facility" does not include any small-scale facility used solely for educational, research, or medical purposes not connected with the commercial generation of energy.

(2) "Facility", as defined in 75-20-104*(10)*, is further defined to include any nuclear facility as defined in subsection (1)(a) of this section."

Section 13. Water leasing program. (1) There is a water leasing program administered by the department on behalf of the state of Montana. Water leases issued under this program must be approved by the board.

(2) The department may acquire rights to water needed for leasing under this program through appropriation of water in its own name or by agreement with or purchase from another holder of water rights.

(3) Water for leasing under the water leasing program must be obtained from the following sources:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1186 1985

(a) any existing or future reservoir in a basin concerning which a temporary preliminary decree, a preliminary decree under 85-2-231, or a final decree under 85-2-234 has been entered;

(b) Fort Peck Reservoir, if an agreement between the department and the federal government concerning the acquisition of water and the sharing of revenues with the state is in effect;

(c) Tiber, Canyon Ferry, Hungry Horse, or Yellowtail Reservoirs if and for so long as there is an agreement between the department and the federal government concerning the acquisition of water and sharing of revenues with the state from one or more of these reservoirs; and

(d) any other existing or future federal reservoir:

(i) located in a basin concerning which a temporary preliminary decree, a preliminary decree under 85-2-231, or a final decree under 85-2-234 has been entered; and

(ii) for which and for so long as there is an agreement between the department and the federal government concerning the acquisition of water and the sharing of revenues with the state.

(4) Water may be leased for any beneficial use. The amount of water that can be leased under this program for all beneficial uses shall not exceed 50,000 acre-feet.

(5) The term of any lease may not exceed 50 years. A term may be extended up to another 50 years if the department again determines the desirability of leasing by applying the considerations set forth in subsection (7). In making such a redetermination, the department may require the completion of an environmental impact statement in accordance with subsection (6).

(6) The department shall require the completion of an environmental impact statement under the provisions of Title 75, chapter 1, for lease applications that would result in the consumption of 4,000 acre-feet a year or more and 5.5 cubic feet per second or more of water and for any other application for which an environmental impact statement is required by law. The department shall require the completion of an environmental impact statement whenever the cumulative effect of more than one application for a lease would constitute a probable significant environmental impact.

(7) Upon application by any person to lease water, the department shall make an initial determination of whether it is desirable for the department to lease water to the applicant. Such a determination of desirability shall be made solely on the following considerations:

(a) the content of the environmental impact statement, if required;

(b) whether there is sufficient water available under the water leasing program; and

(c) whether the criteria, except as to legislative approval, set forth in 85-2-311 have been satisfied.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1187 1985

(8) The department shall for any agreement require commercially reasonable terms and conditions, which may include the requirement that up to 25% of the water to be leased be made available to a potential user for any beneficial use upon payment by such user of the costs of tapping into and removing water from the applicant's project. The department may differentiate in pricing, depending on the proposed beneficial use of the water.

(9) The lease of water or the use of water under a lease does not constitute a permit as provided in 85-2-102 and does not establish a right to appropriate water within the meaning of Title 85, chapter 2, part 3.

(10) For purposes of the water leasing program established in this section, it is the intent of the legislature that the state act as a proprietor.

Section 14. Section 85-1-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-205. Acquisition of water in federal reservoirs. The department may acquire water or water storage by purchase option or agreement with the federal government from any federal reservoir for the purpose of sale, rent, or distribution for any beneficial use. In such cases, the department is not required to construct any diversion or appropriation facilities or works, and it may sell, rent, or distribute such water at such rates and under such terms and conditions as it considers appropriate."

Section 15. Section 85-2-316, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-316. Reservation of waters. (1) The state or any political subdivision or agency thereof or the United States or any agency thereof may apply to the board to reserve waters for existing or future beneficial uses or to maintain a minimum flow, level, or quality of water throughout the year or at such periods or for such length of time as the board designates.

(2) Water may be reserved only for existing or future beneficial uses in the following river basins:

(a) the Clark Fork River and its tributaries to its confluence with Lake Pend Oreille in Idaho;

(b) the Kootenai River and its tributaries to its confluence with Kootenay Lake in British Columbia;

(c) the St. Mary River and its tributaries to its confluence with the Oldman River in Alberta;

(d) the Little Missouri River and its tributaries to its confluence with Lake Sakakawea in North Dakota;

(e) the Missouri River and its tributaries to its confluence with the Yellowstone River in North Dakota; and

(f) the Yellowstone River and its tributaries to its confluence with the Missouri River in North Dakota.

(3) Upon receiving an application, the department shall proceed in accordance with 85-2-307 through 85-2-309. After the hearing provided in

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1188 1985

85-2-309, the board shall decide whether to reserve the water for the applicant. The department's costs of giving notice, holding the hearing, conducting investigations, and making records incurred in acting upon the application to reserve water, except the cost of salaries of the department's personnel, shall be paid by the applicant. In addition, a reasonable proportion of the department's cost of preparing an environmental impact statement shall be paid by the applicant unless waived by the department upon a showing of good cause by the applicant.

(4) (a) The board may not adopt an order reserving water unless the applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the board:

(i) the purpose of the reservation;

(ii) the need for the reservation;

(iii) the amount of water necessary for the purpose of the reservation;

(iv) that the reservation is in the public interest.

(b) In determining the public interest under subsection (4)(a)(iv), the board may not adopt an order reserving water for withdrawal and transport for use outside the state unless the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence that:

(i) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not contrary to water conservation in Montana; and

(ii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not otherwise detrimental to the public welfare of the citizens of Montana.

(c) In determining whether the applicant has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of subsections (4)(b)(i) and (4)(b)(ii) are met, the board shall consider the following factors:

(i) whether there are present or projected water shortages within the state of Montana;

(ii) whether the water that is the subject of the application could feasibly be transported to alleviate water shortages within the state of Montana;

(iii) the supply and sources of water available to the applicant in the state where the applicant intends to use the water; and

(iv) the demands placed on the applicant's supply in the state where the applicant intends to use the water.

(d) When applying for a reservation to withdraw and transport water for use outside the state, the applicant shall submit to and comply with the laws of the state of Montana governing the appropriation, lease, use, and reservation of water.

(5) If the purpose of the reservation requires construction of a storage or diversion facility, the applicant shall establish to the satisfaction of the board that there will be progress toward completion of the facility and accomplishment of the purpose with reasonable diligence in accordance with an established plan.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1189 1985

(6) The board shall limit any reservations after May 9, 1979, for maintenance of minimum flow, level, or quality of water that it awards at any point on a stream or river to a maximum of 50% of the average annual flow of record on gauged streams. Ungauged streams can be allocated at the discretion of the board.

(7) After the adoption of an order reserving waters, the department may reject an application and refuse a permit for the appropriation of reserved waters or may, with the approval of the board, issue the permit subject to such terms and conditions it considers necessary for the protection of the objectives of the reservation.

(8) Any person desiring to use water reserved to a conservation district for agricultural purposes shall make application for such use with the district, and the district upon approval of the application must inform the department of the approved use. The department shall maintain records of all uses of water reserved to conservation districts and be responsible, when requested by the districts, for rendering technical and administrative assistance within the department's staffing and budgeting limitations in the preparation and processing of such applications for the conservation districts. The department shall, within its staffing and budgeting limitations, complete any feasibility study requested by the districts within 12 months of the time the request was made. The board shall extend the time allowed to develop a plan identifying projects for utilizing a district's reservation so long as the conservation district makes a good faith effort, within its staffing and budget limitations, to develop a plan.

(9) A reservation under this section shall date from the date the order reserving the water is adopted by the board and shall not adversely affect any rights in existence at that time.

(10) The board shall, periodically but at least once every 10 years, review existing reservations to ensure that the objectives of the reservation are being met. Where the objectives of the reservation are not being met, the board may extend, revoke, or modify the reservation.

(11) The board may modify an existing or future order originally adopted to reserve water for the purpose of maintaining minimum flow, level, or quality of water, so as to reallocate such reservation or portion thereof to an applicant who is a qualified reservant under this section. Reallocation of reserved water may be made by the board following notice and hearing wherein the board finds that all or part of the reservation is not required for its purpose and that the need for the reallocation has been shown by the applicant to outweigh the need shown by the original reservant. Reallocation of reserved water shall not adversely affect the priority date of the reservation, and the reservation shall retain its priority date despite reallocation to a different entity for a different use. The board may not reallocate water reserved under this section on any stream or river more frequently than once every 5 years.

(12) Nothing in this section vests the board with the authority to alter a water right that is not a reservation.

(13) The department shall undertake a program to educate the public, other state agencies, and political subdivisions of the state as to the benefits of the reservation process and the procedures to be followed to secure the reservation of water. The department shall provide technical assistance to other state agencies and political subdivisions in applying for reservations under this section.

(14) Water reserved under this section is not subject to the state water leasing program established under [section 13]."

Section 16. Reservations within Missouri River basin. (1) The state or any agency or political subdivision thereof or the United States or any agency thereof that desires to apply for a reservation of water in the Missouri River basin shall file an application pursuant to 85-2-316 no later than July 1, 1987.

(2) Subject to legislative appropriation, the department shall provide technical and financial assistance to other state agencies and political subdivisions in applying for reservations within the Missouri River basin.

(3) Before December 31, 1989, the board shall make a final determination in accordance with 85-2-316 on all applications filed before July 1, 1987, for reservations of water in the Missouri River basin.

(4) Water reservations approved by the board under this section have a priority date of July 1, 1985. The board shall by order establish the relative priority of applications approved under this section.

Section 17. Section 85-2-112, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-112. Department duties. The department shall:

(1) enforce and administer this chapter and rules adopted by the board under 85-2-113, subject to the powers and duties of the supreme court under 3-7-204;

(2) prescribe procedures, forms, and requirements for applications, permits, certificates, claims of existing rights, and proceedings under this chapter and prescribe the information to be contained in any application, claim of existing right, or other document to be filed with the department under this chapter not inconsistent with the requirements of this chapter;

(3) establish and keep in its Helena office a centralized record system of all existing rights and a public record of permits, certificates, claims of existing rights, applications, and other documents filed in its office under this chapter;

(4) in cooperation with other state agencies, institutions, colleges, and universities, establish and maintain a centralized and efficient water resources data management system sufficient to make available and readily accessible, in a usable format, to state agencies and other interested persons, information on the state's water resources, out-of-state water resources that affect the state, existing and potential uses, and existing and potential demand. All other state agencies, institutions, and colleges and universities shall cooperate with the department in the development and maintenance of this system.

(5) cooperate with, assist, advise, and coordinate plans and activities with the federal, state, and local agencies in matters relating to this chapter;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1191 1985

(6) upon request by any person, cooperate with, assist, and advise that person in matters pertaining to measuring water or filing claims of existing rights with a district court under this chapter;

(7) adopt rules necessary to reject, modify, or condition permit applications in highly appropriated basins or subbasins as provided in 85-2-319."

Section 18. Section 85-1-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-203. State water plan. (1) The department shall gather from any source reliable information relating to Montana's water resources and prepare therefrom a continuing comprehensive inventory of the water resources of the state. In preparing this inventory, the department may conduct studies; adopt studies made by other competent water resource groups, including federal, regional, state, or private agencies; perform research or employ other competent agencies to perform research on a contract basis; and hold public hearings in affected areas at which all interested parties shall be given an opportunity to appear.

(2) The department shall formulate and, with the approval of the board, adopt and from time to time amend, extend, or add to a comprehensive, coordinated multiple-use water resources plan known as the "state water plan". The state water plan may be formulated and adopted in sections, these sections corresponding with hydrologic divisions of the state. The state water plan shall set out a progressive program for the conservation, development, and utilization of the state's water resources and propose the most effective means by which these water resources may be applied for the benefit of the people, with due consideration of alternative uses and combinations of uses. Before adoption of the state water plan or any section thereof, the department shall hold public hearings in the state or in an area of the state encompassed by a section thereof if adoption of a section is proposed. Notice of the hearing or hearings shall be published for 2 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general county circulation in each county encompassed by the proposed plan or section thereof at least 30 days prior to the hearing.

(3) The department shall submit to the water policy committee established in [section 20] and to each general session of the legislature the state water plan or any section thereof or amendments, additions, or revisions thereto which the department has formulated and adopted.

(4) The department shall prepare a continuing inventory of the groundwater resources of the state. The groundwater inventory shall be included in the comprehensive water resources inventory described in subsection (1) above but shall be a separate component thereof.

(5) The department shall publish the comprehensive inventory, the state water plan, the groundwater inventory, or any part of each, and the department may assess and collect a reasonable charge for these publications.

(6) In developing and revising the state water plan as provided in this section, the department shall consult with the water policy committee established in [section 20] and solicit the advice of the committee in carrying out its duties under this section."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1192 1985

Section 19. Section 85-1-621, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-621. Report to the legislature. The department shall prepare a biennial report to the legislature describing the status of the water development program. The report must describe ongoing projects and activities and those which have been completed during the biennium. The report must identify and rank in order of priority the projects for which the department desires to seek congressional authorization and funding and the efforts the department will undertake in attempting to secure such authorization and funding. The report must also describe proposed projects and activities for the coming biennium and recommendations for necessary appropriations. A copy of the report shall be submitted to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house, to the members of the water policy committee established in [section 20], and to such other members of the legislature as may request a copy."

Section 20. Water policy committee. (1) There is a permanent water policy committee of the legislature. The committee consists of eight members. The senate committee on committees and the speaker of the house of representatives shall each appoint four members on a bipartisan basis. The committee shall elect its chairman and vice-chairman. The committee shall meet as often as necessary, including during the interim between sessions, to perform the duties specified within this section.

(2) On a continuing basis, the committee shall:

(c) analyze and comment on water-related research undertaken by any state agency, institution, college, or university;

(d) analyze, verify, and comment on the adequacy of and information contained in the water resources data management system maintained by the department under 85-2-112; and

(e) report to the legislature, not less than once every biennium.

(4) The environmental quality council shall provide staff assistance to the committee. The committee may contract with experts and consultants,

CHAPTER NO. 574

[HB 711]

AN ACT ALLOWING A GOVERNING BODY OF A COUNTY TO PROHIBIT THE SALE AND DISTRIBUTION OF CERTAIN PHOSPHORUS COMPOUNDS USED FOR CLEANING PURPOSES; REQUIRING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES TO ADOPT A MODEL RULE; AND PROVIDING A DELAYED EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, Montana's outstanding environmental and economic values depend on maintaining excellent water quality; and

WHEREAS, phosphorus is a nutrient that stimulates the growth of algae and contributes to a decline in water quality in certain lakes and rivers; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1194 1985

WHEREAS, substantial amounts of phosphorus enter Montana's aquatic ecosystems as a result of the use of detergents; and

WHEREAS, many studies have shown that regional restrictions on the use of nonessential detergent phosphorus compounds have protected and enhanced water quality; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences has determined that excessive amounts of culturally derived phosphorus are jeopardizing water quality in some of Montana's most outstanding waters; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences has the expertise to develop a model rule to effectively limit the amount of detergent phosphorus compounds that will enter state waters; and

WHEREAS, a limitation on the sale and distribution of certain detergent phosphorus compounds may best be enacted to meet local needs and circumstances; and

WHEREAS, such a limitation will not cause additional costs or burdens to consumers and retailers.

THEREFORE, the Legislature finds it appropriate to allow county governments to protect and enhance water quality by prohibiting the sale and distribution of certain nonessential detergent phosphorus compounds, following the technical standards established by the Department of Health and Environmental Sciences.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Adoption and amendment of model rule on sale and distribution of certain phosphorus compounds. (1) The department [of health and environmental sciences] shall adopt a model rule to provide standards that counties may adopt under [section 4] to prohibit the sale and distribution of certain phosphorus compounds used for cleaning.

(2) The standards in the model rule must be designed to protect water quality and aquatic ecosystems by reducing the amount of phosphorus that will enter state waters.

(3) The department may amend the model rule to:

(a) reflect changing technology related to phosphorus compounds in cleaning products;

(b) incorporate new findings about the impacts of phosphorus compounds on water quality; or

(c) respond to other relevant information.

(4) The department shall follow the procedures of Title 2, chapter 4, part 3, in adopting or amending the model rule.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1195 1985

Section 2. Prohibition of enforcement by department. The department may not enforce any standard or provision of the model rule. As provided in [section 4], the governing body of a county may adopt and enforce as an ordinance the standards contained in the model rule.

Section 3. Distribution of model rule. The department shall send to the governing body of each county a notice of any rulemaking proceeding or hearing under [section 1], a copy of the model rule, and a copy of any amendment proposed or adopted.

Section 4. County regulation of sale and distribution of certain phosphorus compounds. (1) The governing body of a county may adopt, through the procedures of 7-5-103 through 7-5-107, an ordinance prohibiting the sale and distribution of certain phosphorus compounds used for cleaning purposes. The governing body may rescind, modify, or repeal such ordinance at any time by use of the same procedures.

(2) An ordinance prohibiting the sale and distribution of certain phosphorus compounds used for cleaning purposes may only be adopted if:

(a) the county has a natural lake, whether or not it is fitted with a dam, for which the department of health and environmental sciences or the governing body of the county has determined that eutrophication enhanced by human activity is occurring and that phosphorus is the limiting factor; and

(b) other efforts are being undertaken in the county to reduce the amount of phosphorus entering surface waters.

(3) Any ordinance adopted by the governing body of a county must contain standards designated by the model rule adopted by the department of health and environmental sciences under [section 1] and in effect at the time of the adoption of the county ordinance.

(4) Any ordinance adopted by the governing body of a county must be enforced by the county.

Section 5. Penalty. (1) A person involved in the sale or commercial distribution of any phosphorus compound prohibited by an ordinance adopted under [section 4] must be notified by the county and must be given 30 days from receipt of such notice to comply with the ordinance. Failure to comply with the ordinance following this 30-day period is a misdemeanor. Each day of violation is a separate offense.

(2) The penalty provided for in subsection (1) applies only to persons engaged in the sale or commercial distribution of prohibited phosphorus compounds. The county may not prosecute or otherwise penalize a person for using a phosphorus compound regulated by an ordinance adopted under [section 4].

Section 6. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1986.

Approved April 19, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 575

[HB 778]

AN ACT REVISING THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE AMOUNT OF ATTORNEY FEES, WHEN THEY MAY BE ASSESSED, AND THE ASSESSMENT METHOD; AMENDING SECTION 39-71-612, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-71-612, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-612. Costs and attorneys' fees that may be assessed against an employer or insurer by workers' compensation judge. (1) If an employer or insurer pays or tenders payment of compensation under chapter 71 or 72 of this title but controversy relates to the amount of compensation due, the case is brought before the workers' compensation judge for adjudication of the controversy, and the award granted by the judge is greater than the amount paid or tendered by the employer or insurer, a reasonable attorney's fee as established by the workers' compensation judge if the case has gone to a hearing may be awarded by the judge in addition to the amount of compensation.

(2) When an attorney's fee is awarded against an employer or insurer under this section there may be further assessed against the employer or insurer reasonable costs, fees, and mileage for necessary witnesses attending a hearing on the claimant's behalf. Both the necessity for the witness and the reasonableness of the fees must be approved by the workers' compensation judge."

Section 2. Calculation of attorney fees. (1) The amount of an attorney's fee assessed against an employer or insurer under 39-71-611 or 39-71-612 must be based exclusively on the time spent by the attorney in representing the claimant on the issues brought before the workers' compensation judge. The attorney must document the time spent and give the documentation to the judge. The judge shall determine a reasonable attorney fee and assess costs. He is not bound by the documentation submitted to him. The hourly fee the judge applies to the time spent must be based on the attorney's customary and current hourly fee for legal work performed in this state.

(2) This section does not restrict a claimant and an attorney from entering into a contingency fee arrangement under which the attorney receives a percentage of the amount of compensation payments received by the claimant because of the efforts of the attorney. However, an amount equal to any fee and costs assessed against an employer or insurer under 39-71-611 or 39-71-612 and this section must be deducted from the fee an attorney is entitled to from the claimant under a contingency fee arrangement.

Section 3. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the office of the workers' compensation judge to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1197 1985

Section 4. Codification instruction. Section 2 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 39, chapter 71, and the provisions of Title 39, chapter 71, apply to section 2.

Section 5. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 19, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 576

[HB 864]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT CANDIDATES' NAMES NEED NOT BE ROTATED ON CERTAIN PAPER BALLOTS REQUIRED TO BE AVAILABLE WHERE VOTING DEVICES ARE USED; PROVIDING THAT IF THE NAMES ARE NOT ROTATED, THEIR ARRANGEMENT ON THE BALLOT MUST BE DETERMINED BY LOT; AMENDING SECTIONS 13-12-205 AND 76-15-303, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 13-12-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-12-205. Arrangement of names — rotation on ballot. (1) The candidates' names shall be arranged alphabetically on the ballot according to surnames under the title of the respective offices.

(2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3), if two or more individuals are candidates for nomination or election to the same office, the election administrator shall divide the ballot forms into sets equal in number to the greatest number of candidates for any office. The candidates for nomination to an office by each political party shall be considered separately in determining the number of sets necessary for a primary election.

(b) The election administrator shall begin with a form arranged alphabetically and rotate so that each candidate's name will be at the top of the list for each office on substantially an equal number of ballots. If it is not numerically possible to place each candidate's name at the top of the list, the names shall be rotated in groups so that each candidate's name is as near the top of the list as possible on substantially an equal number of ballots.

(c) If the county contains more than one legislative district, the election administrator may rotate each candidate's name so that it will be at or near the top of the list for each office on substantially an equal number of ballots in each house district.

(d) For purposes of rotation, the offices of president and vice president and of governor and lieutenant governor shall be considered as a group.

(e) No more than one of the sets may be used in printing the ballot for use in any one precinct, and all ballots furnished for use in any precinct must be identical.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1198 1985

(3) In a precinct where voting devices are used, the election administrator need not rotate candidates' names as provided in subsection (2) on paper ballots required under 13-17-305; however, if more than 5% of the electors voting in the precinct in the last preceding general election voted using paper ballots, the election administrator shall rotate candidates' names on the paper ballots. If the candidates' names are not rotated, the election administrator shall determine by lot the arrangement of the names on the paper ballot."

Section 2. Section 76-15-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-15-303. General election. (1) All qualified electors within the district are eligible to vote in the election.

(2) The three candidates who receive the largest number, respectively, of the votes cast in the election are the elected supervisors for the district.

(3) In the general election, the names of all individuals nominated by petition (if six or fewer) or by election shall be printed, as provided under 13-12-205, upon ballots, with a square before each name and a direction to insert an "X" mark in the square before any three names to indicate the elector's preference.

(4) The election administrator in each county shall prepare suitable nonpartisan ballots or place the names of candidates on the regular general election ballot in the same manner as other nonpartisan candidates for the election of supervisors, which ballots shall be delivered to the election judges in those precincts which contain registered electors prior to each general election and each primary election in which more than four candidates are nominated. The election judges and other election officials in such precincts shall submit such ballots to qualified electors, conduct the election, and tabulate the results of such election in the manner provided in Title 13."

Section 3. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the secretary of state to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Approved April 19, 1985.

[HB 506]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A NOXIOUS WEED MANAGEMENT TRUST FUND; AUTHORIZING A NOXIOUS WEED MANAGEMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL; PROVIDING FUNDING FOR NOXIOUS WEED MANAGEMENT PROGRAMS; PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. As used in [this act], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Department" means the department of agriculture established in 2-15-3001.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1199 1985

(2) "Herbicide" means a substance or mixture of substances for preventing, destroying, repelling, or mitigating any noxious weed. The term does not include herbicides labeled only for home, yard, or garden use and sold in containers of less than 10 pounds or 1 gallon.

(3) "Noxious weed" means any weed defined and designated as a noxious weed by rule of the department.

(4) "Retail value" means the suggested or retail price to the consumer of a given herbicide as established by the registrant, or as determined by a survey of dealers conducted by the department.

(5) "Sale" includes only the sale of a herbicide to an applicator or consumer. Sales between or to distributors, dealers, or retailers are not included.

Section 2. Noxious weed management trust fund. There is a noxious weed management trust fund, which must be funded from revenue collected under [sections 3 and 4]. The department shall administer the trust fund in accordance with [this act].

Section 3. Surcharge imposed on retail sales of herbicides — disposition of proceeds. (1) There is imposed a surcharge of 1 cent per dollar of the retail value of all registered herbicides sold for consumer use in the state. The volume of sales of each registered herbicide must be determined by the department from records required of pesticide dealers and retailers.

(2) The surcharge must be collected by the department on an annual calendar basis from the registrant of the herbicide and is due and payable within 30 days after notice of the amount has been given to the registrant.

(3) No registrant may be allowed to reregister a herbicide if he has failed to pay in full the surcharge on his product.

(4) The department may expend in a fiscal year not more than one-half of the annual proceeds of the surcharge as provided in [section 5(2) and (3)]. All remaining annual proceeds of the surcharge and any interest income collected must be deposited into the noxious weed management trust fund.

Section 4. Acceptance and expenditure of gifts and other funds. The department may accept gifts, grants, contracts, or other funds designated for noxious weed management. Such funds may be expended to support any weed management project or may be deposited in the noxious weed management trust fund.

Section 5. Administration and expenditure of funds. (1) Money deposited in the noxious weed management trust fund may not be committed or expended until the principal reaches $2,500,000, except as provided by [section 6] in case of a noxious weed emergency. Once this amount is accumulated, any interest or revenue generated by the trust fund and by other funding measures provided by [this act] must be deposited in the special revenue fund and may be expended for noxious weed management projects in accordance with this section, so long as the principal of the trust fund remains at least $2,500,000.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1200 1985

(2) The department may expend funds under this section through grants or contracts to communities, weed control districts, or other entities it considers appropriate for noxious weed management projects. A project is eligible to receive funds only if the county in which the project occurs has funded its own weed management program with a levy in an amount not less than 1.6 mills or an equivalent amount from another source.

(3) The department may expend funds without the restrictions specified in subsection (2) for the following:

(a) employment of a new and innovative noxious weed management project or the development, implementation, or demonstration of any noxious weed management project that may be proposed, implemented, or established by local, state, or national organizations, whether public or private. Such expenditures must be on a cost-share basis with such organizations.

(b) cost-share noxious weed management programs with local weed control districts;

(c) special grants to local weed control districts to eradicate or contain significant noxious weeds newly introduced into the county. These grants may be issued without matching funds from the district.

(d) costs of collecting the surcharge imposed by [section 3], not to exceed 3% of the total surcharge proceeds; and

(e) administrative expenses incurred by the noxious weed management advisory council.

(4) In making such expenditures, the department must give preference to weed control districts and community groups.

(5) If the noxious weed management trust fund is terminated by law, the money in the fund must be divided between all counties according to rules adopted by the department for that purpose.

Section 6. Noxious weed emergency — expenditure authorized. (1) If a new and potentially harmful noxious weed is discovered growing in the state and is verified by the department, the governor may declare a noxious weed emergency. In the absence of necessary funding from other sources, this declaration authorizes the department to allocate up to $150,000 of the principal of the noxious weed trust fund to government agencies for emergency relief to eradicate or confine the new noxious weed species.

(2) If such expenditure causes the principal of the trust fund to fall below $2,500,000, it must be replenished by proceeds of the surcharge imposed in [section 3].

Section 7. Penalty — enforcement. (1) A person who violates any provision of [section 3] is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $500 or more than $2,000 or by imprisonment for not less than 30 days or more than 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Upon conviction, the court shall order payment of any unpaid surcharge, together with such interest and costs as the court considers appropriate.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1201 1985

(2) The county attorney of the county in which the offense occurred or the attorney general shall prosecute this action.

Section 8. Rules. The department may adopt rules necessary to implement [this act].

Section 9. Noxious weed management advisory council. (1) The director of the department shall appoint a noxious weed management advisory council to provide advice to the department concerning the administration of [this act].

(2) If appointed, the council must be composed of nine members, as follows:

(a) the director of the department of agriculture, who shall serve as chairman;

(b) one member representing livestock production;

(c) one member representing agriculture crop production;

(d) one member from a sportsman/wildlife group;

(e) one member who is a herbicide dealer or applicator;

(f) one member from a consumer group;

(g) one member representing biological research and control interests;

(h) one member from the Montana weed control association; and

(i) one at-large member from the agricultural community.

Section 10. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 11. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 19, 1985.

(4) Each warehouseman bond shall run continuously with the warehouseman license until canceled by the bonding company. The aggregate liability of the surety may in no event exceed the sum of the bond.

(5) A 60-day written notice must be given to the department by the bonding company before any bond is canceled*; however, such cancellation does not terminate any liability of the surety incurred prior to the date of cancellation.*"

Section 4. Section 80-4-506, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-506. Net asset requirements. (1) Each licensee or applicant for a license shall maintain, above all exemptions and liabilities, total net assets liable for the payment of any indebtedness arising from the conduct of the warehouse or warehouses of at least 40 cents per hundredweight of all agricultural commodities that his warehouse or warehouses can accommodate.

(2) No person may be licensed as a warehouseman unless he has and maintains allowable net assets of at least $10,000.

(3) Assets must be valued at original cost less depreciation, except that upon written request filed with the department, the director may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal.

(4) In determining total net assets, credit may be given for insurable property, such as buildings, machinery, equipment, and merchandise inventory, only to the extent that such property is protected by insurance against loss or damage by fire. The insurance must be in the form of lawful policies issued by one or more insurance companies authorized to do business and subject to service of process in suits brought in this state.

(5) If a warehouseman is licensed or applies for licenses to operate two or more warehouses, the maximum number of hundredweight which all such warehouses will accommodate must be considered in determining whether the warehouseman meets the net asset requirements specified in this section."

Section 5. Section 80-4-601, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-601. Commodity dealer license requirements — financial responsibility. (1) A person may not engage in the business of a commodity dealer in this state without first having obtained a license issued by the department.

(3) A license application must include the following:

(a) the name of the applicant;

(c) the names of the partners if the applicant is a partnership;

(d) the location of the principal places of business;

(e) a sufficient and valid bond as specified in 80-4-604;

(f) the number and description of trucks or tractor-trailer units owned or leased by the applicant that will be used in the transportation of agricultural commodities purchased pursuant to the provisions of this part;

(g) a complete financial statement prepared by a licensed accountant according to generally accepted accounting principles, setting forth the applicant's assets, liabilities, and net worth. The commodity dealer shall have and maintain current assets equal to or greater than current liabilities. Assets must be shown at original cost less depreciation, except that upon written request filed with the department, the director may allow asset valuations in accordance with a competent appraisal. In determining total net assets, credit may be given for insurable property, such as buildings, machinery, equipment, and merchandise inventory, only to the extent that such property is protected by insurance against loss or damage by fire. The insurance must be in the form of lawful policies issued by one or more insurance companies authorized to do business and subject to service of process in suits brought in this state.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1206 1985

(h) any other reasonable information the department finds necessary to carry out the provisions and purpose of this part.

(4) In order to receive and retain a commodity dealer's license, a commodity dealer shall have and maintain net assets of at least $50,000 or maintain a bond in the amount of $2,000 for each $1,000 or fraction thereof of net assets deficiency. However, a minimum of $10,000 net assets is required by a commodity dealer to qualify for a license. A bond submitted for purposes of this subsection is in addition to any bond otherwise required under this part.

(5) The department shall adopt rules relating to the form and time of filing of financial statements. The department may require additional information or verification regarding the financial resources of the applicant and the applicant's ability to pay producers for agricultural commodities purchased from them."

Section 6. Section 80-4-604, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-604. Bonding requirement amounts — cancellation. (1) An applicant for a license to operate as a commodity dealer shall, before a license may be issued, file with the department a surety bond or its equivalent, as established by department rule, payable to the state. The aggregate annual liability of the surety may not exceed the sum of the bond.

(2) Unless set by department rule, the bond for a commodity dealer may not exceed 2% of the value of the agricultural commodities purchased by the commodity dealer from the producer during the previous 12-month period. The bond for all new applicants is 2% of the estimated value of all agricultural commodities to be purchased during the coming 12-month period. The department may by rule require a greater percentage in each instance. The minimum amount of bond required by any commodity dealer is $20,000, and the maximum is prescribed in 80-4-405.

(3) A surety shall notify the commodity dealer and the department by certified mail at least 60 days prior to the cancellation of the bond. The liability of the surety covers purchases made by the commodity dealer during the time the bond is in force. A commodity dealer's bond filed with the department is continuous until canceled by the surety upon 60 days' notice*; however, such cancellation does not terminate any liability of the surety incurred prior to the date of cancellation.*"

Approved April 19, 1985.

(d) Requirements for holding a public hearing, preparing an environmental assessment, and finding that the division of land is in the public interest do not apply."

In addition to such salary, the court shall, on or before July 1 of each year, adjust and fix the salary of the chief probation officer for a cost-of-living increase by adding to his annual salary on July 1 of that year an increment of 70% of the last previous calendar year's consumer price index for all urban consumers, U.S. department of labor, bureau of labor statistics, or other index that the bureau of business and economic research of the university of Montana may in the future recognize as the successor to that index. The cost-of-living increment for the fiscal year beginning July 1 of each subsequent fiscal year shall be added to all cost-of-living increments granted for previous years. The salary of such officer shall be apportioned among and paid by each of the counties in which such officer is appointed to act, in proportion to the cost allocation established under 41-5-104, except where such officer is appointed for one county, such county shall pay the entire salary.

(2) In addition to the compensation provided in subsection (1), each chief probation officer with more than 5 years of service is entitled to receive an annual 1% longevity allowance. Each longevity allowance must be based on the officer's current salary and begins on the officer's annual employment anniversary date. The allowance must be paid in equal monthly installments.

(3) For all authorized travel incident to his official duties in connection with the investigation, supervision, and transportation of youth, the chief probation officer shall, in addition to his office salary, be reimbursed as provided in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503."

Section 3. Applicability date. This act is applicable to fiscal years following June 30, 1985. The youth court judge in each district shall calculate the cost allocation under the provisions of 41-5-104 based on the calendar year 1984 experience as soon as possible after [the effective date of this Section 4. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

AN ACT REVISING THE HARD-ROCK MINING IMPACT LAWS AND RELATED STATUTES; REDEFINING "LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNIT" AND "LARGE-SCALE MINERAL DEVELOPMENT"; MAKING CERTAIN CHANGES TO IMPACT PLAN SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS; PROVIDING FOR TAX PREPAYMENT CREDITS AS SPECIFIED IN THE IMPACT PLAN; AMENDING SECTIONS 2-15-1822, 82-4-335, 82-4-339, 90-6-302, 90-6-307, 90-6-309, AND 90-6-311, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Section 1. Section 2-15-1822, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-15-1822. Hard-rock mining impact board. (1) There is a hard-rock mining impact board.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1211 1985

(2) The hard-rock mining impact board is a five-member board.

(3) The hard-rock mining impact board shall include among its members:

(a) three persons who, when appointed to the board, reside in an area impacted or expected to be impacted by large-scale mineral development;

(b) no more than three persons from the same congressional district;

(c) a representative of the hard-rock mining industry;

(f) a person who, when appointed to the board, is an elected county commissioner;

(g) a member of the public-at-large.

(4) The hard-rock mining impact board is a quasi-judicial board subject to the provisions of 2-15-124 except that one of the members need not be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state, and the board shall elect a chairman from among its members."

Section 2. Section 82-4-335, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-335. Operating permit. (1) No person shall engage in mining or disturb land in anticipation of mining in the state without first obtaining an operating permit from the board to do so. A separate operating permit shall be required for each mine complex. Prior to receiving an operating permit from the board, any person must pay the basic permit fee of $25 and must submit an application on a form provided by the board, which shall contain the following information and any other pertinent data required by the rules:

(a) name and address of the operator and, if a corporation or other business entity, the name and address of its principal officers, partners, and the like and its resident agent for service of process, if required by law;

(b) minerals expected to be mined;

(c) a proposed reclamation plan;

(d) expected starting date of mining;

(e) a map showing the specific area to be mined and the boundaries of the land which will be disturbed, topographic detail, the location and names of all streams, roads, railroads, and utility lines on or immediately adjacent to the area, location of proposed access roads to be built, and the names and addresses of the surface and mineral owners of all lands within the mining area, to the extent known to applicant;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1212 1985

(g) a plan of mining which will provide, within limits of normal operating procedures of the industry, for completion of mining and associated land disturbances.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4), the permit provided for in subsection (1) for a large-scale mineral development as defined in 90-6-302 shall be conditioned to provide that activities under the permit may not commence until the hard-rock mining impact board approves the impact plan under 90-6-307 and until the permittee has provided a written guarantee to the department and to the hard-rock mining impact board of compliance within the time schedule with the commitment made in the impact plan approved by the hard-rock mining impact board, as provided in 90-6-307. If the permittee does not comply with that commitment within the time scheduled, the board, upon receipt of written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board, shall suspend the permit until it receives written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board that the permittee is in compliance.

(3) When the department determines that a permittee has become or will become a large-scale mineral developer pursuant to 82-4-339 and 90-6-302(4) and provides notice as required under 82-4-339, within 6 months of receiving the notice, the permittee shall provide the board with proof that he has obtained a waiver of the impact plan requirement from the hard-rock mining impact board or that he has filed an impact plan with the hard-rock mining impact board and the appropriate county or counties. If the permittee does not file the required proof or if the hard-rock mining impact board certifies to the board that the permittee has failed to comply with the hard-rock mining impact review and implementation requirements in Title 90, chapter 6, parts 3 and 4, the board shall suspend the permit until the permittee files the required proof or until the hard-rock mining impact board certifies that the permittee has complied with the hard-rock mining impact review and implementation requirements.

(4) Compliance with 90-6-307 is not required for exploration and bulk sampling for metallurgical testing when the aggregate samples are less than 10,000 tons."

Section 3. Section 82-4-339, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-339. Annual report of activities by permittee — fee — notice of large-scale mineral developer status. (1) Within 30 days after completion or abandonment of operations on an area under permit or within 30 days after each anniversary date of the permit, whichever is earlier, or at such later date as may be provided by rules of the board and each year thereafter until reclamation is completed and approved, the permittee shall pay the annual fee of $25 and shall file a report of activities completed during the preceding year on a form prescribed by the board which report shall:

(a) identify the permittee and the permit number;

(b) locate the operation by subdivision, section, township, and range and with relation to the nearest town or other well-known geographic feature;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1213 1985

(c) estimate acreage to be newly disturbed by operation in the next 12-month period;

(d) include the number of persons on the payroll for the previous permit year and for the next permit year at intervals that the department considers sufficient to enable a determination of the permittee's status under 90-6-302(4); and

(e) update any maps previously submitted or specifically requested by the board. Such maps shall show:

(i) the permit area;

(ii) the unit of disturbed land;

(iii) the area to be disturbed during the next 12-month period;

(iv) if completed, the date of completion of operations;

(v) if not completed, the additional area estimated to be further disturbed by the operation within the following permit year; and

(vi) the date of beginning, amount, and current status of reclamation performed during the previous 12 months.

(2) Whenever the department determines that the permittee has become or will, during the next permit year, become a large-scale mineral developer, it shall immediately serve written notice of that fact on the permittee, the hard-rock mining impact board, and the county or counties in which the operation is located."

Section 4. Section 90-6-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-302. Definitions. In this part the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means the hard-rock mining impact board established in 2-15-1822.

(2) "Bonds" include bonds, notes, warrants, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, temporary bonds, temporary notes, interim receipts, interim certificates, and all instruments or obligations evidencing or representing indebtedness or evidencing or representing the borrowing of money or evidencing or representing a charge, lien, or encumbrance on specific revenues, special assessments, income, or property of a political subdivision, including all instruments or obligations payable from a special fund.

(3) "Local government unit" means a county, city, town, school district, or any of the following independent special districts:

(a) rural fire district;

(b) public hospital district;

(c) refuse disposal district;

(d) county water and sewer district;

(e) county water district; or

(f) county sewer district.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1214 1985

(4) "Large-scale mineral development" means the construction or operation of a hard-rock mine and the associated milling facility for which a permit is applied for under 82-4-335 on or after May 18, 1981, and for which the average number of persons on the payroll of the mineral developer and of contractors at the mineral development exceeds or is projected to exceed 75 for any consecutive 6-month period. A mining operation that would qualify as a large-scale mineral development under this subsection is not a large-scale mineral development if the mine owner and operator are small miners as defined in 82-4-303."

Section 5. Section 90-6-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-307. Impact plan to be submitted. (1) After an application for a permit for a large-scale mineral development is made under 82-4-335, the person seeking the permit shall submit to the affected counties and the board an impact plan describing the economic impact the large-scale mineral development will have on local government units and shall file proof of such submission to the counties with the board. Whenever an environmental impact statement on the permit application is prepared under 75-1-201, the lead agency shall cooperate to the fullest extent practicable with the affected local government units to eliminate duplication of effort in data collection. The governing bodies of the affected counties shall publish notice of the submission of an impact plan at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county. The impact plan shall include:

(a) a timetable for development, including the opening date of the development and the estimated closing date;

(b) the estimated number of persons coming into the impacted area as a result of the development;

(c) the increased capital and operating cost to local government units for providing services which can be expected as a result of the development;

(d) the financial or other assistance the developer will give to local government units to meet the increased need for services.

(2) In the impact plan, the developer shall commit itself to pay all of the increased capital and net operating cost to local government units that will be a result of the development, as identified in the impact plan, either from tax prepayments, as provided in 90-6-309, special industrial educational impact bonds, as provided in 90-6-310, or other funds obtained from the developer, and shall provide a time schedule within which it will do so. The plan may provide for funding from other revenue sources or funding mechanisms if the developer guarantees that the amount to be provided from these sources will be paid.

(3) Upon request of the governing body of an affected unit of local government, the mineral developer, prior to the end of the 90-day review period, shall provide financial or other assistance as necessary to prepare for and evaluate the impact plan. The governing body of the affected county must contract with the developer to obtain the requested financial assistance for each unit of local government within the county. Any disbursements to a unit of local government under this subsection shall be credited against future tax liabilities, if any.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1215 1985

(4) An affected local government unit shall, within 90 days after receipt of the impact plan from the developer, notify the board in writing if that local government unit objects to the impact plan, specifying the reasons why the impact plan is objected to. During the 90-day period, an affected local governmental unit may petition for one 30-day extension by submitting a written request to the board stating the need and justification for the extension. The board shall grant the extension unless it finds there is no reasonable basis for the request. If no objection is received within the 90-day period or any extension thereof, the impact plan shall be approved by the board.

(5) If objections are received from a local government unit, the board shall, within 10 days, notify the developer and forward a copy of the local government unit's objections to the developer. The local government unit and the developer have 30 days, or a longer period if both the local government unit and the developer request an extension, to resolve the objection. If the objections are not resolved, the board shall conduct a hearing on the validity of the objections, which shall be held in the affected county or, if objections are received from local government units in more than one county, shall be held in the county which, in the board's judgment, is more greatly affected. The provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act shall apply to the conduct of the hearing. The impact plan filed by the developer shall carry no presumption of correctness at the hearing.

(6) Following the hearing, the board shall, within 60 days, make findings as to those portions of the impact plan which were objected to and, if appropriate, amend the impact plan accordingly. The findings and impact plan, as amended, shall be served by the board upon all parties. Any local government unit or the developer, if aggrieved by the decision of the board, is entitled to judicial review, as provided by Title 2, chapter 4, part 7, in the district court in and for the judicial district in which the hearing was held.

(7) The developer shall, within 30 days of receipt of the approved impact plan, provide the board with a written guarantee that the developer will meet the increased costs of public services and facilities as specified in the approved impact plan and according to the time schedule contained in the approved impact plan.

(8) The developer may make payments as specified in the approved impact plan directly to a local government unit or to the board. The governing body of a local government unit receiving payments shall deposit the payments into an impact fund. The developer and the affected governing body shall each issue to the board written verification of each payment and its intended use in compliance with the impact plan. The board shall deposit payments received from a developer into the hard-rock mining impact account established by 90-6-304.

(9) The board shall notify the department of state lands of its receipt of the written guarantee of payment and of any failure of the developer to comply with this section.

(10) Upon receipt of evidence that an affected local government unit identified in the approved impact plan is providing or is preparing to provide an additional service or facility provided for in the approved impact plan, the board shall, if the hard-rock mining impact account is used to deliver payments to the local government unit, pay to that local government unit in one sum or in parts the money from the hard-rock mining impact fund identified in the plan as the increased cost to the local government unit of providing that public service or facility.

(11) If it is determined that an objection filed by an affected local government unit under subsection (4) or 90-6-311(3) is valid and it results in some remedial order by the board or court of competent jurisdiction, the local government unit shall be awarded and the developer shall pay reasonable costs and attorney fees associated with any administrative or judicial appeals filed under this section. Any attorney fees and costs awarded shall be in addition to any amounts paid by the developer under this part.

(12) Upon a determination by the department of state lands that a permittee under 82-4-335 has become or will become a large-scale mineral developer, the permittee may petition the board for a waiver of the impact plan requirement. The board may grant a waiver or conditional waiver of this requirement only if it has provided notice and opportunity for hearing to the permittee and to all affected local government units. The board shall adopt criteria under which a waiver may be granted. A waiver issued by the board may be revoked as provided in the conditional waiver or if the permittee and contractors at the mineral development increase their payrolls from the date of the waiver by 75 or more persons, provided the revocation is requested by an affected local government unit and notice and opportunity for hearing are given to the permittee and all affected local government units. The board shall notify the board of land commissioners of any waiver that has been revoked.

(13) When a person who holds an operating permit under 82-4-335 and who has filed an impact plan fails to comply with the review and implementation requirements in this part and part 4 of this chapter, the board shall certify to the board of land commissioners that the failure to comply has occurred and shall certify when a permittee who has previously failed to comply comes into compliance."

Section 6. Section 90-6-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-309. Tax prepayment — large-scale mineral development. (1) After permission to commence operation is granted by the appropriate governmental agency, and upon request of the governing body of a county in which a facility is to be located, a person intending to construct or locate a large-scale mineral development in this state shall prepay property taxes as specified in the impact plan. This prepayment shall exclude the 6-mill university levy and may exclude the mandatory county levy for the school foundation program of 45 mills.

(2) The person who is to prepay under this section shall not be obligated to prepay the entire amount established in subsection (1) at one time. Upon request of the governing body of an affected local government unit, the person shall prepay the amount shown to be needed from time to time as determined by the board.

(3) The person who is to prepay shall guarantee to the hard-rock mining impact board, through an appropriate financial institution, as may be required by the board, that property tax prepayments will be paid as needed for expenditures created by the impacts of the large-scale mineral development.

(4) When the mineral development facilities are completed and assessed by the department of revenue, they shall be subject during the first 3 years and thereafter to taxation as all other property similarly situated, except that in each year after the start of production, the local government unit that received a property tax prepayment shall provide for repayment of prepaid property taxes in accordance with subsection (5).

(5) A local government unit that received all or a portion of the property tax prepayment under this section shall provide for tax crediting as specified in the impact plan. The tax credit allowed in any year may not, however, exceed the tax obligation of the developer for that year, and the time period for tax crediting is limited to the productive life of the mining operation."

Section 7. Section 90-6-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-311. Impact plan amendments. (1) The impact plan may provide for amendment under definite conditions specified in the plan. Also, the governing body of an affected county or the mineral developer may petition the board for an amendment to an approved impact plan if:

(a) employment at the large-scale mineral development is forecast to increase or decrease by at least 75 persons, as determined under 90-6-302(4), over or under the employment levels contemplated by the approved impact plan; or

(b) it becomes apparent that an approved impact plan is materially inaccurate because of errors in assessment and 2 years have not elapsed since the date the facility begins commercial production; or

(c) the governing body of an affected county and the mineral developer join in a petition to amend the impact plan.

(2) Within 10 days of receipt the board shall publish notice of the petition at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the affected county. The petition must include:

(a) an explanation of the need for an amendment;

(b) a statement of the facts and circumstances underlying the need for an amendment; and

(c) a description of the corrective measures proposed by the petitioner.

(3) Within 60 days after notice that the petition has been received, an affected local government unit or the mineral developer must notify the board in writing if such person objects to the amendments proposed by the petitioner, specifying the reasons why the impact plan should not be amended as proposed. If no objection is received within the 60-day period, the impact plan must be amended by the board as proposed by the petitioner.

(4) If an objection is received, within 10 days of its receipt, the board shall notify the petitioner and include a copy of all objections received by the board. If the objecting party and the petitioner cannot resolve the objections within 30 days after the expiration of the 60-day period, the board shall conduct a hearing on the validity of the objections within 30 days after the failure of the parties to resolve the objections. The hearing must be held in the affected county or, if objections are received from local government units in more than one county, must be held in the county which in the board's judgment is more greatly affected. The provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act apply to the conduct of the hearing.

(5) Following the hearing, the board shall make findings as to those portions of the amendments which were objected to and, if appropriate, amend the impact plan accordingly. The board shall cause the findings and impact plan, as amended, to be served on all parties. Any local government unit or the developer is entitled to judicial review, as provided by Title 2, chapter 4, part 7, in the district court for the judicial district in which the hearing was held."

Section 8. Local government budget authority. A local government unit may budget and expend payments received from a mineral developer under this part or part 4 of this chapter or pursuant to a plan approved under this part. If a payment is requested or received after the adoption of the budget for the fiscal year in which the payment is to be expended, the governing body of the local government unit may by a majority vote amend its budget to provide for the receipt and expenditure of the payments.

Section 9. Codification instruction. Section 8 is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 90, chapter 6, part 3, and the provisions of Title 90, chapter 6, part 3, apply to section 8.

Section 10. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the hard-rock mining impact board, the department of state lands, and the board of land commissioners to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 11. Applicability. The provisions of this act apply to a mineral development for which a permit application is made under 82-4-335 on or after May 18, 1981, and prior to July 1, 1985, only if the mineral development is or will become a large-scale mineral development under 90-6-302(4), as that statute read prior to July 1, 1985.

Section 12. Effective date. This act is effective July 1, 1985.

Approved April 19, 1985.

(2) No county may incur indebtedness or liability for any single purpose to an amount exceeding $500,000 without the approval of a majority of the electors thereof voting at an election to be provided by law, except as provided in 7-21-3413 and 7-21-3414.

CHAPTER NO. 585

[HB 551]

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A PROCEDURE FOR THE CREATION OF A NEW HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Procedure for creation of a new high school district — limitation for creation. (1) To create a new high school district, a petition requesting the creation of a new high school district out of the territory of an existing high school district or districts must be addressed to the county superintendent and must:

(a) describe the territory that is requested to be incorporated in the new district and the taxable value of such territory as shown by the last completed assessment roll;

(b) state the reasons why the creation of a new district is requested; and

(c) be signed by the parents or guardians of not less than 50 children who are at least 14 years old but less than 18 years old and who reside in the territory that would be included in the new district and who reside more than 20 miles over the shortest practical route from an operating high school.

(2) When a county superintendent receives a valid petition requesting the creation of a new district, he shall:

(a) file such petition;

(b) set a hearing place, date, and time for consideration of the petition that is not more than 40 days after the receipt of the petition; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1221 1985

(c) give notice of the place, date, and time of the hearing. Notices must be posted in the high school districts affected by the request in the manner prescribed in 20-20-204 for school elections, with at least one such notice posted in the territory to be included in the new district.

(3) The county superintendent shall conduct the hearing as scheduled unless before or at the time of the hearing he receives a protest petition signed by a majority of the electors of the proposed new district who are qualified to vote under the provisions of 20-20-301. A valid protest petition conclusively denies the creation of a new district. If a hearing is conducted, any resident or taxpayer of the affected districts must be heard. If the county superintendent considers it advisable and in the best interests of the residents of the proposed new district, he shall grant the petitioned request and order the creation of a new district with its boundaries coinciding with the boundaries defined in the petition. Otherwise, he shall by order deny the request. In the order creating the new district, the effective date for its creation must be the following July 1.

(4) The county superintendent's order may be appealed to the superintendent of public instruction within 30 days after the date of such order. An appeal must be in writing and be signed by not less than 10 residents of the proposed new district. The superintendent of public instruction shall:

(a) call a hearing on the appeal not less than 20 days or more than 30 days from receipt of the appeal;

(b) provide notice of the hearing in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(c);

(c) consider the material presented at the county superintendent's hearing and pertinent other material; and

(d) render a decision on the creation of such new high school district. The decision is final.

(5) When a new high school district is created, the trustees of the elementary district in which the high school buildings are located are the trustees of the new district. A trustee appointed under the provisions of this section shall serve until a successor is elected at the next regular school election and is qualified.

(6) If the district does not open and operate a school within 1 year after the effective date of the creation of the new district, the order of the county superintendent or, if his order is appealed, the decision of the superintendent of public instruction creating a new district under this section is void and the new district ceases to exist. If the new district does not satisfy this requirement, the territory must be reincorporated in the district or districts in which it was located before the creation of the new district and the trustees are without capacity to act.

(7) If a petition has been filed under the provisions of this section and denied by the county superintendent, no new petition may be filed until 1 year after the final decision on the original petition.

(8) For the purposes of this section, the taxable value of the taxable property of the territory proposed to be included in the new district must be at least $500,000, unless 50,000 acres or more of such proposed new district are nontaxable Indian land.

In this case, department approval is not necessary.

(2) To the extent that municipal facilities for the supply of water or disposal of sewage or solid waste are not to be provided for a subdivision as certified to by the governing body, the person wishing to subdivide must obtain department approval as provided in 76-4-122(2)(a)."

Section 9. Exclusion for certain subdivisions. Subdivisions located within master planning areas and first- or second-class municipalities that will be provided with municipal facilities for the supply of water and disposal of sewage and solid waste are not subject to the provisions of this part; except that, if the municipal facilities for water supply or sewage disposal to serve the subdivision constitute either an extension of a public water supply system or a public sewage disposal system, the subdivision must be reviewed in accordance with the provisions of 76-4-105, 76-4-124, and 76-4-127.

Section 10. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the department of health and environmental sciences to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

(3) Permanent part-time employees are entitled to prorated annual vacation benefits if they have worked the qualifying period.

(4) An employee may not accrue annual vacation leave credits while in a leave-without-pay status.

(5) Temporary employees do not earn vacation leave credits, except that a temporary employee who is subsequently hired into a permanent position within the same jurisdiction without a break in service and temporary employees who are employed continuously longer than 6 months may count as earned leave credits for the immediate term of temporary employment."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1239 1985

(3) Members of the board may be reimbursed from the money of the association for expenses incurred by them due to their service as board members but may not otherwise be compensated by the association for their services. Section 7. Certification of qualified plan. Upon application by the association or the lead carrier for certification of a plan of health coverage as a qualified plan for the purposes of [sections 1 through 13], the commissioner shall make a determination within 90 days as to whether the plan is qualified. If determined to be qualified, the plan of health coverage must be labeled as a "qualified plan" on the front of the policy.

Section 8. Association plan premium. The association shall establish the schedule of premiums to be charged eligible persons for membership in the association plan. The schedule of premiums may not be less than 150% or more than 400% of the average premium rates charged by the five largest insurers with the largest individual qualified plan of insurance in force in this state. The premium rates of the five insurers used to establish the premium rates for each type of coverage offered by the association must be determined by the commissioner from information provided annually by all insurers at the request of the commissioner. The information requested must include the number of qualified plans or actuarial equivalent plans offered by each insurer, the rates charged by the insurer for each type of plan offered by the insurer, and any other information the commissioner considers necessary. The association shall utilize generally acceptable actuarial principles and structurally compatible rates.

Section 9. Operation of association plan. (1) Upon acceptance by the lead carrier under [section 12], an eligible person may enroll in the association plan by payment of the association plan premium to the lead carrier.

(2) Not less than 88% of the association plan premiums paid to the lead carrier may be used to pay claims and not more than 12% may be used for payment of the lead carrier's direct and indirect expenses as specified in [section 10].

(3) Any income in excess of the costs incurred by the association in providing reinsurance or administrative services must be held at interest and used by the association to offset past and future losses due to claims expenses of the association plan or be allocated to reduce association plan premiums.

(4) Each participating member of the association shall share the losses due to claims expenses of the association plan for plans issued or approved for issuance by the association and shall share in the operating and administrative expenses incurred or estimated to be incurred by the association incident to the conduct of its affairs. Claims expenses of the association plan that exceed the premium payments allocated to the payment of benefits are the liability of the association members. Association members shall share in the claims expenses of the association plan and operating and administrative expenses of the association in an amount equal to the ratio of:

(a) the association member's total disability insurance premium received from or on behalf of Montana residents divided by;

(b) the total disability premium received by all association members from or on behalf of Montana residents, as determined by the commissioner.

(5) The association shall make an annual determination of each association member's liability, if any, and may make an annual fiscal yearend assessment if necessary. The association may also, subject to the approval of the commissioner, provide for interim assessments against the association members as may be necessary to assure the financial capability of the association in meeting the incurred or estimated claims expenses of the association plan and operating and administrative expenses of the association until the association's next annual fiscal yearend assessment. Payment of an assessment is due within 30 days of receipt by an association member of a written notice of a fiscal yearend or interim assessment. Failure by a contributing member to tender to the association the assessment within 30 days is grounds for termination of membership. An association member that ceases to do disability insurance business within the state remains liable for assessments through the calendar year during which disability insurance business ceased. The association may decline to levy an assessment against an association member if the assessment, as determined pursuant to this section, would not exceed $10.

(6) Any annual fiscal yearend or interim assessment levied against an association member may be offset, in an amount equal to the assessment paid to the association, against the premium tax payable by that association member pursuant to 33-2-705 for the year in which the annual fiscal yearend or interim assessment is levied. The insurance commissioner shall, each year the legislature meets in regular session, on or before January 15, report to the legislature the total amount of premium tax offset claimed by association members during the preceding biennium.

Section 10. Administration of association plan — rules. (1) Any member of the association may submit to the commissioner policies to be proposed to serve as the association plan. The commissioner shall prescribe by rule the time and manner of the submission.

(2) Upon the commissioner's approval of the policy forms and contracts submitted, the association shall select policies and contracts by a member or members of the association to be the association plan. The association shall select one lead carrier to issue the qualified plans. The board of directors of the association shall prepare appropriate specifications and bid forms and may solicit bids from licensed administrators and the members of the association for the purpose of selecting the lead carrier. The selection of the lead carrier must be based upon criteria established by the board of directors.

(3) The lead carrier shall perform all administrative and claims payment functions required by this section upon the commissioner's approval of the policy forms and contracts submitted. The lead carrier shall provide these services for a period of at least 3 years, unless a request to terminate is approved by the association and the commissioner. The association and the commissioner shall approve or deny a request to terminate within 90 days of its receipt. A failure to make a final decision on a request to terminate within the specified period is considered an approval. The association shall invite submissions of policy forms from members of the association, including the lead carrier, 6 months prior to the expiration of each 3-year period. The association shall follow the procedure provided in subsection (2) in selecting a lead carrier for the subsequent 3-year period or, if a request to terminate is approved, on or before the end of the 3-year period.

(4) The lead carrier shall provide all eligible persons involved in the association plan an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection to which the person is entitled, the method and place of filing claims, and to whom benefits are payable. The certificate must indicate that coverage was obtained through the association.

(5) The lead carrier shall submit to the association and the commissioner on a semiannual basis a report of the operation of the association plan. The association must determine the specific information to be contained in the report prior to the effective date of the association plan.

(6) The lead carrier shall pay all claims pursuant to [sections 1 through 13] and shall indicate that the claim was paid by the association plan. Each claim payment must include information specifying the procedure involved in the event a dispute over the amount of payment arises.

(7) The lead carrier must be reimbursed from the association plan premiums received for its direct and indirect expenses. Direct and indirect expenses include a prorated reimbursement for the portion of the lead carrier's administrative, printing, claims administration, management, and building overhead expenses, which are assignable to the maintenance and administration of the association plan. The association must approve cost accounting methods to substantiate the lead carrier's cost reports consistent with generally accepted accounting principles. Direct and indirect expenses may not include costs directly related to the original submission of policy forms prior to selection as the lead carrier.

(8) The lead carrier is, when carrying out its duties under [sections 1 through 13], an independent contractor for the association and is individually liable for its actions, subject to the laws of this state.

Section 11. Solicitation of eligible persons. (1) The association, pursuant to a plan approved by the commissioner, shall disseminate appropriate information to the residents of this state regarding the existence of the association plan and the means of enrollment. Means of communication may include use of the press, radio, and television, as well as publication in appropriate state offices and publications.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1244 1985

(2) The association shall devise and implement means of maintaining public awareness of [sections 1 through 13] and shall administer [sections 1 through 13] in a manner which facilitates public participation in the association plan.

(3) All licensed disability insurance agents may engage in the selling or marketing of qualified association plans. The lead carrier shall pay an agent's referral fee of $25 to each licensed disability insurance agent who refers an applicant to the association plan, if the applicant is accepted. The referral fees must be paid to the lead carrier from money received as premiums for the association plan.

(4) An insurer, society, or health service corporation that rejects or applies underwriting restrictions to an applicant for disability insurance must notify the applicant of the existence of the association plan, requirements for being accepted in it, and the procedure for applying to it.

Section 12. Enrollment by eligible person. (1) The association plan must be open for enrollment by eligible persons. An eligible person may enroll in the plan by submission of a certificate of eligibility to the lead carrier. The certificate must provide:

(a) the name, address, and age of the applicant and length of the applicant's residence in this state;

(b) the name, address, and age of spouse and children, if any, if they are to be insured;

(c) written evidence that he fulfills all of the elements of an eligible person, as defined in [section 1]; and

(d) a designation of coverage desired.

(2) Within 30 days of receipt of the certificate, the lead carrier shall either reject the application for failing to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) or forward the eligible person a notice of acceptance and billing information. Insurance is effective on the first of the month following acceptance.

(3) An eligible person may not purchase more than one policy from the association plan.

(4) A person who obtains coverage pursuant to this section may not be covered for any preexisting condition during the first 12 months of coverage under the association plan if the person was diagnosed or treated for that condition during the 5 years immediately preceding the filing of an application. This subsection does not apply to a person who has had continuous coverage under an individual, family, or group policy during the year immediately preceding the filing of an application for nonelective procedures.

(5) A change of residence from Montana to another state immediately terminates eligibility for renewal of coverage under the association plan.

Section 13. Liability of association membership. No member of the association is liable for the actions of the association or its lead carrier.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1245 1985

Section 14. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the commissioner of insurance to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 15. Codification instruction. Sections 1 through 13 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 33, and the provisions of Title 33 apply to sections 1 through 13.

Section 16. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 17. Effective date. (1) Except for section 5, this act is effective July 1, 1985.

(2) Section 5 is effective July 1, 1987.

CHAPTER NO. 601

[HB 529]

AN ACT DELINEATING AND EXPANDING THE CAUSES OF ACTION AND REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO AN INJURED EMPLOYEE OF AN UNINSURED EMPLOYER OR TO THE EMPLOYEE'S BENEFICIARIES; AMENDING SECTIONS 39-71-504, 39-71-508 THROUGH 39-71-510, AND 39-71-2905, MCA.

WHEREAS, it is the public policy of the State of Montana to ensure that every employee who is required to be covered under the state's workers' compensation laws, or his beneficiaries, receive, in the event of compensable injury or death, the monetary compensation to which they are entitled or are adjudged to be entitled under Title 39, chapter 71, part 7; and

WHEREAS, under current laws, an employee of an uninsured employer or the employee's beneficiaries are significantly impeded in the ability to recover full or partial compensation for a compensable injury or death; and

WHEREAS, this situation exists because of all of the following factors:

(1) There is a significant number of uninsured employers in Montana.

(2) The uninsured employers' fund is, for all practical purposes, insolvent.

(3) Existing remedies for an injured employee or his beneficiaries are inadequate, particularly when the negligence of the employer is not or cannot be proven to be the proximate cause of the injury or death.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-71-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-504. Funding of fund — option for agreement between division and injured employee. The fund shall be funded in the following manner:

(1) The division shall require that the uninsured employer pay to the fund a penalty of either double the premium amount the employer would have paid on the payroll of the employer's workers in this state if the employer had been enrolled with compensation plan No. 3 or $200, whichever is greater. In determining the premium amount for the calculation of the penalty under this subsection, the division shall make an assessment on how much premium would have been paid on the employer's past 3-year payroll for periods within the 3 years when the employer was uninsured. An assessment for payroll paid by the uninsured employer for any time prior to July 1, 1977, may not be made.

(2) (a) The fund shall receive from an uninsured employer an amount equal to all benefits paid or to be paid from the fund to an injured employee of the uninsured employer. However, the uninsured employer's liability under this subsection (2)(a) may not exceed $50,000.

(b) The dollar limitation does not apply to an uninsured employer's liability to an injured employee or the employee's beneficiaries under 39-71-509 or [section 6].

(3) The division may determine that the $1,000 assessments that are charged against an insurer in each case of an industrial death under 39-71-902(1) shall be paid to the uninsured employers' fund rather than the subsequent injury fund.

(4) The division may enter into an agreement with the injured employee or the employee's beneficiaries to assign to the employee or the beneficiaries all or part of the funds received by the division from the uninsured employer pursuant to subsection (2)(a)."

Section 2. Section 39-71-508, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-508. Coordination of remedies. An employee who suffers an injury arising out of and in the course of employment while working for an uninsured employer as defined in 39-71-501 or an employee's beneficiaries in injuries resulting in death may pursue all remedies concurrently, including but not limited to;

(1) a claim for benefits from the uninsured employers' fund*;*

(2) a damage action against the employer in accordance with 39-71-509;

(3) an independent action against an employer as provided in [section 6]; or

(4) any other civil remedy provided by law."

Section 3. Setoffs to claim against fund. A claim for benefits from the uninsured employer's fund must be discharged, finally or periodically, to the extent that an employee or the employee's beneficiaries receive actual monetary compensation by judgment or settlement from the uninsured employer, a third party who shares liability as defined in 39-71-412, or a fellow employee who shares liability as defined in 39-71-413.

Section 4. Section 39-71-510, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-510. Limitation on benefit entitlement under fund. Notwithstanding the provisions of 39-71-407, 39-71-502, and 39-71-503, injured employees or an employee's beneficiaries who pursue a claim for benefits from the uninsured employers' fund are not granted an entitlement by this state for full workers' compensation benefits from the fund. Benefits from the fund must be paid in accordance with the sums in the fund. If the division determines at any time that the sums in the fund are not adequate to fully pay all claims, the division may make appropriate proportionate reductions in benefits to all claimants. The reductions do not entitle claimants to retroactive reimbursements in the future."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1257 1985

Section 5. Section 39-71-509, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-509. Action against uninsured employer — limitation of employer's defenses. If an injured employee or the employee's beneficiaries bring an action to recover damages for personal injuries sustained or for death resulting from personal injuries so sustained, it is not a defense for the employer that the:

(1) employee was negligent unless such negligence was willful;

(2) injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow employee; or

(3) employee had assumed the risks inherent in, incident to, or arising out of his employment or arising from the failure of the employer to provide and maintain a reasonably safe place to work or reasonably safe tools or appliances."

Section 6. Independent cause of action. (1) An injured employee or the employee's beneficiaries have an independent cause of action against an uninsured employer for failure to be enrolled in a compensation plan as required by this chapter.

(2) In such an action, prima facie liability of the uninsured employer exists if the claimant proves, by a preponderance of the evidence, that:

(a) the employer was required by law to be enrolled under compensation plan No. 1, 2, or 3 with respect to the claimant; and

(b) the employer was not so enrolled on the date of the injury or death.

(3) It is not a defense to such an action that the employee had knowledge of or consented to the employer's failure to carry insurance or that the employee was negligent in permitting such failure to exist.

(4) The amount of recoverable damages in such an action is the amount of compensation that the employee would have received had the employer been properly enrolled under compensation plan No. 1, 2, or 3.

(5) A plaintiff who prevails in an action brought under this section is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney fees incurred in the action, in addition to his damages.

Section 7. District court venue for independent cause of action. An injured employee or an employee's beneficiaries pursuing an independent cause of action pursuant to [section 6] must bring such action in the district court in the district where the claimant resides or where the alleged violation occurred. The court may grant such interim relief as it considers appropriate, including but not limited to injunctive relief, attachment, or receivership.

Section 8. Requirement to serve papers. In pursuing remedies under this part, an injured employee or his beneficiaries shall serve all pleadings and all other litigation papers on the division and the uninsured employer, regardless of whether the division or the uninsured employer is a party to the particular action to which the papers relate.

Section 9. Setoffs. Any actual monetary compensation received by judgment or settlement by the injured employee or the employee's beneficiaries under 39-71-509 or [section 6] may be offset by the uninsured employer against his remaining liability under those sections.

Section 10. Settlement. The division, the uninsured employer, the injured employee or his beneficiaries, a third party who shares liability as defined in 39-71-412, or a fellow employee who shares liability as defined in 39-71-413 may enter into a settlement agreement to finally settle the rights and liabilities under this part of any or all of the parties. Such a settlement is subject to division approval in accordance with 39-71-741.

Section 11. Section 39-71-2905, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-2905. Petition to workers' compensation judge. A claimant or an insurer who has a dispute concerning any benefits under chapter 71 of this title may petition the workers' compensation judge for a determination of the dispute. The judge, after a hearing, shall make a determination of the dispute in accordance with the law as set forth in chapter 71 of this title. If the dispute relates to benefits due a claimant under chapter 71, the judge shall fix and determine any benefits to be paid and specify the manner of payment. The workers' compensation judge has exclusive jurisdiction to make determinations concerning disputes under chapter 71, except as provided in [section 7]. The penalties and assessments allowed against an insurer under chapter 71 are the exclusive penalties and assessments that can be assessed against an insurer for disputes arising under chapter 71."

Section 12. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the division of workers' compensation to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 13. Codification instruction. Sections 3 and 6 through 10 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 39, chapter 71, part 5.

Approved April 23, 1985.

However, the foregoing provisions do not prevent the board, under rules it adopts, from permitting a person holding a license to teach cosmetology and not actively engaged either full-time or part-time in teaching cosmetology or manicuring from teaching as a substitute for an active teacher.

(3) A fee prescribed by the board shall be charged, in addition to other fees fixed by law, for renewal applications of licenses and certificates made after December 31 of each year or other predetermined renewal deadline."

(2) Whenever any person or agency disturbs vegetation on an easement or right-of-way within a district by construction of a road, irrigation or drainage ditch, pipeline, transmission line, or other development, the board shall require that the disturbed areas be seeded, planted, or otherwise managed to reestablish a cover of beneficial plants.

(3) (a) The person or agency disturbing the land shall submit to the board a written plan specifying the methods to be used to accomplish revegetation. The plan must describe the time and method of seeding, fertilization practices, recommended plant species, use of weed-free seed, and the weed management procedures to be used.

weed management plan. Upon approval by the board, the revegetation plan must be signed by the chairman of the board and the person or agency responsible for the disturbance and constitutes a binding agreement between the board and such person or agency.

The supervisor may draft such an agreement upon the request of and in cooperation with the person; however, the agreement must, in the board's judgment, provide for effective weed management. The weed management agreement must be signed by the person and, upon approval of the board, by the chairman. An agreement involving a state highway right-of-way must also be signed by a representative of the department of highways.

(2) The agreement must contain a statement disclaiming any liability of the board and, if applicable, the department of highways for any injuries or losses suffered by the person in managing noxious weeds on the state or county highway right-of-way. The signed agreement transfers responsibility for managing noxious weeds on the specified section of right-of-way from the board to the person signing the agreement. If the board later finds that the person has failed to adhere to the agreement, the board shall issue an order informing the person that the agreement will be void and that responsibility for the management of noxious weeds on the right-of-way will revert to the board unless the person complies with the provisions of the agreement within a specified time period.

Section 13. Section 7-22-2123, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-22-2123. Procedure in case of noncompliance. (1) Where complaint has been made or the board has reason to believe that noxious weeds described in this part are present upon a person's land within the district in violation of the law, that person must be notified by mail or telephone of the complaint and the board may request inspection of such land. The board or its authorized agent and the landowner or his representative shall inspect the land at an agreeable time, within 10 days of notification of the landowner. If after reasonable effort the board is unable to gain cooperation of the person, the board or its authorized agent may enter and inspect the land to determine if the complaint is valid.

(2) If noxious weeds are found, the board or supervisor shall notify the person or his representative and seek voluntary compliance with the district weed control program. If voluntary compliance is not possible, notice of noncompliance must be sent to the person by certified mail.

(3) The notice must specify:

(a) the basis for the determination of noncompliance;

(b) the geographic location of the area of noncompliance, by legal description or other reasonably identifiable description;

(c) measures to be undertaken in order to comply with the district's management criteria; and

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1284 1985

(d) a reasonable period of time, not less than 10 days, in which compliance measures must be initiated.

(4) A person is considered in compliance if he submits and the board accepts a proposal to undertake specified control measures and is in compliance for so long as he performs according to the terms of the proposal. If the measures proposed to be taken extend beyond the current growing season, the proposal and acceptance must be in writing.

(5) In accepting or rejecting a proposal, the board shall consider the economic impact on the person and his neighbors, practical biological and environmental limitations, and alternative control methods to be used."

Section 14. Section 7-22-2124, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-22-2124. Destruction of weeds by board. (1) If corrective action is not taken and no proposal is made and accepted within the time specified in the notice, the board may forthwith enter upon the person's land and institute appropriate control measures. In such case the board shall submit a bill to the person, itemizing man-hours of labor, material, and equipment time, together with a penalty not exceeding 10% of the total cost incurred. Labor and equipment must be valued at the current rate paid for commercial management operations in the district. The bill must specify and order a payment due date of 30 days from the date the bill is sent.

(2) A copy of the bill must also be submitted by the board to the county clerk and recorder."

Section 15. Administrative hearing — appeals. (1) A person adversely affected by any notice, action, or order of the board may request an administrative hearing before the board. The board shall hold a hearing within 30 days of the request. Participants may be represented by legal counsel. The board shall make a record of the proceeding and enter its order and findings within 7 days after the hearing.

(2) An order of the board may be appealed to the commissioners within 30 days from the time the order is entered. The commissioners shall hear such appeal within 30 days after the notice of appeal and shall render their order and findings within 7 days after such hearing. Participants may be represented by legal counsel.

(3) Within 30 days after the commissioners render their order and findings, the person adversely affected may file a petition in district court requesting that the order and findings of the commissioners be set aside or modified. (b) place the youth for substitute care into a youth care facility as defined in 41-3-1102 or a home approved by the court;

(c) place the youth in a private agency responsible for the care and rehabilitation of such a youth;

(d) transfer legal custody to the department of institutions; provided, however, that in the case of a youth in need of supervision, such transfer of custody does not authorize the department of institutions to place the youth in a state youth correctional facility and such custody may not continue for a period of more than 6 months without a subsequent court order after notice and hearing;

(e) such further care and treatment or evaluation that the court considers beneficial to the youth; or

(f) order restitution by the youth.

(2) At any time after the youth has been taken into custody, the court may, with the consent of the youth in the manner provided in 41-5-303 for consent by a youth to waiver of his constitutional rights or after the youth has been adjudicated delinquent or in need of supervision, order the youth to be evaluated by the department of institutions for a period not to exceed 45 days of evaluation at a reception and evaluation center for youths.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1298 1985

(3) At any time after a youth has been taken into custody, the court may request that the youth be evaluated at the Montana youth treatment center, for a period not to exceed 60 days, for the sole purpose of advising the court as to whether the youth is seriously mentally ill, as defined in 53-21-102, but the court must first find that reasonable grounds exist to believe that the youth is suffering from a mental disorder as defined in 53-21-102.

(4) No evaluation of a youth may be performed at the Montana state hospital unless such youth is transferred to the district court under 41-5-206.

(5) No youth may be committed or transferred to a penal institution or other facility used for the execution of sentence of adult persons convicted of crimes.

(6) Any order of the court may be modified at any time. In the case of a youth committed to the department of institutions, an order pertaining to the youth may be modified only upon notice to the department and subsequent hearing.

(7) Whenever the court vests legal custody in an agency, institution, or department, it must transmit with the dispositional judgment copies of a medical report and such other clinical, predisposition, or other reports and information pertinent to the care and treatment of the youth.

(8) If the court determines that a delinquent youth or youth in need of supervision is in need of treatment at the Montana youth treatment center, the court must first determine, based on testimony of a professional person, as defined in 53-21-102, that the youth is seriously mentally ill as defined in 53-21-102. The youth is entitled to all rights provided by 53-21-114 through 53-21-119.

(9) Upon a finding of serious mental illness, the court may commit a delinquent youth to the department of institutions and recommend that the youth be placed at the Montana youth treatment center. Upon release or discharge from the center, if the court order has not expired or if the youth is less than 21 years of age, he must be retained under the supervision of the department until the expiration of the court order or until he attains the age of 21.

(10) The order of commitment to the department of institutions shall read as follows:

(3) The governing body of a city, town, or county may exempt vehicles lawfully displaying parking permits issued under this part and parked in public places along public streets from any time limitation imposed upon parking in such area except in areas where:

AN ACT GENERALLY REVISING THE LAW REGARDING DEBTOR GROUP LIFE, CREDIT LIFE, AND CREDIT DISABILITY INSURANCE POLICIES; INCREASING THE CREDIT TRANSACTION DURATION PERIOD FOR CREDIT LIFE AND DISABILITY POLICIES EXEMPT FROM REGULATION; AMENDING SECTIONS 33-20-1105 AND 33-21-102, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 33-20-1105, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-20-1105. Debtor groups. The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure the debtors of the creditor, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The debtors eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the debtors of the creditor or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the indebtedness or the purchase giving rise to the indebtedness. The policy may provide that the term "debtors" shall include the debtors of one or more subsidiary corporations and the debtors of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors, or partnerships if the business of the policyholder and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors, or partnerships is under common control.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the creditor's funds or from charges collected from the insured debtors, or from both. A policy on which part or all of the premium is to be derived from the collection from the insured debtors of identifiable charges not required of uninsured debtors shall not include, in the class or classes of debtors eligible for insurance, debtors under obligations outstanding at its date of issue without evidence of individual insurability unless at least 75% of the then eligible debtors elect to pay the required charges. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from the collection of such identifiable charges must insure all eligible debtors or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy may be issued only if the group of eligible debtors is then receiving new entrants at the rate of at least 100 persons yearly or may reasonably be expected to receive at least 100 new entrants during the first policy year and only if the policy reserves to the insurer the right to require evidence of individual insurability if less than 75% of the new entrants become insured. The policy may exclude from the classes eligible for insurance classes of debtors determined by age.

(4) The amount of insurance on the life of any debtor shall at no time exceed the amount owed by him to the creditor.

(5) The insurance shall be payable to the policyholder. Each payment shall reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness of the debtor to the extent of such payment."

Section 2. Section 33-21-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-21-102. Purpose and scope. (1) The purpose of this chapter is to promote the public welfare by regulating credit life insurance and credit disability insurance. Nothing in this chapter is intended to prohibit or discourage reasonable competition. The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed.

(2) All life insurance and all disability insurance sold in connection with loans or other credit transactions shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter except such insurance sold in connection with a loan or other credit transaction of more than 15 years' duration."

Section 3. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the commissioner of insurance to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1308 1985

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-7-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-7-401. Definitions. In this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Appropriate public education" means the provision of regular or special education and related aids and services that are designed to meet individual educational needs of handicapped persons as adequately as the needs of nonhandicapped are met.

(2) "Deaf" means a hearing impairment which is so severe that the child's hearing is nonfunctional for the purpose of educational performance.

(3) "Deaf/blind" means concomitant hearing and visual impairments, the combination of which causes such severe educational problems for the child so impaired that the child cannot be accommodated in a special education program designed solely for deaf or blind children.

(4) "Emotionally disturbed" means a condition exhibiting one or more of the following characteristics to a marked degree and over a long period of time: an inability to learn which cannot be explained by intellectual, sensory, or health factors; an inability to build or maintain satisfactory interpersonal relationships with peers and teachers; inappropriate types of behavior or feelings under normal circumstances; a general pervasive mood of unhappiness or depression; or a tendency to develop physical symptoms, pains, or fears associated with personal or school problems. The term does not include children who are socially maladjusted. The emotionally disturbed category may include students who also may have been diagnosed by appropriate specialists as psychotic, sociopathic, or schizophrenic. An emotionally disturbed child's disorders are not primarily the result of problems with visual acuity, hearing impairment, physical handicaps, cultural or instructional factors, or mental retardation. "Emotionally disturbed" refers to a person who has been identified, based on a comprehensive evaluation, as having observable behavioral patterns which seriously inhibit the academic and social or emotional growth of the individual or the educational rights of others to the point that supportive services are required. These behavioral patterns may include:

(a) excessive physical or verbal aggression toward oneself or others and a lack of response to regular educational intervention;

(b) high frequency of persistent inattention to academic or social tasks associated with regular classroom performance; and

(c) persistent withdrawal from peer or adult interactions associated with the expected social development in a regular educational environment.

(5) "Handicapped child" means a child evaluated as being mentally retarded, hard-of-hearing, deaf, speech-impaired, visually handicapped, emotionally disturbed, deaf/blind, multihandicapped, orthopedically impaired, other health-impaired, or as having specific learning disabilities, who because of those impairments needs special education and related services.

(6) "Hard-of-hearing" means a hearing impairment, whether permanent or fluctuating, which adversely affects a child's educational performance but which is not included within the definition of deaf.

(7) "Mentally retarded" means significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior and manifested during the developmental period, which adversely affects a child's educational performance.

(8) "Multihandicapped" means concomitant impairments (e.g., mentally retarded/blind or mentally retarded/orthopedically impaired), the combination of which causes such severe educational problems for the child so impaired that the child cannot be accommodated in a special education program designed solely for one of the impairments. The term does not include deaf/blind children.

(9) "Orthopedically impaired" means a severe orthopedic impairment which adversely affects a child's educational performance. The term includes but is not limited to impairment caused by congenital anomaly (e.g., clubfoot or absence of some member), impairments caused by disease (e.g., poliomyelitis, bone tuberculosis), and impairments from other causes (e.g., fractures or burns which cause contractures, amputation, cerebral palsy).

(10) "Other health-impaired" means:

(a) having an autistic condition that is manifested by severe communication and other developmental and educational problems; or

(b) having limited strength, vitality, or alertness due to chronic or acute health problems such as a heart condition, tuberculosis, rheumatic fever, nephritis, asthma, sickle-cell anemia, hemophilia, epilepsy, lead poisoning, leukemia, or diabetes.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1310 1985

(11) "Related services" means transportation and such developmental, corrective, and other supportive services as are required to assist a handicapped child to benefit from special education and includes speech pathology, audiology, occupational therapy, and physical therapy.

(12) "Special education" means specially designed instruction, given at no cost to the parents or guardians, to meet the unique needs of a handicapped child, including but not limited to classroom instruction, instruction in physical education, home instruction, and instruction in hospitals and institutions.

(13) "Specific learning disability" means a disorder in one or more of the basic psychological processes involved in understanding or in using language, spoken or written, which may manifest itself in an imperfect ability to listen, think, speak, read, write, spell, or do mathematical calculations. The term includes but is not limited to such conditions as perceptual handicaps, brain injury, minimal brain dysfunction, dyslexia, and developmental aphasia. The term does not include children who have learning problems which are primarily the result of visual, hearing, or motor handicaps; mental retardation; or environmental, cultural, or economic disadvantages.

(14) "Speech/language impaired" means a communication disorder such as stuttering, impaired articulation, or a language or voice impairment which adversely affects a child's interpersonal relationships or educational performance.

(15) "Surrogate parent" means an individual appointed to safeguard a child's rights and protect the child's interests in educational evaluation, placement, and hearing or appeal procedures concerning the child.

(16) "Visually handicapped" means a visual impairment which, after correction, adversely affects a child's educational performance. The term includes both partially seeing and blind children."

Section 2. Section 20-7-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-7-402. Special education to comply with board policies. (1) The conduct of special education programs shall comply with the policies recommended by the superintendent of public instruction and adopted by the board of public education. These policies shall assure and include but are not limited to:

(a) placement of handicapped children in the least restrictive alternative setting;

(b) due process for all handicapped children, including the appointment of a surrogate parent if necessary;

(c) use of child study teams to identify handicapped children and use of instructional teams to plan individual education programs;

(d) comprehensive evaluation for each handicapped child; and

(e) other policies needed to assure a free and appropriate public education.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall promulgate rules to administer the policies of the board of public education."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1311 1985

Section 3. Section 20-7-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-7-403. Duties of superintendent of public instruction. The superintendent of public instruction shall supervise and coordinate the conduct of special education in the state by:

(1) recommending to the board of public education adoption of those policies necessary to establish a planned and coordinated program of special education in the state;

(2) administering the policies adopted by the board of public education;

(3) certifying special education teachers on the basis of the special qualifications for such teachers as prescribed by the board of public education;

The determination must be made within 10 days of the date on which the trustees of a school district or the governing authority of an institution learned of the presence of the child in the district. If the child is in need of a surrogate parent, the trustees of a school district or the governing authority of an institution must nominate a surrogate parent for the child as provided in [section 5].*

(2) Whenever the trustees of any district intend to establish a special education class or program, they shall apply for approval and funding of the class or program by the superintendent of public instruction. CHAPTER NO. 624

[HB 770]

AN ACT TO CONTROL THE IMPORTATION FOR INTRODUCTION AND THE TRANSPLANTATION OR INTRODUCTION OF WILDLIFE; AMENDING SECTION 87-3-105, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-3-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-3-105. Unlawful to import for introduction or to introduce or transplant wildlife. Except as provided in [section 11], it is unlawful for any person to import for introduction or to transplant or introduce any wildlife into the state of Montana unless done in accordance with the provisions of [sections 2 through 12]."

Section 2. Purpose. The legislature finds that in order to protect the native wildlife and plant species of Montana and to protect the agricultural production of Montana, it is necessary to provide for the control of the importation for introduction and the transplantation or introduction of wildlife in the state. Serious threats, known and unknown, to the well-being of native wildlife and plant species and to agricultural production, resulting from the introduction of wildlife into natural habitats, necessitate the prohibition of the importation for introduction and the transplantation or introduction of wildlife into natural habitats unless it can be shown that no harm will result from such transplantation or introduction. Any importation for introduction or the transplantation or introduction permitted must be conducted in a manner to assure that the introduced or transplanted population can be controlled if harm arises from unforeseen effects.

Section 3. Definitions. For purposes of [sections 2 through 12], the following definitions apply:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1323 1985

(1) "Feral" means the appearance in a natural habitat of an animal that has escaped domestication and become wild.

(2) "Importation" means the act of bringing into the state any wildlife.

(3) "Introduction" means the release of or attempt to release, intentional or otherwise, wildlife from outside the state into natural habitats of the state.

(4) "Natural habitat" means any area in which the introduction of wildlife species may result in an uncontrolled, naturally reproducing population of that species becoming established.

(5) "Transplantation" means the release of or attempt to release, intentional or otherwise, wildlife from one place within the state into natural habitats in another part of the state.

(6) "Wildlife" means any wild mammal, bird, reptile, amphibian, fish, mollusk, crustacean, or other wild animal or the egg or offspring thereof.

Section 4. Control of importation for introduction and transplantation or introduction of wildlife. Except as otherwise provided, the importation for introduction or the transplantation or introduction of any wildlife is prohibited unless the commission determines, based upon scientific investigation and after public hearing, that a species of wildlife poses no threat of harm to native wildlife and plants or to agricultural production and that the transplantation or introduction of a species has significant public benefits.

Section 5. Control of wildlife species permitted to be transplanted or introduced. Any wildlife species listed in [section 9] or approved by the commission for introduction or transplantation may be introduced or transplanted only subject to a plan developed by the department to assure that the population can be controlled if any unforeseen harm should occur.

Section 6. Extermination or control of transplanted or introduced wildlife or feral species posing threat. With the exception of the species listed in [section 9], any wildlife or feral species transplanted or introduced in the state may be exterminated or controlled by the department if the commission, after scientific investigation by the department and after public hearing, determines that the species poses harm to native wildlife or plants or to agricultural production. If the threat of harm is immediate, the commission may by emergency rule, without hearing, authorize the department to take immediate action to control or exterminate a transplanted or introduced wildlife or feral species.

Section 7. Authority for commission to control importation generally of certain wildlife species. The commission may, after public hearing, list by administrative rule wildlife species prohibited from importation for captive breeding for research or commercial purposes or for the commercial pet trade if the commission finds, based on scientific investigation, that the species, because of behavioral traits or other biological considerations, would not be readily subject to control by man while in captivity or that if released into natural habitat would pose a substantial threat to native wildlife and plants or agricultural production.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1324 1985

Section 8. Consultation with the departments of agriculture and livestock. The commission and the department shall consult with the departments of agriculture and livestock in all matters relating to the control of wildlife species that may have a harmful effect on agricultural production or livestock operations in the state.

Section 9. Wildlife species authorized for introduction or transplantation. (1) The following wildlife species may be introduced or transplanted by the department based upon scientific investigation and upon approval of the commission:

(a) gray (Hungarian) partridge (Perdix perdix);

(b) chukar partridge (Alectoris chukar);

(c) ring-necked pheasant (Phasianus colchicus);

[HB 807]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE PROTECTION OF CERTAIN HANDICAPPED, INJURED, OR OTHERWISE SERIOUSLY ILL CHILDREN BY REQUIRING THAT THEY BE GIVEN MEDICAL TREATMENT; AMENDING SECTION 41-3-102, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 41-3-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-3-102. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1327 1985

(1) "Child" or "youth" means any person under 18 years of age.

(2) An "abused or neglected child" means a child whose normal physical or mental health or welfare is harmed or threatened with harm by the acts or omissions of his parent or other person responsible for his welfare.

(3) "Harm to a child's health or welfare" means the harm that occurs whenever the parent or other person responsible for the child's welfare:

(a) inflicts or allows to be inflicted upon the child physical or mental injury, including injuries sustained as a result of excessive corporal punishment;

(b) commits or allows to be committed a sexual assault against the child or exploits the child or allows the child to be exploited for sexual purposes or commits or allows to be committed the act of sexual abuse of children as defined in subsection (1) of 45-5-625;

(c) causes failure to thrive or otherwise fails to supply the child with adequate food or fails to supply clothing, shelter, education, or health care, though financially able to do so or offered financial or other reasonable means to do so; or

(d) abandons the child by leaving him under circumstances that make reasonable the belief that the parent or other person does not intend to resume care of the child in the future or by willfully surrendering physical custody for a period of 6 months and during that period does not manifest to the child and the person having physical custody of the child a firm intention to resume physical custody or to make permanent legal arrangements for the care of the child; or

(e) is unknown and has been unknown for a period of 90 days and reasonable efforts to identify and locate the parents have failed.

(4) "Adequate health care" means any medical or nonmedical remedial health care, including the prevention of the withholding of medically indicated treatment, permitted or authorized under state law.

(5) "Withholding of medically indicated treatment" means the failure to respond to an infant's life-threatening conditions by providing treatment (including appropriate nutrition, hydration, and medication) that, in the treating physician's or physicians' reasonable medical judgment, will be most likely to be effective in ameliorating or correcting all such conditions. However, the term does not include the failure to provide treatment (other than appropriate nutrition, hydration, or medication) to an infant when, in the treating physician's or physicians' reasonable medical judgment:

(a) the infant is chronically and irreversibly comatose;

(b) the provision of such treatment would:

(i) merely prolong dying;

(ii) not be effective in ameliorating or correcting all of the infant's life-threatening conditions; or

(iii) otherwise be futile in terms of the survival of the infant; or

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1328 1985

(c) the provision of such treatment would be virtually futile in terms of the survival of the infant and the treatment itself under such circumstances would be inhumane. For purposes of this subsection, "infant" means an infant less than 1 year of age or an infant 1 year of age or older who has been continuously hospitalized since birth, who was born extremely prematurely, or who has a long-term disability. The reference to less than 1 year of age may not be construed to imply that treatment should be changed or discontinued when an infant reaches 1 year of age or to affect or limit any existing protections available under state laws regarding medical neglect of children over 1 year of age.

(6) "Threatened harm" means imminent risk of harm.

(7) "A person responsible for a child's welfare" means the child's parent, guardian, or foster parent; an employee of a public or private residential institution, facility, home, or agency; or any other person legally responsible for the child's welfare in a residential setting.

(8) "Physical injury" means death, permanent or temporary disfigurement, or impairment of any bodily organ or function.

(9) "Mental injury" means an identifiable and substantial impairment of the child's intellectual or psychological functioning.

(10) "Dependent youth" means a youth:

(a) who is abandoned;

(b) who is without parents or guardian or not under the care and supervision of a suitable adult;

(c) who has no proper guidance to provide for his necessary physical, moral, and emotional well-being;

(d) who is destitute;

(e) who is dependent upon the public for support; or

(f) whose parent or parents have voluntarily relinquished custody of the child and whose legal custody has been transferred to a licensed agency.

(11) "Youth in need of care" means a youth who is dependent, abused, or neglected as defined in this section.

(12) "Supervision" means the authority granted by a youth court or by a voluntary agreement of a parent to determine the foster care placement of a child and the length of stay of a child in foster care and provide for the needs of a child under subsection (1) of 41-3-1122.

(13) "Department" means the department of social and rehabilitation services provided for in 2-15-2201.

(14) "Limited emancipation" means a status conferred on a dependent youth by a court after a dispositional hearing in accordance with 41-3-406 under which the youth is entitled to exercise some but not all of the rights and responsibilities of a person who is 18 years of age or older."

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1329 1985

Section 2. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Approved April 24, 1985.

AN ACT REQUIRING LENDERS TO NOTIFY MUSEUMS OF CHANGES OF ADDRESS AND TRANSFERS OF OWNERSHIP OF LOANED PROPERTY; ESTABLISHING A PROCEDURE FOR LENDERS TO PRESERVE THEIR INTERESTS IN PROPERTY LOANED TO A MUSEUM; AND VESTING TITLE TO UNCLAIMED PROPERTY IN THE MUSEUM THAT HOLDS IT; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Museum Loan Act".

Section 2. Purpose. The people of Montana have an interest in preserving and protecting objects of scientific, historic, artistic, or cultural value and making them accessible to the public. The purpose of this part is to serve this interest by establishing a uniform procedure for lenders to preserve their interests in property loaned to museums; to require lenders to notify museums of changes of address and transfers of ownership of loaned property; and to vest title to unclaimed property in the museum that holds it.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1339 1985

Section 3. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Loan" means a deposit of property not accompanied by a transfer of title to the property.

(2) "Museum" means an institution located in Montana and operated by a nonprofit corporation or a public agency primarily for educational, scientific, or aesthetic purposes, and that owns, borrows, or cares for and exhibits, studies, or catalogs property.

(3) "Property" includes any tangible object, animate or inanimate, that has intrinsic historic, artistic, scientific, or cultural value.

Section 4. Loans for an indefinite term. (1) If a museum accepts a loan of property for an indefinite term or for a term longer than 7 years, the museum must inform the lender in writing at the time of the loan of the provisions of this part.

(2) For the purposes of this part, a loan for a specified term becomes a loan for an indefinite term if the property remains in the custody of the museum after the specified term expires.

Section 5. Manner of giving notice to lender. When the provisions of this part require a museum to give notice to a lender, the museum is considered to have given notice if the museum mails the notice to the lender at the lender's address and proof of receipt is received by the museum within 30 days from the date the notice was mailed. If the museum does not have a current address for the lender or if proof of receipt is not received by the museum, notice is considered given if the museum publishes it at least once a week for 3 consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in both the county in which the museum is located and the county of the lender's most recent address as shown on the museum's records.

Section 6. Notice of intent to preserve interest. (1) The owner of property on loan to a museum may file with the museum a notice of intent to preserve an interest in the property. This notice must be in writing and must contain a description of the property adequate to enable the museum to identify the property.

(2) The filing of a notice of intent to preserve an interest in property on loan to a museum does not validate or make enforceable any claim that would be extinguished under the terms of a written loan agreement or that would otherwise be invalid or unenforceable.

(3) (a) Unless the loaned property is returned to the claimant, the museum shall retain for not less than 25 years the original or an accurate copy of any notice filed by a claimant under this section.

(b) The fact that the museum retains a notice may not be construed to mean that the notice is sufficient or accurate or that it is effective to preserve an interest in property on loan to the museum.

(4) A notice of intent to preserve an interest in property on loan to a museum satisfies the requirements of subsection (1) if it is in substantially

Section 8. Conservation or disposal of loaned property. (1) Unless there is a written loan agreement to the contrary, a museum may apply conservation measures to or dispose of property on loan to the museum without the lender's permission if immediate action is required to protect the property on loan or other property in the custody of the museum or if the property on loan has become a hazard to the health and safety of the public or the museum staff and:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1341 1985

(a) the museum is unable to reach the lender at the lender's last address of record; or

(b) is not liable for injury to or loss of the property if it:

(ii) exercised reasonable care in the choice and application of conservation measures.

Section 9. Notice of injury or loss. (1) A museum shall give a lender prompt notice of any known injury to or loss of property on loan.

(2) A notice of injury or loss must contain the lender's name, the lender's most recent address as shown on the museum's records, the date of the loan, and the name, address, and telephone number of the appropriate office or official to be contacted at the museum for information regarding the loan.

(3) If the museum is unable to give the lender the notice required by this section by mail, the museum shall publish the notice as provided in [section 5] and in addition shall include a statement containing substantially the following information:

The records of_____ indicate that you have property on loan to it. Your failure to notify it in writing of a change of address or ownership may result in the loss of rights in the loaned property. See [section 7], MCA.

Section 10. Notice of intent to terminate loan. A museum may give the lender notice of its intent to terminate a loan made for an indefinite term or for a term longer than 7 years. A notice of intent to terminate a loan must include the lender's name, the lender's most recent address as shown on the museum's records, the date of the loan, and the name, address, and telephone number of the appropriate office or official to be contacted at the museum for information regarding the loan. In addition, it must include a statement containing substantially the following information:

The records of_____
(name of museum)

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1342 1985

indicate that you have property on loan to it. The institution wishes to terminate the loan. You must contact the institution, establish your ownership of the property, and make arrangements to collect the property. If you fail to do so, you will be considered to have donated the property to the institution. See [section 4], MCA.

Section 11. Limitation on action against the museum. (1) No action may be brought against a museum for damages because of injury to or loss of property loaned to the museum more than 3 years from the date the museum gives the lender notice of the injury or loss or 10 years from the date of the injury or loss, whichever occurs earlier.

(2) No action may be brought against a museum to recover property on loan if more than 3 years have passed from the date the museum gave the lender notice of its intent to terminate the loan as provided in [section 10].

(3) No action may be brought against a museum to recover property on loan if more than 25 years have passed from the date of the last written contact between the lender and the museum, as evidenced in the museum's records.

(4) A lender is considered to have donated loaned property to the museum if the lender fails to file an action to recover the property on loan to the museum within the periods specified in subsections (1) through (3).

(5) A person who purchases property from a museum acquires good title to the property if the museum has acquired title to the property pursuant to subsection (4).

(6) Notwithstanding subsections (3) and (4), a lender who was not given notice that the museum intended to terminate a loan and who proves that the museum received a notice of intent to preserve an interest in loaned property within the 25 years immediately preceding the filing of an action to recover the property may recover the property or, if the property has been disposed of, the reasonable value of the property at the time it was disposed of plus interest at 10% a year.

Section 12. Uniform Unclaimed Property Act superseded. The provisions of [this part] supersede the provisions of Title 70, chapter 9, parts 1 through 3, except that at its option a museum may report property that has been on loan unclaimed by its owner for more than 7 years to the department of revenue for disposition as provided in Title 70, chapter 9, part 3.

(2) The department shall review the preliminary plan for compliance with [section 2] and rules adopted pursuant to [section 3] and report its approval or disapproval to the 9-1-1 jurisdiction within 90 days of receipt of the plan.

(3) A provider of telephone service in the 9-1-1 jurisdiction's service area shall, within 90 days of receipt of the plan, provide the 9-1-1 jurisdiction with a good faith estimate of the cost to the 9-1-1 jurisdiction for implementing the plan.

Section 5. Submission and approval of final plans — exception. (1) A 9-1-1 jurisdiction shall submit a proposed final plan for establishing an emergency telephone system pursuant to [section 2] within 1 year from receipt of the department's approval of its preliminary plan to:

(a) public and private safety agencies in the 9-1-1 jurisdiction;

(b) the department; and

(c) providers of telephone service in the 9-1-1 jurisdiction's service area.

(2) In addition to other matters required by [section 2], the final plan must include a description of all capital and recurring costs for the proposed emergency 9-1-1 telephone system.

(3) The department shall determine whether the final plan complies with [section 2] and rules adopted pursuant to [section 3]. Subject to [section 6], if the department determines that the plan complies, it shall approve the plan, or if the department determines that the plan does not comply, it shall disapprove the plan. The department shall inform the 9-1-1 jurisdiction of its decision within 180 days of receipt of the plan. In any statement approving a final plan, the department shall indicate a timetable in which the provider shall undertake necessary telephone system conversions. The timetable must be such that conversions may not be required unless sufficient funds to compensate the provider for its conversion costs are available within 1 year of the initial installation of the 9-1-1 system.

Section 6. Requirement for approval of final plan — department to insure compliance. The department may not approve the preliminary or final plan of a 9-1-1 jurisdiction unless the plan is accompanied by a written approval from the governing bodies of all participating public and private safety agencies included in the 9-1-1 jurisdiction.

Section 7. Agreements among safety agencies for rendering emergency services. (1) Public or private safety agencies sharing common boundaries may enter into agreements which provide that an emergency unit dispatched by an emergency telephone system established in accordance with [section 2] must render emergency services without regard to jurisdictional boundaries.

(2) A public safety agency with jurisdictional responsibilities must in all cases be notified by the public safety answering point of a request for service in the agency's jurisdiction.

Section 8. Pay phones to be converted to allow emergency calls without charge. Every provider of telephone service or other owner of a pay station telephone in an area served by an emergency telephone system established pursuant to [section 2] must convert every pay station telephone to permit dialing 9-1-1 or the telephone company operator without deposit of a coin or other charge to the caller. Conversion must be completed by or before the time the emergency telephone system is operational.

Section 9. Fee imposed for telephone exchange access services. (1) Except as provided in [section 10], a fee of 25 cents a month per access line on each service subscriber in the state is imposed on the amount charged for telephone exchange access services.

(2) The subscriber paying for exchange access line services is liable for the fee imposed by this section.

(3) The provider shall collect the fee. The amount of the fee collected by the provider is considered payment by the subscriber for that amount of fee.

(4) Any return made by the provider collecting the fee is prima facie evidence of payments by the subscribers of the amount of fees indicated on the return.

Section 10. Exemptions from fee imposed. The fee imposed by [section 9] does not apply to:

(1) services that the state is prohibited from taxing under the constitution or laws of the United States or the constitution or laws of the state of Montana; or

(2) amounts paid by depositing coins in a public telephone.

Section 11. Provider required to maintain record of collections. Every provider responsible for the collection of the fee imposed by [section 9] shall keep records, render statements, make returns, and comply with rules adopted by the department of revenue with respect to the fee. Whenever necessary in the judgment of the department of revenue, it may require the provider or subscriber to make returns, render statements, or keep records sufficient to show whether there is liability for the fee.

Section 12. Deadlines for filing returns. (1) The provider collecting the fee under [section 9] must file a return with the department of revenue on or before the last day of the month following the end of each calendar quarter, reporting the amount of fee due on exchange access line services during the quarter. Returns are subject to the penalty for false swearing provided in 45-7-202.

(2) When a return of the fee is required, the provider required to make the return shall pay the fee due the department of revenue at the time fixed for filing the return.

(3) The provider shall pay the fee based on the net amount billed for the exchange access service fee during the quarter.

(4) As used in this section, the "net amount billed for the exchange access service fee" equals the gross amount billed for such service, less adjustments for uncollectable accounts, refunds, incorrect billings, and other appropriate adjustments.

Section 13. Refund to provider for excess payment of fee. If the amount paid by a provider to the department of revenue exceeds the amount of fee owed, the department of revenue shall refund the amount of the excess payment, with interest thereon at the rate of 0.5% a month or fraction of a month from the date of payment of the excess until the date of the refund. No refund may be made to a provider who fails to claim the refund within 2 years after the due date for filing of the return with respect to which the claim for refund relates.

Section 14. Provider required to hold fee in trust for state. (1) Every provider required to collect the fee imposed by [section 9] holds it in trust for the state of Montana and for the payment thereof to the department of revenue in the manner and at the time provided by [section 12].

(2) If a provider required to collect the fee fails to remit any amount held in trust for the state of Montana or if a subscriber fails to pay the fee, the department of revenue may enforce collection by the issuance of a warrant for distraint for the collection of the delinquent amount and all penalties, interest, and collection charges accrued thereon. The warrant is governed by the provisions of Title 15, chapter 1, part 7.

Section 15. Provider considered a taxpayer under provisions for fee. Unless the context requires otherwise, the provisions of Title 15 referring to the audit and examination of reports and returns, determination of deficiency assessments, claims for refunds, penalties, interest, jeopardy assessments, warrants, conferences, appeals to the department of revenue, appeals to the state tax appeal board, and procedures relating thereto apply to [sections 9 through 14] the same as if the fee were a tax imposed upon or measured by net income. All such provisions apply to the subscriber liable for the fee and to the provider required to collect the fee. As to any amount collected and required to be remitted to the department of revenue, the fee is considered a tax upon the provider required to collect it and that provider is considered a taxpayer.

Section 16. Establishment of emergency telecommunications account. A 9-1-1 emergency telecommunications account is established in the state special revenue fund in the state treasury. All money received by the department of revenue pursuant to [section 9] must be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the account. After payment of refunds pursuant to [section 13], the balance of the account is statutorily appropriated [as provided in section 2 of House Bill No. 12] to the department to be used for the purposes described in [sections 2 through 8].

Section 17. Distribution of account by department. (1) The department shall make quarterly distributions of the entire account beginning on April 1, 1987. The distributions must be made for the following:

(a) administrative costs incurred during the preceding calendar quarter by the department of revenue in carrying out [this act]. The amount paid may not exceed 1% of the account on the date of distribution or actual expenses incurred, whichever is less.

(b) administrative costs incurred during the preceding calendar quarter by the department in carrying out its duties under [this act]. The amount paid to the department may not exceed 7% of the account on the date of distribution or actual expenses incurred, whichever is less.

(c) costs incurred during the preceding calendar quarter by each provider of telephone service in the state for:

(i) collection of the fee imposed by [section 9];

(ii) modification of central office switching and trunking equipment for emergency telephone service only; and

(iii) conversion of pay station telephones required by [section 8].

(2) Payments under subsection (1)(c) may be made only after application by the provider to the department for costs incurred in subsection (1)(c). The department shall review all applications relevant to subsection (1)(c) for appropriateness of costs claimed by the provider. If the provider contests the review, payment may not be made until the amount owed the provider is made certain.

(3) After all amounts under subsections (1) and (2) have been paid, the balance of the account must be distributed to cities within a 9-1-1 jurisdiction that have an approved final plan and to counties within a 9-1-1 jurisdiction that have an approved final plan on a per capita basis. However, each county must receive a minimum of 1% of the balance of the counties' share of the account. Cities and counties shall distribute amounts received to 9-1-1 jurisdictions within their jurisdiction. A 9-1-1 jurisdiction whose 9-1-1 service area includes more than one city or county is eligible to receive operating funds from each city or county involved.

(4) If the department through its monitoring process determines that a 9-1-1 jurisdiction is not adhering to an approved plan or is not using funds in the manner prescribed in [section 18], the department may, after notice and hearing, suspend payment to the 9-1-1 jurisdiction. The jurisdiction is not eligible to receive funds until such time as the department determines that the jurisdiction is complying with the approved plan and fund usage limitations.

Section 18. Limitation on use of funds. Money received under subsection (3) of [section 17] may be used only to pay for installing, operating, and improving an emergency telephone system using 9-1-1. Money not necessary for immediate use may be invested by the city or county. The income from the investments shall be used only for the purposes described in this section.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1356 1985

Section 19. Section 35-18-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-18-503. Annual fee to department of revenue — exemption from other taxes. Cooperatives and foreign corporations transacting business in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall pay annually on or before July 1, to the department of revenue a fee of $10 for each 100 persons or fractions thereof to whom electricity or telephone service is supplied within the state but, except as provided in [section 9], shall be exempt from all other excise and income taxes of whatsoever kind or nature."

Section 20. Coordination. If this act and House Bill No. 12 are both passed and approved, subsection (3) of section 2 of House Bill No. 12 is amended to include a reference to section 16 of this act, and the bracketed language in section 16 of this act "[as provided in section 2 of House Bill No. 12]" is effective. If House Bill No. 12 is not passed and approved, such bracketed language in section 16 of this act is void.

Section 21. Effective dates. Sections 3 and 11 are effective July 1, 1986, for the purpose of adopting rules to implement this act. The remainder of this act is effective January 1, 1987.

Approved April 25, 1985.

CHAPTER NO. 636

[HB 607]

AN ACT TO ALLOW A PRODUCTION INCENTIVE TAX CREDIT TO THE COAL SEVERANCE TAX ON INCREMENTAL PRODUCTION OF COAL MEETING CERTAIN REQUIREMENTS; LIMITING THE PERIOD DURING WHICH PRODUCTION MAY QUALIFY FOR THE CREDIT; AMENDING SECTIONS 15-35-102 AND 15-35-103, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

WHEREAS, the coal industry has claimed that Montana's 30% coal severance tax limits sales and production of Montana coal; and

WHEREAS, by providing a "window of opportunity", the Legislature challenges the coal industry to find new markets and customers for Montana coal; and

WHEREAS, the present tax base on current Montana coal production must be preserved in order to maintain existing state revenues and services.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [This section and sections 3 through 6] may be cited as the "New Coal Production Incentive Tax Credit Act of 1985".

Section 2. Section 15-35-102, MCA, is amended to read:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1357 1985

"15-35-102. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Agreement" means a signed contract that is valid under Montana law between a coal mine operator and a purchaser or broker for the sale of coal that is produced in Montana.

(2) "Base consumption level" for a purchaser means the greater of:

(a) the arithmetic average volume of coal purchased during calendar years 1983 and 1984 from all Montana coal mine operators; or

(b) 90% of the maximum tonnage provided for in any agreement executed prior to January 1, 1985, for which the highest scheduled minimum quantity of coal stipulated by the terms of the agreement as they existed on January 1, 1985, has not been purchased at any time during the term of the agreement, plus the arithmetic average volume of coal purchased during calendar years 1983 and 1984 from all Montana coal mine operators under all other agreements.

(3) "Base production level" for a coal mine operator means the arithmetic average volume of coal produced in Montana and sold to a purchaser in calendar years 1983 and 1984.

(4) "Broker" means any person who resells Montana coal.

(5) "Contract sales price" means either the price of coal extracted and prepared for shipment f.o.b. mine, excluding that amount charged by the seller to pay taxes paid on production, or a price imputed by the department under 15-35-107. Contract sales price includes all royalties paid on production, no matter how such royalties are calculated. However, with respect to royalties paid to the government of the United States, the state of Montana, or a federally recognized Indian tribe, the contract sales price includes only:

(a) for quarterly periods ending on and after September 30, 1984, 15 cents per ton plus 75% of the difference between 15 cents per ton and the amount of such federal, state, and tribal government royalties actually paid;

(b) for quarterly periods ending on and after September 30, 1985, 15 cents per ton plus 50% of the difference between 15 cents per ton and the amount of such federal, state, and tribal government royalties actually paid;

(c) for quarterly periods ending on and after September 30, 1986, 15 cents per ton plus 25% of the difference between 15 cents per ton and the amount of such federal, state, and tribal government royalties actually paid; and

(d) for quarterly periods ending on and after September 30, 1987, 15 cents per ton.

(6) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(7) "Energy conversion process" includes any process by which coal in the solid state is transformed into slurry, gas, electric energy, or any other form of energy.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1358 1985

(8) "Incremental production" means that quantity of coal produced annually by a coal mine operator and sold to a qualified purchaser that exceeds the base production level of the coal mine operator for that purchaser, but only to the extent the quantity of coal exceeds that purchaser's base consumption level from all Montana producers.

(9) "Produced" means severed from the earth.

(10) "Purchaser" means a person who purchases or contracts to purchase Montana coal directly from a coal mine operator or indirectly from a broker and who utilizes that coal in any industrial, commercial, or energy conversion process. A coal broker or any other third party intermediary is not a purchaser under the provisions of this chapter.

(11) "Qualified purchaser" means a purchaser whose purchases of Montana coal in any given year exceed his base consumption level. A purchaser of Montana coal who enters into a coal agreement with another purchaser or a broker that causes a reduction in the base consumption level of a purchaser is not a qualified purchaser.

(12) "Strip mining" or "surface mining" is defined in 82-4-203.

(13) "Taxes paid on production" includes any tax paid to the federal, state, or local governments upon the quantity of coal produced as a function of either the volume or the value of production and does not include any tax upon the value of mining equipment, machinery, or buildings and lands, any tax upon a person's net income derived in whole or in part from the sale of coal, or any license fee.

(14) "Ton" means 2,000 pounds.

(15) "Underground mining" means a coal mining method utilizing shafts and tunnels and as further defined in 82-4-203."

Section 3. New coal production incentive tax credit allowed — application limited. (1) A coal mine operator is entitled to a new coal production incentive tax credit of 33⅓% of the tax imposed under 15-35-103 on any incremental production produced and sold during calendar years 1985 and 1986.

(2) A coal mine operator is entitled to a new coal production incentive tax credit of 33⅓% of the tax imposed under 15-35-103 on incremental production for the entire term of an agreement, except as provided in subsection (3), if the incremental production resulted from coal purchases under:

(a) an existing agreement which was extended between January 1, 1985, and June 30, 1987, for at least a 5-year period; or

(b) a new agreement that was executed between January 1, 1985, and June 30, 1987.

(3) No credit may be claimed for coal produced prior to January 1, 1985.

Section 4. Calculation and application of credit. (1) The amount of new coal production incentive tax credit that a coal mine operator may claim against the tax imposed in 15-35-103 is calculated by:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1359 1985

(a) determining the incremental production for each of his qualified purchasers that was produced during a calendar year;

(b) determining the arithmetic average severance tax per ton calculated prior to application of the credit on coal sold to each qualified purchaser during the calendar year;

(c) multiplying the incremental production for a calendar year for a purchaser by the average severance tax per ton for that purchaser and multiplying the total by 33 ⅓%; and

(d) totaling the amount so calculated for all qualified purchasers.

(2) When filing the quarterly statement required in 15-35-104, a coal mine operator may claim against the coal severance tax calculated for that quarter an amount equal to 25% of the new coal production incentive tax credit allowed on incremental production that occurred during the previous calendar year.

(3) If in any calendar year a purchaser exceeds his base consumption level and he has purchased from more than one Montana coal mine operator during the year, the credit on the incremental production must be divided among the operators on a pro rata basis. To determine each coal mine operator's pro rata share of the tax credit, each operator shall divide his incremental production by the sum of all coal mine operators' incremental production for that purchaser and multiply the quotient by the purchases in excess of the base consumption level for that purchaser.

(4) Neither a coal mine operator nor a purchaser is entitled to a direct payment for the credit allowed in [section 3]. A credit terminates if not taken during the year following the year in which the incremental production occurred.

(5) Each coal mine operator must reduce the delivered price of coal sold to each qualified purchaser by an amount equal to the credit received on incremental production sold to that purchaser.

Section 5. Reporting requirements for credit — duty of department. (1) Every Montana coal mine operator must provide to the department:

(a) on or before April 30, 1985, a list showing the amount of coal produced and sold in calendar years 1983 and 1984 to every purchaser, including purchasers who obtained coal from the coal mine operator through a broker; and

(b) with the quarterly statement required by 15-35-104, a list of the number of tons produced and sold to every purchaser during the quarter and the severance tax calculated prior to the application of the credit on these tons.

(2) To be eligible for the tax credit provided for in [section 3], a coal mine operator must furnish to the department:

(a) on or before April 30, 1985, copies of all existing coal sales agreements;

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1360 1985

(b) with the quarterly statement required by 15-35-104, a copy of any new coal sales agreements or extensions of existing agreements executed during the quarter;

(c) on or before January 31 of each year:

(i) a list of incremental production for all qualified purchasers during the previous calendar year;

(ii) a written statement from each qualified purchaser verifying the volume of coal purchased in that year from all Montana coal mine operators; and

(iii) the necessary information on incremental production purchased through a broker to verify that such incremental production did not cause a reduction in the base consumption level of any other purchaser of Montana coal; and

(d) any other data, reports, evidence, or production data that may be necessary for the department to determine whether a purchaser is a qualified purchaser and the base consumption level for each purchaser.

(3) By July 1, 1985, the department shall prepare and publish for informational purposes only an unaudited compilation of the base production level for each coal mine operator and a compilation of the base consumption level for each purchaser.

(4) Any coal mine operator or purchaser may, for the purpose of determining the eligibility of coal production for the new production incentive tax credit, file with the department a petition for a declaratory ruling as provided in 2-4-501. The department shall issue a ruling on the petition within 90 days of the date the petition was filed with the department.

Section 6. Returns and taxpayer information open to public inspection — certain exceptions. (1) All information filed with the department in accordance with [section 5] is public record and open to public inspection, except the information required under [section 5(1)(b)] and the coal sales agreements specified in [section 5(2)(a) and (2)(b)].

(2) Except during proceedings before the state tax appeal board pursuant to 15-2-201, the information required under [section 5(1)(b)] and the coal sales agreements specified in [section 5(2)(a) and (2)(b)] are open to inspection only upon the order of the governor, under rules to be prescribed by the department, or upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 7. Section 15-35-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-35-103. Severance tax — rates imposed — exemptions. (1) A severance tax is imposed on each ton of coal produced in the state in accordance with the following schedule:

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1361 1985

Heating quality (Btu per pound of coal):	Surface Mining	Underground Mining
Under 7,000	12 cents or 20% of value	5 cents or 3% of value
7,000-8,000	22 cents or 30% of value	8 cents or 4% of value
8,000-9,000	34 cents or 30% of value	10 cents or 4% of value
Over 9,000	40 cents or 30% of value	12 cents or 4% of value

"Value" means the contract sales price.

(2) The formula which yields the greater amount of tax in a particular case shall be used at each point on this schedule.

(3) A person is not liable for any severance tax upon 50,000 tons of the coal he produces in a calendar year, except that if he produces more than 50,000 tons of coal in a calendar year, he will be liable for severance tax upon all coal produced in excess of the first 20,000 tons.

(4) A new coal production incentive tax credit may be claimed on certain coal as provided in [section 3]."

Section 8. Extension of rulemaking authority. The existing authority of the department of revenue under 15-35-122 to adopt rules necessary for the administration of [this act] is extended to the provisions of [this act]. Such rulemaking may begin upon passage and approval of [this act].

Section 9. Coal tax oversight subcommittee to monitor new coal production incentive tax credit. (1) The coal tax oversight subcommittee established in 5-18-201 shall review the effects of the new coal production tax credit provided in [section 3] during the 1985-86 legislative interim. This review shall include but not be limited to:

(a) the effect of the tax credit on:

(i) coal production generally;

(ii) the number and term of new agreements and extensions of existing agreements;

(iii) the retention or increase of Montana's present level of production;

(iv) the current and future markets for Montana coal in and out of the state;

(v) the physical, social, and economic environment;

(b) the extent to which the tax credit is claimed by or awarded to coal mine operators who are not entitled to it; and

(c) any other factors which may affect either present or future severance tax revenues to the state of Montana.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1362 1985

(2) The coal tax oversight subcommittee shall investigate and conduct periodic hearings for the purpose of gathering information on (1)(a) through (1)(c) above.

(3) The coal tax oversight subcommittee shall report its findings and recommendations to the revenue oversight committee during the interim, and the revenue oversight committee shall keep the legislature informed of the subcommittee's findings and present a report and recommendations to the legislature.

Section 10. Nonseverability and effect of invalidity. Each part of this act is essentially dependent upon every other part and if one part is held unconstitutional or invalid, all other parts are invalid. If a part of [this act] is declared invalid, the tax credit provided for in [this act] does not apply to any coal produced in Montana after the effective date of any such court decision.

Section 11. Codification instruction. Sections 1 and 3 through 6 are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 15, chapter 35, and the provisions of Title 15, chapter 35, apply to sections 1 and 3 through 6.

Section 12. Effective and applicability dates. (1) [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

(2) [This act] applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to all occurrences after December 31, 1984.

Approved April 25, 1985.

"7-16-2102. Authorization for tax levy for parks and certain cultural, social, and recreational facilities. (1) The board of county commissioners may annually levy on the taxable property of the county, in the same manner and at the same time as other county taxes are levied, a special tax, not to exceed 2 mills on each dollar of the taxable valuation for any one year, for the purpose of maintaining, operating, and equipping parks, cultural facilities, and any county-owned civic center, youth center, recreation center, recreational complex, or any combination thereof.

(d) finance projects located in the state upon such terms and conditions as determined by the board.

(2) The board may not operate any project as a business or in any other manner except as the lessor thereof or as may be necessary for a temporary period through the enforcement of its rights under a lease, loan agreement, or other security agreement."

Section 2. Section 17-5-1506, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-5-1506. Bonds and notes for projects and major projects. (1) The board may by resolution issue negotiable notes and bonds in a principal amount as the board determines necessary to provide sufficient funds for achieving any of its purposes, including the payment of interest on notes and bonds of the board, establishment of reserves to secure the notes and bonds, including the reserve funds created under 17-5-1515, and all other expenditures of the board incident to and necessary or convenient to carry out this part.

(2) The board may by resolution, from time to time, issue notes to renew notes and bonds or to pay notes, including interest, and whenever it considers refunding expedient, refund any bonds by the issuance of new bonds, whether or not the bonds to be refunded have matured, or issue bonds partly to refund bonds outstanding and partly for any of its other purposes.

(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided by resolution of the board, every issue of its bonds is an obligation of the board payable out of any revenue, assets, or money of the board, subject only to agreements with the holders of particular notes or bonds pledging particular revenues, assets, or money.

(4) The notes and bonds shall be authorized by resolutions of the board, bear a date, and mature at the times the resolutions provide. A note may not mature more than 5 years from the date of its issue. A bond may not mature more than 40 years from the date of its issue. The bonds may be issued as serial bonds payable in annual installments, as term bonds, or as a combination thereof. The notes and bonds of the board may be sold at public or private sale, at prices above or below par, as determined by the board, and in a manner such that interest on the bonds is either exempt from or subject to federal income tax.

(5) The bonds issued under this part are exempt from the Montana Securities Act, but copies of all prospectus and disclosure documents must be deposited with the state securities commissioner for public inspection.

(6) The total amount of bonds secured under 17-5-1515 and 17-5-1519 outstanding at any one time, except bonds as to which the board's obligations have been satisfied and discharged by refunding or bonds for which reserves for payment or other means of payment have been provided, may not exceed $75 million."

Section 3. Section 17-6-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-6-308. Authorized investments. (1) The Montana in-state investment fund must be invested in the securities authorized as permissible investments under 17-6-211 and in any other type of in-state investment authorized by rules adopted by the board. For purposes of this section, "investment" includes the guaranty of loans or bonds in consideration for a fee, in lieu of the actual acquisition of such loans or bonds.

(2) The board may use the in-state investment fund to guarantee loans or bonds issued under the provisions of 17-5-1501 through 17-5-1529, Title 17, chapter 5, part 16, or Title 90, chapter 7. Each guaranty must be given in consideration of a fee. The fees must be paid to the board. The guaranty must provide directly or by separate agreement that the board is fully subrogated to the rights of the obligee under the loan or bond. The board shall by rule establish the maximum ratio between guaranty funds available and loans or bonds to be guaranteed. The board may covenant in bond issues to maintain such ratio. Unless bonds issued to finance a project are secured by a common capital reserve account and a common guaranty fund, the maximum amount of the guaranty authorized by this section may not exceed $3,000,000 with respect to the bonds or loans to finance the project.

(3) The board may make loans from the in-state investment fund to the capital reserve account created pursuant to 17-5-1515 and the guaranty fund created pursuant to 17-5-1520 to establish balances or restore deficiencies therein. The board may agree in connection with the issuance of bonds or notes secured by such account or fund to make such loans. Loans must be on such terms and conditions as the board determines and must be repaid from revenues of the board realized from the exercise of its powers under 17-5-1501 through 17-5-1529, subject to the prior pledge of the revenues to the bonds and notes."

Section 4. Section 17-6-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-6-311. Limitation on size of investments. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), no investment may be made that will result in any one business enterprise or person receiving a benefit from or incurring a debt to the Montana in-state investment fund the total current accumulated amount of which exceeds 10% of the prior fiscal year's coal severance tax revenue deposited in the Montana in-state investment fund.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the board's authority to guarantee loans or bonds or make loans to the capital reserve account and guaranty fund as provided in 17-6-308(2) and (3)."

Section 5. Section 17-6-315, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-6-315. Service charges — loan loss reserve fund. (1) The board shall by rule establish reasonable service fees that may be charged on loans made from the Montana in-state investment fund.

(2) For both coal tax loans and industrial development bond guaranties the board may deposit service charges, and up to 0.25% of the interest on coal tax loans, to a loan loss reserve fund. The board shall use the loan loss reserve fund to protect the in-state investment fund from losses."

Section 6. Extension of authority. Any existing authority of the Montana economic development board to make rules on the subject of the provisions of this act is extended to the provisions of this act.

Section 7. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 30, 1985.

Section 7. Material safety data sheets. (1) Each chemical manufacturer or distributor shall provide a manufacturing or nonmanufacturing employer with the appropriate material safety data sheet upon delivery of a hazardous chemical.

(2) Each employer shall maintain the most current material safety data sheet for each hazardous chemical in the workplace. If a material safety data sheet has not been provided by the chemical manufacturer or distributor at the time a hazardous chemical is delivered to the employer, the employer shall request one in writing within 5 working days. Each employer shall maintain a copy of any correspondence sent or received by the employer in an effort to obtain a material safety data sheet for a hazardous chemical when none was provided by the chemical manufacturer or distributor.

(3) Material safety data sheets must be provided by the employer to any employee or designated representative upon request for review or copying.

chemical for which a material safety data sheet has already been recorded by any employer in the county.

(3) The county clerk and recorder shall record the information provided under subsection (1). The county clerk and recorder shall index the information provided under subsection (1) by workplace name and all entries for a workplace must be grouped together in the index. The index must not be combined with any other type of index.

(4) All information submitted under subsection (1) is public information and must be available at the office of the county clerk and recorder during normal working hours to any person for inspection and copying at the expense of the person requesting copies.

(5) The local fire chief shall inspect all information maintained by the county clerk and recorder on workplace hazardous chemicals.

(6) The local fire chief must be permitted onsite inspection of hazardous chemicals in any workplace, including workplaces under the control of a state agency, for the purposes of planning fire department activities in case of an emergency and reviewing compliance with [this act]. For a workplace that employs fire safety personnel, the local fire chief shall consult with the responsible fire safety official to clarify respective roles and response procedures in the event of an emergency.

(7) As a result of an inspection, the local fire chief may note and report for possible action by the county attorney or other appropriate law enforcement official any violation by an employer of a provision of [this act] or any other law pertaining to hazardous chemicals or fire safety.

(8) The local fire chief shall consult at least annually on safety and emergency considerations with each person responsible for the operation of any research, educational, or testing laboratory workplace. The consultation may result in recommendations or, under the provisions of 50-62-108, orders by the fire chief to be implemented by the laboratory operator to enhance public safety, to reduce the likelihood of emergency incidents, or to improve emergency response in the event of an accident. The person responsible for the operation of the laboratory shall contact the local fire chief at any time there is a significant change in the location or nature of the hazardous chemicals in the workplace, initiation of any new and potentially dangerous method of processing or reacting hazardous chemicals, or any other operational change affecting emergency response considerations.

Section 10. Employee rights. (1) An employee who may be exposed to hazardous chemicals must be informed of the potential or actual exposure and must be provided access to the workplace chemical list and to the material safety data sheet for each hazardous chemical. An employer who does not provide an employee with information on a hazardous chemical within 5 working days of the request for information, as required by [this act], may not require the employee to work with the hazardous chemical until the information is made available.

(2) Each employee must receive training from his employer, as provided in [section 12] or in the OSHA standard, on the hazards of workplace chemicals and on protective measures for handling those chemicals.

HeinOnline -- 1985 vol. II 1374 1985

(3) Each employee required to work with a hazardous chemical must be provided with appropriate personal protective equipment.

(4) No employer shall discharge, cause to be discharged, discipline, discriminate against, or initiate any adverse personnel action against any employee who exercises his rights, testifies, or assists others in exercising their rights or duties under [this act].

(5) A waiver by an employee of the benefits, rights, or requirements of [this act] is against public policy and is void. An employer's request or requirement that an employee waive any rights under [this act] as a condition of employment is a violation of [this act].

(6) A designated representative may act on behalf of an employee in pursuing any right or enforcement remedy under [this act].

Section 11. Trade secret confidentiality. (1) An employer who believes that the name of a hazardous chemical is a trade secret may withhold the chemical name from the material safety data sheet and workplace chemical list only if:

(a) a material safety data sheet, coded to an identifying notation on each container of the hazardous chemical, is available in the work area where the hazardous chemical is present;

(b) the material safety data sheet discloses the properties and effects of the hazardous chemical;

(c) the specific chemical identity is provided to a treating physician or nurse in the event of a medical emergency, as provided for in subsection (i)(2) of the OSHA standard;

(d) the specific chemical identity is provided in nonemergency situations to a health professional providing medical or other occupational health services to an exposed employee, as provided for in subsections (i)(3) through (5) of the OSHA standard; and

(e) the employer claims that the information is a trade secret and that claim can be supported.

(2) If a person believes that disclosing certain trade information on a material safety data sheet will reveal a trade secret, a trade secret claim may be filed with the department, which shall use this procedure to determine the validity of the trade secret claim:

(a) The department shall give notice by certified mail to the person making the claim to submit trade secret substantiation information within 30 days after receipt of such notice. Failure to supply the substantiation information constitutes a waiver of the trade secret claim.

(b) The department has the responsibility to determine the validity of the trade secret claim and shall consider the trade secret substantiation information as confidential.

(c) If the department determines the trade secret claim is not valid, the department shall so notify by certified mail the person making the claim for trade secret protection, stating the basis for the decision. The person making the claim has 30 days after notification by the department to initiate judicial review in the district court of Lewis and Clark County and obtain a preliminary injunction or other court order to prevent disclosure of the trade secret.

(d) The unauthorized use or disclosure of trade secret information submitted under this section is a misdemeanor.

Section 12. Employee education program. (1) Each employer shall provide, at least annually, an education and training program for all his employees using or handling hazardous chemicals. Additional instruction must be provided whenever the potential for exposure to hazardous chemicals is altered or whenever new and significant information is received by the employer concerning the hazards of a chemical. New or newly assigned employees must be provided training before working with or in a work area containing a hazardous chemical.

(2) The programs must provide instruction in:

(a) interpreting labels and material safety data sheets and the relationship between these two methods of hazard communication;

(b) the location and acute and chronic effects of hazardous chemicals used by the employees; and

(c) the safe handling, protective equipment, first-aid treatment, and cleanup and disposal procedures for hazardous chemicals.

(3) The employer shall keep a record of the dates of training sessions given to employees and the names of the employees attending.

Section 13. Departmental information program. (1) The department may develop and provide to any employer a suitable form of notice to inform employees of their rights under [this act].

(2) The department may develop an education and training program to assist employers in complying with the provisions of [section 10].

(3) The department may develop and distribute a supply of informational leaflets on employer duties, employee rights, the effects of hazardous chemicals, and any other topic related to hazardous chemicals in the workplace.

(4) The department may contract with the Montana university system or any other public or private organization to develop and implement an information program on hazardous chemicals in the workplace.

Section 14. Construction of act. The provision of information to an employee does not in any way affect the liability of an employer with regard to the health and safety of an employee or other person exposed to hazardous chemicals, nor does it affect the employer's responsibility to take any action to prevent the occurrence of occupational disease or accident as required under any other provision of law. The provision of information to an employee does not affect any other duty of a manufacturer, producer, or formulator to warn ultimate users of a hazardous chemical under any other provision of law.

Section 15. Complaints, investigation, and penalties. (1) An employee in a workplace covered by the OSHA standard who believes his employer is not complying with the provisions of the OSHA standard may report the alleged violation to the federal occupational safety and health administration.

(2) An employee who believes an employer is not complying with the provisions of [this act] may submit a written complaint to the local health officer, as defined and described in Title 50, chapter 2, part 1.

(3) If the local health officer chooses to act on the complaint, he shall:

(a) within 5 working days of receipt of the complaint, investigate the complaint and, in the event of an apparent violation, seek a corrective response from the employer;

(b) within 10 working days of receipt of a complaint, complete a report that details the findings of the investigation and the response of the employer;

(c) upon completion of the report, submit copies to the employee requesting the investigation, the county attorney, and the employer; and

(d) if the evidence suggests that the employer has violated the provisions of [this act] and the health officer does not receive a corrective response within 10 days of notifying the employer of the violation, file a complaint in the appropriate court or request appropriate action by the county attorney to prosecute the alleged violation.

(4) An employee may submit a written complaint to the county attorney.

(5) The county attorney shall investigate any complaint received and, if a violation appears to have occurred and the county attorney does not receive a corrective response within 10 days of notifying the employer of the violation, initiate appropriate court proceedings to prosecute the violation.

(6) A person found to be knowingly in violation of [this act] is guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of violation is a separate offense.

Section 16. Severability. If a part of this act is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of this act is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 17. Effective date. This act is effective November 25, 1985.

Approved April 30, 1985.

Section 1. Section 20-5-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-5-311. High school tuition. (1) Any child may be enrolled in and attend a high school outside of the high school district in which he resides when such high school is located in Montana or in a county of another state that is adjacent to the state of Montana. When a parent or guardian of a child wishes to have his child attend a school under the provisions of this section, he shall apply to the county superintendent of the county of his residence before July 1 of the school fiscal year for which he seeks approval except in those cases when substantial changes in circumstances occurred subsequently to justify later application. Such application shall be made on a tuition agreement form supplied by the county superintendent. The trustees of the district of residence, the trustees of the district in which the child wishes to attend school, and the county superintendent are the approval agents for tuition to another high school within the county. The county superintendent of the county of residence and the trustees of the district in which the child wishes to attend school are the approval agents for attendance outside the county.

(b) However, the approval agents are not required to approve a tuition application for a student seeking to attend a high school outside the state of Montana or the resident district if the resident district provides transportation. This exception does not apply when:

(i) the child resides in a county different than the county wherein the school he wishes to attend is located; or

(ii) the child has enrolled in a high school outside his resident district and has received an approved tuition agreement on or before [the effective date of this act]. For the purposes of this subsection (2)(b)(iii), the child has the right to continue his high school education in the receiving high school outside his resident district on an approved tuition agreement, subject to the provisions of this section.

(c) In approving a tuition agreement under this provision, the approval agents may require the child to attend the high school closest to his residence. The approval agents may approve any other tuition application that satisfies the geographic requirements of this section.

(3) The trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school shall approve or disapprove any tuition application submitted to them under the provisions of this section within 15 days after the receipt of the application.

(4) The county superintendent shall notify the parent or guardian and the trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school of the tuition agreement approval or disapproval. If a tuition agreement is disapproved by one or more approval agents, the parent may appeal such disapproval to the county superintendent and, subsequently, to the superintendent of public instruction under the provision for the appeal of controversies in this title.

(5) The approval of any tuition agreement by all of the applicable approval agents or upon appeal shall authorize the child named in such agreement to enroll in and attend the school named in such agreement for the ensuing school fiscal year."

another state that is adjacent to the state of Montana. When a parent or guardian of a child wishes to have his child attend a school under the provisions of this section, he shall apply to the county superintendent of the county of his residence before July 1 of the school fiscal year for which he seeks approval except in those cases when substantial changes in circumstances occurred subsequently to justify later application. Such application shall be made on a tuition agreement form supplied by the county superintendent. The trustees of the district of residence, the trustees of the district in which the child wishes to attend school, and the county superintendent are the approval agents for tuition to another high school within the county. The county superintendent of the county of residence and the trustees of the district in which the child wishes to attend school are the approval agents for attendance outside the county.

(2) (a) The approval agents shall approve a tuition application when a child lives closer to a high school of another district than any high school located within his resident district or when, due to road or geographic conditions, it is impractical to attend the high school nearest his residence. In approving such a tuition application the approval agents are not required to approve a tuition application for a student seeking to attend a high school outside the state of Montana if the resident district provides transportation. In approving a tuition agreement under this provision, the approval agents may require the child to attend the high school closest to his residence. The approval agents may approve any other tuition application that satisfies the geographic requirements of this section.

(b) The approval agents shall approve a tuition application when a child is required to attend high school outside the district of residence as the result of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction. For purposes of this subsection (b), the following do not apply:

(i) the prescribed geographic relationship of the receiving district to the district of residence in this subsection (2); or

(ii) an order issued under Title 40, chapter 4, part 2.

(3) The trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school shall approve or disapprove any tuition application submitted to them under the provisions of this section within 15 days after the receipt of the application.

(4) The county superintendent shall notify the parent or guardian and the trustees of the district where the child wishes to attend school of the tuition agreement approval or disapproval. If a tuition agreement is disapproved by one or more approval agents, the parent may appeal such disapproval to the county superintendent and, subsequently, to the superintendent of public instruction under the provision for the appeal of controversies in this title.

(5) The approval of any tuition agreement by all of the applicable approval agents or upon appeal shall authorize the child named in such agreement to enroll in and attend the school named in such agreement for the ensuing school fiscal year."

A resolution to reduce board membership may not require resignation of any member prior to completion of his appointed term.

Section 10. Term of office. (1) Three of the members who are first appointed must be designated to serve for terms of 1, 2, and 3 years, respectively, from the date of their appointments, and two must be designated to serve for terms of 4 years from the date of their appointment. (2) After initial appointment, members must be appointed for a term of office of 4 years, except that a vacancy occurring during a term must be filled for the unexpired term. A member shall hold office until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

Section 14. Annual budget and work plan — approval — procedure — tax. (1) At a time determined by the governing body, the board shall submit to the governing body for approval a work plan and budget for the ensuing fiscal year.

(2) Following public notice that a work plan and budget have been submitted and that the governing body will levy an assessment to defray the cost of the work plan and budget, the governing body shall hold a public hearing on objections to the work plan and budget. After the hearing, the governing body may modify the work plan and budget as it considers necessary and appropriate.

(3) After approval of the work plan and budget and to defray the cost thereof for the next fiscal year, the governing body shall by resolution levy an assessment upon all of the property in the district using as a basis one of the methods prescribed in [section 15].

(4) A copy of the resolution shall be delivered to the treasurer of the local government to be placed on the tax roll and collected in the same manner as other taxes.

Section 15. Assessment of costs — area, lot, and taxable valuation options. (1) At the same time the board submits the annual budget and work plan to the governing body as provided in [section 14], the board shall also recommend to the governing body a method of levying an assessment on the property within the district which will best ensure that the assessment on each lot or parcel is equitable in proportion to the benefits to be received.

(2) The governing body shall annually assess the entire cost of the district against the entire district using a method which best ensures that the assessment on each lot or parcel is equitable in proportion to the benefits to be received. In determining the method of assessment to be used, the governing body shall consider the recommendations of the board. The governing board shall levy the assessment using one of the following methods:

(d) by using any combination of the assessment options provided in subsections (a) through (c).

Section 16. Duration of district. The period of duration of a business improvement district is for the period specified in the resolution of the governing body creating the district but shall not be for a period longer than 10 years unless the duration of the district is extended in compliance with the provisions of [this act] for the creation of a district.

Section 17. Governing body not to decrease public services. The governing body may not decrease the level of public services in the district existing prior to the creation of the district unless the services at the same time are decreased throughout the jurisdictional area of the governing body, nor may it transfer the financial burden of providing those services to the district. The governing body may not discriminate in the provision of publicly funded services between areas included in such district and areas not so included.

Section 18. Liability insurance required. The governing body may not approve the annual budget or the work plan submitted to it by the board unless the annual budget and the work plan provide for liability insurance coverage insuring the district, the board, and the local government against legal liability for personal injury and property damage in an amount determined sufficient for that purpose by the governing body.

Section 19. Limitation on local government liability. An obligation or debt of any nature of a district is not an obligation or debt of the local government that established the district, and in no event is a debt or obligation of a district payable out of any funds or properties of the local government. The debts and obligations of a district are payable solely from the funds and properties of the district.

Section 20. Effective date. This act is effective on passage and approval.
